ARTICLE 8 - ARBITRATION

8.01 If the procedures set forth in Section 7.01, Step A and Step B, do not result in a solution being reached within seven (7) days of the first discussion between a business representative of the Union and a representative of the Company, or within such further period as the Company and the Union agree to in writing, the dispute shall be referred to an Arbitration Board of three (3) persons appointed as follows:

- (b) The Party receiving the notice shall within five (5) days appoint a member for the Board and notify the other Party of its appointment.
 - (c) The two (2) Arbitrators so appointed, shall confer to select a third person to be Chairman, and failing for three (3) days from the appointment of the second of them to agree upon a person willing to act, either of them may apply to the Minister of Labour of British Columbia to appoint such third member.

 - (e) The Parties may mutually agree that a sole arbitrator be appointed in place of a three (3) person board. The decision of the sole arbitrator shall be deemed to be the decision of the Board and shall be final and binding. All expenses incurred by the sole arbitrator shall be paid equally by the Parties. Each Party shall pay its own costs.
- 8.02 If the Arbitration Board finds (or if at any earlier stage of the Grievance Procedure it is found) that an employee has been unjustly suspended or discharged, that employee shall be reinstated by the Company without loss of pay and with all his rights, benefits and privileges which he would have enjoyed if the suspension or discharge had not taken place, or if the Arbitration Board finds (or if at any earlier stage of the Grievance Procedure it is found) that an ex-employee should have been rehired, that ex-employee shall be employed by the Company and paid all pay which he would have enjoyed and accorded all rights, privileges and benefits which he would have enjoyed if he had been hired at the proper time provided, that if it is shown to the Board that the employee has been in receipt of wages during the period between discharge or suspension and reinstatement, or date of failure to rehire and rehiring, the amount so received shall be deducted from wages payable by the Company pursuant to this Article, less any expenses which the employee has incurred in order to earn the wages so deducted, AND PROVIDED THAT the Arbitration Board if circumstances are established before it, which, in the opinion of the Arbitration Board, makes it just and equitable to do so, shall have authority to order the Company to pay less than the full amount of wages lost.
