ARTICLE 1 - UNION SECURITY AND RECOGNITION

1.01 Certification

- (a) This agreement shall apply to and be binding upon all employees of the Company described in a Certificate issued to the Union by the Canada Labour Relations Board on the 16th day of April, 1974, and which are a "unit of employees of Greyhound Canada Transportation Corp., comprising employees of Greyhound Canada Transportation Corp., employed in British Columbia and classified as Operations Supervisors," or such other classification or job titles as may be established by the Company to cover the job duties and functions of Operations Supervisors.
- (b) The Company will recognize individuals and/or employees elected, appointed, and/or designated by the Union as its qualified officers, Councillors, Job Stewards and/or representatives. The Union will notify the Company in writing as to who are the elected representatives of the Union authorized by the Union to discuss and, wherever possible, resolve problems arising out of this Agreement.

1.02 Gender/Singular and Plural

Where the masculine pronoun is used in this Agreement, it shall mean and include the feminine pronoun where the context so requires. Where the singular is used in this Agreement, it shall mean and include the plural where the context so requires.

1.03 Time Periods

Where the time periods are specified in days, weeks, months or years, and the context does not otherwise provide, the Agreement shall be taken to mean the calendar period.

1.04 Bargaining Unit Work

Unless agreed to by the Job Steward, duties normally performed by employees within the bargaining unit will not be assigned to or be performed by non-bargaining unit employees except pursuant to 4.04 (b) or in emergencies, or in the absence or unavailability of regular employees.

1.05 Contracting Out

Unless agreed to by the Union, the Company will not contract out work normally performed by employees within the bargaining unit which will result in any displacement of such employees. For the length of this agreement existing contracts and arrangements shall be exempt from this Clause.

1.06 No Other Agreement

The Company agrees not to enter into any agreement with any employee or group of employees which conflicts with any terms or conditions of this Agreement.

1.07 Headings and Sub-Headings

The headings and sub headings used in this agreement are inserted for convenience and reference purposes only and shall not be used as an aid to interpretation.

Neither the Union nor the Company, in carrying out their obligations under this Agreement shall discriminate in matters of hiring, training, promotion, transfer, layoff, discharge or discipline or in any other way because of race, colour, creed, national origin, age, sex or marital status.

2.02 Harassment and Discrimination

- (a) Greyhound Canada Transportation Corp. and the OPEIU Local 378 are committed to providing a workplace where everyone can expect to be treated with dignity and respect and where no employee is subject to harassment or discrimination. - (iii) An alleged offender shall be given notice of such complaint under this clause and shall be given notice of, and be entitled to attend, participate in and, be represented in the investigation process and the results.
- (iv) The employee, the alleged harasser, the Company and the Union shall hold complaints of this nature in strict confidence.
- (v) Where the results of the investigation result in any disciplinary action, any notes to an employee file, any transfer, etc. that affects a bargaining unit employee, the Union will be made aware of such action.

- (vi) If a complaint is not satisfactorily resolved under this process, complainants and/or alleged harasser as bargaining unit members have the right of pursuing a grievance or filing a complaint under the Canadian Human Rights Act.

2.04 Protection Against Legal Action

- (a) All reasonable expenses and costs with respect to any legal action brought jointly against an employee and the Company or against the employee will be paid by the Company when, in the opinion of the Company, such employee is acting within the scope and during the course of his employment and provided such actions do not constitute a gross disregard or neglect of his prescribed duties as an employee.

The Company will indemnify and save harmless any employee from any actions, claims, cause or demand that may be made or arise out of the employee carrying out his prescribed duties within the scope and course of employment with the Company except where the action of such employee constitutes a gross disregard or neglect of his prescribed duties as an employee.

- (b) If legal action is brought against an employee as a result of performing his prescribed duties, it is the employee's responsibility to notify the Company as soon as possible.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY

3.01 Union Membership

The Company agrees that all employees, as defined in this Agreement, within fifteen (15) days of the signing of this Agreement or within fifteen (15) days of employment with the Company, whichever event shall later occur, as a condition of continued employment with the Company, shall make application to become members of the Union and remain members in good standing of the Union.

