In the event that after having initiated a grievance an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, the Union agrees that, pursuant to this Article, the grievance shall be abandoned.

8.9 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this Agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end an arbitrator shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

8.10 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual agreement of the parties, but the same must be in writing.

8.11 Policy Grievances

9.1 Notice of Intent to Arbitrate

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that a term or condition of this Agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure notify the other party within twenty-one (21) days of the receipt, or due date, of the reply at Step 2, of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.

9.2 Appointment of a Single Arbitrator

When a party has requested that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the parties shall have ten (10) working days to agree on a single arbitrator. Failing such agreement, either party may request that a single arbitrator be appointed pursuant to the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

9.3 Single Arbitrator Procedure

The arbitrator may determine his/her own procedure in accordance with the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia and shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. He/she shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall render a decision within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the hearing.

9.4 Decision of the Arbitrator

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on the parties. The arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify, or amend any of its provisions.

9.5 Disagreement on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the arbitrator to clarify the decision, which he/she shall make every effort to do within seven (7) days of receipt of such application. This procedure shall be used for clarification purposes only and not to introduce new issues.

9.6 Expenses of Arbitrator

Each party shall pay one-half (½) of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.

9.7 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual agreement of the parties but the same must be in writing.

- (b) define the issue in the difference; and
- (c) make written recommendations to resolve the difference within five (5) days of the date of receipt of the request and for those five (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.

The parties agree that this procedure will not be invoked until the grievance procedure has been completed.

9.9 Expedited Arbitration

By mutual agreement, the parties may proceed to expedited arbitration as an alternative to the aforementioned arbitration procedure.

Where the parties mutually agree to refer a matter to expedited arbitration, the following procedure shall apply:

- (a) all presentations are to be short and concise and are to include a comprehensive opening statement. The parties agree to make limited use of authorities during their presentations;
- (b) as the process is intended to be informal and non-legal, outside lawyers will not be used to represent either party;
- (c) prior to rendering a decision the arbitrator may assist the parties in mediating a resolution to the grievance. Where mediation fails, the arbitrator's decision shall be brief and to the point;
- (d) the location of the hearing is to be agreed to by the parties but will be at a location central to the geographic area in which the dispute arose;
- (e) the arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two (2) working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decisions shall be provided beyond that which the arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision;

- (g) all settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice;
- (h) the parties shall equally share the costs of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator;
- (i) the expedited arbitrator, who shall act as a sole arbitrator, shall be mutually agreed to by the parties.

It is agreed that arbitration decisions made under this provision will not be appealed.

Should an employee dispute any such entry in his/her file, he/she shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure, and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of his/her personnel record. Any such document, other than employee appraisals, shall be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of eighteen (18) months from the date it was issued provided there has not been any further infraction. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing.

10.4 Evaluation Reports

Where a formal appraisal of an employee's performance is carried out, the employee concerned shall be given an opportunity to read and review a copy of the appraisal, away from the worksite. An employee shall receive a copy of this evaluation report at the time of signing.

All final employee performance appraisals shall form part of the employee's permanent record.

If the employee wishes to dispute the performance appraisal, he/she should initiate Step 1 of the grievance procedure within five (5) days of signing in disagreement with the appraisal.

If the employee doesn't submit a grievance on the content of the appraisal within twenty-one (21) days of the date on which the employee signed the appraisal in disagreement, the appraisal shall become a permanent part of the employee's record.

10.5 Personnel File

(a) An employee, or the President of the Union (or his/her designate) with the written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review the employee's personnel file, in the office in which the file is normally kept, in order to facilitate the investigation of a grievance. The employee or the President, as the case may be, shall give the Employer adequate notice, prior to having access to such file. Access to the file shall be no later than seven (7) days after notice is given.

(b) With reasonable notice given to the Employer, an employee shall be permitted to review his/her personnel file in the office in which the file is normally kept. Access to the file shall be not later than seven (7) days after notice is given.

10.6 Right to Have Steward Present

Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor must notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee has the right to contact his/her Steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

Where a supervisor intends to interview a Shop Steward for disciplinary purposes, the steward shall have the right to consult with a Staff Representative of the Union and to have another Shop Steward, Staff Representative or alternate present at any disciplinary discussion with supervisory personnel, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

This provision shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve imposition of disciplinary action.

10.7 Employment Abandoned

Any employee who fails to report for work and does not notify his/her supervisor within three (3) work days, and who cannot give an acceptable reason for his/her absence, shall be considered as having abandoned his/her position. An employee shall be afforded the opportunity to rebut such presumption and demonstrate that there was an acceptable reason for not having informed the Employer.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.1 Seniority Defined

Seniority shall be defined as the length of the employee's continuous employment with the Employer and shall accumulate based on hours worked since the most recent date of employment with the Employer including service with the Employer prior to certification or recognition with the Union. (b) If there are no applicants meeting the criteria of (a) above, then the following procedure will apply:

(1) The selection standards as established for each position or class of positions shall be used to assess the merit of candidates as to education, knowledge, experience, skills, efficiency, or any other matters that are necessary having regard to the duties to be performed. The selection standards shall not be inconsistent with any classification standard prescribed for that position or any position in that class;

(2) Where two (2) or more applicants have qualifications, ability and experience which are equal, the applicant with the greater seniority shall be awarded the position. Internal qualified applicants shall be given every consideration in respect to the filling of the position.

- (c) A laid off regular employee may opt to be placed on the casual seniority list in order of seniority hours, for available casual work assignments in any job classification for which he/she has the qualifications to perform. A regular employee would not lose their regular status in this event. Assignment to the casual list does not prevent recall to a regular position if it becomes available.
