- (a) has successfully completed his/her probationary period;
- (b) makes him/herself available to the Employer for full-time employment.

Full-time Employees shall be entitled to all benefits provided by the Collective Agreement from the date of hire.

4.02 Part-Time Employee

- (a) A “Part-time Employee” is an Employee who works less than the regular hours for that classification, per week. Part-time Employees whose hours of work in each of the previous twelve (12) months were consistently more than 50% of the normal full-time hours for that classification, and are expected to continue to exceed 50% in the foreseeable future, shall have the option of enrolling in medical, dental, and extended health care benefits, and shall be entitled to sick leave accumulation and bereavement leave on a pro rata basis, and shall receive 4.4% in lieu of Statutory/Paid Holiday pay and the applicable vacation percentage pay, as set out in Article No. 15, with the Employee’s cumulative hours worked determining entitlement, or shall receive a benefit allowance of 12% in lieu of annual vacation, statutory holidays, sick leave accumulation, bereavement leave, and all other benefits, as provided in Article No. 19 of this Agreement. Premium costs for medical, dental, and extended health care benefits shall be on a pro rata basis.
- (b) Where a Part-time Employee’s hours are reduced such that the Employee no longer qualifies for medical, dental, and extended health care benefits, or other benefits as defined in paragraph (a) above, coverage and benefits will cease at the end of the month in which the hours are reduced, and the Employee shall be paid a percentage pursuant to paragraph (c) below.
- (c) Part-time Employees, who consistently work less than 50% of the normal full-time hours of work for that classification, and who do not qualify for benefits as stated in paragraph (a) above, shall receive a benefit allowance of 12% in lieu of annual vacation, statutory holidays, sick leave accumulation, bereavement leave, and all other benefits as provided in Article No. 19 of this Agreement.

4.03 Temporary Employee

A “Temporary Employee” is one who is employed on a special project of limited duration not exceeding six (6) calendar months. The period of employment may be extended beyond six (6) calendar months by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer. The time limit for Temporary Employees shall not apply where an Employee is hired as a result of a temporary vacancy due to maternity leave, sick leave, other approved leave, or Workers’ Compensation. A Temporary Employee shall receive a benefit allowance of 12% in lieu of annual vacation, statutory holidays, sick leave benefits, bereavement leave, and medical, dental, and extended health benefits as defined in Article No. 19.

Full- and Part-time Employees moving into a temporary position shall retain all benefits to permit moving in and out of their regular employment without loss of benefits or seniority.

4.04 Probationary Employee

Every Employee is hired on probation to determine suitability for employment. No Employee shall be required to serve more than one (1) probationary period, except where an Employee terminates employment with the Employer and is rehired at a later date.

4.05 Probation Period

The probation period shall be the first three (3) months worked from date of hire, or equivalent, with the Employer. Part-time Employees are required to put in the equivalent hours worked of a Regular Full-time Employee with respect to the probationary period. Such period of time may be extended by mutual consent of the Parties. During this period, competence and suitability of the Employee shall be determined at the sole discretion of the Employer. A Probationary Employee may be terminated at any time during the probationary period, without notice, if the Employer does not find the Employee competent and suitable for employment.

A Probationary Employee shall not be granted Regular Employee status, and shall have no seniority rights until completion of the probationary period.

4.06 Employment of Students

The Union agrees that the Employer shall have the right to employ students in any Federal or Provincial make-work program, and to pay only wages set out in the conditions governing such programs. Students employed under this Section shall not be used to replace any Regular Employee.

Employees hired for recognized education co-op programs, work experience programs, or specialized projects for which grant funding is not available, but which the Parties agree are within the intent of this Article, shall be deemed Student Employees.

ARTICLE NO. 5 GRIEVANCE/ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

5.01 Disputes

Any complaints arising from the workplace shall first be discussed with the immediate supervisor.

Should any difference arise between the persons bound by this Agreement concerning its interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation thereof, there shall be no stoppage of work on account of such difference, and the dispute shall be adjusted in accordance with the following procedure:

5.02 Procedural Steps

(a) Step No. 1

Any grievance of an Employee shall first be discussed between such Employee and the immediate supervisor within the following time limits:

- (i) termination or lay-off - within seven (7) working days following the occurrence giving rise to the grievance;
- (ii) all others grievances - within ten (10) working days following the occurrence giving rise to the grievance.

The Employee may be accompanied by a Shop Steward.

(b) Step No. 2

Failing settlement under Step No. 1, such grievance shall be submitted, in writing, to the Officer In Charge of Support Services (O.I.C.) within fifteen (15) working days following the occurrence giving rise to the grievance. The O.I.C. shall reply, in writing, within the next ten (10) working days.

(c) Step No. 3

Failing settlement under Step No. 2, the matter may be referred to a Grievance Committee, in writing, within ten (10) working days following the conclusion of Step No. 2. Each side shall be limited to four (4) representatives. If the Parties are unable to settle the grievance within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the notice referring it to Step No. 3, then either Party may give written notice to proceed to arbitration.

5.03 Arbitration Procedure

- (a) Failing settlement under Step No. 3, either Party may give written notice to proceed to arbitration within one (1) month following the meeting at Step No. 3. Either Party shall notify the other, in writing, of the name of its chosen representative on the Arbitration Board. After receiving such notice, the other Party shall, within seven (7) working days, appoint its representative on the Arbitration Board and give notice of such appointment to the other Party. Such representatives shall endeavour to select a third member who shall be Chairman. Should the representatives fail to select a third member within seven (7) working days from the appointment of the last representative, either Party may request the Minister of Labour of the Province of British Columbia to appoint a Chairman. The costs of the representatives will be borne by the respective Parties. The costs of the Chairman will be borne equally between the Parties.

No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all previous steps of the grievance procedure, except by mutual agreement of the Parties.

- (b) The Parties may refer the matter, by mutual agreement, to a single arbitrator. The costs of the arbitrator will be borne equally by the Parties.

5.04 Time Limits

Time limits under the Grievance Procedure may be extended by mutual consent of the Parties and confirmed in writing.

5.05 Employer Grievance

If the Employer has a complaint with respect to the provisions of the Collective Agreement, the Employer will submit such complaints to the Union. The complaint will be submitted at Step No. 3 of the Grievance Procedure contained in this Agreement within ten (10) working days of the occurrence giving rise to the complaint. If the complaint is not settled within twenty (20) working days of the occurrence giving rise to the complaint, the Employer may refer the complaint according to the grievance and arbitration procedures contained in this Agreement.

5.06 Alternate Grievance Investigation Procedure

- (a) By mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, the Parties may choose to invoke Section 104 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia, provided that all steps of the Grievance Procedure, prior to reference to arbitration, have been exhausted without resolution of the difference.

If a difference arises between the Parties relating to the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an Employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of the Collective Agreement, (here insert name), or a substitute agreed to by the Parties shall, at the request of either party:

- (i) investigate the difference;
- (ii) define the issue in the difference; and
- (iii) make written recommendations to resolve the difference

with thirty (30) days of the date of receipt of the request and, for those thirty (30) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the Grievance Procedure.

- (b) The Minister of Finance and Corporate Relations, on the Minister's requisition, shall pay out of the consolidated revenue fund 1/3 of the cost incurred by the Parties for payment of reasonable remuneration, travelling and out-of-pocket expenses of the person named or his or her substitute.
- (c) Where a Section 104 hearing, rather than arbitration, has been implemented, the decision shall be final and binding on all Parties, provided such agreement was made in advance of the appointment of the investigator.

ARTICLE NO. 6 DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

6.01 Disciplinary Action

- (a) Disciplinary action generated by the Employer includes letters of reprimand, written censures, and letters of suspension. A copy of the written notice of discipline shall be given to the Employee and the Union, unless the Employee specifically requests otherwise, within ten (10) days of the disciplinary action taken by the Employer. If this procedure is not followed, such disciplinary action shall not become part of his/her record for use against him/her in regard to discharge, discipline, promotion, demotion, or other related matters. Should an Employee dispute any such entry on his/her file, then he/she shall be entitled to recourse through the Grievance Procedure. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence at any hearing any document from the file of an Employee, the existence of which the Employee was not aware of at the time of filing.
- (b) The record of any Employee shall not be used against him/her at any time after twelve (12) months following disciplinary action, not including suspensions, provided there are no other reports during that period.

6.02 Personnel File

An Employee or Union business agent, or his/her designate, with the written authority of the Employee, shall be entitled to review the Employee's personnel file(s), both paper and, if applicable, electronic, in the office in which the file is normally kept, in order to facilitate the investigation of a grievance. The Employee or the representative, as the case may be, shall give the Employer adequate notice prior to having access to such file(s).

