

ARTICLE 1 - INTRODUCTION

1.01 PURPOSE

- (a) The purpose of this Agreement is to set forth and establish the terms and conditions of employment for those employees who come within the scope of this Agreement, so that stable and harmonious relationships may be established and maintained between the Employer and the Union, to the mutual benefit of the parties to this Agreement.
- (b) Further, the purpose of the Agreement is to facilitate the peaceful adjustment of all disputes and grievances in accordance with Article 22 of this Agreement, to prevent strikes, lockouts, slowdowns or other interferences with work, unnecessary expense, and avoidable delays in carrying out the most efficient and effective operations of the Employer's business, and to enhance the living standards and working conditions of the employees.

1.02 GENDER REFERENCES

All articles and clauses referred to in this Agreement apply equally to both male and female employees.

ARTICLE 2 - DURATION AND INTEGRITY OF AGREEMENT

2.01 DURATION

- (a) This Agreement shall be for the period from and including August 1, 2007 to and including July 31, 2010. Thereafter, the Agreement shall continue in full force and effect from year to year subject to the right of either party to serve notice to commence bargaining as provided for in the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.
- (b) During the period when negotiations are being conducted between the parties for the renewal of this Agreement, the present Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until:
 - i. the Union commences a legal strike; or
 - ii. the Employer commences a legal lockout, or
 - iii. the parties enter into a new or further Agreement.
- (c) During the continuation period provided in (b) above, neither party shall attempt to take any action or make any changes in the terms and conditions of employment, which would be inconsistent with the express terms of this Agreement.

2.02 LABOUR RELATIONS CODE - SECTION 50(2) AND (3) EXCLUDED

The operation of Section 50(2) and (3) of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia is hereby excluded.

2.03 STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

The Union agrees during the term of this Agreement there will be no slowdown or strike, stoppage of work or refusal to work or to continue to work. The Employer agrees that during the term of this Agreement there will be no lockout.

2.04 CONTRACTED SERVICES

The Employer agrees that all work coming under the jurisdiction of this Union, in the certified area, performed by anyone, on behalf of, or at the instance of the Employer, directly or indirectly under contract or sub-contract, shall be performed by employees who are members of this Union or employees who shall become members. The terms and conditions of employment for all of these employees will be those set out in this collective agreement and all employees will be covered under the terms and conditions of a single collective agreement.

2.05 EXTENT

- (a) The parties recognize and agree that they cannot be obligated or bound by any term, condition or provision, which would be contrary to any existing federal or provincial legislation or regulations passed pursuant thereto. In the event that any term, condition or provision, or part thereof, which is incorporated into this Agreement, whether by inadvertence, error or misunderstanding, is in fact or in law contrary to such federal or provincial legislation or regulation, then such term, condition or provision or part thereof, is void and of no effect.
- (b) In the event that existing federal or provincial legislation makes invalid any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. The Employer and the Union shall confer to settle upon a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision (s) so altered or invalidated.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION RECOGNITION

3.01 RECOGNITION OF EXCLUSIVE BARGAINING AGENT

- (a) The employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for the employees in the bargaining unit described in the certification issued by the Labour Relations Board, subject to the exclusions subsequently ordered by the Labour R Relations Board or recognized by the parties.

- (b) For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "employee" or "employees" shall be understood to mean those persons employed by the Employer for whom the Union is the recognized bargaining agent in (a) above.

3.02 REFUSAL TO WORK WITH NON-UNION EMPLOYEES AND RECOGNITION OF LEGAL PICKET LINES

- (a) Refusal on the part of Union members to work with non-union employees, pertaining to the bargaining unit, shall not be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement. In the event that any employee or group of employees intends to exercise this right, the Employer must first be served with written notice in advance of the exercise of the right. The written notice must be provided by the Union office.
- (b) No employee shall be required to cross a legal picket line arising from a strike or lockout. For purposes of this article, a "legal picket line" shall mean only those picket lines expressly permitted under Sections 65 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.
- (c) The Union agrees whenever practicable to give the Employer advance notice of the probable implementation of picket lines which might affect the Employer's operation.

3.03 PERFORMANCE OF BARGAINING UNIT WORK

No person whose regular job is not in the bargaining unit will work on any job for which rates are established by this Agreement, except for the purposes of instruction, experimentation, or management training, in which case trainees shall not displace or replace any employee in the aforesaid classifications except in cases of emergency when regular employees are not available.