3.02 Introduction to Union

The Company shall allow the Job Stewards fifteen (15) minutes on Company time to introduce all new employees to the Union and to ensure all new employees sign dues deduction forms, initiation and memberships cards. The aforementioned fifteen (15) minutes of time will be arranged within the first fifteen (15) days of employment with the Company. Once the above referenced forms are completed, the Job Steward will return them to the Company who will in turn forward the executed forms to the Union.

3.03 Union Dues

- (a) The Company will honour written assignments of wages for Union dues and assessments and shall remit such dues and assessments to the Union monthly, together with information as to the persons from whose pay such deductions have been made. Notwithstanding any provisions contained in this Article, there shall be no financial responsibility on the part of the Company for fees, dues or assessments of an employee unless there are sufficient unpaid wages of the employee in the Company's possession.
- (b) The Company agrees to include the total amount of Union dues deducted for each employee in the appropriate box on the T - 4 slip (or other document as determined by government).

ARTICLE 4 - JOB STEWARDS

The Union shall notify the Company in writing of the names of employees who will act as Job Stewards at each location, one of whom will be designated a Senior Job Steward.

4.02 Duties of Job Stewards

The authority of the Job Steward(s) shall be limited to the following activities:

- (a) The investigation and presentation of grievances and disputes and of such complaints or evidence that may give rise to grievances or disputes.
- (b) Transmission, posting or otherwise delivering Union notices, bulletins to employees or to the Company. The Union will be allocated space on Company bulletin boards to post official communications from the Union to its members, provided the communications are not in conflict with the Company's business interests.

4.03 Management and Job Stewards Meeting

- (a) The Union and the Company agree that in the interest of maintaining harmonious relations, it is to their mutual advantage to convene regular monthly meetings for the purpose of discussing and resolving any issues that may arise in the workplace. Upon request such meetings will take place on a monthly basis and may be in the format of a teleconference.
- (b) All Job Stewards will be permitted to attend such meetings without loss of pay, but there will be no resulting overtime or other premium costs to the Company.

4.04 Time Off for Union Business

It is understood that the Steward(s) have their regular work to perform on behalf of the Company and will spend only such time during working hours as is necessary to carry out their activities in 4.02 (a) and (b) above. The Steward(s) will obtain permission of their supervisor before leaving their work to deal with the above activities. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld. Steward(s) will be allowed to carry out their duties under 4.02 (a) and (b) above without loss of pay.

4.05 Union Leave

- (a) Employees elected or appointed to full-time Union positions will be granted leaves of absence without pay on request. Time spent with the Union will be considered as service with the Company and the employee will continue to accrue seniority with the Company during such period. Employees on such leave will at their option continue to participate in any Company welfare and pension plans as provided by this Agreement, provided the Union reimburses the Company on a monthly basis for the cost of such premiums. Employees on leave to work for the Union, on application to the Company, will be re-employed by the Company at a job level equivalent to that which the employee left to work for the Union. The salary of the employee on re-employment will be that salary which the employee would have attained in his classification assuming he had never left the employment of the Company.
- (b) The Company will grant leaves of absence without pay to employees who are elected as representatives to attend Union meetings, conventions, arbitrations or to conduct Union business. The Company agrees to advise the Union of the actual amount of pay deducted from these employees, as soon as possible.

- (c) The Company will grant a leave of absence with pay to one employee who is required to participate in collective bargaining when authorized by the Union. The maximum paid leave of absence under this clause shall be no more than four (4) days pay at the regular rate.

Granting of leaves of absence in accordance with the above will be subject to mutual agreement by the parties to provide satisfactory coverage for the work which would normally be performed by the employee on leave.

