- 9:01 All new employees shall have a probationary period of thirty (30) days worked or ninety (90) calendar days, whichever comes first. Tradesmen shall have a probationary period of sixty (60) days worked or ninety (90) calendar days, whichever comes first.

Seniority List and Classifications:

- 9:02 Seniority shall be calculated as follows:

- (i) For employees hired prior to April 1st, 1990, seniority shall accumulate from the date the Company employed them irrespective of whether they work in the jurisdiction of "Local 115" or "Local 213".
- (ii) For employees hired on or after April 1st, 1990, their seniority shall accumulate from the date the Company employed them within the classifications as contained in Article 2:02 (b) (i) and (ii), or
- (iii) An employee, who transfers from one Local's jurisdiction to another Local's jurisdiction, shall fall to the bottom of that Local's seniority list for layoff and rehiring purposes.

An employee who transfers under these circumstances shall have his original seniority date for vacation purposes only.

9:03 The Company shall keep posted on a suitable notice board on its premises an up-to-date list of all employees covered by this Agreement, showing the date when each commenced his employment with the Company and shall forward a copy of each list to the Union as it is posted. Such lists shall be renewed at least every three (3) months, and shall show the employees' classifications.

Layoff and Re-Hire:

9:04 The Company when laying employees off shall lay them off in reverse order of seniority.

9:05 (a) Any employee subject to a layoff through a reduction of the work force shall have the right to exercise his seniority to continue to work in a position held by a less senior man. When filling a position through this procedure, the employee must be reasonably competent to perform the duties of the position into which he bumps. Any employee obtaining a classification as outlined above must return to his regular classification when required.

(b) It shall be the responsibility of the Company to notify a laid off employee, where junior men to him are working. When a laid off employee has been properly notified, he then has no right to claim wages for time periods that he did not choose to work in at that specific job.

(c) There will be a five (5) work day fence between the Concrete Division and the Manufacturing Division. In order to bump into another division, an employee must be laid off from his current position for five

(5) consecutive working days. An employee wanting to return to his former division shall give one (1) week's notice to his present Supervisor. Once this happens, this employee would have to re-qualify (five (5) days). However, if required, the Company may return the employee to his former division. In this instance the five (5) days is waived.

9:06 When vacancies occur, the Company shall re-hire laid off employees according to their seniority with the Company, beginning with the most senior employee and proceeding in turn thereafter.

All employees may post into classifications or areas consistent with their seniority.

9:09 Any employee, however, who previously worked at the classification as a posted employee and is capable of performing the job or a trained employee who posted for a training position may be given preference.

9:10 (a) The successful applicant shall be on probation in his new job for thirty (30) working and/or training days during which time he may be returned to his former job if he does not make satisfactory progress or if he applies to the Company to be returned. The Union shall receive copies of all postings and the assignments of such postings.

(b) Employees engaged in training shall receive their previous rate of pay until the training period is complete. Thereafter, such rate applies only while performing the job trained for.

Loss of Seniority:

- 9:11 All employees who are laid off or terminated for lack of work shall retain their seniority for a period of twelve (12) months from date of layoff or termination.
- 9:12 Should a properly notified employee, however, not report for work then his name would be removed from the seniority list. Those employees affected by a layoff shall keep the Company advised of their current address and available telephone number.
- 9:13 Any new employee who, in the twelve (12) month period from first day of employment with the Company, is laid off for a period greater than six (6) months shall not retain seniority and, if re-hired, shall be considered a new employee.

Employees will not qualify if on W.C.B. or Sick Pay.
