BETWEEN:

CITY OF CHILLIWACK
(hereinafter called the "Employer")

and:

CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 458
(hereinafter called the "Union")

SECTION 1
PREAMBLE

1.01 Preamble

WHEREAS it is the desire of the parties to this Agreement:

1. To maintain and improve the harmonious relations and settle conditions of employment between the Employer and the Union;
2. To recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions, employment, services, etc.;
3. To encourage efficiency in operation, and;
4. To promote the morale, well-being and security of all Employees in the Bargaining Unit of the Union;

AND WHEREAS it is now desirable that the methods of bargaining and all matters pertaining to the working conditions of the Employees be set out in an Agreement (hereinafter called the "Agreement" or the "Collective Agreement").

NOW THEREFORE the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 2
MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

2.01 Management Rights

The management of the operation and staff, except as expressly limited by this Collective Agreement, is reserved to and vested exclusively in the Employer.

SECTION 3
RECOGNITION AND NEGOTIATIONS

3.01 Recognition

The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 458, as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agency for all of its Employees and hereby consents and agrees to negotiate with the Union, or any of its authorized Committees, concerning all matters affecting the relationship between the parties to this Agreement, looking toward a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them.

3.02 No Other Agreement

Employees covered by this Collective Agreement shall not be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement with the Employer or its representatives which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

3.03 Work of the Bargaining Unit

Employees who are not members of the Union will not normally or regularly perform any work which is exclusively performed by members included in this Bargaining Unit, except in cases mutually agreed upon by both parties.

SECTION 4 DEFINITIONS

4.01 Employee

“Employee” shall mean a person who is an Employee as defined in the Labour Relations Code, Part I and amendments thereto.

4.02 Probationary Employee

1. “Probationary Employee” shall mean:

- a) Full Time Employee – 120 days worked;
- b) Part Time, Casual, Time Duration or Co-Op Student Employee – 120 days worked, or 12 months, whichever comes first, from the date of hire, to determine suitability for employment as a regular Employee.

Such period of time may be extended by mutual consent of both parties in writing. It is agreed and understood that during a new Employee’s Probationary Period, their transfer, layoff or dismissal shall be entirely at the discretion of the Employer, without recourse to the grievance procedure. During the Probationary Period, Employees shall be entitled to benefit participation, or a percentage in lieu, as applicable to Full Time, Part Time, Casual, Time Duration or Co-Op Student Employees. Commencement of benefit participation shall be in accordance with the individual plan requirements, with dental coverage and the BC Pension Corporation deductions commencing only after successful completion of the Probationary Period.

2. Employees shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement, including the Schedules of Pay Rates attached thereto.
3. New Employees shall be paid 85% of the rate for their classified position until successfully completing a Probationary Period of 120 days worked for Full Time Employees, and 120 days worked or 12 months, whichever comes first, for Part Time Employees.
4. Notwithstanding Section 4.02(3), the Employer may waive the probationary rate where the Employee being hired was employed in a similar position in the last 12 months and is deemed, in the opinion of the Employer, to be fully qualified.
5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Employees working in Schedules C-1 and C-3 shall receive the rates set out in Schedules C-1 and C-3, respectively, commencing upon date of hire.

4.03 Full Time Employee

“Full Time Employee” shall mean an Employee who has successfully completed the Probationary Period and who is employed on a regular and continuous basis, working the annual hours specified in Section 14.01(1)(a) or 14.01(2)(a).

Full Time Employees shall be entitled to all benefits provided in this Collective Agreement from date of hire.

4.04 Part Time Employee

1. “Part Time Employee” shall mean any Employee employed in any position which is other than full time and works less than the normal hours specified in Sections 14.01(1)(a) and 14.01(2)(a).

If Employees, after they commence employment, wish to change their decision, they may do so by notifying the Human Resources Office in December, with the change to be effective at the start of the following Calendar Year, for those benefits that continue to be available to the Employee.
3. For Employees who elect payment in lieu of benefits, the payment will be all inclusive of such items as statutory holidays, holidays, etc., and the overtime payment provisions contained in the Collective Agreement will apply to those Employees who are required to work on statutory holidays. The payment in lieu of benefits will be applied to the Employee’s base rate and the payment shall be based on the following:

4. Employees who elect benefits will be entitled to holidays, statutory holidays and sick leave on a pro rata basis.

Time Duration Employees, during the aforementioned period, shall be entitled to cumulative seniority from date of hire, but shall not be entitled to fringe benefits, other than those to which a person becomes entitled by reason of statute. Time Duration Employees will receive a percentage in lieu of benefits upon hire at the rate set out in Section 4.04(3).

