- (5) "Day of rest" in relation to an employee, means a day other than a holiday on which an employee is not ordinarily required to perform the duties of her position. This does not include employees on a leave of absence.
- (6) "Demotion" means a change from an employee's position to one with a lower maximum salary.
- (7) "Employee" means a member of the bargaining unit and includes:
 - (a) "Regular Employee" meaning an employee who is employed for work which is of a continuous full-time or continuous part-time nature;
 - (b) "Auxiliary Employee" meaning an employee who is employed for work which is not of a continuous nature and who has passed the probationary period."Employee" does not include:
 - (a) Incumbents of managerial or confidential positions mutually excluded by the Parties to this Agreement.
 - (b) Excluded classes as outlined in Appendix 2 - Bargaining Unit Exclusions
- (8) "Employer" means the Kitamaat Village Council.
- (9) "Extra Curricular" are those activities that are beyond the prescribed and locally determined curricula of the School.
- (10) "Headquarter" or "geographic location" is that area within a radius of thirty-two (32) kilometres of where an employee ordinarily performs her duties.
- (11) "Holiday" means the twenty-four (24) period commencing at 00:01 hours of a day designated as a paid holiday in this Agreement.
- (12) "Hours of operation" are the hours established by the Employer to provide adequate service to the public and to fulfil the functions of the work unit.

(13) "Hours travelled" means hours spent travelling from point to point on an hourly or daily basis as required by the Employer and does not include meal breaks, lodging time or time spent other than travelling.

(14) "Instructional Staff" - all employees of the Kitamaat Village Council employed in its education department as certified teachers.

(15) "Kitamaat Village Council" means the elected Chief and Council of the Haisla First Nation acting for and on behalf of the Band:

(16) "Lateral transfer" refers to the movement of an employee from one position to another which does not constitute a demotion or promotion.

(17) "Layoff" includes a cessation of employment, a reduction of regularly-scheduled hours, or elimination of a job resulting from a reduction of the amount of work required to be done by the Employer.

(18) "Leave of absence with pay" means to be absent from duty with permission but with pay. "Leave of absence without pay" means to be absent from duty with permission but without pay.

(19) "Lockout" included the closing of a place of employment, a suspension of work by an employer or a refusal by an employer to continue to employ a number of their employees, done to compel their employees, or to aid another employer to compel that other employer's employees, to agree to terms or conditions of employment.

(20) "Pay" means the rate of compensation for the job.

(21) "Probation" for an employee means the time spent by the employee prior to being confirmed in the position for which she was hired.

(22) "Promotion" means a change from an employee's position to one with a higher maximum salary level.

(23) "Resignation" means a voluntary notice by the employee that she is terminating her service on the date specified.

(24) "Rest period" is a paid interval which is included in the workday and is intended to give the employee an opportunity to have refreshments and a rest.

(25) "Shift schedule" is a pattern of work hours established through negotiations to meet the hours of operation.

(26) "Spouse" includes husband, wife, and common-law spouse;

(27) "Strike" includes a cessation of work or a refusal to work or to continue to work by employees, in combination, in concert or accordance with a common understanding, and a slowdown of work or other concerted activity on the part of employees in relation to their work that is designed to restrict or limit output.

(28) "Technological change" shall be understood to mean:

- (a) the introduction by the Employer into its work, undertaking or business of equipment or material of a different nature or kind than that previously utilized by the Employer in operation of the work, undertaking or business; or
 - (b) a change in the manner in which the Employer carries on its work, undertaking or business that is directly related to the introduction of that equipment or material.
- (29) "Termination" is the separation of an employee from the service of the Employer for cause pursuant to Articles 10, 11 and 30 of this Agreement.
- (30) "Transfer" refers to the movement of an employee from one work group to another.
- (31) "Travel status" with respect to an employee means absence of the employee from her headquarters or geographic location on Kitamaat Village Council business with the approval of the Employer, but travel status does not apply to an employee temporarily assigned to a position outside of her headquarters or geographic location.
- (32) "Union" means the B.C. Government and Service Employees' Union.
- (33) "Volunteer" means a person, including a student, who provides gratis labour and/or services and is not a bargaining unit member or a representative of the Employer. Persons engaged on a Work Incentive Program basis who receive top-up to social benefits shall be deemed volunteers for the purposes of this Agreement.
- (34) "Workday" is a period of twenty-four (24) consecutive hours commencing with the starting time of any shift. For the purpose of calculating compensatory overtime rates only, the time worked prior to, but adjoining to, a shift shall be deemed as time worked after a shift.
- (35) "Work Group" means a distinct functional division of employees at the worksite.

ARTICLE 1 - PREAMBLE

1.1 Purpose of Agreement

- (a) The purpose of this Agreement is to establish and maintain orderly collective bargaining procedures between the Employer and the Union.
- (b) The Parties to this Agreement share a desire to recognize the value of joint discussions and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions and conditions of employment and they are determined to establish, within the framework provided by the law, an effective working relationship at all levels of the bargaining unit.
- (c) The Parties recognize the benefit to be derived from a work environment free of interruptions of work and interference with the proper operations of the employers business, harassment, and where the conduct and/or language of all employees meets the acceptable social standards of the workplace. The parties agree to maintain such on environment.
- (d) To encourage efficiency of operations.

1.2 Principles and Spirit of Negotiations

This Collective Agreement is based upon the following principles which guide the spirit of negotiations and all future interpretations of same:

- (a) Kitamaat Village Council has certain inherent rights to manage its governmental affairs, which rights have been affirmed in the Constitution Act, 1982, and the Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, C. 1-5.
- (b) The conduct of labour relations is an aspect of trade and commerce, which have been part of the rights and practices of the Band since before 1846.
- (c) Employees should be treated fairly and honourably in the workplace, in a manner which reflects the Band's traditional values of honesty, generosity, openness, and mutual respect.
- (d) Family relationships and the good of the individual and the community are deserving of concern and respect.
- (e) It is through the enactment of its laws in the area of labour relations that the principles and values of the Haisla First Nations people will continue to provide inspiration to the community.
- (f) The Band, in its labour relations, seeks to build self-sufficiency by having its Band Members receive priority, ahead of other employee, in training, employment and related opportunities; and
- (g) Labour relations must embody the following:
 - (1) respect for and recognition of the Haisla's struggle for self-reliance and self-determination as an Aboriginal Nation and as a Band:
 - (2) respect for and recognition of the Haisla's struggle to free its governmental structures and institutions from the imposition of laws and values which are contrary to those of the Haisla people;
 - (3) respect for and recognition of the inherent aboriginal rights and the statutory rights of the Haisla people;
 - (4) respect for and recognition of the fact that the development of the Band's government, in accordance with the traditions and values of the Haisla people; requires a high degree of flexibility in order to meet the changing needs of the community; and
 - (5) respect for and recognition of the essential nature and importance of the services provided by the Band and its employees to members of the community.

1.3 Future Legislation

In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provisions of this Agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement, and the Parties hereto shall negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision so rendered null and void or materially altered.

1.4 Conflict with Regulations

In the event that there is a conflict between the contents of this Agreement and any regulation or policy made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, which affect the members of the bargaining unit, this Agreement shall take precedence over the said regulations or policy.

1.5 Use of Terms

- (a) Masculine and Feminine: The masculine or feminine gender may be used interchangeably throughout this Agreement. Wherever one gender is used, it shall be construed as meaning the other if the facts or context require.
- (b) Singular and Plural: Wherever the singular is used, the same shall be construed as meaning the plural if the facts so require.

1.6 Canadian Human Rights Act

The Parties hereto subscribe to the principles of the Canadian Human Rights Act, RSC 1985.

1.7 Discrimination and Harassment Under the Canadian Human Rights Act

- (a) Purpose: The Employer, in cooperation with the Union, will promote a work environment that is free from harassment and discrimination where all employees are treated with respect and dignity.
- (b) Definition of Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment means any conduct, comment, gesture or contact of a sexual nature;
- (1) that is likely to cause offence or humiliation to any employee; or
 - (2) that might, on reasonable grounds be perceived by that employee as placing a condition of a sexual nature on employment or on any opportunity for training or promotion.
- (c) Definition of Harassment: Harassment in the workplace is defined as unwelcome conduct related to a prohibited ground of discrimination that detrimentally affects the work environment or leads to adverse job-related consequences for those experiencing harassment.
- (d) Procedure: Once a complaint is brought to the attention of the Employer, the Employer will take immediate steps to investigate the allegation. The Employer will take such disciplinary measures as the Employer deems appropriate against any person under the Employer's direction who subjects any employee to harassment. The Employer will not disclose the name of the complainant or the circumstances related to the complaint to any person except where disclosure is necessary for the purposes of investigating the complaint or taking disciplinary measures in relations thereto.
- (1) Step 1: An employee who believes she has a complaint of harassment or discrimination may approach supervisory personnel, a Union steward, or other contact person to discuss potential means of resolving a complaint and to request assistance in resolving the matter. If the matter is resolved to the complainant's satisfaction the matter is deemed to be resolved.
 - (2) Step 2: If the matter is not resolved to the employee's satisfaction, then the employee will approach the first excluded level of management not involved in the matter, for assistance in resolving the issue within three (3) months of the alleged occurrence. The manager will investigate the allegation and take steps to resolve the concern as appropriate within thirty (30) days of the issue being raised by the employee. The manager will investigate the allegation and take steps to resolve the concern as appropriate within thirty (30) days of the issue being raised by the employee. The manager will discuss the proposed resolution with the employee. The employee may have a Union representative present during these discussions. Where the first excluded level of management is the respondent, the employee shall approach the respondent's supervisor.
 - (3) Step 3: If the proposed resolution is not acceptable, the employee may refer the matter, through the Union, in writing to the Executive Director (or designate) within thirty (30) days of receiving the Manager's response or within thirty (30) days of the response due date.
 - (4) Step 4: The Executive Director, or designate, will take steps to further investigate and resolve the matter within thirty (30) days of receiving the complaint.
 - (5) Step 5: Where the matter is not resolved to the complainant's satisfaction, the Union may refer the matter to arbitration.

This Clause does not preclude an employee from filing a complaint under Section 40 of the Canadian Human Rights Act; however, an employee shall not be entitled to duplication of process. An employee making a complaint of harassment must choose to direct a complaint to either the Canadian Human Rights Commission or to the process specified in this Article. In either event a complaint of harassment shall not form the basis of a grievance.

An employee who files a written complaint which would be seen by a reasonable person to be frivolous, vindictive or vexatious may be subject to disciplinary action. Disciplinary action taken may be grieved pursuant to Article 8.

1.8 Confidentiality and Disclosure

An employee shall:

- (a) not engage in public criticism of Kitamaat Village Council, the Councillors, the Managers, or the administration policies in any manner of subject which may apply or be in connection with the employee's work;
- (b) not use information obtained on the job for other than the intended purpose; not for personal interests or for those of other persons;
- (c) maintain the confidentiality of all information acquired at the place or work. Such information may not be released to the general public or news media. Information solicited from any organization or government body may only be released with the express permission of the supervisor or Executive Director. The only exception will be the releasing of information to an official investigation of RCMP or the Department of Social Services.

1.9 Jurisdictional Change

- (a) Until such time as a treaty or self-government agreement between the Kitamaat Village Council and the Government of Canada or Government of British Columbia, or both the Government of Canada and Government of British Columbia, addressing jurisdiction over labour matters comes into effect, the Canada Labour Code and other federal labour legislation shall continue to apply to the Parties and govern labour relations matters that arise.
- (b) Once a treaty or self-government agreement comes into effect and the Kitamaat Village Council has passed laws in relation to labour matters consistent with such treaty or self-government agreement, the collective agreement will be administered in a manner agreed upon by both parties of this Agreement reflecting the Canadian Labour Code and the Kitamaat Village Council labour law.

ARTICLE 2 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

2.1 Management Rights

The Union recognizes that management of the Kitamaat village Education Department and the direction of the working forces are fixed exclusively with the Employer and shall remain solely with the Employer except as specifically limited by the express provisions of this Agreement and without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive right and power of the Employer to:

- (a) maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
- (b) hire assign, direct, promote, transfer, layoff, recall after layoff and discharge, suspend or otherwise discipline employees for just cause;
- (c) determine in the interest of efficient operations and the highest standards of service, the job classifications and job content, work assignments, methods of performing the work and the working establishment, consistent with current job scope.

- (d) determine and control all programs, the number and location of classes, the amount of supervision necessary, the machinery and equipment to be used, the standard of performance of employees, judgement and evaluation of personnel qualifications and the selection, procurement, designing and engineering of equipment or material or program publications which may be incorporated into the Employer's operation;
- (e) make, enforce and alter, from time to time, rules and regulations to be observed by the employees which are not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement;
- (f) introduce new technology and new devices in order to maintain or to improve efficiency of operations. The Parties further recognize that layoffs of staff may occur as a result of these changes, and the Employer agrees that such layoff will be effected in accordance with articles of the Collective Agreement.

All rights referred to in this article shall be exercised in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

2.2 Management Rights

Where rights and/or responsibilities of the Employer are set out, these may be designated to another person. The Union shall be advised in writing of any appointed designate.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION RECOGNITION AND RIGHTS

3.1 Bargaining Unit Defined

The "bargaining unit" shall comprise all employees included in the certification dated May 17, 2000 and additional positions as may be mutually agreed and as defined in this Agreement, except those employees in positions mutually agreed to between the Parties as managerial and/or confidential exclusions. The guidelines to be considered in negotiating exclusions shall be:

- (a) position incumbents employed for the primary purpose of exercising senior management functions;
- (b) position incumbents employed in a confidential capacity in matters relating to labour relations.

Incumbents of new positions established by the Employer shall automatically be included in the bargaining unit or by order of the Labour Relations Board of Canada. Exclusions to the bargaining unit are listed as Appendix 2 of this Agreement.

3.2 Bargaining Agent or Recognition

The Employer recognizes the B.C. Government and Service Employees' Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for all employees to whom the certification issued by the Labour Relations Board on May 17, 2000 applies

3.3 Correspondence

The Employer agrees that all correspondence between the Employer and the Union related to matters covered in this Agreement shall be sent to the President of the Union (or designate).

The Employer agrees that a copy of any correspondence between the Employer and any employee in the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement pertaining to the interpretations of any clause in this Agreement, shall be forwarded to the President of the Union (or designate).

3.4 No Other Agreement

No employee covered by this Agreement shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer or its representatives which may conflict with the terms of this Agreement.

3.5 No Discrimination for Union Activity

The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.

3.6 Recognition and Rights of Stewards

The Employer recognizes the Union's right to select stewards to represent employees. The Employer and the Union will agree on the number of stewards, taking into account both operational and geographic considerations. The Union agrees to provide the Employer with a list of the employees designated as stewards for each jurisdictional area. A steward shall obtain the permission of her immediate supervisor before leaving her work to perform her duties as a steward. Leave for this purpose shall be with pay. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. On resuming her normal duties, the steward shall notify her supervisor. Duties of the stewards shall include:

- (a) investigation of complaints of an urgent nature
- (b) investigation of grievances and assisting any employee which the steward represents in preparing and presenting a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure
- (c) supervision of ballot-boxes and other related functions during ratification votes
- (d) carrying out duties within the realm of assigned safety responsibilities for stewards who are members of safety committees
- (e) attending meetings called by management.

3.7 Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide a bulletin board for the exclusive use of the Union, the site to be determined by mutual agreement. The use of such bulletin board facilities shall be restricted to the business affairs of the Union.

3.8 Union Insignia

A Union member shall have the right to wear or display recognized insignia of the Union. Location(s) and uses of display shall be by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

3.9 Right to Refuse to Cross Picket Lines

All employees covered by this Agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a picket line arising out of a dispute with Kitamaat Village Council as defined in the Federal Labour Code of Canada. Any employee failing to report for duty shall be considered to be absent without pay. Failure to cross a picket line encountered in carrying out the Employer's business shall not be considered a violation of this Agreement nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action.

In accordance with Section 89(2) of the Canada labour Code both parties recognize that "no employee shall participate in a strike unless the employee is a member of a bargaining unit in respect of which a notice to bargain collectively has been given under this part."

3.10 Time Off for Union Business

(a) Without Pay: Leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority will be granted:

(1) to an elected or appointed representative of the Union to attend conventions of the Union and bodies to which the Union is affiliated. Such leave shall be requested in writing to the employee's supervisor at least fourteen (14) days in advance.

(2) for elected or appointed representatives of the Union to attend to Union business which requires them to leave their general work area. Such leave shall be requested in writing to the employee's supervisor at least fourteen (14) days in advance.

(3) for employees who are representatives of the Union on a Bargaining Committee to attend meetings of the Bargaining Committee and to carry on negotiations with the Employer;

(4) to employees called by the Union to appear as witnesses before an arbitration board.

(b) With Pay: Leave of absence with pay and without loss of seniority will be granted:

(1) to stewards or their alternates, to perform their duties pursuant to Clause 2.6;

(2) to employees who are representatives of the Union on the Labour-Management Committee pursuant to Article 25;

(c) Local Union & Bargaining Unit Meetings: The Employer agrees to allow employees to leave work at 15:30 hours, four (4) times a year for the purpose of attending Union meetings without loss of pay. The Union agrees to notify the Employer of the dates of such meetings at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting. Minimal staff coverage shall be maintained. It is understood that employees working a shift which does not end at 16:30 hours are expected to return to work upon the conclusion of the Union meeting.

To facilitate the administration of this Clause, when leave without pay is granted, the leave shall be given with pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for the appropriate salary and benefit costs, including travel time incurred. Leave of absence granted under this Clause shall include sufficient travel time. The Union shall provide the Employer with reasonable notice prior to the commencement of leave under this Clause. It is understood that employees granted leave of absence pursuant to this Clause shall receive their current rate of pay while on leave of absence with pay. The Employer agrees that any of the above-noted leaves of absence shall not be unreasonably withheld.

3.11 Emergency Services During Strike or Lockout

The Parties recognize that in the event of a strike or lockout, situations may arise of an emergency nature. To this end, the Employer and the Union will agree to provide services of an emergency nature.

3.12 Representative Assistance

The Employer recognizes the right of the Union to have assistance and/or representation from the BCGEU and/or any other assistance or representation it deems necessary when dealing on any matters with the Employer. Likewise, the Union recognizes the right of the Employer to have assistance and/or representation when dealing on any matters with the Union. As a matter of courtesy the Parties will advise each other of who will be present or represent them at meetings.

ARTICLE 4 - UNION SECURITY

4.1 Union Membership

- (a) All employees in the bargaining unit who on May 17, 2000 were members of the Union or thereafter became members of the Union, shall, as a condition of continued employment, maintain such membership.
- (b) All employees hired on or after May 17, 2000 shall, as a condition of continued employment, become members of the Union and maintain such membership, upon completion of thirty (30) calendar days as an employee.
- (c) Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as requiring a person who was an employee prior to May 17, 2000 to become a member of the Union.

4.2 Bargaining Unit Work

- (a) It is not the policy or practice of the Employer to have excluded classes of employees perform work normally assigned to employees, including Foremen, covered by this Agreement. Excluded supervisors shall not perform bargaining unit work except in an emergency situation where bargaining unit members are not immediately available.
- (b) The involvement of excluded employees in services provided by the bargaining unit shall not result in a reduction in bargaining unit positions.

ARTICLE 5 - CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

- (a) The Employer shall, as a condition of employment, deduct from the monthly wages or salary of each employee in the bargaining unit, whether or not the employee is a member of the Union, the amount of the regular monthly dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union. Each employee shall sign a Dues Authorization Check-Off form.
- (b) The Employer shall deduct from any employee who is a member of the Union any assessments levied in accordance with the Union Constitution and/or Bylaws and owing by the employee to the Union.
- (c) Deduction shall be made monthly. Membership dues or payments in lieu thereof shall be considered as owing in the month for which they are so deducted.
- (d) All deductions shall be remitted to the Union not later than twenty-eight (28) calendar days after the date of deduction and the Employer shall also make available to the Union information submitted with each dues remittance. This information shall include the following: Social Insurance Number, Surname and First Name, Address, Sex, Birth Date, Job Title, Gross Pay, Year-to-Date Dues of those employees from whose salaries such deductions have been made together with the amounts deducted from each employee. This will be provided on computer disk in ASCII language, when available to the Employer.
- (e) Before the Employer is obliged to deduct any amount under section (a) of this Article, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of its regular monthly dues. The amount so advised shall continue to be the amount to be deducted until changed by further written notice to the Employer signed by the Staff Representative of the Union. Upon receipt of such notice, such changed amount shall be the amount deducted.
- (f) The Employer shall supply each employee, without charge, a receipt for income tax purposes in the amount of the deductions paid to the Union by the employee in the previous year. Such receipts shall be provided to the employees prior to March 1st of the succeeding year.

ARTICLE 6 - EMPLOYER AND UNION SHALL ACQUAINT NEW EMPLOYEES

The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a Collective Agreement is in effect, and with the conditions of employment set out in the Articles dealing with Union Security and Dues Check-Off. A new employee shall be advised of the name and location of her steward. Whenever the steward is employed in the same work area as the new employee, the employee's immediate supervisor will introduce her to her steward, who will provide the employee with a copy of the Collective Agreement. The Employer agrees that the Bargaining Unit Chairpersons (or designate) will be given an opportunity to interview each new employee within regular working hours, without loss of pay, for thirty (30) minutes sometime during the first week of initial employment for the purpose of acquainting the new employee with the benefits and duties of Union membership and the employee's responsibilities and obligations to the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 7 - EMPLOYER -UNION RELATIONS

7.1 Representation

No employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without proper authorization of the Union. To implement this, the Union shall supply the Employer with the names of its officers and, similarly, the Employer shall supply the Union with a list of its supervisory or other personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

7.2 Union Bargaining Committees

- (a) A Union Bargaining Committee shall not exceed two (2) members of the bargaining unit, but shall include members of the staff of the Union when negotiating with the Employer. The Union will advise the Employer of the Union members on the Committee.
- (b) An Employer Bargaining Committee shall consist of not more than two (2) members of the Education Department, but shall include other members of Management/Staff, Councillor, or Labour Consultant of Kitamaat Village Council. The Employer will advise the Union of its representatives on the Committee

7.3 Union Representatives

The Employer agrees that access to its premises will be granted to members of the staff of the Union when dealing or negotiating with the Employer, as well as for the purpose of investigating and assisting in the settlement of a grievance.

Members of Union staff shall notify the excluded designated supervisory official in advance of their intention and their purpose for entry and shall not interfere with the operation of the section concerned. In order to facilitate the orderly, as well as the confidential investigation of grievances, the Employer will attempt to make available to Union representatives or stewards temporary use of an office or similar facility.

7.4 Technical Information

The Employer agrees to provide to the Union such information that is available relating to employees in the bargaining unit, as may be required by the Union for collective bargaining purposes.

7.5 Coordination of Interests

There shall be no restriction upon the right of an employee to engage in private or consultant work, for remuneration, outside of her position with the Employer, unless the Employer can demonstrate that a conflict of interest or duty exists. No employee shall engage in outside employment which will interfere with the efficient performance of the employee's duties or responsibilities or which will occupy time during her working hours; neither shall outside employment involve the performance of duties which the employee should perform as part of her employment.

Any consideration of such outside employment shall be disclosed to the employee's supervisor prior to the commencement of the work. Where concerns exist the Supervisor, or designate shall notify the employee within thirty (30) days of the disclosure.

ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCES

8.1 Grievance Procedure

The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

- (a) differences between the Parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation, or any alleged violation of a provision of this Agreement, or Arbitral Award, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration.
- (b) the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee bound by this Agreement. The procedure for resolving a grievance shall be the grievance procedure in this Article.

8.2 Incident Review

Within ten (10) working days of the incident or becoming aware of the incident, every effort shall be made to settle the dispute with the designated local supervisor. The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have her steward present at such discussions. If the dispute is not resolved the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance within those same ten (10) working days, through the Union Steward to step 1 of the grievance procedure.

8.3 Step 1

- (a) Subject to the time limits in clause 8.2 the employee may present a grievance at this level by:
 - (1) recording her grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;
 - (2) stating the article or articles of the Agreement infringed upon or alleged to have been violated, and the remedy or correction required and;
 - (3) transmitting this grievance to the designated local supervisor through the Union Steward.
- (b) The local supervisor shall;
 - (1) Provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received.
 - (2) Respond in writing within fourteen (14) days of receiving the grievance.
 - (3) Forward the grievance form and the Employers response at step 1 to the Human Resources Manager (or designate).

8.4 Step 2

The Staff Representative of the Union (or designate) may advance a grievance at Step 2 to the Employers' Human Resources Manager (or designate) within fourteen (14) calendar days after the decision has been conveyed to her by the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 1.

8.5 Time Limit to Reply at Step 2

The Human Resources Manager (or designate) designated by the Employer to handle grievances at step 2 shall have thirty (30) calendar days after advancement of the grievance to step 2 to respond in writing during which time an investigation and/or hearing may be held.

8.6 Step 3

The Staff Representative of the Union (or designate) may advance a grievance at step 3 to the Executive Director (or designate) of the Kitamaat Village Council within thirty (30) calendar days after the decision has been conveyed to her by the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2.

8.7 Time Limit to Reply at Step 3

The Executive Director (or designate) designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 3 shall respond in writing to the grievance within thirty (30) calendar days after advancement of the grievance to Step 3, during which time an investigation and/or hearing may be held.

8.8 Time Limits

Should either Party exceed the time limits set out in this Article, or fail to request an extension of the time limits, in writing, within the time limits, the Party exceeding the time limits must concede the grievance. Requests for time limit extensions shall not be unreasonably withheld.

8.9 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 3, and pursuant to Article 9, the Union Staff Representative (or designate) may inform the Employer of her intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within thirty (30) calendar days after the Employer's decision has been received.

8.10 Administrative Provisions

- (a) Grievances and replies at Step 3 of the grievance procedure and notification to arbitrate shall be by facsimile, courier or hand delivery.
- (b) Subject to section (c) below, grievances, replies and notification to arbitrate shall be deemed to be presented on the day of receipt of facsimile transmission, delivery by the courier or direct hand delivery to the Employer.
- (c) Where a facsimile is used to transmit grievances, replies and notification to arbitrate, the sender must forward the original documents to the recipient by mail within three (3) business days of the facsimile transmission. The sender will retain a facsimile receipt to prove service.
- (d) In the event of a dispute, strike, lockout, or other work stoppage in the Canada Post office, within British Columbia, section (c) shall not apply and originals will be hand delivered or forwarded upon conclusion of the dispute.

8.11 Dismissal and Suspension Grievances

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal, rejection on probation, suspension greater than twenty (20) days or suspension pending investigation, the grievance may be filed directly at arbitration within thirty (30) days of the date on which the dismissal, rejection on probation, or suspension occurred, or within thirty (30) days of the employee receiving such notice.

(b) In the case of a dispute arising from other suspensions, the grievance may commence at Step 1 of the grievance procedure within thirty (30) days of the date on which the suspension occurred, or within thirty (30) days of the employee receiving such notice.

8.12 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees that after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representatives will not enter into discussion or negotiation, with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union. In the event that after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that pursuant to this Article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.

8.13 Policy Grievance

Where either Party to this Agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an Article of this Agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Human Resources Manager, or designate, or the Union, as the case may be, within sixty (60) calendar days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either Party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 9 of this Agreement.

8.14 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both Parties to this Agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

8.15 Effective Date of Settlements

Settlements reached at any step of the grievance procedure in this Article, other than Clause 8.13, may be applied retroactively to the date of the occurrence of the action or situation which gave rise to the grievance, but not prior to the effective date of the Agreement in effect at the time of the occurrence or the date set by a board of arbitration.

8.16 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the Parties, but the same must be in writing within the time limits set out.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION

9.1 Arbitration

(a) Where a difference arises between the Parties relating to the interpretation, application, or administration of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that a term or condition of this Agreement has been violated, either of the Parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure in Article 8, notify the other Party within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the reply at the third step, of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.

(b) A submission of such a difference or allegation to arbitration shall be done in accordance with the administrative provisions of Clause 8.10.

9.2 Appointment of Arbitrator

For the purposes of this Collective Agreement, the persons named in Appendix 3 shall act as single arbitrators and, depending upon availability, shall be assigned in sequence, commencing with the first arbitrator named. The Parties agree to give preference to qualified Aboriginal peoples. If none of these arbitrators are available to act within a reasonable period the Parties shall request, pursuant to Section 57(4) of the Canada Labour Code, that the Minister of Labour appoint an arbitrator to hear the grievance.

9.3 Decision of the Arbitrator

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding, and enforceable on the Parties. The arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a grievance by any arrangement deemed just and equitable. However, the arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement by altering, modifying or amending any provisions.

9.4 Costs

The Parties to this Agreement shall jointly bear the cost of the arbitrator and each of the Parties shall bear the cost of its own representatives and witnesses.

9.5 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the Parties but the same must be in writing.

9.6 Witnesses

At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the Parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses. All reasonable arrangement will be made to permit the concerned Parties or the arbitrator(s) to have access to the Employer's premises to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

9.7 Expedited Arbitration

Subject to Clause 9.1, expedited arbitration shall refer to a system of rights arbitration incorporating procedures specifically designed to reduce delay and/or cost in the hearing and issuance of an award.

- (a) All grievances shall be considered suitable for and resolved by expedited arbitration except grievances in the nature of:
- (1) dismissals;
 - (2) rejection on probation;
 - (3) suspensions in excess of twenty (20) workdays;
 - (4) policy grievances;
 - (5) grievances requiring substantial interpretation of a provision of the Agreement;
 - (6) grievances relating to Article 14 - Hours of Work;
 - (7) grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence;
 - (8) grievances where a Party intends to raise a preliminary objection;
 - (9) demotions.

By mutual agreement, a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process.

- (b) The Parties shall mutually agree upon a single arbitrator whose name shall be taken from the list of single arbitrators in Appendix 4.

- (c) The arbitrator shall hear the grievance and shall render a decision within two (2) workdays of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.
- (d) Expedited arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not, therefore, be referred to by the Parties in respect of any other matter.
- (e) All settlements of expedited arbitrations shall be "without prejudice".
- (f) The Parties shall equally share the cost of fees and expenses of the arbitrator and hearing room.
- (g) No later than two (2) weeks prior to the scheduled hearing for each grievance, the Union and the Employer shall prepare a statement of agreed facts for presentation at the hearing. They will identify the names of all witnesses that they intend to call and will advise the other Party of the purpose for which that witness is being called. They will also identify any preliminary issues that they intend to raise with the arbitrator and the remedy being sought.
- (h) Notwithstanding the above, either Party may remove a case from the expedited process and forward it to full arbitration as per Article 9 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10 - DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

10.1 Burden of Proof

In all cases of discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer.

10.2 Dismissal

The Employer may dismiss any employee for just cause. Notice of dismissal shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for dismissal.

10.3 Suspension

The Employer may suspend an employee for just cause. Notice of suspension shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for the suspension.

10.4 Dismissal and Suspension Grievance

Dismissals and suspensions may be subject to formal grievance under Article 8 of this Agreement. A copy of the written notice of dismissal or suspension shall be forwarded to the Staff Representative of the Union within five (5) workdays of the action being taken.

10.5 Right to Grieve Other Disciplinary Action

- (a) Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand and adverse reports or performance evaluations, which may be applicable to the grievance. An employee shall be given a copy of any such document placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in her file, she shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of her personnel record.
- (b) Upon the employee's request any such document, other than official evaluation reports, shall be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of eighteen (18) months from the date it was issued provided there has not been a further infractions.

10.6 Evaluation Reports

Where a formal appraisal of an employee's performance is carried out, the employee shall be given sufficient opportunity after the interview to read, review and ask questions about the appraisal. Provision shall be made on the evaluation form for an employee to sign it. The form shall provide for the employee's signature in two places; one indicating that the employee has read and accepts the appraisal, and the other indicating that the employee disagrees with the appraisal. The employee shall sign in one of the places provided. No employee may initiate a grievance regarding the contents of an evaluation report unless the signature indicates disagreement with the appraisal. An employee shall, upon request, receive a copy of this evaluation report at time of signing. An evaluation report shall not be changed after an employee has signed it, without the knowledge of the employee.

10.7 Personnel File

During regular working hours an employee or President of the Union (or designate) with the written authority of the employee shall be entitled to review the employee's personnel file, both paper and, if applicable, electronic, in the office in which the file is normally kept, in order to facilitate the investigation of a grievance. Requests to view personnel files must be made in writing to the supervisor at least three (3) days in advance. The viewing will be done in the presence of the supervisor, for a period of time not normally to exceed fifteen (15) minutes per file.

10.8 Right to Have Steward Present

- (a) An employee shall have the right to have her steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the employee has been advised might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact her steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.
- (b) A steward shall have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and to have a local representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the steward has been advised might be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

10.9 Rejection During Probation

The Employer may dismiss a probationary employee for just cause. The test of dismissal for just cause shall be a test of suitability for the probationary employee for continued employment in the position to which she has been appointed.

10.10 Abandonment of Position

An employee who fails to report for work without informing the supervisor for the reason for his absence will be deemed to be away without approved leave (AWOL) and will be disciplined accordingly.

An employee who fails to report for duty for five (5) consecutive workdays without informing the Employer of the reason for her absence will be presumed to have abandoned her position. An employee shall be afforded the opportunity to rebut such presumption and demonstrate that there were reasonable grounds for not informing the Employer. Abandonment will result in dismissal.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.1 Seniority Defined

- (a) "Service Seniority" shall mean the length of continuous service as an employee of the Kitamaat Village Council, including service prior to Union certification, and shall be based on a last date of hire system.
- (b) "Classification Seniority" for a regular employee shall be from that date upon which an employee is last appointed to her present classification with the status of a regular employee.
- (c) For the purposes of this Clause, an employee's service seniority shall be deemed "continuous" during periods where they are awaiting recall pursuant to Articles 13 or 30 and during all scheduled non-teaching breaks in the calendar year.

11.2 Seniority List

- (a) The Employer shall maintain a service seniority list showing the date each employee commenced employment (Schedule A). An up-to-date service seniority list shall be posted in each Department and sent to the Staff Representative of the Union on October 1st and April 1st each year. Where within thirty (30) days of posting the Union does not dispute its accuracy, the seniority list shall be deemed accurate.

11.3 Loss of Seniority

- (a) An employee on leave of absence without pay, other than leave of absence for an elected or appointed position in the Union, shall not accrue seniority for leave periods over thirty (30) calendar days. An employee who is on leave of absence without pay in an elected or appointed position of the Union shall continue to accrue seniority without benefits during the leave period. Upon returning the employee shall receive her position back, or a position of equal rank and salary.
- (b) An employee on a claim recognized by the Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) shall be credited with service seniority equivalent to what she would have earned had she not been absent and had been able to work.
- (c) An employee shall lose her seniority as an employee in the event that:
 - (1) she is discharged for just cause;
 - (2) she is on layoff for more than twelve (12) months;
 - (3) she substitutes into or occupies an excluded position for more than six (6) months;
 - (4) subject to Clause 11.4, she voluntarily terminates her employment or abandons her position.
 - (5) Following a layoff she fails to return to work when recalled as per the terms of Article 13.

11.4 Re-employment

An employee who resigns her position and within sixty (60) calendar days is re-employed shall be granted a leave of absence without pay covering those days absent and shall retain all provisions and rights in relation to seniority. Reinstatement and/or re-enrolment of benefits will be as per the guidelines of the Plan Carrier(s).

11.5 Care and Nurturing - Bridging of Service

If a regular employee terminates as a result of a decision to care for a dependent parent, spouse or child, and is re-employed, upon application she shall be credited with length of service accumulated at time of termination for the purposes of benefits based on service seniority. The following conditions shall apply:

- (a) The employee must have been a regular employee with at least two years of service seniority at time of termination.
- (b) The resignation must indicate the reason for termination and include a doctor's certificate stating that the dependent of issue requires such personal care.
- (c) The break in service shall be for no longer than six (6) years, and during that time the employee must not have been engaged in remunerative employment for more than six (6) months excepting employment with this Employer as an auxiliary.
- (d) The previous length of service shall not be reinstated until successful completion of the probationary period on re-employment for non-instructional staff.

Former employees who meet the conditions outlined above will have in-service status when applying for re-employment and shall, for the purpose of the selection process, be credited with recognition for the years of seniority accumulated to the effective date of termination.

ARTICLE 12 - SERVICE CAREER POLICY

12.1 Postings

- (a) All new or vacant positions within the bargaining unit that are to be filled shall be posted on the bulletin boards for a period of not less than five (5) workdays prior to the closing date.
- (b) The notice of postings shall contain the following information: nature of position, qualifications, skills, whether shift work is involved, wage or salary rate or range, whether the position is subject to a criminal record check, whether one must be bondable, whether the employee is required to use her vehicle in the performance of the job, whether production of a driver's abstract is required, and, where applicable, specific location. Such qualifications may not be established in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.
- (c) Employees who fulfil the qualifications of the job posted shall be given priority in respect of placement in continuous positions, transfers and promotions within the bargaining unit before external applicants are considered for any position covered by this Agreement.

12.2 Role of Seniority on Promotions and Transfers

The Parties hereto agree that promotions and transfers shall be made on the basis of seniority, provided the employee concerned possesses the necessary qualifications, skill, knowledge and ability to fulfil the job requirements. Where two or more applicants meet all the aforementioned requisites to fulfil the job requirements, have the same seniority date and are senior to all other applicants, preference in the award of the transfer or promotion shall be given (in sequential order) to applicants from the following designated groups:

- (a) band members;
- (b) persons of Aboriginal origin;
- (c) non-native persons.

12.3 Letter of Preference

In order that all permanent employees, and auxiliary employees who have seniority in accordance with Article 30 of this Collective Agreement, have an equal opportunity to apply on vacant or new bargaining unit positions for which they are qualified, such employees may submit a "Letter of Preference" indicating which positions/classifications they wish to apply on. Letters of Preference shall remain valid for six (6) months.

Acceptance of such "Letters of Preference" by the Employer is not to be interpreted as giving the employee preference on a job opening or job competition. The acceptance of a "Letter of Preference" by the Employer from an employee is simply a recognition of the employee's job interest.

12.4 Notification of Job Competition Results

Unsuccessful in-service applicants to posted positions will be notified of the name and classification of the successful applicant. The unsuccessful applicants shall be notified in writing of the reasons why they were unsuccessful if they request such reasons within seven (7) calendar days of being notified of the name and classification of the successful applicant.

Where no requests have been received within seven (7) calendar days, the appointment of the successful applicant may be confirmed.

12.5 Trial Period on Promotions and Transfers

In the case of promotions or transfers, a successful applicant shall be placed on trial for a period of up to sixty (60) calendar days. Conditional on satisfactory service, the employee shall be declared to have completed the trial period following the sixty (60) calendar days. In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the trial period, or if the employee is unable to perform the duties of the new job classification, the employee shall be returned to the former position, wage or salary rate, without loss of seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to the former position, wage or salary rate, without loss of seniority.

12.6 Disabled, Injured or Older Worker

Upon agreement of the Parties to this Agreement, subject to Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) Regulations and Insurance Carrier(s) policy the Employer may provide suitable alternate employment and where possible with no reduction in pay rate when, through advancing years, injury, illness or handicap, an employee is unable to perform her normal duties. Such employee shall not displace an employee with more seniority and such requests shall be referred to the Labour-Management Committee for resolution.

12.7 Transfers Without Posting

- (a) Lateral transfers or voluntary demotions may be granted without posting for:
 - (1) Substantiated compassionate or medical grounds to employees who have completed their probationary period if appropriate;
 - (2) all employees who have become incapacitated by industrial injury or industrial illness.

12.8 Positions Temporarily Vacant

- (a) The Employer agrees that it is not the normal practice to increase an employee's workload as a result of positions being temporarily vacant. However, vacancies of a short duration, or vacancies occurring as a result of unplanned circumstances, or vacancies where a suitable replacement employee is not found, may dictate the necessity of employee(s) being asked to assist in other work areas.
- (b) Should the Employer choose to fill a temporarily vacant position and should the vacancy be known to last for two (2) weeks or longer, the Employer shall give qualified regular employees the opportunity to substitute in higher paying positions and arrange for staff replacements at the lowest-paying category.

ARTICLE 13 - LAYOFF AND RECALL13.1 Notification of Workforce Adjustment

- (a) The Employer will provide to the Union a list of vacant positions and a list of all employees issued notices, laid off, retired, in receipt of severance pay or placed pursuant to Article 13.
- (b) The Employer agrees to supply the Union with as much advance notice as possible of expected position redundancies and employees to be designated for layoff.

13.2 Pre-Layoff Canvass

- (a) Where the Employer identifies to the Union a need to proceed with a layoff of employees pursuant to Clause 13.1, the Employer's intent to canvass an employee or group of employees within the area identified for reduction in order to invite, on a voluntary basis:
 - (1) placement of an employee(s) into a vacant position(s); or
 - (2) resignation of an employee(s) with severance and other benefits as provided in Article 13; or
 - (3) where eligible, early retirement.
- (b) Where an employee(s) selects an option or accepts an offer of placement, which shall be confirmed in writing by the Employer, such acceptance is final and binding on the employee.
- (c) Individual employee responses to the pre-layoff canvass will only be considered by the Employer if submitted within ten (10) days of written notification of the pre-layoff canvass to the employee, or group of employees, and to the Union.

13.3 Redundancy

In the event a position(s) redundancy is required then such position redundancy shall occur in reverse order of service seniority within a classification. Such layoffs shall occur as per article 13.7.

13.4 Orientation Period

Employees who assume a new position pursuant to this Article will receive job orientation including, where deemed appropriate, current in-service training. For the purposes of the application of this Article, such orientation period will be for a reasonable period of time not to exceed the probationary period. The employee will be assessed through regular performance appraisals.

13.5 Layoff Notice

A regular employee who is issued a layoff notice shall receive two (2) calendar weeks notice of layoff, or pay in lieu as defined in article 13.6.(b)

13.6 Layoff Options

A regular employee who is issued layoff notice shall elect one of the following options within two (2) calendar weeks:

- (a) to be placed on the regular recall list;
- (b) to displace the auxiliary employee with the longest remaining appointment for which she is qualified and/or to be placed on a list for both regular and auxiliary recall. An employee electing this option shall accrue regular seniority for all work assignments for which she has been recalled, however, the rate of pay for work available under this option shall be commensurate with the actual classification of the work assignment offered. Upon completion of each work assignment and for the purposes of Clause 11.3(c)(2), she shall re-establish her right to a further twelve (12) months of recall;

- (c) to elect early retirement as per the retirement plan outlined under the rules in force by the Plan Carrier(s).
- (d) to sever her employment and receive severance pay based on as follows:
 - (1) after six (6) months to two (2) years of employment, two (2) weeks current salary, and;
 - (2) for each completed year thereafter, one week of current salary for each additional year of service;
 - (3) the employee will not receive an amount greater than two (2) months current salary.

13.7 Recall for Regular Employees

- (a) Regular employees who are laid off shall be placed on a recall list for twelve (12) months.
- (b) No new regular employees shall be hired until employees on the regular recall list are recalled as specified in Clause 13.7(c).
- (c) A regular employee who opts to remain on the recall list shall be recalled in order of service seniority within the comparable classification provided she possesses the skills and abilities to perform the job.
- (d) The Employer will attempt to reach the regular employee for regular position(s) by telephone first, and then by registered letter. The Employer will attempt to contact the regular employee for two (2) weeks before assigning the regular position to another person.
- (e) It is the responsibility of the laid off employee to ensure that the Employer is kept notified of her current mailing address, telephone number and availability.
- (f) If the recalled employee with the most service seniority is unavailable or refuses work, the employee with the next highest service seniority in the classification shall be recalled.
- (g)
 - (1) A regular employee who elects recall pursuant to Clauses 13.7(a) and (b) shall remain on the regular recall list for twelve (12) months from her date of layoff or until such time as she declines or does not respond to an offer of regular work. She shall not lose her service seniority during that period.
 - (2) However, seniority shall be accrued and wages and other benefits shall be paid only for periods worked.
- (h) When a regular employee initially displaces an auxiliary employee in accordance with Clause 13.7(b), and there is no break in service, she shall remain on the benefit plans for which she is eligible, accrue but not be entitled to schedule vacation leave, and remain covered by the provisions of Article 19 for the duration of that appointment.
- (i) A regular employee on the recall list may continue on the benefit plans for which she is eligible, according to the rules of eligibility of the Insurance and Plan carriers (Basic Medical Plan, Dental, Extended Health Care, Accidental Death and Dismemberment, and Group Life) by prepaying the premiums for such coverage.

ARTICLE 14 - HOURS OF WORK

Any other holiday proclaimed as a holiday by the Federal or Provincial Government or by the Kitamaat Village Council for the locality in which the employee is working shall also be a paid holiday.

15.2 Holidays Falling on a Day of Rest

- (a) When a paid holiday falls on an employee's day of rest (Saturday or Sunday), the employee shall be entitled to a day off with pay in lieu. Should the holiday not be proclaimed as being observed on some specific day, the day off in lieu will be observed on the following Monday for the purpose of this Agreement.

15.3 Holiday Falling on a Scheduled Workday

An employee who works on a designated holiday which is a scheduled workday shall be compensated at the rate of double-time for hours worked, plus a day off in lieu of the holiday. The scheduling of the lieu day shall be by mutual agreement.

15.4 Holiday Coinciding with a Day of Vacation

Where an employee is on vacation leave and a day of paid holiday falls within that period, the paid holiday shall not count as a day of vacation.

15.5 Paid Holiday Pay

Payment for holidays will be made at an employee's basic pay, except if an employee has been working in a higher-paid position than her regular position for a majority of the sixty (60) workdays preceding a paid holiday, in which case she shall receive the higher pay. For employees who work in excess of seven (7) hours per day, they shall receive the higher rate if they have been working in a higher-paid position for a majority of the four hundred and twenty (420) working hours preceding a paid holiday.

ARTICLE 16 - SICK LEAVE

16.1 Sick Leave Defined

Sick leave means the period of time an employee is absent from work with full pay for legitimate illness as recognized by a licensed medical practitioner. Absences over three (3) work days in duration must be substantiated with a medical certificate should the Employer require it.

16.2 Sick Leave Accrual

- (a) Sick leave shall be earned at a rate on one and one-quarter (1¼) days for every month worked. Such leave shall be accumulated and used as necessary in accordance with clause 16.1.

- (b) Upon request, an employee shall be provided with an accounting of her sick leave bank utilization and balance.
- (c) Sick pay shall be paid at the employee's current rate of pay on the occasion of each sick day.
- (d) It is agreed by the parties that there shall be no cash payouts of sick leave entitlement.
- (e) In consideration of the possibility that serious illness or hospitalization may occur early in the fiscal year, up to a maximum of eight (8) unused sick days may be carried over to the next fiscal year to be used or held until the end of the first quarter.
- (f) The cost of supplying such written information shall be borne by the Employer.

16.3 Proof of Illness

- (a) An employee may be required by the Employer to produce a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner for any illness certifying that such employee is unable to carry out her duties due to illness or non-compensable accident. Where the employee is under the care of a traditional healer such certificate may be provided by his or her traditional healer in fulfilment of the requirement. The Employer may exercise this requirement after the first three (3) days of each incident of sickness or accident.
- (b) The cost of supplying such written information shall be borne by the Employer.

16.4 Notification of Absence

An employee who is sick is responsible to notify the supervisor before the beginning of the shift of such absence. If the supervisor is not available, another management employee or the school secretary should be contacted. Failure to provide proper notification may result in disciplinary action.

ARTICLE 17 - SPECIAL AND OTHER LEAVE

17.1 Bereavement Leave

- (a) An employee shall be granted a maximum of four (4) regularly scheduled consecutive work days' leave without loss of pay or benefits, in the case of the death of an immediate family member, and a maximum of three (3) days for other members of her family.

- (a) A female employee who has completed six (6) months of continuous employment is entitled to maternity leave up to thirty-five (35) weeks without pay.
- (b) An employee shall notify the Employer in writing of the expected date of the termination of her pregnancy and shall include certification from a qualified medical practitioner certifying that she is pregnant. Such notice will be given at least ten (10) weeks prior to the expected date of the termination of the pregnancy.

- (c) The period of maternity leave may commence eleven (11) weeks prior to the expected date of the termination of the pregnancy. The commencement of leave may be deferred for any period approved in writing by a duly qualified medical practitioner.
- (d) An employee shall not return to work before the expiration of six (6) weeks following the actual date of the birth of the child.

18.2 Parental Leave

- (a) Upon written request to the Employer, an employee who has completed six (6) months of continuous employment, shall be entitled to parental leave of up to thirty-five (35) consecutive weeks without pay.
- (b) The aggregate amount of leave of absence from employment that may be taken by two employees in respect of the birth or adoption of any one child under this article shall not exceed thirty-five (35) weeks. Where both parents are employees of the Employer, the employees shall determine the apportionment of the thirty-five (35) weeks parental leave between them.
- (c) Such written request pursuant to (a) above must be made at least four (4) weeks prior to the proposed leave commencement date.
- (d) Leave taken under this Clause shall commence:
 - (1) in the case of a mother, immediately following the conclusion of leave taken pursuant to Clause 18.1 or following the adoption pursuant to Clause 18.3;
 - (2) in the case of the other parent, immediately following the birth or adoption of the child.

The commencement of the leave taken pursuant to (1) or (2) above may be deferred by mutual agreement, however, the leave must conclude within the fifty-two (52) week period after the date of birth or adoption of the child. Such agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld. Such leave request must be supported by appropriate documentation.

18.3 Benefits Continuation

- (a) For leaves taken pursuant to Clauses 18.1 and 18.2, the Employer shall maintain coverage and pay its share for Employee Group Benefits providing that the employee continues to pay her share of the costs before or during such leave.
- (b) Notwithstanding (a) above, should an employee be deemed to have resigned in accordance with Clause 18.4 or fail to remain in the employ of the Employer for at least six (6) months after her return to work, the Employer will recover monies paid pursuant to this Clause, on a pro rata basis.

18.4 Notice of Return to Work

An employee shall give one (1) month's notice of intention to return to work prior to the expiration of any leave taken under Clauses 18.1 or 18.2.

18.5 Entitlements Upon Return to Work

- (a) An employee who returns to work after the expiration of maternity, parental, adoption or extensions to such leaves shall retain the seniority the employee had accumulated prior to commencing the leave and shall be credited with seniority for the period of time covered by the leave.
- (b) On return from maternity, parental, adoption or extensions to such leaves, an employee shall be placed in the employee's former position or in a position of equal rank and basic pay.

(c) Employees who are unable to complete the six (6) months return to work required in (a) as a result of proceeding on maternity, parental or adoption leave shall be credited with their earned vacation entitlements and vacation pay providing the employee returns to work for a period of not less than six (6) months following the expiration of the subsequent maternity, parental or adoption leave.

(d) An employee who has returned to work following maternity leave may request a job reassignment, a modification to her job functions, or to the timing of her meal period or rest breaks, in order to accommodate the nursing of her child or to address post-partum complications or risks for which she is under a professional's care. A request pursuant to this Clause shall be accompanied by a certificate provided by a qualified medical practitioner providing treatment or overseeing care and shall include an opinion indicating the expected duration of the required accommodation and the activities or conditions which must be modified to eliminate risk and enhance the ability to return to unrestricted work.

(e) Where a request pursuant to (e) above is received by the Employer, it will examine the request in consultation with the employee and, where reasonably practicable, shall modify the employee's job functions or schedule or reassign her. If continuing in her current job, during such deliberations, poses a risk, the employee shall be entitled to a paid leave of absence until she is notified, in writing, by the Employer that the accommodation is not reasonably practicable.

(f) An employee who receives an accommodation pursuant to (f) above, shall be deemed to continue to hold the job she had at the time of the request for accommodation and she shall continue to receive the wages and benefits attached to that job. If accommodation is not reasonably practicable, the employee will be granted a leave of absence and can draw upon sick leave credits, short term disability or other approved paid or unpaid leave under this Agreement.

18.6 Wage Replacement

(a) Illness arising due to pregnancy during employment and prior to maternity leave of absence may be charged to normal sick leave credits or, if applicable, may be covered by the Short-Term Disability provisions.

(b) An employee who has commenced a leave pursuant to Clauses 18.1 and 18.2 or any extensions to those leaves, shall be entitled to benefits under any income-replacement scheme or insurance plan in effect at the worksite on the same terms as any employee absent for health-related reasons and is entitled to benefits under the scheme or plan.

ARTICLE 19 - OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

22.10 Death Benefit & Continuation

- (a) In the event of the death of a member, the member's spouse, or children if there is no spouse, shall be paid any outstanding salary owing to the deceased member at the time of death.
- (b) The Employer shall, assuming insurance policies will permit, continue to provide at no cost to the spouse, or children, if no spouse exists, medical, extended health and dental benefits to the deceased employee's dependants to the end of the month in which the death occurred. Continuation of other Group Benefits will be as per Plan Guidelines (Appendix 1).

ARTICLE 23 - EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE AND TRAINING

23.1 Concept

The Employer supports the concept of career development for the purposes of enabling employees to prepare for promotional advancement and generally upgrade their present skills and knowledge which will be of benefit to both the employee and the Employer.

23.2 Employer-Required Courses

- (a) Where the Employer requires the employee to take training or refresher courses or attain or maintain particular levels of occupational licensing or certification, the employee shall be granted leave with pay to attend the course.
- (b) Where the Employer requires an employee to upgrade her skills or qualifications in order to operate or maintain new equipment, the cost of training and normal living and travel expenses as provided in this Agreement will be borne by the Employer.

(c) The Employer shall bear the full expenses associated with the course or occupational training. This shall include tuition, entrance or registration fees, laboratory fees and course-required books, etcetera. The Employer shall also reimburse the employee for her travelling costs, subsistence and legitimate expenses where applicable.

23.3 On-the-Job Training

Where on-the-job training is to occur, it will typically be offered to the most senior employee in the appropriate classification within the work group. However, if the on-the-job training is taking place as a result of a need to improve job performance, or as a means to train an employee who has no experience in the technique being taught, the selection will be based on department need.

ARTICLE 24 - PAYMENT OF WAGES AND ALLOWANCES

24.1 Equal Pay

The Employer shall not discriminate between male and female employees by employing a person of one gender for any work at rate of pay that is less than the rate of pay at which a person of the other gender is employed for similar or substantially similar work.

24.2 Paydays

(a) A comprehensive statement detailing all payments which have been automatically deposited and setting out allowances and deductions shall be forwarded in a confidential envelope to the Department in which the employee works on each payday. All premiums and allowances payable shall be paid out no later than the payday at the end of the second biweekly pay period after the pay period in which the premium or allowance was earned.

24.3 Payroll Deductions

Subject to programs being offered by the Employer, employees shall be entitled to have deductions from her salary assigned for the purchase of additional life insurance from the Employer's carrier, Canada Savings Bonds and/or RRSPs.

24.4 Rates of Pay

- (a) Employees shall be paid in accordance with the rates of pay negotiated by the Parties to this Agreement. For information purposes the applicable rates of pay are recorded in Appendix 4 of this Agreement.
- (b) The Employer agrees that there shall be no alteration of any employee's time sheet without prior discussion with the employee. Any dispute in this regard is subject to the grievance procedure.
- (c) The distribution of paycheques shall be done in such a manner that the details of the paycheque shall be confidential.
- (d) No employee shall suffer a reduction in salary or benefits as a result of the implementation of this Agreement.

24.5 Substitution Pay

(a) When an employee temporarily substitutes in or performs the principal duties of a higher-paying position, for one (1) hour or more, she shall receive the rate for the job, for such hours worked, where a single rate is established. Substitution pay is not payable when an employee has not been designated by the Employer to substitute. Such substitution shall be authorized in writing in advance.

(b) Whenever possible, existing employees shall be given the opportunity to fill positions that are temporarily vacant and the Employer may utilize an auxiliary employee to fill the vacancy created by the regular employee filling the temporary position.

24.6 Pay on Temporary Assignment

An employee temporarily assigned by the Employer to a position with a rate of pay lower than her regular rate of pay shall maintain her regular rate of pay.

24.7 Salary Protection and Downward Reclassification of Position

An employee shall not have her salary reduced by reason of a change in the classification of her position, or placement into another position with a lower maximum salary, that is caused other than by the employee. However, should the change in classification be a result of a reduction in government funding, the parties recognize that the Employer will not likely be in a position to maintain the higher salary.

24.8 Travel Expenses (For current rates refer to Appendix 6)

(a) "Vehicle Allowances": Vehicle allowances for all distances travelled on Employer business shall be paid to employees required to use their own vehicles in the performance of their duties. Rates will be in accordance with Government of Canada Treasury Board Guidelines as used by Kitamaat Village Council.

(b) "Meal Allowances": Meal allowances for time spent away on Employer business will be in accordance with Government of Canada Treasury Board Guidelines as used by Kitamaat Village Council.

(c) "Incidentals and Board and Lodging Allowances": These allowances for expenses incurred while on Employer business will be in accordance with Government of Canada Treasury Board Guidelines as used by Kitamaat Village Council.

(d) "Public Transportation": Employees required to travel on Employer business outside the local area will have such travel arranged on the most economical public transportation available, i.e., Economy airfare, or Commercial Buslines. An employee who chooses to use her own vehicle (subject to any extra time off being approved) will be given the equivalent public transportation fare.

24.9 Salary Rate upon Employment

The hiring rate of pay for a new employee shall not be higher than the rate of pay for an existing employee in the same classification with similar work experience, training and education.

24.10 Reimbursement of Reasonable Expenses

(a) Where employees are required to host consultants, contractors or other non-Employer personnel in the course of their duties, they shall, subject to prior approval of their supervisors, be reimbursed for reasonable expenses upon production of receipts. Approval shall be granted in accordance with the entertainment policy of the Employer.

24.11 Salary on Demotion

When an employee is demoted the employee shall receive the rate for the position.

ARTICLE 25 - LABOUR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

25.1 Responsibilities (Objectives)

The Labour-Management Committee provides a forum in which Union and Employer concerns or problems may be addressed and discussed informally outside of negotiations or grievance/arbitration procedures. The committee shall endeavour to maintain harmony between the Employer and its employees, establish a means of open communication, solve problems and provide feed back on management practices and labour activities.

25.2 Membership

The minimum size of this committee shall be two (2) Employer representatives and two (2) Union representatives, to a maximum of three (3) Employer representative and three (3) Union representatives. Management representatives on the Committee will be appointed by the Employer and Union representatives will be appointed by the Union and will generally be the Bargaining Committee responsible for negotiating the current Collective Agreement. When the agenda involves an operational worksite issue, a Union-appointed steward(s) will be invited to attend. Either party may invite special guests.

25.3 Procedure

Each Party shall appoint a person to act as their coordinator on the committee. Staff members and department heads who wish consideration of problems or administrative and operational matters by the Labour-Management committee shall bring such matters to the attention of their respective coordinators of the committee. Each coordinator will consider the matter and provide verbal or written notice of their desire to schedule a meeting or provide information for agenda preparation. The Union and Management coordinators will be responsible for:

- (a) arranging time, dates and location of meetings;
- (b) preparing an agenda of discussion items;
- (c) notifying their respective committee members
- (d) ensuring that the meeting agenda is circulated to all committee members in advance of the meeting date and that any necessary reference material accompanies the agenda.

25.4 Conduct of Meetings

- (a) The Union and Management Coordinators will attempt to schedule meetings at least once every sixty (60) calendar days, or at the call of either Party, at a mutually agreeable time and place.
- (b) A Chairperson shall be appointed by the Committee. The appointment to Chairperson shall take place on a rotational basis, alternating between Union and Management representatives.
- (c) A Recording Secretary shall be present at all meetings of the Committee and minutes of the proceedings will be recorded, transcribed, and typed in draft form for review within a one (1) week period. Each Party shall have a minimum of two (2) persons review the draft minutes and, upon agreement by both Parties, these two (2) persons shall sign the minutes as being approved. Once approved the posting of the minutes may take place and the minutes will be distributed to each Committee Member for adoption at the subsequent meeting. Minutes will be posted at all bulletin board locations.
- (d) Upon mutual consent of the Parties, issues of a time sensitive or confidential nature will be recorded as an "in camera" set of minutes, not to be distributed on bulletin boards.

(e) The Committee shall be responsible for ensuring that proper limits of authority and confidentiality are respected.

25.5 Jurisdiction of Committee

(a) The Committee does not have the power to bind either the Union or its members or the Employer to any decisions or conclusions reached in its discussions. The Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Union and the Employer with respect to its discussions and conclusions.

(b) The Committee does not have the jurisdiction to discuss, make recommendations on or initiate action on active grievances.

ARTICLE 26 - WORKING CONDITIONS/PERSONNEL PRACTICES

26.1 Purpose

The purpose of this Article is to set forth certain terms and conditions of employment and general working conditions affecting Teachers, to ensure that specific occupational and professional standards enjoyed by colleagues in the public and private school systems are incorporated herein.

26.2 Definitions

For the purpose of this Article and the determination of the status of Teachers and Teaching Assistants as it relates to benefits provided in this Agreement:

(a) "Regular employee" shall mean a Teacher who is employed for work which is of a "continuous part-time" nature (less than ten twelfths [10/12th] of a year);

(b) "Teacher-on-Call" shall mean a certified Teacher and a "substitute" is an uncertified replacement. Substitutes will be hired only when a Teacher-on-Call is not available. Subject to availability:

(1) the Employer shall employ Teachers-on-Call to replace classroom Teachers who are absent due to illness or other authorized absences of one-half (1½) day or more;

(2) a Teacher-on-Call shall be required to assume only the duties of the Teacher she is replacing. In the event that there is more than one block of unassigned time on any given day and in the absence of any direction from the Teacher, the Principal may, after consultation with the Teacher-on-Call, reassign the Teacher-on-Call for the additional block(s) of unassigned time.

Teachers will not be required to cover for a classroom Teacher who is absent except in emergency situations.

Teachers-on-Call and Substitutes shall be considered auxiliary employees except that eligibility for benefit and leave entitlements shall be based on the employee's achievement of service equivalent to one hundred and ninety (190) instructional days.

Both Parties agree that Teachers have the primary responsibility for teaching, designing programs, supervising, assessing and evaluating students and educational programs.

26.3 Teaching Staff Work Year

(a) The annual salary established for teaching staff covered by this agreement shall be payable in respect of the Teachers' "regular work year" which shall be defined as follows:

- (1) All days in session shall be scheduled (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and paid holidays pursuant to clause 15.1, as well as winter and spring breaks) between Labour Day and the last Friday in June as coincides with the School District's calendar.
 - (2) Winter and Spring breaks will coincide with the School District Calendar.
- (b) The regular work year shall include:
- (1) Two (2) days for professional development to be determined in consultation with the Principal;
 - (2) One (1) year-end administrative day;
 - (3) Five (5) non-instructional days for the purpose of parent-community interaction, to be scheduled and utilized in consultation with the Principal;
 - (4) A School opening day that may be shortened and may include different starting and dismissal times for different students.
- (c) Hours of work and instructional time shall be such that:
- (1) In an elementary school the duration of a Teacher's instructional day shall not exceed six (6) consecutive hours and shall be inclusive of five (5) hours of instructional time which shall include fifteen (15) minutes of recess and preparation time as set out in Clause 26.4 and a regular lunch intermission;
 - (d) In the event that a newly-created special program requires hours of work not detailed in this Agreement, hours of work shall be subject to mutual agreement between the Employer and the affected Teacher, and the Union, and in any event shall not exceed the same number of total instructional hours required of other Teachers.

26.4 Preparation Time

- (a) Full-Time elementary Teachers assigned on a full-time basis to classroom instruction and learning assistance Teachers shall be provided with a minimum of one hundred and fifty (150) minutes preparation time per week.
- (b) Part-time Teachers assigned exclusively to classroom instruction will receive preparation time for classroom instruction prorated according to their part-time status.
- (c) Preparation time shall be for periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes.
- (d) Teachers working as librarians and counsellors who have a timetable that allows for flexibility shall be provided with time in the normal workday for time tabling, record keeping and other duties.
- (e) Teacher librarians and learning assistance Teachers shall not be required to provide preparation time for other Teachers during their library or learning assistance assignment.

26.5 Supervision

No Teacher shall be required to perform any supervisory duties during the regularly-scheduled lunch break. Other supervisory duties shall be assigned on an equitable basis by the Principal and shall not exceed the equivalent of forty-five (45) minutes per week.

26.6 Extracurricular Activities

- (a) While the Parties consider it desirable that employees participate in extracurricular activities, it is recognized by the Parties that involvement by an employee in extracurricular activities shall be on a voluntary basis.

- (b) In this Agreement, "extracurricular activities" are those that are beyond the prescribed and locally-determined curricula of the School.
- (c) Extracurricular activities shall not form any part of a job description or posting.
- (d) While involved in extracurricular activities, Teachers shall be considered to be acting in the employ of the Kitamaat village Council, for purposes of a liability of the Kitamaat Village Council and coverage by the Kitamaat Village council's insurance.

26.7 Staff Meetings

For the purposes of this clause a "staff meeting" is considered to be a meeting called by the Principal for the purposes of conducting the business of the School and requiring the attendance of Teachers.

- (a) School staff meetings shall be regularly-scheduled. Additional staff meetings as jointly agreed to may also occur.
- (b) All School staff meetings shall be held between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. and during the normal instructional week.
- (c) When a staff meeting is called at a time when a part-time Teacher is not on duty, that Teacher shall not be required to attend the staff meeting. It is the Teacher's responsibility to apprise herself of the staff meeting agenda and the decisions made.
- (d) Teachers wishing to place items on the agenda shall notify the Principal.
- (e) Minutes of meetings shall be circulated to staff members.

26.8 Teacher Evaluations - Purpose, Frequency and Criteria

The teacher will be given a copy of the Evaluation Report at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to meeting with the Evaluator to discuss the evaluation. The report shall include a specific, objective description of teaching performance, with all judgements substantiated. In the event that the teacher disagrees with the report, she may, within seven (7) days of receipt of the report, request another meeting with the evaluator, in the company of a representative of the Union to discuss the report further. Such meeting shall be held within fourteen (14) days of the request. The teacher shall have the right to submit to the evaluator a written commentary on the report which shall be attached to all copies of the report.

26.9 Teacher Evaluations - Procedure/Process

The observation period may not commence prior to September 30th in any one (1) School year. Formal observations must be completed no later than May 31st.

26.10 False Accusations

Teachers accused of misconduct and subsequently found to be not guilty shall be:

- (a) Assisted to the fullest possible extent (counselling; STD; public statement) by the Employer in assuring the Teacher's successful return to teaching;
- (b) Provided with specialist's counselling and/or medical assistance as provided by the Employee Assistance and the Employee Benefit Programs;
- (c) Provided time off as sick leave when supported by medical documentation as per the Employee Sick leave and Short Term Disability Policies;
- (d) Given preference of vacant positions for which the employee may be qualified, upon returning to teaching;

(e) Where an employee has been suspended pursuant to the School Act, and is subsequently acquitted of the charges, the employee shall be reinstated with full pay.

The Employer agrees to appropriately discipline students who maliciously initiate false allegations against Teachers and issue, upon request, a clear written statement exonerating Teachers found to be falsely accused.

26.11 Confidentiality

The Employer shall not release to the media, or the public information with respect to the discipline or dismissal of a Teacher except as agreed by the Union or by joint release agreed upon by the Employer and the Union.

26.12 Severe Student Behaviour

Where a Teacher has been physically or verbally abused by a student, that Teacher shall refer the student to the Principal who will investigate the concern and take appropriate corrective measures. In every case the Principal shall involve the Teacher, student and parent/guardian in the corrective plan.

26.13 Initial Placement on Salary Scale

(a) Initial placement on the Teacher salary scale is determined by the category assigned by the Teacher Qualification Service and years of previous teaching experience as per Appendix 4.

(b) At the time of appointment, the Employer shall advise each Teacher in writing of the documentation required to establish initial scale placement.

(c) Pending receipt of the necessary documentation, the Teacher shall be placed at Step 0 (experience) of the appropriate professional training scale.

(d) Each Teacher shall submit all documentation required by the Employer to establish salary placement within two (2) months of commencement of employment.

(e) In the event that the necessary documentation is provided within the specified period of time, salary adjustment shall be made retroactive to commencement of employment.

(f) The Teacher shall be responsible for advising the Employer in writing of delays which occur in obtaining the documentation necessitating an extension of the time limits. The Employer shall not refuse a reasonable written request for an extension of time limits.

(g) In the event that an extension is not granted, salary adjustment shall occur the first of the month following receipt of the documentation.

(h) The Employer shall notify the Teacher in writing of the category and experience placement that has been assigned.

(i) In the event that a Teacher wishes to appeal her placement on the salary grid, the Teacher must apply in writing to the Principal, or appropriate official, giving reasons for the application for review. In the event that the matter is not satisfactorily resolved, the Teacher may refer the matter immediately to Step 2 of the grievance procedure in Article 8.

26.14 Increment Credit

The salary grid in Appendix 4 is used only for the starting rate for new employees. It is not to be used to implement future wage increases. Incremental wage increases to be reviewed in one year from signing of the Collective Agreement.

26.15 Professional Improvement

Teachers who are entitled to reclassification to a higher category shall receive the higher salary upon receipt of the Teacher Qualification Service (TQS) statement or the attainment of equivalent education and experience as set out in Appendix 1. The salary adjustment shall be paid retroactively to September 1st, providing the revised TQS card, latest university transcripts, or required documentation have been submitted to the Employer no later than November 30th of that School year. Independent school Teachers who are not eligible for Teacher Qualification Service and who are denied reclassification by the Employer may appeal the decision through the grievance procedure.

26.16 Part-Month Payment and Deductions

- (a) The rate of deduction for a day without pay shall be on one hundred and ninety fifths (1/195ths) of the current annual salary of the Teacher.
- (b) The daily rate for a Teacher-on-Call who is on scale shall be one one-hundred and ninety fifths (1/195ths) of the current annual salary of the Teacher-on-call.
- (c) An employee shall be paid one tenth (1/10th) of current salary in respect of each month (September-June) in which the Teacher works all prescribed school days in that month. Teachers employed for ten (10) FTE School months may choose to have their annual salary divided by twenty-six (26) pay periods in order that they maintain income throughout the calendar year.
- (d) For purpose of calculating employee deductions, any prescribed day on which the employee is on authorized leave of absence shall be deemed to be a day of work and deduction (if any) which are authorized by this Agreement (or statutes) in respect of such leave shall be made from the biweekly pay.
- (e) In the event that an employee commences work on a day other than the first prescribed School day in that month, or terminates on a day other than the last prescribed School day of that month, the employee shall receive her normal salary prorated by the percentage of days worked out of that month. The formula for calculating this proration shall be as follows:

$$\frac{(1/10^{\text{th}} \text{ of annual salary}) \times (\text{days worked})}{(\text{total working days})}$$

- (f) An employee who is requested in writing by the Employer to work beyond the prescribed School year shall be paid at the rate of one one-hundred and ninety-fifths (1/195th) of her annual salary entitlement for each day worked.
- (g) In the event that the employee is requested to work beyond the school year, the employee may take compensatory time in lieu of salary. The scheduling of compensatory time shall be mutually agreed upon by the employee and the administrative office. Time may be taken in full days/or blocks of days.
- (h) Work beyond the School year is voluntary.
- (i) A Teacher-on-Call shall receive a minimum of 3 hours pay per callout.

26.17 Payment for Part-Time Teachers

- (a) Part-Time Teachers shall be paid that portion of their regular scale placement that relates to the portion of the instructional appointment. When an in-service is held at a time when a part-time Teacher is not normally on duty, that Teacher shall not be required to attend the in-service.
- (b) Teachers employed in part-time positions shall enjoy the same rights, privileges and benefits on a prorated basis as full-time Teachers as provided per Benefit Plan Guidelines.

26.18 Full-Time to Part-Time Employment

- (a) An employee with a continuing full-time appointment to the teaching staff may, without prejudice to that appointment, request a part-time assignment, specifying the fraction of time and length of time.
- (b) Teachers who move from a full-time assignment to part-time assignment shall be considered to be on leave for pension purposes, and if applicable, may purchase pensionable service to provide for a full year of pensionable credit in accordance with the Pension Plan..
- (c) An employee with a continuing part-time appointment to the teaching staff may, without prejudice to that appointment, request a full-time assignment.
- (d) Part-time Teachers are entitle to apply for other part-time assignments provided that the assignment does not exceed one hundred percent (100%) and class schedules are not in conflict.

26.19 Teaching Appointments and Assignments

- (a) Teaching appointments shall be subject to the provisions of Article 12 except that regular Teachers who have worked the equivalent of one hundred and ninety (190) instructional days, shall, in seniority order, be offered vacancies for which they are qualified prior to external posting.
- (b) When it is known that a regular Teacher will be absent for two (2) or more months, that position will be offered pursuant to section (a) above.
- (c) No Teacher shall be reassigned for disciplinary or punitive reasons.
- (d) Discussions pertaining to School organization, proposed timetable and staff assignment may occur during regular staff meetings.
- (e) In-School assignment changes shall be accommodated wherever possible, taking into consideration qualifications, training, experience, equitable distribution of workload and the Teacher's preference.
- (f) Prior to a position being declared available for transfer or vacant, the Principal, in consultation with staff, will consider in-School assignment changes.

26.20 Positions of Special Responsibility

- (a) A Teacher designated by the Principal/Administrator to assume the duties of the Principal who is temporarily absent shall receive, in addition to the teacher's regular teaching salary, 10% of their daily rate for one (1) full day or more.
- (b) Teacher in Charge
 - (1) A teacher may be appointed as Teacher in Charge in accordance with this Article.
 - (2) In the event that the Principal assigned to the school is absent from the school, the Teacher in Charge may be requested by the Principal to assume the duties specified in this clause.
 - (3) The Teacher in Charge, when requested to act, shall attend to ensuring that routine supervision adequate to secure the safety of students and security of the school is maintained, and shall deal only with emergent matters as they may arise.
 - (4) While acting as a Teacher in Charge, the teacher is covered by all terms and conditions of this Agreement.
 - (5) Where absence of the Principal continues for more than five (5) consecutive school days, the Teacher in Charge will assume all administrative duties, excluding only formal evaluation of instruction and personnel.

(6) Whenever possible the Teacher in Charge shall be selected from those teachers who have expressed an interest in performing this function. A teacher has the right to refuse to act as the Teacher in Charge except in emergencies.

(7) Where the appointment of a Teacher in Charge is less than one (1) day a replacement may be provided, but where the anticipated appointment is for one (1) or more days a replacement shall be provided to relieve the Teacher in Charge of regular teaching duties for the duration of the appointment.

26.21 Staffing and Workload Review

An employee with concerns regarding workload or staffing levels should discuss such issues with the Principal. Should the concerns continue to exist after discussions with the Principal they may be placed on the agenda to be addressed by staff at the next Staff Meeting. Failing satisfactory resolution at this level, the employee(s) may choose to seek recourse through either the labour Management Committee or the Grievance Procedure.

26.22 Class Size and Composition

The parties agree that the maximum class sizes shall be:

Class	# of Students
Nursery	20
Kindergarten/Grade 1	20
Grades 2/3/4	25
Grades 5/6/7	25

It is further agreed that should the class/size and composition change before the expiration of this Collective Agreement, the parties will jointly agree on new maximum levels.

(a) For the purposes of this Agreement "students with low incidence special needs" are defined in the Ministry of Education Special Programs Manual of Policies, Procedures and Guidelines as follows:

These include dependent, moderately and severely/profoundly handicapped: blind, deaf, autistic and students in intervention classes for the severely behaviour disordered, socially disabled and emotionally disordered.

(b) Integration of a student with low incidence special needs shall be preceded by consultation between relevant staff, the Principal, parents/guardians and teachers who may be affected. By such placement. The placement of a student with special needs shall be determined by the student's educational, social and medical needs. It shall be the responsibility of the Employer to ensure the necessary resources are available prior to placement. These requirements may included Teacher Assistant support, facilities modification and additional professional support available through the Provincial government.

(c) If the Teacher is not satisfied with resources and support provided when integrating a low incidence special needs student, the Teacher may request from the Principal a further review of the matter.

(d) The integration of students with low incidence special needs may result in a smaller class size by at least (1) less than the numbers listed in section (a) above. The class size maximums will be reduced 1:1:1 for up to a maximum of three (3) integrated students. However, if a Teacher Assistant (not a personal attendant) were assigned to the class/Teacher, then the reduction of maximums would be 1:1 for the first student and a further reduction of one (1) for the third student.

- (e) A maximum of three (3) special needs students may be integrated into a single school class with support.

26.23 Curriculum Implementation

All matters concerning the implementation of new curriculum will be discussed at Staff Meetings. Any disagreement with regards to such implementation will be addressed for resolution to the Labour Management Committee.

ARTICLE 27 - GENERAL CONDITIONS

27.1 Transportation of Children or Clients

No employee shall be required to transport children or clients in her personal vehicle.

27.2 Comprehensive Insurance

- (a) The Employer agrees to provide comprehensive insurance covering tools, reference texts and instruments owned by the employees and required to be used in the performance of their duties at the request of the Employer. The Employer shall pay any deductible amounts for comprehensive insurance.
- (b) The employee agrees to provide a list of such items to the Employer and they shall update the list as necessary. This list shall be kept on the employee's personnel file.

27.3 Indemnity

- (a) Civil Actions - Except where the Judicial System considers that there has been a flagrant or wilful negligence on the part of an employee, the Employer agrees not to seek indemnity against an employee whose actions result in a judgement against the Employer. The Employer agrees to pay any judgement against an employee arising out of the performance of her duties. The Employer also agrees to pay any legal costs incurred in the proceedings including those of the employee. Where the employee is found to be wilfully negligent, the employee will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.
- (b) Criminal Actions - Where an employee is charged with an offence resulting directly from the proper performance of her duties and is subsequently found not guilty, the employee shall be reimbursed for all reasonable legal fees.
- (c) Civil and Criminal Action - At the option of the Employer, the Employer may provide for legal services in the defence of any legal proceedings involving the employee (so long as no conflict of interest arises between the Employer and the employee) or pay the legal fees of Counsel chosen by an employee.
- (d) Civil and Criminal Actions - In order that the above provision shall be binding upon the Employer, the employee shall notify the Employer immediately, in writing, of any incident or course of event which may lead to legal action against her and the intention or knowledge of such possible legal action is evidenced by any of the following circumstances:
- (1) when the employee is first approached by any persons or organization notifying her of intended legal action against her; or
 - (2) when the employee herself requires or retains legal counsel in regard to the incident or course of events; or
 - (3) where any investigative body or authority first notifies the employee of any investigation or other proceeding which might lead to legal action against the employee; or

- (4) when information first becomes known to the employee in the light of which it is a reasonable assumption that the employee would conclude that she might be the object of legal action; or
- (5) when the employee receives notice of any legal proceeding of any nature or kind.

27.4 Copyright

Employees will be subject to the Copyright Act and Regulations.

27.5 Copies of the Agreement

The Union and the Employer desire every employee to be familiar with the provisions of this Agreement, and her rights and obligations under it. For this reason, the Union shall arrange for printing of sufficient copies of the Agreement for distribution to employees. The Agreement shall be printed in a Union shop and bear the recognized Union insignia. The cost of such printing shall be shared equally.

27.6 Staff Confidentiality

Any confidential personal information about employees of the Employer which is directly learned by the Employer in the normal course of business will be treated as strictly confidential and the Employer shall take all reasonable precautions to safeguard it.

27.7 Private Vehicle Damage

Where an employee's vehicle is damaged by a person in the care of the Employer, or as a direct result of the employee's vehicle being required by the Employer to be used for business, the Employer shall reimburse the employee the lesser of actual vehicle damage repair costs, or the cost of any deductible portion of insurance coverage on that vehicle up to a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500).

27.8 Personal Property Damage

- (a) Where the Employer requires/approves that an employee's personal possession(s) are to be at the worksite, and subsequently such personal possession(s) is/are damaged by a person in the care of the Employer, the Employer shall pay, up to a maximum of one hundred dollars ($100), the replacement costs or personal deductible insurance, provided such personal possessions are of type suitable for use while on duty.
- (b) On request, and with reasonable notice, the Employer may provide a secure space for employees to store such personal possessions, wallets and/or purses when the employees are at their worksite. However, the Employer assumes no responsibility for personal items brought to work without being required by the Employer that end up lost or stolen.

27.9 Suspension of Driver's Licence

- (a) Where an employee who is required to hold a valid Driver's Licence as a condition of employment, has her Driver's Licence suspended for one (1) year or less:
 - (1) The employee will retain her regular position on the workforce and shall be engaged in other duties for which she is qualified. She shall be paid at the rate established for the duties engaged in for the period of suspension. In the event such employment does not exist the employee may, upon the exhaustion of ETO, CTO and vacation entitlement, apply for leave of absence without pay to cover the period involved.
 - (2) A letter shall be written by the supervisor to the employee advising her of her status during the period of Licence suspension. In cases of Driver's Licence suspensions on medical grounds, each case is to be examined on its own merits including referral to the Labour-

Management Committee. In determining any action with regard to the employee concerned, the recommendations of the Labour-Management Committee must be taken into consideration.

(3) On the second occurrence of Licence suspension, action may be taken to dismiss the employee for just cause where her principle duties involve the operation of a vehicle or equipment.

(b) Where an employee, who is required to hold a valid Driver's Licence as a condition of employment, has her Driver's Licence suspended for more than one (1) year, the employee may be suspended immediately for just cause. This shall be confirmed in writing by the Employer.

(c) Discipline arising in respect of this clause is subject to the grievance procedure.

27.10 Point of Assembly

The point of assembly for all employees, as described under this agreement, shall be the Haisla Community School.

27.11 Supply and Maintenance of Clothing

The Employer shall supply, on a pre-approved and "as needed" basis, such safety clothing and/or equipment as necessary for the safe performance of job duties. The maximum reimbursable amount per regular employee will not exceed seventy-five dollars ($75) per fiscal year.

27.12 Work Group

(a) Where more than one work group works out of a common point of assembly each work group shall be considered completely independent for the following purposes:

- substitution
- rotation of shifts
- allocation of overtime'
- preference in vacation
- training courses

(b) Where the Employer proposes a change in work groups, the matter shall be subject to agreement between the Parties.

27.13 Administration of Medication

Employees covered by this Agreement shall not be called upon to administer medication or administer other medical procedures on a regular basis unless:

- (a) the employee volunteers to administer the medication procedure, and
- (b) written authorization and instructions for administration of medication has been received from the attending physician confirming that medication is required while a student is attending day care or school, or a client is attended to by a Home Support Worker, and
- (c) a student's parent or guardian has made a written request for the Employer's assistance and has discussed the situation with the appropriate Employer designate, and, if necessary,
- (d) adequate instruction and training has been received from a qualified health care professional.

The Employer shall indemnify and save harmless any employee against claims arising from the administration of medication, supervision of self-administration, or performance of medical or physical procedures that are carried out pursuant to the instructions and requests received as referred to in this clause.

ARTICLE 28 - SAFEGUARDING VULNERABLE PEOPLE

28.1 Purpose

The Parties recognize that there are employees whose work assignment brings them in contact with vulnerable individuals. It is in the public interest that such employees do not have a history of behaviour which is incompatible with such assignments.

The Parties recognize that an employee's privacy and reputation must be recognized and protected. Accordingly, information gathered to establish suitability for work assignments which include contact with vulnerable individuals is to be treated with confidentiality to the fullest extent compatible with meeting the Employer's responsibility of safeguarding vulnerable people.

"Vulnerable people" includes adults with physical/mental disabilities, and includes children.

ARTICLE 29 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

29.1 Duration

This Agreement shall be binding and remain in effect to midnight May 31, 2003.

29.2 Notice to Bargain

- (a) This Agreement may be opened for Collective Bargaining by either Party giving written notice to the other Party on or after February 1, 2003 but in any event not later than midnight, March 31, 2003.
- (b) All notices on behalf of the Union shall be given by the Staff Representative of the Union and similar notice on behalf of the Employer shall be given by the Human Resources Manager, or designate.

29.3 Commencement of Bargaining

Where a Party to this Agreement has given notice under Clause 29.2 of this Agreement, the Parties shall, within thirty (30) calendar days after the notice was given, commence collective bargaining. This time frame may be extended by mutual agreement but the same must be in writing.

29.4 Changes in Agreement

Any change deemed necessary in this Agreement may be made by mutual agreement at any time during the life of this Agreement.

29.5 Loss of Program Funding

The Union recognizes the fact that Kitamaat Village Council is one hundred percent (100%) funded by the federal government. Then Union further acknowledges and agrees that should funding be eliminated or decreased in whole or in part, the employer shall have no recourse but to reduce, change or cease operations accordingly.

Layoffs or changes will be done in accordance with this Collective Agreement.

29.6 Terms of Settlement

The Parties agree to recommend the agreed to terms of settlement to their respective principals as reached on June 20, 2001.

Ratification of the Collective Agreement will be concluded by the respective parties no later than July 20, 2001.

All provisions are effective date of ratification unless otherwise specified.

29.7 Agreement to Continue in Force

Both Parties shall adhere fully to the terms of this Agreement during the period of bona fide collective bargaining.