6.03 Right to Have Steward Present

An Employee may choose to have his/her Shop Steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which involves disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an Employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall make every effort to notify the Employee, in advance, of the purpose of the interview in order that the Employee may contact his/her Shop Steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. This Section shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational or investigative nature and do not involve disciplinary action.

6.04 Reinstatement After Dismissal or Suspension Without Just Cause

In the event an Employee has been dismissed or suspended for other than proper cause, the Board of Arbitration may direct the Employer to reinstate the Employee and pay to the Employee a sum equal to his or her wages or salary lost by reason of such suspension or discharge, or such lesser sum as, in the opinion of the Board of Arbitration, is fair and reasonable, or make such other order as it considers fair and reasonable having regard to the terms of the Collective Agreement between the Parties.

ARTICLE NO. 7 SENIORITY

7.01 Seniority Defined

Seniority is defined as the total length of service in the Bargaining Unit as certified by the Labour Relations Board, including bargaining units for which the Employer is a successor and, except as otherwise specifically provided for in this Agreement, shall be continuous service.

Part-time Employee seniority shall be pro rated based on hours worked and, where there is a transfer between part-time and full-time positions, seniority shall be determined on a pro rated basis on the regular annual hours for the full-time position being transferred to or from. When Part-time Employees are promoted or accepted to regular full-time positions, their seniority shall be calculated by dividing the total number of hours worked by either 1820 and/or 2080 (whichever is applicable) to establish the equivalent years of service for the purpose of establishing seniority. This pro rated seniority date for Part-time Employees shall also be applicable for vacation entitlement purposes.

7.02 Seniority Lists

The Employer shall maintain an up-to-date seniority list showing the seniority of each Full-time Employee first then the seniority of each Part-time Employee, which will be posted in January and July of each year. A copy of the seniority list will be provided to the Union.

7.03 Seniority Retention and Accumulation

Seniority shall be retained and accumulated on the following basis:

- (a) authorized leave of absence;
- (b) absence while serving in the Canadian Armed Forces during a national emergency and for a period of ninety (90) days after honourable discharge;
- (c) laid off Employees with less than one (1) year's service - six (6) months;
- (d) laid off Employees with one (1) or more years' service - twelve (12) months;
- (e) Employees with at least one (1) year's service and who are absent due to a bona fide sickness or injury attested to by a qualified medical practitioner, shall retain seniority for a period not to exceed two (2) years; however, the Employer is not responsible for benefits after twelve (12) months. This provision may be waived by mutual agreement between the Parties.

7.04 Seniority Lost

Seniority shall be lost for the following reasons:

- (a) voluntary severance of employment;
- (b) lay-off for a continuous period in excess of that set out in Article No. 7.03;
- (c) withdrawal of contributions from the Municipal Superannuation Plan;
- (d) If discharged for proper cause and not reinstated which shall include, but is not restricted to, the following:

Communications Operators II and III Special Shift

1. The City of Abbotsford Police Board (hereinafter referred to as the “Board”) and Teamsters Local Union No. 31 (hereinafter referred to as the “Union”) agree to continue with the 11-1/2 hour shift schedule covering all Communications Operator II and Communications Operator III’s employed in the City of Abbotsford Police Service. This shift schedule will be evaluated every six (6) months.
2. This 11-1/2 hour shift may be discontinued at any time by either Party giving sixty (60) days’ written notice to the other Party of its desire to terminate this Letter of Understanding. A joint committee, consisting of two (2) representatives from the Board and two (2) representatives from the Union, shall be established to review the matter prior to discontinuation of the shift.
3. Communications Operator II and III positions shall work two 11-1/2 hour day shifts (exclusive of a 30 minute meal break) followed by two 11-1/2 hour night shifts (exclusive of a 30 minute meal break), and then shall have scheduled periods of rest according to item #4 of this Letter of Understanding.

