Notwithstanding the above, the Parties accept that Aboriginal agencies are entitled, by virtue of Section 41 of the Human Rights Code, to give preference to Aboriginal peoples, and as such will not be restricted by any clause or article contained in the Collective Agreement, in the hiring, retaining, promoting or advancing of individuals who are not members of the identifiable group that Aboriginal agencies are mandated to serve.

The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have a steward present at such a discussion. If the dispute is not resolved orally, the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance, through the Union steward, to Step 2 of the grievance procedure. When the aggrieved employee is a steward, she shall not, where possible, act as a steward in respect of her own grievance, but shall submit the grievance through another steward or Union staff representative.

9.3 Time Limits to Present Initial Grievance

An employee who wishes to present a grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, in the manner prescribed in Article 9.4, must do so not later than thirty (30) days after the date:

- (a) on which she was notified orally or in writing of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance; or
- (b) on which she first became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

9.4 Step 2

- (1) recording the grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;

 - (3) transmitting this grievance to the designated local supervisor through the Union steward.
- (b) The local supervisor shall:
- (1) forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at Step 2; and
 - (2) provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received.

9.5 Time Limit to Reply to Step 2

- (a) Within ten (10) days of receiving the grievance at Step 2, the representative of the Employer, the employee and the shop steward shall meet to examine the facts, the nature of the grievance and attempt to resolve the dispute. This meeting may be waived by mutual agreement.
- (b) An Aboriginal employee, with the mutual consent of the Employer, may have her grievance heard by an Elders Council. Recommendations to resolve the difference, made by the Elders Council, are without prejudice. Where the recommendations are unacceptable, either Party may then advance the grievance to the next step of the grievance procedure. Time limits will be extended by the time taken by the Elders Council to make written recommendations to resolve the difference. The Parties agree that the hearing of the grievance by the Elders Council shall take place within thirty (30) days of the request.

It understood that the employee has the right to have Union representation involved in this process.

- (c) The Employer's designate at Step 2 shall reply in writing to the Union within fourteen (14) days of receiving the grievance at Step 2.

9.6 Step 3

The President of the Union, or his/her designate, may present a grievance at Step 3:

- (a) within fourteen (14) days after the decision has been conveyed to him/her by the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2; or

9.7 Time Limit to Reply to Step 3

The representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 3 shall reply in writing to the grievance within thirty (30) days of receipt of the grievance at Step 3.

9.8 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 3, and pursuant to Article 10 (Arbitration), the President, or his/her designate, may inform the Employer of his/her intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

- (a) thirty (30) days after the Employer's decision has been received; or
- (b) thirty (30) days after the Employer's decision is due.

9.9 Failure to Act

If the President of the Union, or designate, does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, the grievance will be deemed to be abandoned. However, the Union shall not be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance.

9.10 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the Parties, but the same must be in writing. Where a grievance or a reply is presented by mail it shall be deemed to be presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to be received on the day it was delivered to the appropriate office of the Employer or the Union. Grievances and replies at Step 3 of the grievance procedure and notification to arbitrate shall be by priority courier or facsimile.

9.11 Dismissal or Suspension Grievance

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal, the grievance may be filed directly at arbitration within thirty (30) days of the date on which the dismissal occurred, or within thirty (30) days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal.

- (b) In the event that after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this Article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.
- (c) Notwithstanding (b) above, an employee who has filed a complaint with the Human Rights Tribunal, unrelated to harassment, shall not have their grievance deemed abandoned through the filing of the complaint.

9.13 Policy Grievance

Where either Party disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an article of this Agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days of the occurrence.

Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either Party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 10 (Arbitration).

9.14 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both Parties of this Agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error, other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

9.15 Management Grievance

The Employer may initiate a grievance at Step 3 of the grievance procedure by the Employer or designate presenting the grievance to the President of the Union or designate.

- (c) The Arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two (2) working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.
- (d) Expedited arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not thereafter be referred to by the Parties in respect of any other matter.
- (e) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.
- (f) The Parties shall equally share the cost of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator and hearing rooms.

It is discriminatory behaviour, directed at an individual, which causes substantial distress in that person and serves no legitimate work-related purpose. Such behaviour could include, but is not limited to:
 - (1) physical threats or intimidation;
 - (2) words, gestures, actions, or practical jokes, the natural consequence of which is to humiliate, alarm or abuse another person;

