Vancouver, Province of British Columbia;

(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

PARTY OF THE SECOND PART

2.02 Should either party give written notice to the other party pursuant hereto, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect until the Union shall give notice of strike and such strike has been implemented, or the Employer shall give notice of lockout and such lockout has been implemented, or the parties shall conclude a renewal or revision of the Agreement or a new collective agreement.

2.03 The operation of Section 50 (2) and (3) of the British Columbia Labour Relations Code is hereby excluded.

3. UNION SECURITY

3.01 The Union recognizes the right of the Employer to hire whomever it chooses, subject to the Seniority provisions contained herein. The Employer shall, however, give the Union the first opportunity to refer suitable applicants for employment, and if the Union cannot supply a suitable applicant, the Employer may hire from elsewhere. If an Arbitration Board finds circumstances which in the opinion of the Arbitration Board makes it just and equitable may order the Employer to pay less than the full amount of wages lost.
- 12.06 The Board of Arbitration shall not have any jurisdiction or authority to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement, or to give any decision inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, except where there is a dispute between the parties, regarding the rate of pay for a newly established, or altered classification not provided for herein, or a dispute under 23.02 herein, or a dispute under the Welfare Plan, the Board of Arbitration or Sole Arbitrator shall have the power to deal with such matters and bring down a final and binding award.

The employee may choose to retain recall rights in six (6) month periods to a maximum of four (4) periods, thereby delaying the collection of severance pay.

14.05 Whenever there is a significant change in job content or working conditions, the Company will meet with the Union to discuss the appropriateness of a rate revision. If agreement cannot be reached, the matter may be processed through the Grievance Procedure to a final conclusion.