3.04 HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION

- (a) All employees have the right to work in an environment free from harassment, including sexual harassment, and discrimination.
- (b) "Harassment" means any unwelcome physical contact, comments, gestures, body language, posting or distribution of material, or other behaviour which has the purpose or effect of interfering with an employee's work performance or creating a hostile or offensive work environment.

"Sexual Harassment" includes any of the conduct described above which is of a sexual nature or which is directed at an employee on the basis of the employee's gender.

"Discrimination" means any conduct which is prohibited under the B.C. Human Rights Act and regulations and amendments made thereto, and shall include discrimination on the basis of any employee's age, marital status, sex, race, creed, colour, national origin, political or religious affiliations, disability, sexual orientation nor by reason of union membership participation in its activities.

- (c) An employee who alleges that he or she has been harassed, sexually harassed, or discriminated against may file a grievance pursuant to Article 22 of this Agreement.
- (d) If an employee files a grievance pursuant to Article 22, the Employer shall carry out forthwith an independent investigation into the complaint which forms the basis of the grievance, and the Employer shall advise the Union in writing within ten (10) days of the grievance being filed that such an investigation has been undertaken.
- (e) Any information arising from an investigation undertaken pursuant to 3.04(d) shall remain confidential but shall be provided to the Union.
- (f) In the event that a grievance filed pursuant to Article 22 involved allegations against management personnel, the Employer shall ensure that there is no contact between the management employee and the grievor without loss of pay and benefits to the grievor.
- (g) The Employer shall post conspicuously in the work place, a policy regarding harassment and discrimination.

3.05 NATURE OF COMMUNICATIONS

Every employee, union or management representative is entitled to fair treatment in the workplace and shall not discriminate against any person as per the British Columbia Human Rights Act.

Furthermore, parties to this Agreement and those governed by said Agreement shall ensure that all members of hotels in this Agreement are treated equally with integrity, trust and respect. The Company and the Union shall endeavour at all times to promote a work environment which is supportive of the productivity, personal goals and self-esteem of every employee. To this end, both parties will maintain open lines of communication and shall promote a good relationship built on mutual trust and respect.

3.06 VIOLENCE IN THE WORKPLACE

Should an employee become a victim of an act of violence or threatened act of violence in the workplace, the Employer shall perform the following:

- (a) the Employer shall immediately conduct an investigation into the act or threatened act of violence;
- (b) a written report shall be produced by Management within seven (7) days of the Employer becoming aware of the incident;
- (c) the Union shall be provided with a copy of this report.

- (d) no complainant shall suffer loss of wages or benefits while the matter is pending resolution.
- (e) this Article does not limit Management's ability to discipline employees.

3.07 UNION BUTTONS

An employee may wear the Union button without being disciplined.

3.08 FAIR LABOUR SERVICES, PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS

The Employer undertakes, wherever possible and practical, to use services, products and other materials necessary to the proper functioning of the Hotel, which are manufactured, provided or produced under fair labour conditions.

3.09 UNION HOUSE OR UNION BAR

The Employer agrees to post the Union House or Union Bar Card in a conspicuous place.

3.10 UNION INVESTIGATION OF THE STANDING OF EMPLOYEES' CONDITIONS

- (a) The Employer shall allow the properly authorized representative of the Union to investigate the standing of all employees' conditions, to see that this Agreement is being enforced. The Employer is entitled to require an individual to substantiate that he is an authorized representative of the Union.
- (b) When access is required for purposes of such investigation, the Union representative will notify the Employer in advance.
- (c) Access will not be unreasonably denied by the Employer.
- (d) The investigation must not result in any disruption with the Employer's operations or affairs, and it must not result in any employee or employees neglecting their work duties and responsibilities.

ARTICLE 4 - UNION SECURITY

4.01 MEMBERSHIP

- (a) All employees who are now members of the Union or who may become members, shall remain members in good standing as a condition of employment.
- (b) All new employees shall be required to become members of the Union within thirty (30) days after the date of initial employment. The Union is entitled to determine the eligibility of newly hired employees for admission into membership in the Union, according to the Union's Constitution, provided that the eligibility criteria and the manner of their administration are lawful in this province.

- (c) The Employer agrees that it shall provide the names, classification and first schedule of a new hire to the Shop Steward.

4.02 NEW EMPLOYEES

The Employer agrees that it will advise each newly hired employee of the Union security and check-off provisions provided in this collective agreement, and refer such employees to the Union for purposes of obtaining a Union card.

4.03 CHECK-OFF-ASSIGNMENT OF WAGES

- (a) All employees, as a condition of employment, shall sign an authorization of check-off before commencing work.
- (b) The Union agrees to supply the Employer with the necessary assignment of wages forms. Such forms must specifically authorize the deduction of initiation fees, union dues, fines, assessments and arrears, as required by Article 4.04.

4.04 CHECK-OFF PROCESS AND PROCEDURES

- (a) The employer agrees to deduct initiation fees, union dues, fines, assessments and arrears, upon receipt of the appropriate assignment of wages form, signed by each employee. The Employer will post such deductions in the appropriate box on the employee's T4 slip.
- (b) Upon commencement of employment, each new employee will be required to sign the appropriate assignment of wages form. In the event that the Employer's files do not contain the necessary assignment of wages for any existing employee, such employees shall, upon demand, sign and present the appropriate assignment of wages form.
- (c) All monies deducted from employees' earnings pursuant to this article, are to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Union, together with a list of employees to whom the monies are to be credited, and the names, addresses and social insurance numbers of new employees hired, on or before the 15th day of the month in which the monies were deducted.
- (d) It is the responsibility of the Union to advise the Employer in writing as to the amount of money to be deducted for initiation fees, union dues, fines, assessments and arrears, and of any changes in the amounts to be deducted. In the event that any amount to be deducted is changed from the amount specified in the assignment of wages form signed by the employees, the Employer can require the employees to sign new forms reflecting the new amounts to be deducted, prior to making such deductions.

- (e) The Union recognizes and agrees that the Employer's obligation to deduct such dues is expressly restricted to making only such deductions as are permitted by law, and as are authorized by valid assignment of wages form executed by each employee.
- (f) Upon resignation, layoff, or termination for cause, the Employer will deduct the current month's dues from the employee's final paycheque and remit it as per Article 4.04 (c).
- (g) In the event that the Union alleges any violation by the Employer of this article, notice of such alleged violation shall be given to the Employer in writing. If the matter is not resolved between the Employer and the Union, either party may then refer the issue directly to arbitration.
- (h) The Employer agrees to show on each employee's T4 Form, the amount of Union dues deducted.

4.05 AN EMPLOYEE'S FAILURE TO MAINTAIN MEMBERSHIP IN GOOD STANDING

Upon notice in writing from the Union to the Employer that an employee:

- (a) is not a member of the Union;
 - (b) has not signed a written assignment of wages to pay initiation fees;
 - (c) has revoked his/her written assignment of wages to pay initiation fees, union dues or union assessments;
 - (d) is suspended from the Union;
 - (e) has been expelled from the Union;
 - (f) has resigned from the Union;
- the Employer shall immediately discontinue the employment of such employee.

The Union shall indemnify the Employer and hold it blameless against any and all suits, claims, demands, and liabilities that may arise for the purposes of complying with the provisions of this clause.

4.06 BAR EMPLOYEES: MEMBERS OR OWNERS

It is mutually agreed that personnel employed on the bar must be an owner or a member of CAW, Local 3000. No permit holder shall give service as a bartender, except in the case of emergency and the Employer shall notify the Union the following day.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION STEWARDS

5.01 SHOP STEWARDS

- (a) The Union shall appoint from among the employees, and the Employer shall recognize, Shop Stewards in each of the Employer's operations. The duties of the Shop Steward shall be to assist in the reporting and resolution of all grievances as well as disseminating bona fide information of the Union to the employees.
- (b) The Employer agrees to recognize a duly appointed or elected Shop Steward provided that the Union has first advised the Employer in writing of the name of the employee so appointed. The Union agrees to advise the Employer in writing of any changes made by appointment or election from time to time.
- (c) The Shop Steward's first obligation is the fulfilment of his/her responsibilities as an employee. During his/her working hours, the Shop Steward is not entitled to engage in Union activities other than the necessary involvement in the reporting and resolution of grievances.
- (d) The Union Steward must not leave his/her assigned work area on Union business, without prior permission. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld.
- (e) The necessary time which is spent by Stewards in reporting and resolving grievances or in attending meetings specifically provided for herein shall be considered to be time worked.
- (f) Under no circumstances shall a Steward take any action or issue any instruction which will interfere with the operation or affairs of the Employer, or with the management of or direction of the work force.
- (g) The Shop Steward shall not be discriminated against or disciplined for the proper performance of his/her duties on behalf of the Union.

5.02 MANAGEMENT AND UNION STEWARDS MEETING

- (a) Upon request a person or persons designated by the Employer and empowered to act on a subject will meet with the Union Stewards on a monthly basis, to review problems that may arise concerning the application and operation of the collective agreement. It is agreed that the Union staff representative may attend these meetings from time to time.
- (b) All Stewards will be permitted to attend such meetings without loss of pay, but there must be no resulting overtime or other premium costs to the Employer.
- (c) Minutes shall be kept as a record of the matters discussed during these meetings.

- (d) Where the Shop Chairman agrees there are no problems it will not be necessary to convene the monthly meetings.
- (e) It is agreed that this Article satisfies the requirement for a joint consultation committee for the purposes of Section 53 of the Labour Relations Code.

ARTICLE 6 - RESERVATIONS TO MANAGEMENT

- 6.01 The Union recognizes the right of the Employer to direct the workforce, to promote, demote, transfer or discharge.
- 6.02 The Union further recognizes the right of the Employer to operate and manage its business in all respects.
- 6.03 The Employer also reserves the right to supplement and alter, from time to time, reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by the employees.
- 6.04 Such management rights shall be exercised in a manner which shall not be inconsistent with the terms of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- 7.01 (a) (i) The probationary period referred to in this Collective Agreement shall be five hundred (500) hours of work.
- (ii) Probationary employees will receive fifteen per cent (15%) less than the Appendix "A" rate for one hundred and seventy-six (176) hours of work performed after which the full rate shall apply. This shall not apply to cooks, tradesmen or other specialized categories of employees by agreement of the parties.
- (b) Notwithstanding (a) above, a new employee who presents applicable qualifications and is hired into such position may, at the Employer's discretion, be paid at the Appendix "A" rate.
- (c) If there is more than one (1) probationary employee in a classification, the majority of hours on a weekly basis shall be assigned based on the date of hire.
- (d) Where a written performance evaluation indicates doubt as to the probationary employee's suitability for status as a regular employee, the Employer may extend the probation period for up to eighty (80) hours of work or sixty (60) calendar days. The Employer will notify the Union if it extends the probation period of an employee.

ARTICLE 8 - JOB POSTING

8.01 JOB POSTING

- (a) When a bona fide new classification is to be created or a job vacancy occurs, a suitable advice notice will be posted for not less than seven calendar days.
- (b) The Employer will accept written applications in advance from employees for job openings referred to in Article 8.03(a) which may occur during an employee's annual vacation or a leave of absence. Such applications will only be effective for the period of the vacation taken or the leave of absence.

ARTICLE 9 - EMPLOYEE TRAINING PROGRAMMES

9.01 It is agreed that in the event the Employer institutes a training programme the Employer must first receive permission from the Union in each and every instance. This programme shall not exceed thirty (30) days. Failure on the part of the Employer to receive such permission from the Union there shall be no training Programme. The established hourly rate for such training programme shall be ten percent (10%) less than the established wage rate for each classification contained within this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10 - HOURS OF WORK

10.01 NORMAL STRAIGHT TIME HOURS OF WORK

- (a) The normal straight time hours of work assigned by the Employer shall conform with the following guidelines:
 - i. not more than eight (8) hours in any one day
 - ii. not more than five (5) working days in any seven (7) day period;
 - iii. not more than forty (40) hours in any five (5) working day period.
- (b) Any hours which the Employer requires an employee to work in excess of the above shall be paid at double time the hourly rate.

10.02 SPLIT SHIFTS

- (a) Where split shifts are assigned by the Employer, they must conform with the following guidelines.
 - i. no shift of less than seven (7) hours may be split;
 - ii. no shift may be split more than once;
 - iii. no part of a split shift shall be less than two (2) hours;
 - iv. all split shifts must be worked within a twelve (12) hour period.

- (b) A break of two (2) hours shall constitute a split shift and the Employer is obligated to pay a split shift premium where the time between split segments is two (2) hours or more.
- (c) The Premiums shall be as follows:
 - i. seven (7) hours worked for eight (8) hours straight time pay
 - ii. eight (8) hours worked for nine (9) hours straight time pay

10.03 SHIFT HOURS

All shifts assigned by the Employer must conform with the following guidelines:

- (a) Four (4) hour shifts will be the minimum shift permitted in any one (1) day.
- (b) Shifts of 5, 6, 7 or 8 hours may be assigned, subject to the provisions of 10.05.
- (c) All hours worked up to and including eight (8) hours in any one (1) day will be paid at the straight time rate.

