Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 9.

.14 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this Agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end an arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact his/her steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. This clause shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve disciplinary action.

(b) A steward shall have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and to have a local union representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the steward believes might be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

- (b) the resignation must indicate the reason for termination;
- (c) the break in service shall be for no longer than four (4) years; and during that time the employee must not have been engaged in remunerative employment for more than six (6) months;

Wherever employees are relatively equal in ability and qualifications, the senior employee applying shall receive such job. For the purpose of this Article, "qualifications" shall be taken to mean relevant education, training and experience. If there is a dispute as to whether any employee has the ability to perform the job in question, he/she shall be placed on such job to determine whether or not he/she has the ability.
- (b) The vacancy referred to in (a) shall not be advertised externally prior to the seventy-two (72) hour time period prescribed above.
- (c) It is understood that employees may apply for lower paid jobs, higher paid jobs, and for lateral transfers.

The Employer agrees to provide essential orientation for employees assigned to new jobs.

.6 Positions Temporarily Vacant

.7 On-The-Job Training

(a) The local supervisor shall be responsible for providing job training to employees filling vacant or new positions.

(b) New employees and temporary employees on layoff may be called in for training outside the normal seniority block, but the time spent in training will not be calculated for seniority purposes and shall not exceed five (5) days in duration. The Employer will attempt to schedule such training periods at mutually convenient times for the Employer and the employees.

- (c) The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to ensure training is done on a fair and equitable basis.

- (h) No employee shall be required to be cross-trained.

- LAYOFF AND RECALL

.1 Layoff and Recall

(a) Layoff

In the event of layoff resulting from a decrease in the amount of work to be done, the following shall apply:

- (1) temporary employees shall be laid off by classification, in reverse order of service seniority, prior to regular employees;
- (2) regular employees shall be laid off in reverse order of service seniority within a classification;
- (3) An employee identified in (2) above may opt to "displace" an employee with less service seniority in the classification series if the employee identified in (2) above is qualified and able to carry out the work that remains available, with cross-training, as per Article 12.7, while maintaining the same rate of pay.

(b) Recall

Regular employees on layoff shall be recalled in order of service seniority within a classification series, provided the worker is qualified and able to do the work which is available. - (1) absence on a WCB claim;
- (2) maternity leave, parental leave, or adoption leave;

.2 Advance Notice

(a) The Employer shall notify regular employees, who are to be laid off, twenty (20) work days prior to the effective date of layoff. If the employee has not had the opportunity to work twenty (20) full days after notice of layoff, he/she shall be paid in lieu of work for that part of the twenty (20) days during which work was not made available. Within the initial twenty (20) days from notification of layoff the Employer may extend the layoff date without giving a further twenty (20) days' notice.

(b) Notwithstanding Clause 13.2(a), a regular employee may be recalled to work for periods of less than twenty (20) days with the then current layoff still in effect. In such cases, it is agreed that the Employer will not be required to give the employee twenty (20) days notice of layoff, or pay in lieu of notice.

Regular and seasonal employees shall initially be given the expected duration of their employment which may be extended in accordance with Clause 13.2.

.4

Upon qualification, and for as long as they maintain more than nine hundred and seventy-five (975) hours worked in a rolling twelve (12) month averaging period, seasonal and regular employees will receive basic Medical Services Plan and Dental Plan coverage whether working or on layoff with the premiums to be paid for by the Employer.

- HOURS OF WORK

.1 Hours of Work

The annual hours of work, exclusive of meal periods taken away from the work station but including paid holidays, will be one thousand, nine hundred and fifty (1,950), which is equivalent to an average of thirty-seven and one-half (37½) hours per week. The one thousand, nine hundred and fifty (1,950) annual hours means that all work schedules will be based on that figure. Due to varying lengths of the calendar and work years and the varying times that employees may begin and end their work schedules, an employee will be required to work an average of one thousand, nine hundred and fifty (1,950) hours.

.2 Hours of Work

(a) This Agreement shall establish shift patterns, length of scheduled work days and, where appropriate, averaging periods to meet the annual hours of work.

(c) The Employer's designate and the employees' representative at the local level will establish work schedules based upon the hours of work clauses in this Agreement and the provisions of this Article including the following:

(1) where agreement can be reached, the Joint Consultation Committee will recommend a proposed schedule to the employees' representative and the Employer's designate;

(2) if either party wishes a change to existing work schedules it shall provide the other party with the earliest possible advance notice in writing;

(3) if a change is requested only at the local level, the notice shall be given to the appropriate Union steward or designated Employer representative. If a change is requested which involves more than one (1) worksite, notice shall be given to the President of the Union or designate;

(4) the parties shall have fourteen (14) days, from the date notice is given, to reach agreement on work schedules;

(5) if the parties are unable to reach agreement within fourteen (14) days either party may refer the matter to the arbitrator pursuant to Article 9 and the terms of reference within this Article.

(b)

(1) The arbitrator shall base his/her decision on the criteria to be applied in this section.

(c) The parties recognize that in reaching mutual agreement on work schedules, or where the arbitrator is determining a schedule in accordance with the provisions of this Article, the following will also apply:

(1) work schedules shall meet the hours of operation and shall consider unusual or seasonal demands and functionally linked work groups within and without the bargaining unit;

(2) work schedule changes, within existing hours of operation, must not result in increased cost to the Employer and where possible shall result in decreased cost to the Employer and/or improved efficiency and/or improved service to the customer. The onus of proof shall be on the Employer to prove decreased cost;

(3) consideration shall also be given to employee preferences.

(d) In the event there is a dispute between the parties at the local level, the Employer may implement, by utilizing "temporary" employees on an interim basis, a new or changed work schedule by giving fourteen (14) days' notice. The casual employees work day shall not be scheduled beyond seven (7) to seven and one-half (7½) hours. However, under extenuating circumstances the fourteen (14) days' notice may be concurrent with the period of notice in (c)(4) above.

(e) Once work schedules have been agreed to employees shall have the right to sign up for scheduled shifts in order of seniority.

.2 Conversion of Hours

(a) Lieu Days

Where an employee is granted a lieu day pursuant to Clauses 17.3 or 17.4, the time off granted will be seven and one-half (7½) hours per lieu day for a full-time employee and prorated for a temporary employee.

(d) Vacation

Where an employee is granted vacation pursuant to Clause 18.1, the annual vacation entitlement shall be converted to hours on the basis of a seven and one-half (7½) hour day and vacation taken shall be deducted in accordance with the actual hours of the employee's daily shift in effect at the time the vacation is taken.

.3 Rest Periods

All employees shall have two (2), fifteen (15) minute rest periods in each work period in excess of six (6) hours, one (1) rest period to be granted before and one (1) after the meal period. Rest periods shall be taken without loss of pay to the employees.

- (b) The full-time employee on flextime who has a day of absence, whether with or without pay, will be deemed to be absent for seven and one-half (7½) hours, providing at least seven and one-half (7½) hours are required to complete the averaging period. If less than seven and one-half (7½) hours are required to complete the averaging period, such number of hours will be deemed to be hours of absence.
- (c) Pursuant to (a) above, employees or groups of employees may be given the authority to work flextime by mutual agreement between the parties.
- (d) The work day for those employees on flextime shall not exceed nine (9) hours.
- (e) Scheduling of flextime off shall be taken at mutually-agreed times.

The shift patterns shall be either five (5) days on and two (2) days off or four (4) days on and two (2) days off unless otherwise agreed to by the parties to this Agreement. 2. All Other Coverage in the Group Insurance Benefits Program: on the first of the month following the attainment of regular status (i.e., the completion of nine hundred and seventy-five (975) hours of continuous service).

If you are disabled and not available for work on the date your benefits would normally become effective, they will commence on your return to work on a regular basis.

If an employee does not enrol within thirty (30) days after becoming eligible, the insurer has the right to ask for evidence of good health.

Dependents of eligible employees become eligible on the same date as the employee. Any additional dependents become eligible on the first day of the month following marriage or acquisition of dependents, and provided application to insure such dependents is made within thirty-one (31) days, no evidence of health is required.

Any mentally retarded or physically handicapped child may remain insured past the maximum age provided the child is incapable of self-sustaining employment and is wholly dependent on you for support and maintenance.

Report of Changes:

To record a change of beneficiary, or a change of name, or the number of dependents, it is the employee's responsibility to notify the Plan Administrator of such changes, and complete the appropriate forms.

Termination of Employment:

All coverage except life insurance under this plan will cease at the termination of your employment. Life insurance coverage continues for the thirty-one (31) day period following the date of termination.

Salary or Earnings:

For the purpose of the plan, "earnings" shall be the regular basic salary or earnings, excluding overtime.

Cost Sharing:

The cost of all plans excepting Voluntary Group Term Life and Optional Accidental Death and Dismemberment is paid for totally by the Employer. Voluntary Group Term Life and Optional Accidental Death and Dismemberment premiums are paid for entirely by the employee who requests the optional coverage.

The purpose of this booklet is to give you a brief description of the plan and its benefits in general terms. It is not considered a contract. The exact terms and conditions of the plan are set forth in the Group Master Policies issued by the Insurance Companies.

All Other Benefits--to obtain claim forms, please contact the Plan Administrator.

SHORT TERM DISABILITY PLAN

If you are disabled as a result of an illness, benefits will commence on the fourth day of such illness and will be paid for as long as fifteen (15) weeks.

If you are disabled as a result of a non-occupational accident, benefits will commence on the first day and be payable for as long as fifteen (15) weeks.

The benefits will be sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) of your weekly earnings to the Unemployment Insurance Commission maximum level of insurable earnings.

The maximum benefit in 1987 is three hundred fifty-three dollars ($353) per week.

Benefits will be reduced by any amounts received from any government plan.

LONG TERM DISABILITY INSURANCEBenefit Payable:

After one hundred and four (104) days' absence due to illness or injury, should an employee remain disabled, she or he will receive an income from this plan equal to sixty percent (60%) of your earnings at the time of becoming disabled, to a maximum benefit of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500) per month.

Benefit Payment Period:

An employee will be eligible for a first income payment from the plan after having been totally disabled throughout the qualifying period of one hundred and four (104) days. Payments will be made at the end of each calendar month.

If after a period of disability during which benefits are received from this plan, an employee returns to work on a full-time and full-pay basis and then again becomes totally disabled, by the same cause, within six (6) months of returning to work, the later period of disability will be considered as a continuation of the previous period of disability.

If, however, a subsequent disability occurs which is unrelated to the previous disability a new period of disability will be established requiring a one hundred and four (104) day qualifying period.

The benefit is payable each month for as long as total disability lasts, but not beyond age sixty-five (65).

If this insurance terminates -- for any reason -- while an employee is totally disabled, eligibility for income benefits will continue.

Definition of Total Disability:

During the first two (2) years of benefit payments, total disability is defined as an employee's inability, because of sickness or bodily injury which requires the regular and personal attendance of a physician, to perform the duties of his/her occupation. After having received benefits for two (2) years a total disability is defined as the inability to perform any duties of any occupation for which an employee is reasonably qualified by education, training or experience.

Proof that an employee continues to be totally disabled will be required at reasonable intervals by the Insurance Company. If an employee fails to furnish such proof, or if an employee refuses to be examined by a physician, an employee will no longer be considered to be totally disabled.

Exclusions:

The Long Term Disability Benefit is not payable for any disability or loss resulting directly or indirectly:

- (a) while an employee is on or could be placed on pregnancy/maternity leave, or in accordance with the Employment Standards Act 1974, Ontario or any other relevant provincial statutes; or from
- (b) self-inflicted sickness or injury while sane or insane;
- (c) war or hostilities of any kind;

Premium Waiver:

If an employee becomes totally disabled prior to his sixty-fifth (65th) birthday, all premiums for the employee and his family, falling due after six (6) months continuous disability, will be waived while disability continues until such time as insurance would normally terminate.

The parties shall forthwith implement the following expedited arbitration procedure collateral to that procedure set out in Article 9 of the Master Agreement. This expedited procedure shall continue in full force and effect until the end of the Collective Agreement. In the meantime, the parties shall undertake a general study of expedited arbitration procedures through a joint committee composed of an equal number of representatives of each party. If no other system of expedited arbitration or no modification of the herein procedure is agreed by the parties by that date, then this expedited procedure shall be incorporated with prospective effect into Article 9 of the Master Agreement.

1. The parties shall meet every four (4) months or as often as required to review outstanding grievances filed with the Labour Relations Board to determine by mutual agreement those grievances suitable for this process, and shall set dates and locations for hearings of groups of grievances considered suitable for expedited arbitration.

All grievances shall be considered suitable for and resolved by expedited arbitration except grievances in the nature of:

- (a) dismissals;
- (b) rejection on probation;
- (c) suspensions in excess of ten (10) work days;
- (d) policy grievances;
- (e) grievances requiring substantial interpretation of a provision of the Master or a Component Agreement;
- (f) grievances relating to Article 14 of the Master Agreement;
- (g) grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence;
- (h) grievances where a party intends to raise a preliminary objection;
- (i) demotions.

By mutual agreement, a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process.

2. The parties shall mutually agree upon single arbitrators who shall be appointed to hear and resolve groups of grievances.
3. The arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two (2) working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.
4. Arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.
5. All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.
6. A grievance determined by either party to fall within one of the categories listed in (1) above, may be removed from the expedited arbitration process at any time prior to hearing and forwarded to a regular arbitration hearing pursuant to Article 9.2.

3. In light of this mutual recognition the parties have agreed to the following:
 - (a) For the purpose of technological change the Employer agrees to provide the Union with as much notice as possible, but in any event not less than sixty (60) days notice of a technological change.
 - (b) Upon receipt of a notice of technological change established under Article 7.5, the Joint Consultation Committee shall meet to consult on the impact of the proposed change.
 - (c) The written notice identified above will provide the following information:
 - (i) the nature of the change(s);
 - (ii) the anticipated date(s) on which the Employer plans to effect change(s);

Where the employee cannot meet job requirements upon completion of the training and familiarization period, the employee shall be offered vacancy options as per Article 13, or severance pay.
 - (ii) To absorb those regular employees who are not assigned by the Employer to work with the new technology or who are displaced because of such technological change, the Employer will endeavour to utilize normal turnover of employees to the extent that turnover occurs during the period in which a technological change is being implemented.
 - (iii) When necessary to reduce staff due to technological change, it will be done as provided for in Article 13.

For purposes of this Appendix, "Technological Change" shall not include normal layoffs resulting from a reduction of the amount of work required to be done.

Introduction of Technological Change

Where the Employer introduces or intends to introduce a technological change that:
