(b) There shall be no time limit within which a grievance must be filed or a matter referred to arbitration. Any breach by a Company of its obligations to a plan referred to in this Section under a prior Collective Agreement between the parties shall be deemed to be a breach of this Collective Agreement, and the procedures set out in this Section may be used in grieving and arbitrating such breach.

(c) The Union, employers and trustees, or their agents may submit a written notice of default to the Company with a demand for payment of contributions and compliance with any other provisions of the plan. Such notice shall be considered to be the filing of a grievance under this Section.

The Notice shall be deemed to have been received by the Company on the third day after the day on which it was mailed.

(d) If the Company fails to make its required contributions or otherwise fails to comply with the plan within ten (10) days after the date of the notice the grievance procedures shall thereupon be exhausted and the grievance may be referred at any time thereafter by the Union, employers or trustees, or their agents, to final and binding arbitration.

The Company acknowledges and agrees that the liquidated damages will be used to defer administrative costs and acknowledges the cost to be actual and substantial though difficult to ascertain, however, the Company acknowledges that these are a minimum of twenty percent (20%) of amounts found to be delinquent and waives the necessity of any additional proof thereof.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the said sum is on account of damages resulting from:
