1.1 Purpose of Agreement

The purpose of this Agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment affecting employees covered by the Agreement.

These terms and conditions shall reflect the Parties understanding that the worksite is the client's home and that meeting their needs through the provision of uninterrupted, skilful and efficient service is the primary purpose of the Employer and its employees.

1.2 Future Legislation

In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement, and the Parties hereto shall negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision so rendered null and void or materially altered.

1.3 Conflict with Rules

In the event that there is a conflict between the contents of this Agreement and any rule made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, this Agreement shall take precedence over the said rule.

1.4 Human Rights Act

The Employer and the Union subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Act of British Columbia (SBC Chapter 22, assented to 1984, as amended).

1.5 Harassment

- (a) The Employer and the Union recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from harassment. The Parties agree to foster and promote such an environment.
- (b) The Parties agree that substantiated cases of harassment may be cause for discipline, up to and including dismissal.
- (c) Harassment is defined as deliberate actions, that ought reasonably to be known as unwelcome by the recipient and which serve no legitimate work related purpose, toward an individual or individuals by the employees or the Employer, on any of the prohibited grounds of discrimination under the Human Rights Act of British Columbia including: age, race, sex, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, disability, marital status, family status, political beliefs or conviction of a criminal or summary offence unrelated to employment.
- (d) The Union and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from sexual harassment.
- (e) This definition of sexual harassment is not meant to inhibit interactions or relationships based on mutual consent or normal social contact between employees.
- (f) Protection against harassment extends to incidents occurring at or away from the workplace, during or outside working hours, and includes incidents related to client or resident contact, provided the acts are committed within the course of the employment relationship.
- (g) The Employer agrees to maintain (revised 9/98) Personnel Policy on Employment-related Harassment. Prior to any changes or amendments, the Employer shall consult with the Union and the Parties shall mutually agree to the changes.
- (h) Where the proposed resolution or outcome of an investigation of a harassment complaint is not satisfactory to the employee(s), the Bargaining Unit member may exercise their rights commencing at Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION RECOGNITION AND RIGHTS

2.1 Bargaining Unit Defined

- (a) The bargaining unit shall include all employees as defined by the certification except persons in positions deemed excluded:
 - (1) by mutual agreement between the Parties; or
 - (2) by virtue of a decision by the Labour Relations Board of British Columbia.
- (b) The Employer shall notify the Union in writing of any proposed exclusion from the bargaining unit. Such notification shall include the organization chart for the department or program where the position is located, a copy of the job description and reason for exclusion.
- (c) If no agreement is reached within thirty (30) days of the notification either Party may refer the matter to the Labour Relations Board for a final and binding determination.

2.2 Bargaining Agent Recognition

2.3 Correspondence and Directives

The Employer shall forward to the applicable Union's designate a copy of:

- (a) any directives circulated to employees pertaining to the interpretation or application of this Agreement.
- (b) any correspondence to any employee pertaining to the interpretation or application of the agreement as it applies to that employee.

2.4 No Other Agreement

No employee covered by this Agreement shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer or its representatives which may conflict with the terms of this Agreement.

2.5 No Discrimination for Union Activity

2.6 Recognition and Rights of Stewards

- (a) The Employer recognizes the Union's right to select three (3) stewards and an alternate to represent employees.
- (b) The Union agrees to provide the Employer with a list of the employees designated as stewards and/or alternates.
- (c) A steward, or the alternate, shall obtain the permission of the immediate supervisor before leaving work to perform duties as a steward. Leave for this purpose shall be with pay. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. On resuming normal duties, the steward shall notify the supervisor.

- (d) The duties of the stewards shall include:
- (1) investigation of complaints of an emergent nature;
 - (2) investigation of grievances and assisting any employee whom the steward represents in presenting a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure;
 - (3) supervision of ballot boxes and related functions during ratification votes provided this does not result in costs greater than that normally incurred by the Employer;
 - (4) attending meetings at the request of the Employer.

2.7 Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide bulletin board facilities for the exclusive use of the Union, the sites to be determined by mutual agreement. The use of such bulletin board facilities shall be restricted to the business affairs of the Union. All employees covered by this Agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a picket line arising out of a dispute as defined in the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia. Any employee failing to report for duty shall be considered to be absent without pay. Failure to cross a picket line encountered in carrying out the Employer's business shall not be considered a violation of this Agreement nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action.

2.10 Time Off for Union Business

- (a) Leave of absence without pay shall be granted for the reasons set out below unless it would unduly interrupt the Employer's operations:
- (1) for an elected or appointed representative of the Union to attend conventions of the Union and bodies to which the Union is affiliated.
 - (2) for elected or appointed representatives of the Union to attend to Union business which requires them to leave their general work area;
 - (3) for employees who are representatives of the Union on a Bargaining Committee.
- (b) Long-term leave of absence without pay shall be granted to employees designated by the Union to transact Union business for specific periods unless this would unduly interrupt the Employer's operations. Such requests shall be made in writing sufficiently in advance to minimize disruption of the department. Employees granted such leave of absence shall retain all rights and privileges accumulated prior to obtaining such leave. Seniority shall continue to accumulate during such leave and shall apply to such provisions as annual vacations, increments and promotions.
- (c) When leave of absence without pay is granted pursuant to part (a) or (b), the leave shall be given with pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for salary and benefit costs, including travel time incurred, within sixty (60) days of receipt of the invoice. It is understood that employees granted leave of absence pursuant to this clause shall receive their current rates of pay while on leave of absence.

Leave of absence granted under this clause shall include sufficient travel time. This provision does not apply to employees on extended leaves of absence who are employed by the Union on a full-time basis.

(d) Leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority will be granted to an employee called to appear as a witness before an arbitration board, provided the dispute involves the Employer.

On application, the arbitration board may determine summarily the amount of time required for the attendance of witnesses:

(e) The Union shall provide the Employer with reasonable notice to minimize disruption of the operation and shall make every reasonable effort to give a minimum of fourteen (14) days notice prior to the commencement of leave under (a) or (d) above. The Employer agrees that any of the above leaves of absence shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(b) All employees hired on or after November 27, 2000 shall, as a condition of continued employment, become members of the Union and maintain such membership, unless they secure an exemption from the Labour Relations Board because of religious objection as permitted under the Labour Relations Code, Article 17.

ARTICLE 4 - CHECKOFF AND UNION DUES

(f) Before the Employer is obliged to deduct any amount under (a) and (b) above, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of the deductions. The amount so advised shall continue to be the amount to be deducted until changed by further written notice to the Employer from the Union. In all cases, the Union shall provide the Employer with a reasonable notice period to implement any change.

(g) At the same time the Income Tax (T-4) slips are made available, the Employer, without charge, shall indicate on the T-4 slip the total amount of the Union dues paid by the employee for the previous year (the year for which the T-4 slip was provided).

(h) As a condition of continued employment, an employee shall complete an authorization form supplied by the Union providing for the deduction from an employee's wages or salary the amount of the regular dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union.

(i) Any change to the amount deducted, including assessments, shall coincide with the beginning of the Employer's payroll period.

(j) Where the dues authorization form consists of multiple copies, the Employer will provide the Union with the required copies of the completed and signed authorization form for dues check-off for all new employees.

(k) The Union agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Employer as a result of any actions by an employee relating to the deduction of Union dues or other monies as described in Clauses (a) and (b) above.

(b) New employees shall also be provided with:

- (1) the name and department of the steward; and
- (2) an authorization form for Union dues check-off.

(e) The Union will provide the Employer with an up-to-date list of Stewards' names and department in order that the Employer may meet its obligation in (b)(1) above.

ARTICLE 6 - EMPLOYER'S RIGHTS

(a) The management of the Employer's business, and the direction of the work force, in keeping with the Employer's mission statements including the hiring, firing, promotion and demotion of employees, is vested exclusively in the Employer except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement.

(b) The Union agrees that all employees shall be governed by all rules as adopted by the Employer and published to employees on bulletin or notice boards, or by general distribution, provided such rules are not in conflict with this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - EMPLOYER/UNION RELATIONS

7.1 Union and Employer Representation

No employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without the proper authorization of the Union. To implement this the Union shall supply the Employer with the names of its officers and similarly, the Employer shall supply the Union with a list of its supervisory or other personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

- (b) The Employer designate shall reply in writing to an employee's grievance within seven (7) days of the above noted meeting with the Union Steward or, if the meeting is waived, within seven (7) days of the date the Parties agree to waive the meeting.

8.6 Step 3
