loss of seniority, and shall be compensated by the Employer for all time lost retroactive to the date of discharge.

10.6 Resignation

The employee agrees to give thirty (30) calendar days' notice in writing prior to leaving. This may be waived by mutual agreement.

10.7 Benefits

In case of dismissal or resignation, the employee shall receive all vacation entitlements and salary due to the date of termination.

ARTICLE 11 - GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

11.1 Grievance Procedure

Any difference concerning the interpretation, application or operation of this Agreement, or any alleged violation thereof, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, shall be dealt with in the following manner.

11.2 Step 1

The employee must first have discussed any disputed matter within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of the disputed matter with:

- (a) Firstly, the supervisor, or his or her responsible official or the other staff if the centre works on a co-supervisory system.
- (b) Secondly, the Executive Committee of the centre, or the Employer's delegated representative.

11.3 Step 2

If the grievance is not settled as prescribed in Article 11.2 within ten (10) working days, the matter shall be referred to the Union Grievance Representative.

11.4 Step 3

Should the Union Grievance Representative be unable to effect a mutually satisfactory settlement of the dispute within ten (10) working days of receipt of such grievance, it shall be submitted to a Board of Arbitration for final and conclusive determination.

11.5 Arbitration

A Board of Arbitration shall consist of one (1) person to be chosen jointly by both Parties. Upon petition by one of the Parties, the other Party agrees to meet within seven (7) working days of the receipt of such notice.

If they are unable to agree upon or otherwise fail to appoint an arbitrator, either Party may apply to the Minister of Labour to appoint such a person. In all other respects, the provisions of the Labour Code of B.C. shall apply. The decision of the Board shall be final and binding on both Parties.

If the matter of grievance is referred to a Board of Arbitration the Union Grievance Representative will require seven (7) working days to advance said grievance.

Each Party shall bear one-half (½) of the expenses of the arbitrator and any secretarial services required.

Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays shall not be counted in determining the time in which any such action must be taken under any of the aforementioned steps. The time limits fixed in the grievance and arbitration procedures may be altered by mutual consent of the Parties but the same must be in writing.

11.6 Disagreement of Decision

Should the Parties disagree as to the meaning of the arbitrator's decision, either Party may apply to the arbitrator for clarification. The arbitrator shall make every effort to do so within seven (7) working days.

11.7 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both Parties of the Agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error, other than time limit violations, in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure.

11.8 Violation of Time Limits

If there is a violation of the time limits and the onus for delay is upon the Union, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned and all rights of recourse to the grievance shall be at an end. If the onus for delay is on the Employer, then the grievance shall be deemed to have succeeded, and all appropriate steps to remedy the matter shall be taken forthwith by the Employer.

11.9 Retroactive Settlements

Settlements reached at any step of the grievance procedure may be applied retroactively to the date of occurrence of the situation which gave rise to the grievance, or to the date set by the single Party arbitrator, or to any other date by mutual agreement of the Parties.