4.06 Casual Employee

1. “Casual Employees” augment the regular work force and may fill in from time to time for regular Employees who are absent. Casual Employees have no regular schedule of hours or shifts. Hours and shifts for these Employees will be set by the Employer, subject to operational requirements and the requirements stipulated in Section 14.01 of this Collective Agreement.
2. Casual Employees shall be entitled to cumulative seniority from date of hire.
3. Casual Employees will receive a percentage in lieu of benefits upon hire at the rate set out in Section 4.04(3) for their first 12 calendar months. Casual Employees may join the benefit plan after January 1 of the year following their first full Calendar Year, subject to the following provisions:
- a) Provided they have worked a minimum of 50% of full time working hours in their first full Calendar Year, and;
 - b) It is anticipated that they will work at least that number of hours in subsequent years.
4. Employees who become eligible for and elect benefits shall be entitled to holidays, statutory holidays and sick leave on a pro rata basis, subject to an estimate performed by the Employer on January 1 of each Calendar Year.

4.07 Co-Op Student Employee

“Co-Op Student Employee” shall be defined as an Employee who is currently enrolled in a Co-Op Student Program at an accredited educational institution. A Co-Op Student Employee is employed for a special project or a specified purpose for a limited time duration not to exceed 1 Co-Op term as defined by the institution at which the Employee attends. A grievance shall be defined as a difference between an Employee and the Employer, or between the Employer and the Union, relating to the dismissal or discipline of an Employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable. There shall be no work stoppage on account of such difference and an earnest effort shall be made to settle the difference in the following manner.

8.02 Policy Grievance

Policy Grievances submitted by the Employer or the Union shall be resolved as follows:

- Step 1: The Employer or the Union shall first take up the grievance verbally with the Chief Administrative Officer within 5 working days the Employer or the Union ought to have reasonably known of the event giving rise to the grievance.
- Step 2: If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled in Step 1, it shall be reduced to writing, and the Employee and Shop Steward, or designated Union representative, shall submit it to the Human Resources Office no later than 5 working days following the discussion with the Chief Administrative Officer in Step 1. The Human Resources Office shall reply in writing within the next 5 working days.
- Step 3: If a satisfactory settlement is not reached at Step 2 and the Union wishes to proceed further, the grievance shall be referred to Step 3 within 10 working days of the Human Resources Office's reply at Step 2. The Grievance Committee of both parties will meet to discuss the grievance. If they are unable to settle the grievance within 10 working days of the date the grievance was referred to Step 3, then either party may give written notice of arbitration to the other.

8.03 Grievance Steps

Except for Employer and Union Policy Grievances, all grievances shall be resolved as follows:

The Grievance Committee of both parties will meet to discuss the grievance. If they are unable to settle the grievance within 10 working days of the date the grievance was referred to Step 3, then either party may give written notice of arbitration to the other.

Arising out of Section 8, a Board of Arbitration shall be formed to hear the grievance. Either party shall notify the other in writing of the question(s) to be arbitrated and the name and address of its chosen representative on the Arbitration Board. After receiving such notice and statement, the other party shall, within 5 calendar days, appoint its representative on the Arbitration Board and give notice in writing of such appointment to the other party. Such representatives shall endeavour to select a third member who shall be the Chairperson. Should the representatives fail to select such a third member within 5 days from the appointment of the last representative, either party may request the Minister of Labour of the Province of British Columbia to appoint a Chairperson. The expenses and compensation of the representatives selected by the parties shall be borne by the respective parties. The expenses and compensation of the Chairperson shall be shared equally between the parties.

9.02 Decision by Board of Arbitration

Within 14 calendar days following the establishment of the Board of Arbitration, it shall report its decision on the grievance. The majority decision of the Board shall be final and binding upon all parties bound by this Collective Agreement.

9.03 Reinstatement by Board of Arbitration Order

In the event the Board of Arbitration finds that an Employee has been dismissed or suspended for other than proper cause, the Board of Arbitration may direct the Employer to reinstate the Employee and pay to the Employee a sum equal to their wages or rate of pay lost by reason of such suspension or discharge, or such lesser sum as in the opinion of the Board of Arbitration, is fair and reasonable, or make such other order as it considers fair and reasonable, having regard to the terms of the Collective Agreement between the parties.

SECTION 10 DISCIPLINE

10.01 Adverse Report

The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing related to disciplinary action, any document from the file of an Employee, the existence of which the Employee was not aware prior to the hearing and thereby was denied the opportunity of placing their written response in the file. No Employee shall be suspended or dismissed without proper cause. Any Employee suspended or dismissed shall have the right to grieve.

10.02 No Disciplinary Action - Unsafe Conditions

An Employee will not be required to work at a job site that is unsafe. If an Employee is concerned about the safety of the job site or equipment assigned, they will immediately report the condition to their Management Supervisor who will ensure the work is performed without undue risk.

If the matter remains unresolved, it shall be referred to the Safety Committee. If, in the opinion of the Committee, the job site or equipment is unsafe, the Employee shall not be disciplined for their refusal to work due to the unsafe condition.

10.03 Legal Picket Line

No Employee will be required to enter any building or property where a picket line is in evidence, when such picket line is established under either the Statutes of the Province of British Columbia or the Statutes of Canada, except for the purpose of maintaining essential services, or in cases of emergencies, when requested by the Employer and their Union Local.

2. An applicant applying for a posted vacancy who lacks the formal education or technical certification required in the position shall not be rejected solely on that basis if the applicant is judged by the Employer as having the required knowledge, skill and ability to otherwise satisfactorily perform the work in question, provided:
