CHRISTIAN LABOUR ASSOCIATION OF CANADA

(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE

1.01 It is the intent and purpose of the parties to this agreement, which has been negotiated and entered into in good faith, to:

- d) establish a just and prompt procedure for the disposition of grievances;
- e) and generally, through the full and fair administration of all the terms and provisions contained herein, to develop and achieve a relationship among the Union, the Employer, and the employees which will be conducive to their mutual well-being.

- 1.02 The omission of specific mention in this agreement of existing rights and privileges established or recognized by the Employer shall not be construed to deprive employees or the Union of such rights and privileges.
- 1.03 The parties agree that
- Part 3, Wages, Special Clothing, & Records
 - Part 4, Hours of Work and Overtime
 - Part 5, Statutory Holidays
 - Part 7, Annual Vacations, and
 - Part 8, Termination of Employment
- of the Employment Standards Act form part of this collective agreement except those provisions specifically modified by this agreement.
- 1.04 Should any part of this agreement be declared or held invalid for any reason, that invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remainder which shall continue in full force and effect and be construed as if this agreement had been executed without the invalid portion.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION

- 2.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agent of all employees in the bargaining unit as defined in Article 2.02, save and except supervisory personnel, office, and sales staff.
- 2.02 This Agreement covers all employees in British Columbia. The Employer further agrees that this Agreement covers all employees of the Employer on such projects in the Yukon Territory.

- 2.03 There shall be no revision, amendment, or alteration of the bargaining unit as defined herein or of any of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, except by the mutual agreement in writing of the parties. Should classifications and rates other than set out in Schedules "A" be required, the Employer and the Union shall meet and agree as to applicable rate(s).
- 2.04 The Union and the Employer may determine, on a project or site basis, if special dispensation is required to become competitive or the employees have specific concerns not addressed herein and, should the necessity arise, may by agreement in writing, add, amend or delete any terms or conditions of the Agreement for the duration of the job or project. Similarly, should the conditions of the noted minimum wage adjustments necessitate reconsideration, (up to and including a delay in the implementation of the changes) the parties may, by agreement in writing, amend the conditions of the review.

ARTICLE 3 - MANAGEMENT'S RIGHTS

- 3.01 The Employer's rights, subject to this Agreement, include but are not limited to the following:
- a) the right to maintain order, discipline, and efficiency; to make, alter, and enforce rules and regulations, policies, and practices to be adhered to by its employees; to discipline and discharge employees for just cause;
 - b) the right to select, hire, and direct the working force and employees; to transfer, assign, promote, demote, classify, layoff, recall, and suspend employees; to select and retain employees for positions excluded from the bargaining unit;
 - c) the right to operate and manage the Employer's business in order to satisfy its commitments and responsibilities; the right to determine the kind and location of business to be done by the Employer; the direction of the working forces; the scheduling of work; the number of shifts; the methods, processes and means by which work is to be performed; job content; quality and quantity standards; the right to use improved methods, machinery, and equipment; the right to determine the number of employees needed by the Employer at any time and generally, the right to manage the business of the Employer, and to plan, direct, and control the operations of the Employer without interference.

3.02 The sole and exclusive jurisdiction over operations, building, machinery, and equipment shall be vested in the Employer.

ARTICLE 4 - UNION REPRESENTATION

4.01 For the purpose of representation with the Employer, the Employer recognizes that:

- a) the Union has the right to appoint Stewards to assist employees in presenting complaints or grievances and to enforce and administer the Collective Agreement. The number of Stewards shall not normally exceed two (2) per project. Projects involving fewer than fifty (50) employees will be limited to one (1) Steward per shift. The Union will advise the Employer, in writing, of the names of Stewards;
- b) duly appointed Representatives of the Christian Labour Association of Canada are representatives of the employees in all matters pertaining to this Agreement, particularly for the purpose of processing grievances, negotiating amendments to and renewals of this Agreement, and enforcing the employees' collective bargaining rights as well as any other rights under this Agreement and under the law. Union Stewards shall not act in the capacity of Representatives. The Union will advise the Employer, in writing, of the names of its duly appointed Representatives.

- 4.02 The Union acknowledges that Stewards have regular duties to perform as employees of the Employer and that such employees will not leave their regular duties for the purpose of conducting business in connection with the administration of the Agreement or the investigation or presentation of grievances, without first obtaining the permission of their Foreman or immediate Supervisor. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld.

The Employer will pay stewards at their regular hourly rate for time spent attending such duties during their working hours.

- 4.03 Representatives of the Union will have access to visit job sites or fabricating shops during normal working hours subject to the following:
- a) the Union Representative shall identify himself to the job Supervisor upon arriving at a job site;
 - b) in no case will such Representative interfere with the progress of work.

- 4.04 The Union has the right to appoint a Negotiating Committee. Employees to a maximum of one (1) on the committee shall be paid by the Employer to a maximum of eight (8) hours per Contract Agreement at their regular hourly rates for all time spent on negotiating a collective agreement with the Employer, whenever this takes place during the regular working hours of the employees concerned.

- 4.05 Union stewards will be laid off or reduced in number in accordance with the completion of the various phases of each project. Subject to the operating requirements of the Employer, the Union may request that Union Stewards be retained on the job or project in the reduction of the work force. When so requested, the Employer may assign the Union Steward to a classification the Union Steward is qualified, in the opinion of the Employer, to perform. In the event the Employer transfers the Steward to another project, a new Steward shall be appointed by the Union.

- 4.06 The Employer may meet periodically with his employees for the purpose of discussing any matters of mutual interest or concern to the Employer, the Union, and the employees. A CLAC representative may attend such meetings.
- 4.07 There shall be no Union activity during working hours on the Employer's premises, except that which is necessary for the processing of grievances and the administration and enforcement of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - NO CESSATION OF WORK

- 5.01 During the term of this Agreement, or while negotiations for a further agreement are being held, the Union will not permit or encourage any strike, slowdown, or any stoppage of work or otherwise restrict or interfere with the Employer's operation.
- 5.02 During the term of this Agreement, or while negotiations for a further agreement are being held, the Employer will not engage in any lockout of its employees or deliberately restrict or reduce the hours of work.

ARTICLE 6 - EMPLOYMENT POLICY AND UNION MEMBERSHIP

- 6.01 The Union and the Employer will cooperate in maintaining a desirable and competent labour force. The Employer has the right to hire new employees as needed and will give full consideration to Union members for employment, provided such applicants are qualified, in the Employer's opinion, to meet the requirements of the job.

- 6.02 Neither the Employer nor the Union will compel employees to join the Union. The Employer will not discriminate against any employee because of Union membership or lack of it, and will inform all new employees of the contractual relationship between the Employer and the Union. Before commencing work, any new employee shall be referred by the Employer to a Steward or a CLAC Representative in order to give such Steward or CLAC Representative an opportunity to describe the Union purposes and representation policies to such new employees.
- 6.03 The Union agrees that it will make membership in the Union available to all employees covered by this Agreement on the same terms and conditions as are applicable to other members of the Union.
- 6.04 It shall be the policy of the Employer to promote from within wherever possible, at the Employer's discretion.
- 6.05 New employees will be hired on a sixty- (60) working day probationary period and thereafter shall attain regular employment status subject to the availability of work. The parties agree that the discharge or layoff of a probationary employee because of skills, abilities, or qualification shall be in the discretion of the Employer. It is agreed that all newly hired employees in skilled classifications may be paid at a rate one (1) classification below the alleged skill level for their probation period. Such employees will be notified of their rate of pay before commencing work.
- 6.06 Probationary employees are covered by the Agreement excepting those provisions which specifically exclude such employees.

Employees laid off and recalled by the Employer within one year of previous employment shall not serve a new probationary period.

ARTICLE 7 – CHECK-OFF & REMITTANCES

- 7.01 a) The Employer agrees to check-off from each employee the amount equal to union dues, which is one and four tenths of one percent (1.4%) of gross pay, once monthly, and where applicable, union initiation fees. The total amount checked off will be remitted to the Union Treasurer each month, by the twentieth (20th) of the month following the check-off, together with an itemized list for whom the deductions are made and the amount checked off for each. The Union and the employees agree that the Employer shall be saved harmless for all such deductions and remittances.
- b) Unless agreed differently, the remittances required as a result of the operation of Articles 16, 17, and 18 will be made together with the dues remittance as noted in Article 7.01(a) above.
- 7.02 Employees who, because of religious or conscientious objections, cannot support CLAC Local 68, may apply to the Union, in writing, to re-direct their dues to a mutually agreed charitable organization. The Union will treat such requests in accordance with its policy.
- 7.03 The Employer shall provide the Union with all necessary information regarding insurance and benefit plans, job classification changes, and terminations. The name, address, date of hire, and classification of employees shall be provided to the Union once monthly.

ARTICLE 8 - WAGES AND RATES OF PAY

- 8.01 a) Wage Schedules and other provisions applicable to various job classifications and work descriptions for the Lower Mainland are as set forth in Schedule "A". It is understood and agreed that the Employer and the Union will jointly determine the wage schedule applicable to a project prior to its commencement if there is a possible dispute.
- b) Wage Schedules for other areas of British Columbia or the Yukon Territory will be discussed and agreed, or referred to dispute resolution, prior to the commencement of any such work. However, it will remain the Employer's option to apply the Lower Mainland Schedule "A" to work in other parts of B.C. or Yukon Territory without further consultation with the Union.
- 8.02 Additional classifications may be established only by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union during the term of this Agreement, and the rates for same shall be subject to negotiations between the Employer and the Union.
- 8.03 Show Up Time
An employee who reports for work as scheduled without having been notified that there is no work available, and who is sent home because of lack of work, shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours' pay at his prevailing hourly rate. - 8.05 When there is a temporary shortage of work within a given work day in a specific classification, the Employer may employ the affected employees in another classification at the rate of pay of their usual specified classification provided the employee is qualified to do the required work.
- 8.06 Payday shall be twice (2x) monthly or bi-weekly, as may fit the Employer's normal business, with a maximum one (1) week holdback. If payday is a statutory holiday then pay will be issued the day before the regular payday.

- 9.06 Hours of work and overtime as set out in this Article may be modified by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union for selected contract projects.
- 9.07 It is agreed that the provisions of this Article are for the purpose of computing or a limitation on the hours of work to be done per day or per week other than those stipulated in Articles 8.03 and 8.04.
- 9.08 There will be two (2) unpaid coffee breaks of ten (10) minutes duration on each shift, one in the first half of the shift and one in the second half of the shift and before any overtime work if more than one (1) hour. Employees will be given a meal period of one-half (1/2) hour per shift but such period will not be considered as time worked. Employees shall be entitled to an additional coffee break for every two (2) hours of overtime worked in a given day.
- 9.09 Provided the employee notifies the Employer at the time of hire, the Employer agrees to respect an employee's wishes with regards to not working certain days of the week or certain hours of the day because of religious convictions.
- 9.10 Sunday shall be deemed the first day of the week.

ARTICLE 10 – LAYOFFS

- 10.01 The Employer agrees to notify the Union office of the name of each employee laid off within the pay period of the date during which the layoff occurred, together with the employee's classification and latest available phone number.

10.02 Employees recognize the conditional nature of employment in the construction industry and that they are employed on a project-by-project basis. Should a temporary or permanent layoff be required due to a shortage of work, the delay of, or the cancellation of a project, workers are subject to layoff with one (1) day of notice or pay in lieu of notice. The employer will provide as much notice as practical in the exercise of this provision and give laid off workers first consideration upon re-mobilization.

ARTICLE 11 - VACATION & VACATION PAY

11.01 Employees shall be entitled to an amount equal to four per cent (4%) of the total wages of the employee. Where the employee has completed five (5) continuous years of employment, an employee shall be entitled to an additional two per cent (2%) of the total wages of the employee.

11.02 Vacation Pay and Statutory Holiday Pay (Article 12) shall be paid to employees on each pay cheque.

11.03 The Employer will grant vacations at the times requested, considering business requirements.

- 12.02 An Employee required to work on one of the above holidays shall receive overtime pay of one and one-half (1½) times his regular wages for all hours worked.

ARTICLE 13 – TRAVEL AND LODGING ALLOWANCE

- 13.01 Whenever employees covered by this Agreement are required by the Employer to be away from their normal place of residence overnight, the Employer shall pay a lodging allowance which will be appropriate to the project and be calculated so as to cover the cost of reasonable lodging, or alternatively, provide, at his own expense, suitable accommodation for the employees. Allowances will not be paid for any day on which an employee lays off work of his own accord for reasons other than sickness or accident. When an employee is absent for the reasons noted above, he shall furnish the Foreman on the job with satisfactory evidence of illness and/or accident or he shall forfeit the allowances. ARTICLE 14 - UNION-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

14.01 The parties to this Agreement pledge to work towards the greatest possible degree of consultation and co-operation believing that the following concepts provide a fundamental framework for improved labour/management relations:

- a) the industrial enterprise is an economically characterized work community of capital investors and workers under the leadership of management;
- b) the economic character springs from a continuous striving towards efficient use of scarce resources, energy, and environment, and in the adequate development of research, production and marketing;
- c) the enterprise requires authority relationships under a strong central leadership or management;
- d) a strong management does not discourage cooperation but stimulates it, recognizing that while leadership without labour can do nothing, labour without management cannot survive.

14.02 a) In order to further the aims of the enterprise, the parties agree to schedule Union-Management meetings once every three (3) months or as required during the life of this Agreement. The meeting shall serve as a forum for discussion and consultation about policies and practices not necessarily covered by the Collective Agreement. The Union reserves the right to refer unresolved matters to the Grievance Procedure.

- d) the Employer shall schedule regular safety meetings at least once per month for all employees on the site, during the work shift.
- 15.02

 - b) Employees shall have the right to refuse to work, as per WCB rules, on or with unsafe equipment, tools, or working conditions.
- 15.03 An employee who is injured on the job during working hours and is required to leave for treatment for such injury shall receive payment for the remainder of his/her shift.
- 15.04 An employee who is injured on the job and who requires transportation from the work site to a local physician or hospital shall receive such transportation provided for by the Employer. Should an employee require hospitalization for a period of more than one (1) week, the Employer will provide transportation to an available facility near the employee's home at no cost to the employee.

15.07 The Employer shall continue the Safety Award Program currently in effect.

ARTICLE 16 - HEALTH AND WELFARE PLAN

- 16.01 a) In order to protect the employees and their families from the financial hazard of illness, the Employer agrees to pay one dollar and fifteen cents ($1.15) per hour in the first year of the agreement and one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) per hour in the second year of the agreement (as per Schedule "A" or other appropriate Schedule) for all hours worked by all employees to the Health and Welfare Plan, administered by the CLAC Health and Welfare Trust fund. An outline of the Plan is listed in Schedule "B".
- b) On each anniversary date of this Agreement, the Union may present the requirements of funding, as directed by the Trustees of the CLAC Health & Welfare Trust Fund, to the Employer. Where such requirements do not exceed two percent (2%) per year cumulatively, the Employer will comply and increase its remittances accordingly. The Employer is saved harmless from Plan cost increases in excess of four percent (4%) over the two- (2) year term of the Agreement.
- c) The Employer also agrees to remit sixty cents ($0.60) per hour (as per Schedule "A" or other appropriate Schedule") for all hours worked by all employees to the regional office of the Christian Labour Association of Canada for the purpose of purchasing BC Medical Services Plan coverage for all employees. There will be no change in the remittance rate during this Agreement's term unless there is a change in premium, or premium structure. Premium changes will be applied in accordance with current premium assignment practices by the Union.

16.02 It is understood and agreed that it is the responsibility of each employee to be familiar with the specific details of coverage as outlined in Schedule “B” and eligibility requirements of all benefit plans, and that neither the Union nor the Employer has any responsibility for ensuring that all requirements for eligibility or conditions of coverage or entitlement of benefits are met by the employee, beyond the obligations specifically stipulated in this Agreement.

16.03 Employees are eligible to receive coverage on the first of the month following three hundred fifty (350) hours worked. It is the responsibility of the employee to complete the enrolment form for the benefit plans, which is a condition of coverage.

Refusal by an employee to authorize a payroll deduction will relieve the Employer of its obligation to remit its share.

b) Contributions to the employee’s RSP Plan, administered by the CLAC Health and Welfare Trust Fund, shall be made monthly in accordance with direction by the Union. The Employer shall be saved harmless for all contributions and administration of the RSP.

17.02 The Employer agrees to co-operate in allowing additional employee authorized payroll deductions towards the RSP and is entitled to set reasonable rules in respect of further authorized deductions.

All personnel will be afforded an opportunity to purchase fall-arrest/fall restraint equipment through the company for themselves on a payroll check-off plan. Employee-purchased fall arrest/fall restraint equipment will be the responsibility of the employee.

Employer-supplied equipment shall remain the property of the Employer. Any Employer-owned worn out safety equipment will be replaced upon presentation of the worn equipment. ARTICLE 22 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 22.01 The parties to this Agreement recognize the Stewards and the CLAC Representatives specified in Article 4 as the agents through which employees shall process their grievances and receive settlement thereof.
- 22.02 "Grievance" shall mean a complaint or claim concerning improper discipline or discharge, or a dispute with reference to the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of this Agreement.

A "Group Grievance" is defined as a single grievance signed by a Steward or a CLAC Representative on behalf of a group of employees who have the same complaint. Such grievance must be dealt with at successive stages of the Grievance procedure, commencing with Step 1. The grievors shall be listed on the grievance form.

A "Policy Grievance" is defined as one which involves a question relating to the interpretation, application, or administration of this Agreement.

A Policy Grievance shall be signed by a Steward or a CLAC Representative, or in the case of an Employer's Policy Grievance, by the Employer or his representative.

- 22.03 All the time limits referred to in the grievance procedure herein contained shall be deemed to mean "work days".
- 22.04 The Employer or the Union shall not be required to consider or process any grievance which arose out of any action or condition more than five (5) work days after the subject of such grievance occurred. If the action or condition is of a continuing or recurring nature, this limitation period shall not begin to run until the action or condition has ceased. If the Employer does consider or process a grievance which has been presented late, the Employer shall not be stopped or precluded at any stage from taking the position that the grievance is late and not arbitrable.
- 22.05 An employee shall make a reasonable effort to settle disputes with the Superintendent. If the employee's Superintendent does not promptly settle the matter to the employee's satisfaction, an employee's proper grievance may be processed as follows:

Step 1

Subject to the conditions of Article 6.05, if a grievance is to be filed it shall, within the five (5) work days referred to in Article 22.04 above, be reduced to writing and shall be presented to the designated Employer representative by a Steward or a CLAC representative. The designated Employer representative shall notify the Union representative of his decision in writing not later than five (5) work days following the day upon which the grievance was submitted.

The grievance referred to above shall identify:

- a) the facts giving rise to the grievance;
- b) the section or sections of the Agreement claimed violated;

c) the relief requested;
and shall be signed by the employee or employees involved.

Step 2

If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, a CLAC Representative shall within five (5) work days of the decision under Step 1, or within five (5) work days of the day this decision should have been made, submit a written grievance to the designated Employer Representative. A meeting will be held between the Steward or CLAC representative together with the grievor involved and the designated Employer representative and other representatives of the Employer. This meeting will be held within five (5) working days of the presentation of the written grievance to the designated Employer representative. The Employer shall notify the Steward or CLAC Representative of his decision in writing within five (5) work days of such meeting.

Step 3

In the event that the grievance is not settled at Step 2 the party having the grievance may serve the other party with written notice of desire to arbitrate within five (5) work days of the delivery of the decision in Step 2 to the Steward or CLAC Representative but not thereafter.

22.06 Union Policy Grievance or Employer Grievance

A Union policy grievance or an Employer grievance may be submitted to the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, in writing, within ten (10) work days of the time circumstances upon which the grievance is based were known or should have been known by the grievor. A meeting between the Employer and the Union shall be held within five (5) work days of the presentation of the written grievance and shall take place within the framework of Step 3 of Article 22.05 hereof. The Employer or the Union, as the case may be, shall give its written decision within five (5) work days after such meeting has been held.

If the decision is unsatisfactory to the grieving party, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration within fifteen (15) work days of the delivery of such written decision and the arbitration section of this Agreement shall be followed.

If the Employer is not advised of the Union's intention to proceed to arbitration within five (5) work days, the Employer shall not be liable for any damages during the foregoing fifteen (15) work day period.

The provisions of this Article 22.06 shall not be used by the Union to institute a grievance directly affecting an employee or employees which such employee or employees could themselves institute, and the provisions of Articles 22.04 and 22.05 hereof shall not thereby be bypassed.

ARTICLE 23 - ARBITRATION

23.01 Notification
