- (b) The Parties to this Agreement share a desire to improve the quality of the services provided by the Employer. Accordingly, they are determined to establish, within the framework provided by the law, an effective working relationship at all levels in which members of the bargaining unit are employed.

1.2 Future Legislation

In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement, and the Parties hereto shall negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision so rendered null and void or materially altered. If agreement is not reached the matter shall be sent to arbitration as provided in Article 10.

1.3 Conflict with Policy

In the event that there is a conflict between the contents of the Agreement and any policy made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, this Agreement shall take precedence over the said policy.

1.4 Use of Terms

- (a) Masculine and Feminine

The masculine or feminine gender may be used interchangeably throughout this Agreement. Wherever one gender is used it shall be construed as meaning the other if the facts or context so require.

- (b) Singular or Plural

Wherever the singular is used the same shall be construed as meaning the plural if the facts or context so require.

1.5 No Discrimination

The Parties hereto subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.

The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination with respect to an employee's employment by reason of race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political belief, religion, marital status (including common-law and same sex partnerships), family status, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation, age, or criminal or summary conviction that is unrelated to the employment of that person.

A regular part-time employee is entitled to all benefits of this Agreement on a prorated basis except as provided for in Article 27, Health and Welfare Benefits.
- (c) Casual employees are employed on an "on call" basis to cover absences due to sick leave, vacation, special leave, or augment staff during peak periods where regular employees, as per Article 14.2(e) have not requested topped up hours. These periods shall not exceed three (3) months without the agreement of the Union. Casual employees will be considered in-service applicants when applying for vacancies.
- (d) "Special Project Employees" are employees hired for a specified period of time, not to exceed three (3) months, for special projects as mutually agreed between the Employer and the BCGEU including employees hired under the auspices of a Federal or Provincial Special Employment Program. This information may be provided on a computer disk.
- (e) Before the Employer is obliged to deduct any amount under Section (a) or (b) of this Article, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of its regular monthly dues or assessments. The amount so advised shall continue to be the amount to be deducted until changed by further written notice to the Employer signed by the President of the Union. Upon receipt of such notice, such changed amount shall be the amount deducted.
- (f) From the date of the signing of this Agreement and for its duration, no employee organization other than the Union shall be permitted to have membership dues or other monies deducted by the Employer from the pay of the employees in the bargaining unit.
- (g) The Employer shall supply each employee, without charge, a T4 receipt for income tax purposes in the amount of the deductions paid to the Union by the employee in the previous year. Such receipts shall be provided to the employee prior to March 1st of the succeeding year.

Whenever the steward is employed in the same work area as the new employee, the employee's immediate supervisor will introduce her to her steward. The Employer agrees that a Union steward will be given an opportunity to interview each new employee within regular working hours, without loss of pay, for thirty (30) minutes sometime during the first thirty (30) days of employment for the purpose of acquainting the new employee with the benefits and duties of Union membership and the employee's responsibilities and obligations to the Employer and the Union.

Members of Union staff shall notify the designated supervisory official in advance of their intention and their purpose for entering and shall not interfere with the operation of the department or section concerned. Where available, the Employer will make available to Union representatives or stewards, temporary use of an office or similar facility to facilitate the orderly and confidential investigation of grievances.

The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have her steward present at such a discussion. If the dispute is not resolved orally, the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance, through the Union steward, to Step 2 of the grievance procedure. When the aggrieved employee is a steward, she shall not, where possible, act as a steward in respect of her own grievance, but shall submit the grievance through another steward or Union staff representative.

 - (1) forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at Step 2; and
 - (2) provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received.

9.5 Time Limit to Reply to Step 2

- (a) Within ten (10) days of receiving the grievance at Step 2, the representative of the Employer, the employee and the shop steward shall meet to examine the facts, the nature of the grievance and attempt to resolve the dispute. This meeting may be waived by mutual agreement.

9.6 Step 3

The President of the Union, or his designate, may present a grievance at Step 3:

- (a) within fourteen (14) days after the decision has been conveyed to him by the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2;
- (b) within fourteen (14) days after the Employer's reply was due.

9.7 Time Limit to Reply at Step 3

The representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 3 shall reply in writing to the grievance within thirty (30) days of receipt of the grievance at Step 3.

9.8 Failure to Act

If the President of the Union, or designate, does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, the grievance will be deemed to be abandoned. However, the Union shall not be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance.

9.9 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 3, and pursuant to Article 10, the President, or his designate, may inform the Employer of his intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

- (a) thirty (30) days after the Employer's decision has been received;
- (b) thirty (30) days after the Employer's decision is due.

9.10 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the Parties, but the same must be in writing. Where a grievance or a reply is presented by mail it shall be deemed to be presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to be received on the day it was delivered to the appropriate office of the Employer or the Union. Grievances and replies at Step 3 of the grievance procedure and notification to arbitrate shall be by registered mail or facsimile.

9.11 Dismissal or Suspension Grievance

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal, the grievance may be filed directly at arbitration within thirty (30) days of the date on which the dismissal occurred, or within thirty (30) days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal.
- (b) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's suspension, the grievance may commence at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within thirty (30) days of the date on which the suspension occurred, or within thirty (30) days of the employee receiving notice of suspension.

9.12 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

- (a) The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representative will not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly, with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union.
- (b) In the event that after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this Article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.
- (c) Notwithstanding (b) above, an employee who has filed a complaint with the Human Rights Council shall not have their grievance deemed abandoned through the filing of the complaint.

9.13 Policy Grievance

Where either party disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an article of this Agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days of the occurrence.

Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 10.

9.14 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both Parties of this Agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error, other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

ARTICLE 10 - ARBITRATION

10.1 Notification

Where a difference arising between the Parties relating to the interpretation, application, or administration of this Agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable or where an allegation is made that a term or condition of this Agreement has been violated, either of the Parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure in Article 9, notify the other party within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the reply at the third step, of its desire to submit the difference or allegations to arbitration.

10.2 Appointment of the Arbitrator

When a party has requested that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, an Arbitrator shall be selected from the agreed upon list outlined in Appendix B.

10.3 Board Procedure

The arbitrator may determine her own procedure in accordance with the Labour Relations Code and shall give full opportunity to all Parties to present evidence and make representations. She shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall make every effort to render a decision within thirty (30) days of her first meeting.

10.4 Decision of Arbitrator

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on the Parties. The arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a dismissal, discharge or discipline grievance by any arrangement which she deems just and equitable. However, the arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.

10.5 Disagreement on Decision

Should either Party disagree as to the meaning of the Arbitrator's decision, either Party may apply to the Arbitrator to clarify the decision. The Arbitrator shall make every effort to provide written clarification within seven (7) days of receipt of the application.

10.6 Expenses of Arbitrator

Each Party shall pay one-half (½) of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.

10.7 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the Parties but the same must be in writing.

10.8 Witnesses

At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the Parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses and any other witnesses. All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the concerned Parties or the arbitrator(s) to have access to the Employer's premises to view any working conditions, which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

10.9 Expedited Arbitration

(a) The Parties may, by mutual agreement, refer to expedited arbitration any outstanding grievances considered suitable for this process, and shall set dates and locations for hearings of groups of grievances considered suitable for expedited arbitration.

(b) All grievances shall be considered suitable for and resolved by expedited arbitration except grievances in the nature of:

- (1) dismissals;
- (2) rejection on probation;
- (3) suspensions in excess of twenty (20) work days;
- (4) policy grievances;
- (5) grievances requiring substantial interpretation of a provision of the Collective Agreement;
- (6) grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence;
- (7) grievances where a Party intends to raise a preliminary objection; and
- (8) demotions.

By mutual agreement a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process.

- (c) The Parties shall mutually agree upon single arbitrators who shall be appointed to hear and resolve groups of grievances.
- (d) The arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two (2) working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.
- (e) Expedited arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not thereafter be referred to by the Parties in respect of any other matter.
- (f) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.
- (g) A grievance determined by either Party to fall within one of the categories listed in (b) above may be removed from the expedited arbitration process at any time prior to hearing and forwarded to a regular arbitration hearing pursuant to Article 10.3.

- (h) The Parties shall equally share the cost of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator and hearing rooms.

ARTICLE 11 - DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

11.1 Procedure

In the event that the Employer initiates disciplinary action against an employee that may result in her suspension or discharge, the procedure outlined herein shall be followed.

11.2 Dismissal and Suspension

- (a) The Employer, or any specifically authorized representative of the Employer, may dismiss or suspend for just cause any employee who has completed her probationary period. Notice of dismissal or suspension shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for dismissal or suspension and the employee shall have the right to have a steward present, provided that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. A copy of the written notice shall be forwarded to the President of the Union or the designated staff representative within five (5) working days.
- (b) A suspension of indefinite duration shall be considered a dismissal under 11.2 (a) above as soon as it exceeds twenty (20) days and any grievance already filed shall be considered henceforth as a dismissal grievance.

11.3 Burden of Proof

In all cases of discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer.

11.4 Right To Grieve Other Disciplinary Action

- (a) Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand and adverse reports or performance appraisals.
- (b) An employee shall be given a copy of any document, report, incident, or notation placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action.
- (c) Should an employee dispute any such entry in her file, she shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of her personnel record.

- (d) Upon the employee's written request, any such document, other than official evaluation reports, shall be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of eighteen (18) months from the date it was issued provided there has not been a further infraction.
- (e) The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing.

11.5 Performance Appraisals

- (a) The Employer and Union agree that performance reviews will not be used as the basis for disciplinary action. This does not apply to evaluations done during the probationary period.
- (b) Where a formal appraisal of an employee's performance is carried out, the employee shall be given sufficient opportunity after the interview to read and review the evaluation. Provision shall be made on the evaluation form for an employee to sign it. The form shall provide for the employee's signature in two places, one indicating that the employee has read and accepts the evaluation, and the other indicating that the employee disagrees with the evaluation. The employee shall sign in only one of the places provided. No employee may initiate a grievance regarding the contents of an evaluation report unless the signature indicates disagreement with the evaluation. An employee shall receive a copy of this evaluation report at the time of signing. An employee evaluation shall not be changed after an employee has signed it, without the knowledge of the employee, and any such changes shall be subject to the grievance procedure of this Agreement.

11.6 Personnel File

- (a) An employee, or the President of the Union or his designate, with written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review an employee's personnel file, exclusive of employee references. The file shall be reviewed in the place where the file is normally kept and in the presence of a designated management representative. The Employer will provide copies of file entries as requested. The employee or the President, as the case may be, shall give the Employer five (5) working days notice prior to having access to such information.
- (b) Personnel files will be kept confidential and access will be given only to those supervisory personnel that require the information in the course of their duties.

11.7 Right to Have Union Representative Present

- (a) An employee shall have the right to have her steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact her steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. This clause shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve disciplinary action.
- (b) A steward shall have the right to consult with a Staff Representative of the Union and to have a local Union Representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the steward believes might be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

11.8 Abandonment of Position

An employee who fails to report for duty for three (3) consecutive working days without informing the Employer of the reason for her absence will be presumed to have abandoned her position. An employee shall be afforded the opportunity within ten (10) working days to rebut such presumption and demonstrate that there were reasonable grounds for not informing the Employer.

11.9 Probation for Newly Hired Employees

(a) The Employer may reject a probationary employee for just cause. A rejection during probation shall not be considered a dismissal for the purpose of Article 11.2 of this Agreement. The test of just cause for rejection shall be a test of suitability of the probationary employee for continued employment in the position to which she has been appointed, provided that the factors involved in suitability could reasonably be expected to affect work performance.

(b) All new employees will be subject to a probationary period equivalent to four hundred and twenty (420) hours worked. The probationary period shall not exceed six (6) calendar months. If required, and with the agreement of the Union, the Employer may extend the probationary period; however, this extension shall not exceed ninety (90) days.

Where the probationary employee is a casual employee the maximum probation shall be nine (9) calendar months. Casual employees who subsequently become regular employees shall not be required to complete a new probationary period.

(c) Where an employee feels she has been aggrieved by the decision of the Employer to reject the employee during the probationary period, she may grieve the decision pursuant to the grievance procedure outlined in Article 9 of this Agreement commencing at Step 3.

Note: Where current practice indicates a shorter maximum, it will be maintained. Eligibility for benefits shall not be dependent on length of probation.

11.10 Employee Investigations

(a) The Parties agree that in certain situations it may be in the best interest of both clients and employees that employees be reassigned or removed from all job sites during an investigation of conduct. In cases where an employee cannot be reassigned, then the employee shall be considered to be on leave of absence without loss of pay until the Employer has determined there is a prima facie case for imposing discipline.

(b) The Employer will make every effort to complete its investigation within fourteen (14) days.

The Employer will notify the President of the Union or his designate when an investigation of conduct has been initiated. Any employee who is interviewed in the course of an investigation shall have the right to union representation at such an interview.

ARTICLE 12 - SENIORITY

12.1 Seniority Defined

"Seniority" shall be defined as the length of the employee's continuous employment with the Employer, including service prior to the signing of this Agreement. Full time employees shall be credited with seniority equivalent to their length of continuous employment. Part time employees shall be credited with seniority based on all straight time hours worked with the Employer.

Note: For those Employers who currently do not pro-rate part time seniority, it is agreed that no current part time employee shall lose seniority ranking relative to other employees on the effective date of the above language. Subsequent to this date, part time employees shall accumulate seniority as outlined above.

12.2 Seniority List

(a) The Employer will prepare once every six (6) months an up-to-date seniority list containing the following information pertaining to its regular employees:

- (1) employee's name;
- (2) employee's seniority;
- (3) employee's current classification.

(b) The regular seniority list shall be posted by the Employer for thirty (30) days. Any objection to the accuracy of the information contained therein must be submitted in writing to the Employer during the said posting period. Thereafter, the posted list will be deemed to be valid and correct for all purposes.

(c) The Employer will provide the Union and the Bargaining Unit Chairperson with a copy of the seniority list upon request.

12.3 Loss of Seniority

An employee shall not accrue seniority when on leave of absence without pay for leave periods over thirty (30) days' duration. An employee shall continue to accrue seniority if she is absent from work with pay, or being compensated by the Workers' Compensation Board or ICBC for an injury or illness incurred in the course of employment with the Employer or Union leave. An employee shall lose her seniority only in the event that:

- (a) she is discharged for just cause;
- (b) subject to 12.5, she voluntarily terminates her employment or abandons her position, as per Article 11.8;
- (c) she is on layoff more than one (1) year;
- (d) upon being notified by the Employer by registered mail at her last known address that she is recalled from layoff, she fails to contact the Employer within seven (7) days and fails to return to work within fourteen (14) days; or
- (e) she is permanently promoted to an excluded position and has passed probation. (Probation shall not exceed the time period referenced in Article 11.9).

12.4 Re-employment

An employee who resigns her position and within sixty (60) days is re-employed, shall be granted a leave of absence without pay covering those days absent and shall retain all previous rights in relation to seniority and other fringe benefits, subject to any benefit plan requirements.

12.5 Bridging of Service

If a regular employee resigns after the signing of this Agreement as a result of a decision to care for a dependent child or dependent children, spousal illness or disability, or an ageing parent and is re-employed, upon application she shall be credited with length of service accumulated at time of termination for the purpose of benefits based on service seniority. The following conditions shall apply:

- (a) the employee must have been a regular employee with at least three (3) years of service seniority at time of termination.
- (b) the resignation must indicate the reason for termination;
- (c) the break in service shall be for no longer than six (6) years;
- (d) the previous length of service shall not be reinstated until successful completion of the probation period on re-employment.

12.6 Same Seniority Date

When two (2) or more employees have the same seniority and when mutual agreement cannot be reached, then seniority shall be determined by chance.

ARTICLE 13 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

13.1 Definition of a Layoff

"Layoff" is a cessation of employment, or elimination of a job resulting from a reduction of the amount of work required to be done by the Employer, a reduction in Hours of Work where such a reduction is permanent and eliminates an employee's health and welfare benefit entitlement, a reorganization, program termination, closure or other material change in organization.