Effective date of signing, shifts shall be as follows:

- (a) Day Shift: 0600 to 1800 hours;
 - (b) Night Shift: 1500 to 0300 hours; or 1800 to 0600 hours.
4. In each shift, Communications Operators II and III will be relieved for one (1) unpaid 30 minute meal break and two (2) 22-1/2 minute rest periods. Subject to the approval of the Supervisor, the 30 minute meal break will be paid at overtime rates if the Communications Operator II or III is not relieved for such meal break.
 5. The work of Communications Operator II and Communications Operator III is required to be performed continuously and on every day, including statutory holidays, throughout the year. Sections 14.01, 14.03 and 14.04 of Article No. 14 of the Agreement would not apply and therefore:
 - (a) If a Communications Operator II or III Employee’s normal work day falls on a statutory holiday and he does so work on that day, he shall be paid or credited at one and one-half (1-1/2) times his regular hourly rate for each hour worked on the holiday. In addition, he shall be entitled to statutory holiday pay in an amount equal to his regular rate of pay for eight (8) hours. It is understood that a statutory holiday is defined as a calendar day beginning at midnight and ending at midnight.

- (b) A Communications Operator II or Communications Operator III who is not scheduled to work on the day of a statutory holiday will, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to eight (8) hours statutory holiday pay at his regular hourly rate.
 - (c) If the normal work day for a Communications Operator II or III falls on a statutory holiday, and the Employee is authorized to take the statutory holiday off, the Employee's vacation or overtime bank will be deducted by 11-1/2 hours and the Employee will receive an amount equal to eight (8) hours pay at the regular hourly rate of pay. In other words, the Employee will receive 19.5 hours in pay for the day of the statutory holiday.
 - (d) Where an Employee is required to work a shift which commences on the day previous to a statutory holiday and such shift finishes on a statutory holiday, the Employee shall receive compensation at the rate of straight time in pay for all hours worked on such shift. The hours of such shift which fall on the statutory holiday shall not be considered time worked on the statutory holiday.
 - (e) Where an Employee is required to work a shift which commences on a statutory holiday, and such shift finishes on the day following the statutory holiday, all of the hours worked on such shift shall be considered time worked on the statutory holiday.
6. Conversion of cost factors from 8-hour to 11-1/2 hour shifts, or benefits based on the working period, are to be made so that there will be no increase in costs to the Board and no loss to Union members in these conversions; for example: one (1) day of vacation would equal eight (8) hours; fifteen (15) working days, or three (3) weeks of vacation, would equal one hundred twenty (120) hours; eleven (11) statutory holidays would be equal to eighty-eight (88) hours; sick leave, if earned, would be granted as eighteen (18) days per year ($18 \times 8 = 144$ hours); however, it would be equated as one hundred forty-four (144) hours; and etc.
7. (a) Communications Operator II or Communications Operator III working the 1830 to 0630 hours shift would be paid the normal specified rate of shift differential for all hours worked. There will be no shift differential for Communications Operator II or Communications Operator III working the 0630 to 1830 hours shift.
- (b) The Employer may advance or delay start times for any Employee, without penalty, for up two (2) hours in either direction of the scheduled start time with (3) three days notice; however, in the case of emergency operational requirements, no notice is required.
8. Overtime, as per Schedule "B" Notes, for each Communications Operator II or Communications Operator III will apply following the completion of 11-1/2 consecutive hours of work. Time for meal breaks, if paid, will not be considered as hours worked for the purpose of computing overtime. Because the shift schedule provides for four (4) consecutive days off, the following will apply in determining overtime pay as per Schedule "B" Notes:
- (a) the first day off will be the first day of rest;

- (b) the second day off will be the second day of rest;
- (c) the third day off will be the first day of rest;
- (d) the fourth day off will be the second day of rest.

In administering overtime, it is understood that no pyramiding will occur in that a Communications Operator II or Communications Operator III will not be paid overtime and premium pay for the same hours worked.

Part-time Employees may work up to 92 hours in a bi-weekly pay period without incurring overtime except as specifically provided under the Collective Agreement. Part-time Employees who work 4 consecutive 11.5 hours shifts are entitled to 4 consecutive days off.

- 9. Definitions of the work day and the work week for Communications Operator II and Communications Operator III shall be considered to have been revised to conform to the 11-1/2 hour shift.
- 10. Communications Operator II or Communications Operator III working the 11-1/2 hour shift who are required to attend courses, workshops, etc., shall attend on the basis of an eight-hour day and this shall not be a cost factor to the Board, nor shall the Communications Operator II or Communications Operator III suffer a loss.

Communications Operator II and Communications Operator III will be paid on a bi-weekly basis for the number of hours of actual work in each bi-weekly pay period.