ARTICLE 5 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

Should any grievance arise between the Company, the Union and/or an employee under the terms of this Agreement, such grievance will be disposed of in the following manner:

(c) Step Three

In the event the grievance has not been settled by the General Manager within ten (10) days from the date it is submitted to him, the grievance may be submitted within the next seven (7) days to the Vice President, BC Region.

For the purposes of accelerating the resolution of applicable grievances, the parties may mutually agree to refer the grievance to non-binding Federal Grievance Mediation prior to moving on to step four. The parties mutually agree to freeze the timelines respecting step four if the grievance is before Federal Grievance Mediation.

(d) Step Four

Arbitration - In the event the grievance has not been satisfactorily adjusted within fifteen (15) days of submission to the Vice-President, Passenger Services Canada or his designated representative, the matter may, on written notice of either party, within thirty (30) days, be submitted for final determination to a single arbitrator to be selected in the following manner:

Within seven (7) days of notice to proceed to arbitration, the parties shall agree on naming a single arbitrator. Should the parties fail to reach agreement on naming the arbitrator, the necessary appointment shall, upon the request of either party, be made by the Minister of Labour of Canada.

The arbitrator shall proceed as soon as practical, but not later than ten (10) days thereafter except by mutual consent, and shall render his decision as soon as possible and forward a written copy of his decision to each party. The decision of the arbitrator shall constitute the award which will be binding on the parties and shall be implemented within fifteen (15) days of the award.

Where an employee has been dismissed, suspended or disciplined, the arbitrator may substitute such other penalty for the dismissal, suspension or discipline as the arbitrator considers just and reasonable in all the circumstances. The arbitrator shall not have the power to change, amend or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement.

5.03 Arbitration Costs

Each party to this Agreement shall be responsible for one half of the fees and expenses of the single arbitrator.

5.04 Time Lines

The time limits provided for in Steps 2, 3, and 4 of the grievance procedure may be extended or waived by mutual agreement.

6.03 Calculation of Seniority

- (a) Probationary Period
After a new employee has accumulated a period of service of 520 hours within the bargaining unit, he shall be granted seniority from the date of his employment. During such 520 hours worked, the employee shall be on a probationary basis.

If such employee believes that he has been unfairly treated, he may within seven (7) days from the date of being suspended from duty or dismissed, seek settlement of the matter through the grievance procedure as set forth in Article 5 Grievance Procedure, commencing at the step in the grievance procedure which involves the level of management from whom the notice was originally issued. The Union may initiate any grievance of suspensions or terminations at Step Three of the Grievance Procedure. Failure of an employee to seek settlement of his case within the said 7-day period will cancel any claim unless it is shown that he was prevented from seeking settlement through illness or accident or other reasons acceptable to the Company.
- (b) This Section shall only apply to employees who have passed through the probationary period as set out in this Agreement.
- (c) In case of disciplinary action, employees shall be notified within twelve (12) days of the date the Company becomes aware of the alleged offence. Note: For the purposes of this Article, the term "shall not be considered" shall mean that the document will not be used for progressive discipline once it has passed the time line without a recurrence.

7.04 Inadequate Performance

An employee may be terminated for inadequate performance only after the following procedures: The Company must demonstrate that progressive discipline has been applied. If progressive discipline has been applied and a deficiency still exists then, a written notice of warning of the deficiency will be provided to the employee with a copy to the Union and such notice will specify a period of time of not less than sixty (60) days and not more than ninety (90) days within which the employee assisted by the supervisor concerned is to correct the deficiency. If at the end of this period of time, the Company wishes to extend this period it will be only after consultation with the Union. If, at the end of this period of time, the time limit is not extended and the deficiency has not been corrected, the employee may be terminated upon 2-weeks' further notice or 2-weeks' pay in lieu of notice.

These notified employees shall have thirty (30) days from the date of receiving the double-registered letter to apply for the posted position. If an employee does not receive the double-registered letter, the Company will notify the Union prior to the expiry of the thirty day time limit. This time limit may be extended for reasons acceptable to the Company. Preference shall be given to the senior employee as defined in Article 6.01 provided such employee is qualified or can qualify within a reasonable period of orientation. Preference shall be given to full-time employees on postings for permanent full-time positions.

9.01 Layoff

It is recognized that there are two (2) types of layoff: temporary layoffs and permanent layoffs. Temporary layoffs are layoffs that are not more than twelve (12) months during which the affected employee maintains recalls. Permanent or indefinite layoffs are layoffs that either last beyond twelve (12) months or, are known at the time of layoff to be permanent.

It is agreed that there shall be no partial reduction of any hours of work for any employees in lieu of layoff, without the mutual agreement of the Parties.

(a) Union Notice

- (i) Temporary layoffs – If a temporary reduction in staff is necessary, the Company shall provide the Union office with as much notice as possible, in writing, but not less than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the effective date of layoff.
- (ii) If a permanent reduction of staff is necessary, the Company shall provide the Union office with as much notice as possible, in writing but not less than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to any layoff notices being sent to the affected employees. The Company shall arrange to meet with the Union within this fourteen (14) day period to discuss the impact of the layoffs, and possible alternatives.

(b) Employee Notice

Affected employees will be given no less than fourteen (14) days notice, in writing, or pay in lieu thereof, and the procedure in 9.01 (d) will be adopted, subject to Article 10.

(c) Order of Layoff

- (i) Probationary employees will be laid off first. The Company agrees that probationary employees hired last will be laid off first.
- (ii) It is understood that the elimination of a full time position would give the affected employee the right to exercise bumping rights in accordance with Article 9.02.
- (iii) Thereafter, employees shall be laid off on the basis of their bargaining unit seniority (regardless of full time or part time seniority), with the employee at each location with the least bargaining unit seniority being laid off first, provided the employees retained are qualified to meet the normal requirements of the work.

(g) Work Outside the Bargaining Unit while on Layoff

Laid off employees will be offered the opportunity to apply for positions outside the bargaining unit in seniority order of those on layoff, prior to such positions being offered to new Company employees. Laid off employees successful in obtaining Company work outside the bargaining unit shall retain their recall rights in accordance with the Collective Agreement.

(h) Seniority Accrual

Seniority shall accrue for any employee who is laid off in accordance with this Agreement, for the duration of the recall period. Such time will be for bidding purposes and will not be considered in calculating length of service increases.

- (d) accept training in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, provided there is a bargaining unit position available.

In accepting any one of the above four (4) options, an employee still maintains his recall rights in accordance with this Agreement.

The Company shall provide affected employee(s) with full particulars with respect to all options available to them. Any options which are declined by the employee(s), or which are accepted but cannot be exercised in full, shall not affect the employees' right to select one (1) of the remaining options.

9.03 Recalls

(a) Order of Recalls

- (i) Recalls will be made in the inverse order of the layoffs, at the location the layoff occurred, provided that the employees so recalled are qualified to meet the normal requirements of the work.
- (ii) In the event of a subsequent requirement for an additional bargaining unit employee at the location from which the employee was laid off, the affected employee shall retain the right to return to this position for a period of twelve (12) months from the effective date of the layoff notice. This right may be waived by written notice by the employee to the Company and the Union.

(b) New Hires

New employees will not be hired until laid off employees who are qualified to meet the normal requirements of the work have been recalled.

(c) Notice of Recall

Employees will be notified of recall by the Company by registered letter sent to their last known address. The employee shall report for work within seven (7) days of receiving the notice of recall, failing which recall rights for such job will be lost except that employees who are unable to report because of sickness, injury or other reason acceptable to the Company at the time of recall will not lose their rights under this Article.

(d) Refusal of Recall

Laid off employees shall have the right to decline a recall or temporary assignment, if the duration of such recall or temporary assignment is less than two (2) months; provided there are qualified bargaining unit employees available to fill the temporary assignment at that location. If the employee turns down the assignment, and no other qualified employee is available, Article 7.07 (d) will apply.
