- (b) Unless fitness and ability of an employee is clearly greater than other employees involved, length of continuous service with the Employer shall govern in cases of promotion, layoffs and rehire. Regular full-time employees reduced to a part-time basis shall be offered available work in accordance with the above procedure. The foregoing provisions do not apply to employees hired to work on relief staff or replace employees who are absent due to vacation, sickness, accident or other leaves of absence.

- (c) In the case of promotion the Employer will provide an adequate training period of not less than thirty (30) calendar days.  - (3) The employee is capable of performing the work.

Employees rehired within six (6) months of their layoff shall retain their previous length of service for purposes of this section.

- (e) Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary in this Agreement, it is mutually agreed that all employees are hired on probation, the probationary period to continue for sixty (60) calendar days for all employees during which time they are to be considered temporary workers and during this period no seniority rights will be recognized. - (f) Reduction and Increase of Hours: Preference in available hours of work in a store shall be given to senior employees, providing the employee has the ability to perform the work. The Employer will endeavour to maximize the number of hours scheduled for part-time employees in accordance with their seniority and the Collective Agreement, provided they are available and can perform the work. The foregoing does not imply an obligation to schedule more hours than the Employer has determined are necessary.
- (g) The Employer reserves the right to schedule available hours in a manner that ensures the most junior part-time employee a minimum fourteen (14) hour schedule. This clause will not be implemented until there is mutual agreement with the Union. The Union will not withhold such Agreement when proper cause for implementation is demonstrated.

- (j) Student Seniority: Students regularly attending day classes at an authorized educational institution shall have seniority only over junior students.

A student clerk shall commence to accumulate regular seniority as a part-time or full-time employee when it is established that he or she has ceased being a student and will not be resuming his or her studies in the next school year or semester. Students shall inform the owner/operator/manager in writing when they have ceased being a student.

When more than one (1) student in a store ceases being a student at approximately the same time of the school year, the part-time seniority ranking among those persons will be the same as was their student seniority ranking in accordance with the above.

Should a student proceed to part-time under the second paragraph above and then revert to student status in a subsequent school year or semester, that person shall be considered on the bottom of the student seniority list.

- (k) Job Posting

All full-time and part-time jobs that become available shall be posted in the store for a period of fourteen (14) days.

1. Current employees of the Employer shall be eligible to apply for the vacant position

3. The Employer shall provide a sixty (60) day training period to allow the employee to properly perform the new job functions.
4. Should either the employee or the Employer decide that they cannot satisfactorily perform the job required, the employee shall be returned to their former position with no loss of seniority or benefits.

The Employer reserves the right to temporarily fill a position during the posting period.

Section 12 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- (a) Any complaint, disagreement or difference of opinion between the parties hereto concerning the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be considered a grievance.

Grievances shall be presented in writing and shall clearly set forth the grievance and the contentions of the aggrieved party, following which the Union representative or representatives and the Employer representative or representatives shall meet and in good faith shall earnestly endeavour to settle the grievance submitted. If a satisfactory settlement cannot be reached or if the party on whom the grievance has been served fails to meet the other party within fourteen (14) days of receiving the written grievance, either party may, by written notice served upon the other, require submission of the grievance to a Board of Arbitration, such Board to be established in the manner provided in Section 13 of this Agreement.

- (b) Grievances involving the dismissal or layoff of an employee must be submitted to the Employer within ten (10) working days from the date of dismissal or layoff or be waived by the aggrieved party, provided notice has been given as required under Section 10.

Justice and Dignity: Any employee whom the Employer suspends or discharges shall be retained at or returned to active work until any Grievance contesting such suspension or discharge is finally resolved through the Grievance/Arbitration procedure.

However, the employee may be removed from active work (without pay) until the resolution of the Grievance protesting the suspension or discharge if his/her alleged cause for suspension, discharge or termination presents a danger to the safety of employees or equipment in the store due to fighting, theft, concerted refusal to perform their assigned work.

- (c) Any employee alleging they have been wrongfully dismissed or that management has deliberately coerced or intimidated him or her into quitting, may place his allegations before the Union representative and, if the Union representative considers that the objection of the employee has merit, may utilize the grievance procedure as established by this agreement.
- (d) The parties by mutual agreement may invoke Section 103 of the British Columbia Labour Code to facilitate the settling of grievances. Section 103 of the B.C. Labour Code states as follows:

"Where a Collective Agreement contains the following provision:

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of the Collective Agreement, Ken Albertini, or a substitute agreed to by the parties, shall at the request of either party

- (a) investigate the difference;
- (b) define the issue in the difference; and
- (c) make written recommendations to resolve the difference within 5 days of the date of receipt of the request; and for those 5 days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.

The Minister of Finance, on the Minister's requisition, shall pay out of the consolidated revenue fund 1/3 of the cost incurred by the parties for payment of reasonable remuneration, travelling and out of pocket expenses of the person named or his substitute."

