In the event that there is a conflict between the contents of this Agreement and any regulation made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, this Agreement shall take precedence over the said regulation.

1.4 Future Legislation

The provisions of this Agreement except as otherwise provided shall come into force and effect upon the date when both Parties have ratified.

2.6 Impact of Elections on Bargaining

In the event a federal general election or a provincial general election is in progress at the time notice pursuant to Article 2.2 is given, or if such election is called during collective bargaining, then collective bargaining shall be suspended and resumed at the conclusion of sixty (60) days following polling day for such election, and this Collective Agreement shall be extended accordingly and collective bargaining resumed as if no such suspension took place.

The Employer also agrees to keep the Union fully informed of decisions regarding the allocation of funds within the budget approved by the Legislative Assembly Management Committee.

7.2 Joint Meetings

The Employer and the Union recognize the importance and necessity of the principals to this Agreement meeting regularly to discuss problems which may arise from time to time.

It is the intention of the Parties to meet monthly and to schedule regular meetings by mutual agreement.

7.3 Meetings Not Precluded

Nothing in this Article precludes the right of the Union and the Caucus Executive to meet.

ARTICLE 8 - HARASSMENT

8.1 Discrimination and Harassment Under the Human Rights Act

(a) Purpose

The Employer, in cooperation with the Union, will promote a work environment that is free from harassment and discrimination where all employees are treated with respect and dignity.

Discrimination and harassment relates to any of the prohibited grounds contained in the B.C. Human Rights Act. Prohibited conduct may be verbal, non-verbal, physical, deliberate or unintended, unsolicited or unwelcome, as determined by a reasonable person. It may be one incident or a series of incidents depending on the context.

Employees have the right to employment without discrimination or harassment because of race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religion, family status, marital status, physical disability, mental disability, sex, age, sexual orientation, political beliefs, and criminal or summary offense unrelated to their employment.

Harassment does not include actions occasioned through exercising in good faith the Employer's managerial/supervisory rights and responsibilities.

Protection against harassment extends to incidents occurring at or away from the workplace during or outside working hours provided the acts are committed within the course of the employment relationship.

This Clause does not preclude an employee from filing a complaint under Section 8 of the B.C. Human Rights Act, however, an employee shall not be entitled to duplication of process. An employee making a complaint of harassment must choose to direct a complaint to either the B.C. Council of Human Rights or to the process specified in the Harassment Policy and Procedures. In either event a complaint of harassment shall not form the basis of a grievance.

An employee who files a written complaint which would be seen by a reasonable person to be frivolous, vindictive or vexatious may be subject to disciplinary action.

(b) Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is one form of discrimination and is defined as any unwelcome comment or conduct of a sexual nature that may detrimentally affect the work environment or lead to adverse job-related consequences for the victim of the harassment.

Examples of sexual harassment include but are not limited to:

- a person in authority asking an employee for sexual favours in return for being hired or receiving promotions or other employment benefits;
- sexual advances with actual or implied work related consequences;
- unwelcome remarks, questions, jokes or innuendo of a sexual nature; including sexist comments or sexual invitations;
- verbal abuse, intimidation, or threats of a sexual nature;

- leering, staring or making sexual gestures;
- display of pornographic or other sexual materials;
- offensive pictures, graffiti, cartoons or sayings;
- unwanted physical contact such as touching, patting, pinching, hugging;
- physical assault of a sexual nature.

This definition of sexual harassment is not meant to inhibit interactions or relationships based on mutual consent or normal social contact between employees.

(c) Procedures

(1) All persons involved in the handling of a complaint under these procedures shall hold in the strictest confidence all information of which they become aware; however, it is recognized that various officials of the constituent group(s) and the Employer will be made aware of all or part of the proceedings on a "need to know" basis.

(2) Before proceeding to the formal complaint mechanism an employee who believes he or she has a complaint of harassment or discrimination may approach their supervisory personnel, union steward, or other contact person to discuss potential means of resolving a complaint and to request assistance in resolving the matter. If the matter is resolved to the complainant's satisfaction the matter is deemed to be resolved.

(3) If the matter is not resolved to the employee's satisfaction, then the employee will approach the first excluded level of management not involved in the matter, for assistance in resolving the issue within six (6) months of the alleged occurrence. The manager will investigate the allegation and take steps to resolve the concern as appropriate within thirty (30) days of the issue being raised by the employee. The manager will discuss the proposed resolution with the employee. The employee may have a union representative present during these discussions. Where the first excluded level of management is the respondent, the employee shall approach the respondent's supervisor.

(4) If the proposed resolution is not acceptable, the employee may refer the matter through the Union in writing to the Executive Director or his/her designate within thirty (30) days of receiving the manager's response or when the response was due.

A written complaint shall specify the details of the allegation(s) including:

- name, title and department of the respondent;
- a description of the action(s), conduct, events or circumstances involved in the complaint;
- the specific remedy sought to satisfy the complaint;
- date(s) of incidents;
- name(s) of witnesses (if any);
- prior attempts to resolve (if any).

(5) The Executive Director or his/her designate will acknowledge, in writing, receipt of the Union's notice and will have the matter investigated and will take such steps as may be required to resolve the matter. The Union and the employees involved shall be advised in writing of the proposed resolution within thirty (30) days of providing notice to the Executive Director or such later date as may be mutually agreed by the Employer and the Union.

(6) Where the matter is not resolved pursuant to (5), the Union may refer the matter to adjudication in accordance with the agreed upon Discrimination and Harassment In The Workplace Policies and Procedures.

(7) Disciplinary action taken by the Employer which is consistent with the recommendations of the Adjudicator shall be considered by all Parties to be determinative of the complaint and shall not form the basis of a grievance.

Disciplinary action taken by the Employer which exceeds the recommendations of the Adjudicator may form the basis of a grievance which shall be filed directly at Step 3.

(8) If the Employer fails to act upon the recommendations of the Adjudicator or if the action taken by the Employer is not consistent with the recommendations, the Executive Director's decision may be considered as not having been determinative of the complaint.

(9) If the Adjudicator determines that discrimination and/or harassment has occurred, the Employer must document the personnel file of the respondent accordingly.

(10) Pending the determination of the complaint, the Executive Director may take interim measures to separate the employees concerned, if deemed necessary. Any such action taken under this section will not be deemed disciplinary in nature, or seen as presumption of guilt or innocence.

(11) The complainant will not be relocated without his/her agreement.

8.2 Personal Harassment

Personal harassment takes place when a person who supervises or is in a position of authority exercises that authority in a manner which serves no legitimate work purpose and which ought reasonably be known to be inappropriate.

Personal harassment does not include action occasioned through the exercise, in good faith, of the Employer's managerial/supervisory rights and responsibilities.

Where the allegation is based on a matter for which another dispute resolution mechanism exists, then this process shall not be utilized.

Procedures

(a) If there is an allegation of personal harassment, the employee will approach their supervisor or the first level of excluded manager, not involved in the matter, for assistance in resolving the issue within thirty (30) days of the alleged occurrence. The supervisor/manager will investigate the allegation and take steps to resolve the concern as appropriate within thirty (30) days of the issue being raised by the employee. The supervisor/manager will discuss the proposed resolution with the employee. The employee may have a steward present during these discussions.

(b) If the proposed resolution is not acceptable, the employee may refer the matter through the Union in writing to the Executive Director or his/her designate within thirty (30) days of receiving the supervisor's/manager's response or when the response was due. The written statement will provide full particulars of the allegation including the name(s) of individual(s) involved, the date(s), the wrongdoing which is alleged to have occurred and an outline of the steps which have been taken to resolve the matter in (a) above. The Executive Director shall provide the respondent with a copy of the complaint.

(c) The Executive Director or his/her designate will acknowledge, in writing, receipt of the Union's notice and will have the matter investigated and will take such steps as may be required to resolve the matter. The Union and the employees involved in the allegation shall be advised in writing of the proposed resolution within thirty (30) days of providing notice to the Executive Director.

(d) Where the matter is not resolved pursuant to (c), the Union may refer the matter to the Joint Mediation/Arbitration Panel within thirty (30) days of receiving the Executive Director's response or when the response was due. The Panel will be comprised of two (2) members each from the Employer and the Union, and a Chairperson who shall be appointed jointly by the Parties.

The Joint Mediation/Arbitration Panel shall hear and determine any dispute between the Parties over interpretation, application or any alleged violation of this Clause. The hearing shall be conducted in a manner consistent with the principles of natural justice, so as to give those involved a fair hearing. The Panel shall determine its own procedure and may admit any evidence deemed necessary or appropriate. The Panel may:

- (1) make findings of fact;
- (2) decide if, on the facts, harassment has occurred;
- (3) attempt to mediate a resolve.

The decision of the Panel shall be final and binding and consistent with the terms of the Collective Agreement.

(e) Where the complaint is found to be frivolous, vindictive or vexatious, the Employer may take appropriate action which may include discipline.

(f) Disciplinary action taken by the Employer which is consistent with the recommendations of the Panel Chair shall not form the basis of a grievance.

ARTICLE 9 - CONTRACTING OUT

9.1 Contracting Out

No bargaining unit work shall be contracted out that results in the layoff or reduction in the number of employees covered by this Agreement.

9.2 Union Notified Beforehand

In the event that contracting out is being considered by the Employer, the Union shall be notified forthwith for the purpose of discussing time constraint, arms-length relationship and impact. Employees, including those persons on the layoff list, with the appropriate qualifications and expertise shall have the opportunity to perform such work.