- (a) Before proceeding to the formal complaint mechanism an employee who believes he or she has a complaint of harassment or discrimination may approach their supervisory personnel, union steward, or other contact person to discuss potential means of resolving a complaint and to request assistance in resolving the matter. If the matter is resolved to the complainant's satisfaction the matter is deemed to be resolved.
- (b) An employee (complainant) who wishes to pursue a concern arising from an alleged harassment may submit a complaint in writing within six (6) months of the latest alleged occurrence directly to the Executive Director. Upon receipt of the written complaint, the Employer shall notify in writing the designated Union staff representative. Complaints of this nature shall be treated in strict confidence by both the Union and the Employer.
- (c) An alleged harasser (respondent) shall be given notice of the substance of such a complaint under this Article and shall be entitled to attend, participate in, and be represented at any hearing pursuant to (i) below.
- (d) The Employer's designate shall investigate the complaint and shall submit her report to the Executive Director in writing within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the complaint. The Union Staff Representative, the complainant and the respondent shall be apprised of the Executive Director's resolution.
- (e) Both the complainant and the respondent shall be given the option of having a steward present at any meeting held pursuant to the above investigation.
- (f) Pending determination of the complaint, the Executive Director may take interim measures to separate the employees concerned if deemed necessary.

- (g) In cases where harassment may result in the transfer of an employee, every effort will be made to relocate the harasser, except that the complainant may be transferred with her written consent.
- (h) In the case of alleged harassment by a client or a member of the general public, the employee claiming to be harassed has the right to discontinue contact with the alleged offender without incurring any penalty, pending determination of the facts of the case. The Employer shall not require the employee to conduct business with an alleged offender under this Article.
- (i) Where either the complainant or the respondent, in conjunction with the Union, is not satisfied with the Executive Director's or independent investigator's response, the Union will put the complaint, within thirty (30) days, before a mutually agreed upon, independent adjudicator who specializes in cases of personal harassment or sexual harassment. The adjudicator shall work with the Parties to achieve a mutually acceptable resolution and if this is not achieved, the adjudicator shall have the right to:
- (1) dismiss the complaint; or
 - (2) determine the appropriate level of discipline to be applied to the harasser; or
 - (3) make further recommendations as are necessary to provide a final and conclusive settlement of the complaint.
- (j) Disciplinary action taken against a harasser pursuant to this Article, shall not form the basis of a grievance.
- (k) Where the complaint is determined to be of a frivolous, vindictive or vexatious nature, the Employer will take appropriate action which may include discipline.
- (l) This Article does not preclude an employee from filing a complaint under Section 13 of the B.C. Human Rights Code. A complaint of personal harassment or sexual harassment shall not form the basis of a grievance.
- (m) Complaints under this Article shall be treated in strict confidence by all Parties involved.
- (n) Where the alleged harasser is the Executive Director, the complaint shall be filed in writing within six (6) months of the latest alleged occurrence through the Union to an independent single investigator who will conduct an investigation and submit a report on the facts to the Parties within twenty (20) days of being appointed. Where the proposed resolution is not acceptable, the Union may follow the procedure outlined in (i) above.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT #14RE: JOINT JOB EVALUATION PLAN

Community Social Services Employers' Association (CSSEA)
and
Community Social Services Bargaining Association of Unions (CSSBA)

A. JOB EVALUATION

A classification system for the Community Social Services Sector has been established pursuant to the following excerpt from the “RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SETTLEMENT BY THE MEDIATOR DONALD R. MUNROE, QC (JUNE 9, 1999)”:

“The purpose of this section is to set out a process and framework to achieve:

- 1. Wage parity with Community Health Workers;*
- 2. Standardization of wages in the Social Services Sector; and*
- 3. Elimination of gender-based wage discrimination.*

Recognizing that wage inequities currently exist within the Social Services Sector and that Parties are committed to implementing equity changes as quickly as possible to eliminate the inequities, the Parties agree to the following:

(a) The job evaluation plan will be developed as per the Memorandum of Agreement (Addendum – Job Evaluation Plan)

(b) The Parties shall meet no later than April 1, 2000 to determine how the funds referred to in (d) below shall be applied using the job evaluation plan and the principle of addressing classifications with the largest disparities first as a guide for application.

(c) Effective October 1, 1999, interim equity adjustment of two point five percent (2.5%) of straight-time salary payroll shall be applied in a manner that ensures a minimum of fifty cents (50¢)/hour will be applied to all positions other than those which are RCW and equivalent positions. This application methodology provides limited flexibility to address particularly skewed hourly rates. This also provides certain RCW or equivalent positions interim equity adjustments in circumstances where they may not otherwise be entitled to adjustments pursuant to the Addendum – Interim Equity Wage Grid.

(d) There will be equity adjustments effective as follows:

October 1, 2000	2.5% of straight-time salary payroll
October 1, 2001	2.5% of straight-time salary payroll
October 1, 2002	2.5% of straight-time salary payroll”

The Parties agree that the classification system established by the Joint Job Evaluation Committee will be in effect for all employees covered by this Collective Agreement.