Section 13 - BOARD OF ARBITRATION

- (a) The Board of Arbitration shall be composed of three (3) members and shall be established as follows:

Within ten (10) working days (excluding Sundays and holidays) following receipt of such notice, the Employer and the Union shall each select a representative to serve on the Board of Arbitration. The representative of the Employer and the representative of the Union shall, within five (5) days (excluding Sundays and holidays) after they have both been selected, choose an additional member to act as Chairman. In the event of failure of the nominees of the Union and the Employer to agree upon a Chairman within the five (5) day period specified, the Minister of Labour of British Columbia shall be immediately requested to name a third member who shall act as Chairman of the Board of Arbitration.

Within five (5) days of the appointment of the impartial Chairman, the Board of Arbitration shall sit to consider the matter in dispute and shall render a decision within fourteen (14) days after its first session. It is understood and agreed that the time limits as set forth herein may be altered by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.

No person shall serve on a Board of Arbitration who is involved or directly interested in the controversy under consideration. Grievances submitted to an Arbitration Board shall be in writing and shall clearly specify the nature of the issue.

In reaching its decision, the Board of Arbitration shall be governed by the provisions of this Agreement. The Board of Arbitration shall not be vested with the power to change, modify or alter this Agreement in any of its parts, but may, however, interpret its provisions. The expense of the impartial Chairman shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union unless otherwise provided by law.

The findings and decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be binding and enforceable on all parties. A decision of a majority of the Board of Arbitration shall be deemed to be a decision of the Board.

- (b) In the case of discharge which the Board of Arbitration has determined to have been for an improper cause, the Board may order the reinstatement of the employee and may award him or her full or part back pay.

Section 14 - UNION'S RECOGNITION OF MANAGEMENT'S RIGHTS

The Union agrees that the Employer has the sole right to plan, direct and control store operations, direct the working force, discharge employees for just cause and control any other matter requiring judgment as to the competency of employees.

The parties agree that the foregoing enumeration of management's rights shall not be deemed to exclude other recognized functions of management not specifically covered by this Agreement. The Employer, therefore, retains all rights not otherwise covered in this Agreement.

The exercise of the foregoing rights shall in no way alter any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 15 - MISCELLANEOUS

- (a) Union Decal: The Employer agrees to display the official Union decal of the United Food & Commercial Workers International Union in a location where it can be seen by customers.
- (b) Wearing Apparel: The Employer will supply smocks, uniforms, dresses or other wearing apparel required on the job, to be laundered by the Employer.

Special clothing to be supplied by the Employer where required. Members shall be permitted to wear sweaters, providing they are acceptable to the Employer.

- (c) Charitable Donations: Employee donations to charity funds shall be on a strictly voluntary basis.
- (d) Workplace Harassment Policy: The Employer is committed to maintaining a work environment that is free of discrimination. In keeping with this commitment, the Employer will not tolerate harassment of employees by anyone, including any supervisor, co-worker, vendor, client, or customer of the Employer.

It is understood and agreed, that the exercising of normal management rights shall not be considered as harassment.

Harassment consists of unwelcome conduct, whether verbal, physical, or visual, that is based on a person's protected status, such as sex, sexual orientation, colour, race, ancestry, religion, national origin, age, physical disability or mental handicap, medical condition, disability, marital status, citizenship status, or other protected group status. The Company will not tolerate harassing conduct that affects tangible job benefits, that interferes unreasonably with an individual's work performance, or that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

Sexual harassment deserves special mention. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other physical, verbal, or visual conduct based on sex constitute sexual harassment when, (1) submission to the conduct is an explicit or implicit term or condition of employment, (2) submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as the basis for an employment decision, or (3) the conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment. Sexual harassment may include unwanted sexual advances, offering employment benefits in exchange for sexual favors, making or threatening reprisals after a negative response to sexual advances; visual conduct: leering, making sexual gestures, displaying of sexually suggestive objects or pictures, cartoons, or poster; verbal conduct: sexual innuendoes, sexually oriented "kidding or teasing", "practical jokes" about gender specific traits, making or using derogatory or suggestive comments, epithets, or slurs, verbal sexual advances or propositions, verbal abuse of a sexual nature, graphic verbal commentaries about an individual's body, sexually degrading words used to describe an individual, suggestive or obscene letters, notes, or invitations; physical conduct: touching, patting, pinching, brushing against another's body, assault, impeding or blocking movements.

A person who considers that she or he has been subjected to workplace harassment is encouraged to bring the matter to the attention of the person responsible for the conduct. A direct approach to the person who has caused the offense is suggested as the first step. Frequently, people are unaware that their conduct is offensive and all that is needed to prevent its repetition is a simple statement that the conduct is unwelcome. However, that is merely a suggestion.

Where the complainant does not wish to bring the matter directly to the attention of the person responsible, or where such an approach is attempted and does not produce a satisfactory result, the complainant should immediately notify your Shop Steward and/or your Employer and/or your Union Representative.

The Union and Employer's policy is to investigate all such complaints thoroughly and promptly. To the fullest extent practicable, the Union and the Employer will keep complaints and the terms of their resolution confidential.

This harassment policy is to be prominently displayed in the workplace.

If an investigation confirms that harassment has occurred, the Employer will take corrective action in consultation with the Union.

This policy does not prevent any employee from proceeding to the B.C. Human Rights Commission.

Section 16 - SHOP STEWARDS RECOGNITION

It is recognized that Shop Stewards may be elected or appointed by the Union from time to time and the Employer will be kept informed by the Union of such appointments or elections.

The Employer agrees to recognize Shop Stewards and Alternate Shop Stewards for the purpose of overseeing the terms of the Collective Agreement being implemented and for the purpose of presenting complaints and grievances to designated management of the store.

Shop Stewards may introduce new members to the Union on their own time, to present membership cards for signature.

The Shop Steward and, in the absence of the Shop Steward, another member of the bargaining unit of the employee's choice shall be present when a member of the bargaining unit:

- i Is given a reprimand which is to be entered on the employee's personnel files.
- ii Is suspended or discharged.

When a Shop Steward is investigating a grievance or a complaint on Company time, the Steward must first obtain permission from his/her immediate Supervisor or the Store Manager. Such permission will not be unreasonably denied.

- (d) No employee shall be discharged or discriminated against for any lawful Union activity, or for serving on a Union Committee outside of business hours, or for reporting to the Union the violation of any provision of this Agreement.
- (e) Security Interviews: Employees shall have the right to have another employee of their choice, working in the store at the time of the interview, in attendance at any interviews by security agents of the Employer.
- (f) Discipline Interview: Where an employee attends an interview with management for the purpose of receiving a formal discipline report or for a security interview, the employee shall have the right to a witness of his or her choice. If during any other private corrective interview with management it is determined that there will be a discipline report on the employee's record, the interview may be temporarily suspended so the employee may call in a witness of his or her choice. Any witness used by the employee in the above situations will be another employee working in the store at the time the interview is being held. It is understood the witness is an observer and not a participant.
- (g) Bulletin Board: The Employer agrees to supply a bulletin board for use by the Union.

- (h) Health and Safety Store Committees: The Employer agrees to maintain a Health and Safety Committee in the store. The Committee shall function in accordance with the Workers Compensation Board Health and Safety Regulations.

A bargaining unit employee shall be elected by bargaining unit members in the store or shall be appointed by the Union to the Health and Safety Committee.

Section 17 - TIME OFF FOR UNION BUSINESS- STORE VISITS

- (a) The Employer agrees that employees chosen for such purposes shall be given time off without pay in order to attend Union conventions or participate in negotiations involving the Employer. The number of employees in excess of one (1) granted leave of absence for these purposes shall be determined by mutual agreement. The Union shall notify the Employer at least two (2) weeks in advance of the commencement of all such leaves of absence.

The Employer will bill the Union and the Union will reimburse the Employer for wages paid to the employee and contributions made on the employee's behalf during such absence.

- (b) Store Visits of Union Representatives: Duly authorized full-time representatives of the Union shall be entitled to visit the store for the purpose of observing working conditions, interviewing members and unsigned employees and to ensure that the terms of the Collective Agreement are being implemented.

The interview of an employee by a Union representative shall be permitted after notifying the owner/operator/manager and shall be:

- (1) Carried on in a place in the store designated by management.
- (2) Held whenever possible during the lunch period. However if this is not practical, during regular working hours. Time taken for such interview in excess of five (5) minutes shall not be on company time unless with the approval of Management.
- (3) Held at such times as will not interfere with service to the public. No interview shall be held on Friday, Saturday or any day after 4:00 p.m., or on the day preceding a statutory holiday except in cases of employees who only work Fridays, Saturdays or after 3:30 p.m.

Union representatives shall be permitted to review the Hours of Work Schedule and in the event of any discrepancies they shall be presented under Section 12 of this Agreement.

Section 18 - EXPIRATION AND RENEWAL

This Agreement shall be for the period from and including January 1, 2003, to and including December 31, 2005, and from year to year thereafter, subject to the right of either party to the Agreement, within four (4) months immediately preceding December 31, 2005, or any subsequent anniversary date thereafter to:

- (a) terminate this Agreement, in writing, effective December 31, 2005, or any subsequent anniversary thereof,

(b) require the other party to this Agreement, in writing, to commence collective bargaining to conclude a revision or renewal of this Agreement.

Should either party give notice pursuant to (b) above, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect and neither party shall make any change in the terms of the said Agreement, or increase or decrease the rate of pay of any employee for whom collective bargaining is being conducted, or alter any other term or condition of employment until:

- (1) The Union gives notice of strike in compliance with the Labour Code of British Columbia, or
- (2) The Employer gives notice of lockout in compliance with the Labour Code of British Columbia.

The operation of Section 50(2)(3) of the Labour Code of British Columbia is hereby excluded.