13.2 Pre-Layoff Canvas

- (a) Prior to the layoff of regular employees under 13.3 the Employer may canvass employees in order to invite:
 - (1) placement into a vacant, regular position in the employee's classification; or
 - (2) placement into a vacant regular position in another classification for which she is qualified and would not be a promotion; or
 - (3) placement on the casual call-in and recall lists with no loss of seniority.
- (b) Where layoff affects a substantial number of employees, the Employer shall canvass the employees pursuant to this article.
- (c) Where an employee selects an option or accepts an offer of placement, once confirmed in writing, such acceptance is final and binding upon the employee and subject to the agreement of the Employer.
- (d) Responses from employees to the Pre-Layoff Canvas will only be received by the Employer for consideration if submitted within seven (7) days of issuance of a written notice to the employee or group of employees.

13.3 Layoff

Both Parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore in the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off by classification, in reverse order of seniority subject to the following.

- (a) The individual with the least seniority will be designated for layoff from the classification within that program.
- (b) The date the layoff will commence will be identified.
- (c) The employee designated for layoff shall be placed into a vacant regular position in their own classification with the equivalent number of hours. If this is not possible, the employee may choose from one of the following options:
 - (1) where less than six (6) calendar months have elapsed since the commencement of a program and where such program is terminated by the funding source, an affected employee, other than a probationary employee, shall be returned to her former position and wage or salary rate without loss of seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to her former position and wage or salary rate without loss of seniority; or

- (2) the employee may opt to displace the casual employee with the longest remaining appointment for which she possesses the qualifications. An employee who elects this option shall accrue seniority during her term on casual appointment and shall be considered available for recall to regular positions. Upon completion of the casual assignment, she shall re-establish her right to a further twelve (12) months of recall pursuant to Article 13.4; or
 - (3) placement on the casual call in and recall lists, with no loss of seniority; or
 - (4) placement into an equivalent vacant regular position providing she is qualified to satisfactorily perform the duties; or
 - (5) to displace the least senior employee working the equivalent number of hours in the classification identified for layoff, provided she is qualified to satisfactorily perform the duties; or
 - (6) to displace the least senior employee in another classification with the equivalent hours provided she is qualified to satisfactorily perform the duties; or
 - (7) to displace the least senior employee amongst the group of employees in the same classification whose hours are up to five (5) hours less per week than the displaced employee providing she is qualified to satisfactorily perform the duties; or
 - (8) to displace the least senior employee in another classification, whose hours are up to five (5) hours less per week than the displaced employee provided she is qualified to satisfactorily perform the duties; or
 - (9) to displace the least senior employee in the same classification, regardless of weekly hours, provided she is qualified to satisfactorily perform the duties; or
 - (10) to displace the least senior employee in another classification, regardless of weekly hours, provided she is qualified to satisfactorily perform the duties.
- (d) The above process will apply to employees displaced pursuant to 13.3(c) above;
 - (e) Bumping right must be exercised within seven (7) days of notification of layoff by providing written notice to the Executive Director.
 - (f) Displacements shall not result in a promotion or an increase in part-time hours.

13.4 Recall

- (a) Employees shall be recalled to available work in order of their seniority provided they are qualified and are able to perform the duties. The notice of recall shall be sent by registered mail. Employees must accept recall within seven (7) days of receipt of the registered mail.
- (b) The recall period shall be one (1) year.
- (c) New employees shall not be hired until those laid off in that classification have been given an opportunity of recall.

13.5 Advance Notice

The Employer shall provide written notice and/or pay in lieu of notice to a regular employee who is to be laid off prior to the effective date of layoff according to one of the following provisions:

- (a) One (1) week's notice and/or pay in lieu of notice after three (3) consecutive months of employment; or
- (b) Two (2) weeks' notice and/or pay in lieu of notice after twelve (12) consecutive months of employment; or

(c) Three (3) weeks' notice and/or pay in lieu of notice after three (3) consecutive years of employment, plus one additional week for each year of employment, to a maximum of eight (8) weeks notice and/or pay in lieu of notice.

13.6 Grievance on Layoffs and Recalls

Grievances concerning layoffs and recalls shall be initiated at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

13.7 Employment Security

The following provisions shall be effective October 1, 1999 except that the income continuance provisions of Section F will be effective October 1, 2000.

(a) Purpose

(1) Preamble

The Parties recognize the value of maintaining on-going communication and consultation concerning changes to workplace organization. The Parties agree to meet to exchange information with respect to such issues at the request of either party.

The purpose of the following provisions is to maintain the principle of continuity of client care, to preserve job security, stabilize employment, and to protect as many regular employees as possible from loss of employment.

(2) HLAA Board

The Parties will request the Ministry of health and the HLAAB and to approve the addition of a position for CSSEA and CUPE in order to deal with social services related issues.

(3) Employment Security

All Union members covered by this Agreement will be protected by employment security as set out in Article F.

(4) Enhanced Consultation

The Employer shall notify the Union of any proposed labour adjustment initiative in accordance with the general principles of enhanced consultation.

The Parties shall meet with respect to the proposed initiative and explore a means whereby the matters arising therefrom may be accommodated. Specifically, the Parties shall use their best efforts to achieve the permanent or interim solution which best meets the needs of the proposed initiative.

(b) Job Training

At the request of either the Employer or the Union, the Parties shall meet to discuss training programs for employees affected by technological change or new methods of operation; or who require general skills upgrading, which may include qualifying for new positions.

(c) Definition of Displacement

Any employee classified as a regular employee shall be considered displaced for the purposes of this document, when her services shall no longer be required as a result of exhausting Collective Agreement processes.

(d) Process

(1) In the event of reduction resulting from any restructuring, labour adjustment, downsizing initiative, or re-tendering of a Ministry contract, the Employer, together with the Unions, will canvass the bargaining units by means of a notification process to see the degree to which necessary reductions and labour adjustments generally can be accomplished on a voluntary basis, by early retirement, transfer to another employer, and other voluntary options. In the case of voluntary options, where more employees are interested in an available option than are needed for the necessary reductions, the options will be offered to qualified employees on the basis of seniority.

(2) Failing voluntary resolution, positions to be reduced will be identified by the employer in accordance with the Collective Agreement; then

(i) the Employer shall issue displacement/layoff notices; then

(ii) the employee shall exercise bumping rights to a comparable job with the Employer; then

(iii) if there is no comparable job with the Employer, the employee may exercise bumping rights into a less than comparable job, or may opt to be placed on the regional placement list (registered with HLAA).

(3) The Parties agree that FTE reductions will not result in a workload level that is excessive or unsafe. The Parties acknowledge that a primary means of ensuring that FTE's can be reduced without resulting in an excessive workload or diminishing public access to needed health services is through utilization management.

(e) Transfer and Closures

(1) In the event that services or programs are transferred from one employer to another the following will apply:

Employees will be transferred with the service or program and will port seniority. An employee can refuse a transfer if:

(i) the transfer is out of the region; or

(ii) the employee has other employment options under the Collective Agreement at the Employer from which the service or program is being transferred, except where the transfer is a result of the closure of the Employer's operations.

(2) The Employer receiving the program will determine the number and category of employees. Where the receiving Employer does not need all the employees in a category, opportunities to transfer will be based on seniority, and remaining employees will be entitled to exercise their rights under the Collective Agreement.

(3) Transferring employees will port seniority and will be protected from further displacement until at least the end of the present Agreement, regardless of the Collective Agreement provisions that would otherwise apply. Note that seniority can not be used to bump employees of another Employer but only becomes ported after the employee moves into an existing vacancy.

(4) In the case of the closure of an Employer casual employees with more than three thousand, nine hundred, fifteen (3915) hours of seniority acquired within the five (5) years prior to the closure announcement will be covered by the provision of this article.

(f) Employment Security

Displaced employees shall, following the expiration of their notice period under the Collective Agreement, retain employment security for a period of up to twelve (12) months during which time reasonable efforts will be made to place such employees into gainful employment. Displaced employees who refuse placement by the HLAA shall lose their HLAA registration and the employment security period will be terminated. This does not affect the employee's recall rights under the Collective Agreement.

October 1, 2000, the Employer from which a displaced employee is displaced shall pay the wages and benefits of the displaced employee for the duration of the employment security period. The HLAA shall reimburse the Employer for any portion of the employment security period in excess of six (6) months.

(g) Portability of Seniority

An employee on the placement list maintains and accrues seniority.

Employees hired with the new Employer, either through a transfer or off the placement list, will be dovetailed into the seniority list.

(h) Disputes

Disputes about the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution process in Appendix D to this Agreement.

(i) Section 54 of the Labour Relations Code

The Parties agree that the present agreement fulfils the requirements of Section 54 of the Labour Relations Code.

(j) Definitions

(1) A generally comparable job is defined as follows:

A job with the same Employer, another Employer in the public service, public sector or community sector which is within ten (10) percent of the rate of pay the displaced employee was receiving at the time of displacement. The rate of pay means a comparison at the top step of the increment scale.

In calculating the ten (10) percent differential, the Parties must include wages and the following benefits: medical, dental, extended health, group life and long term disability.

Where placement can not be made by the expiration of the layoff note period, the problem shall be referred to the HLAA, which shall have the authority (after insuring that all other reasonable options have been exhausted and that no placement opportunities are reasonably foreseeable in the immediate future) to modify the definition of "generally comparable" with respect to that employee in order to increase to potential placement opportunities.

(2) A "region" shall be as defined in Appendix E to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 14 - HOURS OF WORK

14.1 Definitions

For the purposes of this Article, "day" means a twenty-four (24) hour period commencing at 00:01 hours, and "week" means a period of seven (7) consecutive days beginning at 00:01 hours Sunday and ending at 24:00 hours the following Saturday.

14.2 Hours of Work

- (a) Regular hours of work for full-time employees shall be an average of thirty-five (35) hours per week seven (7) hours per day. Modified hours of work for full-time employees shall be an average of thirty-six (36) hours per week, twelve (12) hours per day.
- (b) Where an employee, including a casual, is scheduled/called to work and is not informed prior to arrival at work that she is not required to work, the employee shall be entitled to be paid for a minimum of four (4) hours.
- (c) Designated employees called in for security reasons shall receive four (4) hours pay at their regular rate of pay or at the applicable overtime rate.
- (d) No employee shall be scheduled for more than five (5) consecutive days without receiving two (2) consecutive days off unless otherwise agreed by the Parties to this Agreement.
- (e) Notwithstanding (c), employees may request, in writing, to be scheduled up to six (6) days in a week so as to pick up additional hours up to the maximum hours listed in Clause 14.2(a).
- (f) Additional hours up to the maximum hours listed in Clause 14.2(a) shall be offered to employees by seniority in the following sequential order:
 - (1) full time employees
 - (2) part-time employees

Qualified regular employees shall be offered additional hours within their program before regular employees at other programs. Remaining additional hours shall be offered to regular employees at other programs.

Regular employees requesting additional hours must give the Employer written notice of their desire to work additional hours and their availability.

A regular employee shall receive her current rate of pay for all additional hours worked within her classification. Additional hours shall be used to calculate all benefits of this Agreement except as provided in Article 27. Hours worked in a different classification shall be under the terms and conditions of employment applicable to casual employees, except seniority, where Article 12 shall apply.

14.3 Rest Periods

All employees shall have two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest periods in each work period in excess of six (6) hours, one (1) rest period to be granted before and one (1) after the meal period. Employees working a shift of three and one-half (3 1/2) hours, but not more than six (6) hours, shall receive one (1) rest period during such a shift. Rest periods shall not begin within one (1) hour either before the meal period or at the end of the shift. Rest periods shall be taken without loss of pay to the employee.

14.4 Flexitime

- (a) For the purpose of this Agreement, flexitime means the hours worked by an employee, or group of employees, who are given authority by the Employer to:

- (1) choose their starting and finishing times; and
 - (2) choose their length of work day within a stated maximum number of hours, subject to meeting the required annual hours of work in accordance with this Agreement, through a specified averaging period.
- (b) The full-time employee on flextime who has a day of absence, whether with or without pay, will be deemed to be absent for seven (7) hours, providing at least seven (7) hours are required to complete the averaging period. When absences occur at the end of the averaging period, any hours that are required to complete the averaging period will be deemed to be the hours of absence.
- (c) The averaging period for those employees on flextime shall be seventy (70) hours per two (2) week period.
- (d) The workday for those employees on flextime shall not exceed ten (10) hours.

14.5 Staff Meetings

- (f) In the case of alleged harassment by a client or a member of the general public, the employee claiming to be harassed has the right to discontinue contact with the alleged offender without incurring any penalty, pending determination of the facts of the case. The Employer shall not require the employee to conduct business with an alleged offender under this clause.
- (g) In cases where harassment may result in the transfer of an employee, every effort will be made to relocate the harasser, except that the harassee may be transferred with her written consent.
- (h) Where either the complainant or the respondent, in conjunction with the Union, is not satisfied with the Executive Director's/Designate's response, the Union will put the complaint, within thirty (30) days, before a mutually agreed upon, independent adjudicator who specializes in cases of personal harassment or sexual harassment. The adjudicator shall work with the Parties to achieve a mutually acceptable resolution and if this is not achieved, the adjudicator shall have the right to:
- (1) dismiss the complaint; or
 - (2) determine the appropriate level of discipline to be applied to the harasser.
 - (3) make further recommendations as are necessary to provide a final and conclusive settlement of the complaint.
- (i) disciplinary action taken against a harasser pursuant to this clause shall not form the basis of a grievance.
- (j) where the complaint is determined to be of a frivolous, vindictive or vexatious nature, the Employer will take appropriate action, which may include discipline.
- (k) This clause does not preclude an employee from filing a complaint under Section 8 of the B.C. Human Rights Code. A complaint of personal harassment or sexual harassment shall not form the basis of a grievance.
- (l) Complaints under this Article shall be treated in strict confidence by all Parties involved.

ARTICLE 30 - CASUAL EMPLOYEES

For casual shifts that both become available and occur prior to the next callout period, the available employees will be called in order of seniority. In the event that an employee doesn't respond to the call, the person filling the shift will allow the employee a minimum of five (5) minutes to return the call before awarding the shift to the next employee on the list.

All calls shall be recorded in a logbook. The logbook shall show: the time and date of the call; the signature/initials of the person making the call; the employee being called; the position they are being called to fill (including work location and shift); whether the employee accepts, declines or does not respond to the phone call(s). If no contact is made with the employee being called, the logbook will show "no response".

In the event of a dispute, the Union shall have access to the logbooks.

30.4 Leaves of Absence

- (f) Employers who currently have a Group RRSP in place, and which implement this Group RRSP pursuant to this Article, shall terminate the current Group RRSP and contributions shall be converted to the new Group RRSP.
- (g) In the event that an Employer currently participates in the Municipal Superannuation Plan (or is required to participate in the future), the Group RRSP will not be implemented (or will be terminated) for employees of that Employer.

(h) Employers will ensure that all new employees are informed of the options available to them under this Article.

Effective October 1, 2000, if an Employer does not currently participate in a pension plan (e.g. the Municipal Superannuation Plan) then participation in the group RRSP for Employees will be mandatory. No employee shall be allowed to join both a pension plan and the group RRSP.

With respect to the group RRSP proposed by the Employers on April 28, 1999, in order to ensure the timely establishment and implementation of a group RRSP plan for the benefit of Employees in this sector, the Parties to this Agreement agree that Manulife Financial will continue as the transitional plan administrator/fund manager for all member agencies and their participating employees until the expiration of this Collective Agreement. APPENDIX D
EMPLOYMENT SECURITY - DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The administrative process for the application of the Employment Security Agreement language on Dispute Resolution is as follows:

1. The Parties to this process are CSSEA and each of HEU, HSA, CUPE, and BCGEU.
2. If a difference arises between the Parties relating to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of the ESLA which involves a policy issue or may have implications for other parties to this Agreement, including whether a matter is arbitrable, the Parties directly affected by the difference shall meet to attempt to resolve the dispute at Step 3 of the grievance procedure.
3. If the dispute remains unresolved, any Party may submit the difference to Vince Ready as an expedited arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the meeting at Step 3.

(a) The Party submitting the difference to arbitration shall notify the other Parties to the Agreement through the use of the Expedited Arbitration Form which shall include:

- (i) the name of the Union, facility, and individual(s) involved;
- (ii) the date of the alleged violation;
- (iii) outline of the issue;
- (iv) the remedy sought;
- (v) the degree of urgency;
- (vi) the procedure requested and rationale;
- (vii) the name, address and phone number of the contact person.

(b) The arbitrator shall arrange an arbitration hearing within twenty-eight (28) days of the referral.

(c) The arbitrator will determine the procedure to be followed in a pre-hearing conference with all the Parties. To the extent possible, the arbitrator will use the process principles expressed in the Dispute Resolution Process - Employment Security Agreement, revised as necessary, to accommodate the dispute and ensure an expeditious resolution. In the pre-hearing conference, the arbitrator will have jurisdiction to determine whether the dispute involves policy issues or may have implications for other Parties to this Agreement, or whether the dispute should be handled in ESLA with the provisions of the expedited arbitration process.

The Parties agree that employees may file grievances related to the ESLA. Should such grievances remain unresolved through the grievance procedure, they shall be dealt with through the following expedited process. Referrals to this process will be made within thirty (30) days of the meeting at Step 3.

- (1) The Parties agree that Colin Taylor, Heather Laing, Don Munroe, and Judi Korbin are the expedited arbitrators for issues arising from the ESLA.
- (2) Either Party shall refer issues to the arbitrator utilizing an Expedited Arbitration Form. The form will include the name of the Union, facility, and individual(s) involved, the date of the alleged incident, outline of the issue, the remedy sought, the name, address and phone number of the contact person.
- (3) The arbitrator shall arrange an arbitration hearing within twenty-eight (28) days of the referral.

- (4) The parties will utilize their own current staff to present the arbitration.
- (5) Each presentation will be short and concise and not exceed two (2) hours in length per Party.
- (6) The Parties agree to limited use of authorities during their presentation.
- (7) Prior to rendering a decision, the arbitrator may assist the Parties in mediating a resolution to the grievance. If this occurs, the cost will become in accordance with Section 103 of the Labour Relations Code.
- (8) Where a mediator fails or is not appropriate, a decision will be rendered on an agreed-to form and faxed to the Parties within five (5) working days of the hearing.
- (9) All mediated resolutions or decisions of the arbitrators are limited in application to that particular dispute and are without prejudice. These decisions shall have no precedential value and shall not be referred to by either Party in any subsequent proceeding.
- (10) If the arbitrator or the Parties conclude at the hearing that the issues involved are of a complexity or significance not previously apparent, the dispute shall be referred back to the Parties for disposition in ESLA with the Policy Dispute Resolution Process.
- (11) It is understood that it is not the intention of either Party to appeal the decision of an expedited arbitration proceeding. The expedited arbitrator shall have the powers and authority of an arbitration board established under the Labour Relations Code.

APPENDIX E
EMPLOYMENT SECURITY - REGION

A potential placement for any employee shall be deemed to be in their region in the following circumstances:

1. The road distance between the employee's current workplace and the potential placement facility is:
 - (a) Group 1 - within fifty (50) kilometres of where the employee's current job is located in all of Greater Vancouver and all of the Fraser Valley up to and including Hope, and all of Greater Victoria and all of the Saanich Peninsula.
 - (b) Group 2 - within seventy-five (75) kilometres of where the employee's current job is located in all other areas except for the above.
2. If there is no placement within the distances in (1) above, and the potential placement is no further from the employee's residence than the distance that the employee commutes to their present job.
3. In the case of a second placement for an employee who has reverted to the original employer at the employee's request, the maximum distances set out above shall be increased by twenty (20) percent.
4. Notwithstanding the above:
 - (a) Where there are options, i.e. more than one position available at the same time, the HLAA shall attempt to place employees with a view to their individual circumstances. For example, if there are two placement options, one near the limit of the region on one side of the employee's current Employer and the employee's residence, and the other placement option is on the other side of the current Employer, the HLAA would attempt to place the employee with the Employer nearest to the employee's residence.
 - (b) Where placement cannot be made within three (3) months of the time that an employee was designated for placement, the problem shall be referred to the HLAA, which shall have the authority (after ensuring that all other reasonable options have been exhausted and that no placement opportunities are reasonably foreseeable in the immediate future) to modify the definition of "region" with respect to that employee in order to increase potential placement opportunities.

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PLAN

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING #1
RE: 24 HOUR LIVE-IN SHIFTS

Purpose

The purpose of this memorandum is to modify the use of continuously scheduled twenty-four (24) hour live-in shifts. Employees who work shifts in excess of sixteen (16) hours and are paid at a flat rate for the whole shift, will also be covered by this Memorandum.

It is the aim of the Parties to make changes to these shifts with as little disruption as possible to clients and workers. The Parties further agree to set up a local transition committee to monitor and resolve any unforeseen issues from the implementation of these changes within the individual bargaining units.

Principles

The Unions will provide a finite listing of the agencies that may qualify for a modification of the live-in shifts.

A phase in period will be required to meet the conditions of the changes. Implementation will occur after the Employer has received the additional funding from the Ministry.

The rates of pay for the newly created position(s) will be consistent with the rates for the classification as evaluated in the job evaluation plan.

Upon completion, staff will work an average of no more than forty (40) hours per week. Hours of work will be paid on a straight time hourly basis in accordance with the Collective Agreement.

Staff currently working in twenty-four (24) hour shifts will be offered the newly created positions prior to the positions being posted.

Transition

The Parties will set up local transition committees to implement the transition to straight time hourly rates. Upon completion of the transition, employees should work an average of no more than forty (40) hours per week.

The total phase-in period will take no more than six (6) months from the date of ratification.

Flat Rate Shifts

For all employees working shifts which are compensated on a daily flat rate basis, these shifts will be converted to an hourly equivalent for the purposes of calculating applicable changes to compensation.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING #2
RE: JOB SHARING

This provision becomes effective upon ratification of this Agreement.

The following outlines the circumstances under which job sharing may occur, and the terms and conditions of the job sharing.

DEFINITIONS

1. "Job Sharing" means a voluntary work assignment in which two (2) regular employees adjust the number of hours they work by written agreement to share the responsibility for one (1) full-time regular position.
2. "Job Sharing Proposal" means a document initiated by two (2) regular employees, which outlines their request to become part-time employees and recommends how the duties of a position previously performed by one (1) full-time employee can be divided to accommodate their request.
3. "Job Sharing Arrangement" means where two (2) part-time employees perform the duties of a position previously performed by one (1) full-time employee.
4. "Partners" means regular employees participating in a job sharing arrangement.

CRITERIA

Job sharing proposals may be considered where:

- (a) One (1) of the partners proposing the job sharing arrangement already occupies the regular full-time position under consideration and has completed the probationary period. The second partner must have completed the probationary period and must be in the same job classification. Both partners must be performing their current positions satisfactorily; or
- (b) Two (2) partners as described in (a) above apply for one (1) full-time regular posted vacancy, as one (1) application, and both are selected as the successful candidates for the position in accordance with the factors set out in Article 24.3 (Appointment Policy). Disputes regarding selection decisions made with respect to applications submitted in accordance with this clause shall be resolved pursuant to Articles 9 and 10 of this Collective Agreement.

PROCEDURES FOR JOB SHARING PROPOSALS

Proposals for job sharing arrangements will be forwarded to the Employer. Job sharing proposals shall include the following information:

1. a written statement signed by both partners requesting part-time employment in order to job share as outlined in the proposal;
2. a description of the arrangements the partners will make to share necessary information with each other;
3. the proposed start date for the job sharing arrangement;
4. the proposed work schedule for the job sharing arrangement.

PROCEDURES FOR APPROVAL OF JOB SHARING PROPOSALS

Approval of the job sharing arrangement is at the discretion of the Employer. The job sharing proposal will be reviewed and a copy of the Employer's decision will be sent to the Union. Any objections to the decision must be referred to the Labour-Management Committee within fifteen (15) days for discussion and attempted resolution. The Parties agree that pursuant to Article 8.4, the Labour-Management Committee is the final avenue for appeal of a denied job sharing proposal. If approved, the job sharing arrangement will be confirmed in writing by appointing the job sharing partners as regular part-time employees. Appointment is subject to the applicable Collective Agreement provisions. Acceptance of the appointment by the partners must be in writing. The appointment letter shall indicate that the employee's hours may temporarily be increased up to full-time, if required and with as much notice as possible, to cover the other partner's absence of one (1) week or greater.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Job sharing arrangements will not result in increased cost to the Employer beyond that incurred by any overlap in hours of work. Benefits, wage increments, seniority, vacations and statutory holidays for job sharing partners will be paid on a pro rata basis per job sharing partner.

PROCEDURES FOR TERMINATION OF JOB SHARING ARRANGEMENTS

(a) The Employer may, upon thirty (30) days notice, terminate a job sharing arrangement. Notification of the termination will be given to the job sharing partners and the BCGEU Staff Representative. Subject to satisfactory performance, the most senior employee will be offered the full-time position. The onus will be on the junior employee to find alternate employment. In the event the most senior employee declines the offer of the full-time position, the onus is on that employee to find alternate employment, and the most junior employee, subject to satisfactory performance, will be offered the full-time position. Should the junior employee decline the offer of the full-time position, the onus is on that employee to seek alternate employment. The position will then revert to full-time regular status and be posted in accordance with Article 24 (Promotions and Staff Changes) of the Collective Agreement.

(b) Either job sharing partner may, upon thirty (30) days notice, terminate the job sharing arrangement. Notification of the termination will be given to the Employer and the BCGEU Staff Representative. Subject to satisfactory performance, the most senior employee will be offered the full-time position. The onus will be on the junior employee to find alternate employment. In the event the most senior employee declines the offer of the full-time position, the onus is on that employee to find alternate employment, and the most junior employee, subject to satisfactory performance, will be offered the full-time position. Should the junior employee decline the offer of the full-time position, the onus is on that employee to seek alternate employment. The position will then revert to full-time regular status and be posted in accordance with Article 24 (Promotions and Staff Changes) of the Collective Agreement.

(c) In the event that one of the job sharing partners resigns, the other job sharing partner, subject to satisfactory performance, will be offered the position on a full-time basis. Job sharing partners must provide the Employer two (2) weeks written notice of resignation. If the remaining job sharing partner declines the full-time position, she will revert to full-time and be provided sixty (60) days to propose and finalize another job share arrangement. The onus is on the employee to seek alternate employment if she declines the offer of the full-time position or if she is unable to obtain an approved job sharing arrangement. In that case, the position will revert to full-time status and be posted in accordance with Article 24 (Promotions and Staff Changes) of the Collective Agreement.

(d) The Parties agree that decisions to terminate a job sharing arrangement are not grievable.