B. EQUITY ADJUSTMENTS

The Parties subscribe to the principle of equal pay for work of equal value. The Parties will continue to move towards the mutual goal of the Community Social Services Sector achieving the objectives set out in Sections A(1), (2) and (3) above, as follows:

- (a) The Parties agree that effective March 31, 2006, an equity adjustment of three million dollars ($3,000,000), which replaces the October 1, 2002 equity distribution referenced in Section A (d) above, will be combined with an additional three point one million dollars ($3,100,000), for a total of six point one million dollars ($6,100,000).
- (b) These monies shall be applied to the rates in accordance with the principles of this Appendix and the Joint Job Evaluation Plan and shall be allocated addressing classifications with the largest disparities first. The Parties shall complete no later than April 1, 2004 the wage grid that results from the application of these funds.
- (c) Any future pay equity adjustments shall be allocated consistent with Section B (b) above until the wage rates for the Community Social Services Sector reach the appropriate rates.
- (d) Effective April 1, 2004, successful reconsiderations of the 2001 benchmarks and unique job assignments will move to the October 1, 2001 rates. The Parties agree that a one (1) time lump sum of one point five million dollars ($1,500,000) shall be made available to the Joint Job Evaluation Committee on April 1, 2005. This amount shall be distributed to the aforementioned successful reconsideration employees to address the retroactivity for these employees prior to April 1, 2004. In no event will the payment be made for hours worked prior October 1, 2002.
- (e) The Parties will meet no later than May 1, 2004 to continue discussions to ensure preparedness for the expeditious distribution of any future monies that may be negotiated and available in subsequent Collective Agreements.

In the event that a provision in this Appendix is not complied with, Vince Ready shall have jurisdiction to resolve any disputes arising out of the implementation of this Appendix and shall be seized of any matters arising pursuant to the JJEP as outlined in the 1998 – 2003 Collective Agreement.

To the extent that this memorandum of agreement (“the MOU”) does not otherwise define a word or phrase, the definitions in the Labour Relations Code and the Community Services Labour Relations Act apply.

In the MOU:

“Contracting” includes requests for proposals, other tendering activity, and contracts entered into, where the successful proponent will provide substantially the same services as those being provided by a CSSEA member. The term does not include, however, arrangements to provide new programs or services; the use of volunteers or family home providers; the direct funding of individuals or families; or the awarding of contracts or transferring services or programs to aboriginal agencies.

“CSSEA member” means an employer designated as a social services employer under the Public Sector Employers Act, and includes agencies and Authorities.

“Employee” means a regular employee (fulltime or part time) in a bargaining unit of a CSSEA member.

“MCFD” means the Ministry of Child and Family Development.

General Principles

The purpose of the MOU is to promote client service and employment continuity.

Contracting must comply with the principles and processes set out in the MOU.

Nothing in the MOU in any way restricts the right of CSSEA members to contract out as provided for under the Health and Social Services Delivery Improvement Act.

No party to the MOU will ask an arbitrator or other tribunal to find that MCFD, an Authority or an agency is a “true employer” or “common employer” as a result of provisions of the MOU.

The MOU does not operate with respect to any contracting commenced prior to February 15, 2004, and it expires for all purposes on March 30, 2006.

Service And Employment Continuity

The following provisions apply to contracting by the MCFD and by CSSEA members.

- Where services are being provided by CSSEA members as of February 15, 2004, MCFD and CSSEA members will enter into contracts with respect to those services only
 - (a) with CSSEA member, or

- (b) with proponents who, although not current CSSEA members, agree to be designated as CSSEA members (i.e. for purposes of the employees providing the contracted services) if and when they are awarded the contract.
- Where an employee's services are no longer required as a result of contracting, the employee is entitled to priority hiring over external applicants, with the successful proponent (hereinafter "the receiving employer") in accordance with the following provisions:
 - (a) The receiving employer will determine the number and manner of vacancies created in the program.
 - (b) Displaced employees wishing priority access must submit an application for employment. This provision does not preclude casual employees from receiving work where work is available.
 - (c) Displaced employees will be interviewed and assessed, and to be eligible for hire, they must meet the receiving employer's required qualifications, as per the Collective Agreement, and have the present capability to perform the work. Employees on leave at the time of contracting will be assessed by the receiving employer for a vacancy, at the end of their leave, per the Collective Agreement.
 - (d) Accepted employees will receive credit for service and port their seniority. This will include casual employees where they are offered work.
 - (e) In the event several employees are interested in a single position, the successful candidate will be determined by the receiving employer, pursuant to the Collective Agreement.
 - (f) Where employees are integrated into an existing certification, the employees will be represented by the union representing the employees in that certification and will receive the terms and conditions of employment applicable to that certification.
 - (g) Grievances arising from this Memorandum are with the receiving employer.

This Memorandum of Agreement is subject to the ratification by CSSEA and CSSBA of their tentative agreements pursuant to their Memorandum dated February 15, 2004.