10.04 MAXIMIZING THE LENGTH OF SHIFTS

- (a) While the Employer is entitled to schedule shifts of various lengths as provided for in this Agreement, the Employer is obligated to first schedule the maximum number of eight (8) hour shifts before instituting shifts of 7, 6, 5 or 4 hours.
- (b) The obligation outlined in (a) above shall not be construed as requiring the Employer to create split shifts.

10.05 ASSIGNMENT OF SHIFTS BY SENIORITY

Within departments and classifications, the Employer must offer and assign the longest shifts to employees with the most seniority. If a more senior employee declines a longer shift in favour of an available shorter shift, then the longer shift shall be again offered on a seniority basis.

The Employer must offer and assign all available forty (40) hour shifts to the employees with the most seniority before implementing shifts of lesser hours.

If a more senior employee declines the forty (40) hour shift in favour of an available shorter shift, then the (40) hour shift shall again be reassigned on a seniority basis.

Where an employee is scheduled for less than eight (8) hours in a day, the shift cannot be extended unless by consent of the employee.

10.06 DAYS OFF

All employees will receive two (2) consecutive days off unless otherwise mutually agreed.

10.07 TIME WORKED ON SIXTH AND SEVENTH CONSECUTIVE DAYS

Double time shall be paid for all work performed on an employee's sixth and seventh consecutive days of employment.

10.08 PAYMENT FOR TIME IN LIEU OF BREAKS

Employees who cannot get rest periods or meal breaks shall be paid five and one-half (5 1/2) hours worked - six (6) hours pay; six (6) hours worked - six and one-half (6 1/2) hours pay; seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours worked - eight (8) hours pay; eight (8) hours worked - eight and one-half (8 1/2) hours pay. There shall be no deliberate bankrolling of purported violations of this clause by any employee.

10.09 UNPAID MEAL BREAKS

All employees working shifts of five (5) to eight (8) hours are entitled to an unpaid meal break between the third (3rd) and fifth (5th) hour of work. Such meal breaks shall not be less than one-half hour (1/2) nor more than one (1) hour on the employees own time.

10.10 REST PERIODS

- (a) All employees are entitled to rest periods in accordance with the following schedule:
 - i. Four (4) hours - one ten (10) minute rest period
 - ii. Five (5) hours - one ten (10) minute rest period
 - iii. Six (6) hours - one ten (10) minute rest period
 - iv. Seven (7) hours - two (2) ten (10) minute rest periods
 - v. Eight (8) hours - two (2) ten (10) minute rest periods
- (b) Such rest periods are part of the employee's assigned hours of work and the rest period time is paid for by the Employer.
- (c) Time to commence when the employee arrives at the assigned rest area or a total of fifteen (15) minutes from the employee's work station.

10.11 EMPLOYEE'S RESPONSIBILITY: WORK START TIME

Employees shall be in their respective assigned working locations, ready to commence work at their designated starting times, and they shall not leave their working locations at times or in a manner inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

10.12 WORK SCHEDULES

- (a) A work schedule shall be posted in a conspicuous place for the information of all scheduled employees. The work schedule shall contain the following information for each scheduled employee:
 - employee's name
 - classification
 - days off
 - starting and finishing times
- (b) It is the Employer's responsibility to keep the work schedule up to date and to ensure that any changes are clearly noted and legible. It is the responsibility of every scheduled employee to check the posted work schedule for changes.
- (c) In the event that the Employer changes the next scheduled shift of an employee who is not at work because of a scheduled absence, the Employer will be responsible for notifying the employee of the change.
- (d) An Employer will provide the Shop Chairman with a copy of the work schedule and any changes thereof. All changes to the work schedule shall be dated.

10.13 CHANGES IN WORK SCHEDULES

- (a) In situations other than emergencies, the scheduled employees are entitled to forty-eight (48) hours notice of any change in their respective work schedules.
- (b) The parties recognize that scheduling an employee eight (8) hours after his/her last shift may cause hardship. The employer shall advise its Managers to consider the impact of short rest periods when creating schedules.
- (c) In emergency situations which are beyond the control of the Employer, as in the case of the failure of an employee to report for an assigned schedule, the Employer may give notice of less than forty-eight (48) hours, but not less than twenty-four (24) hours, when changing work schedules.
- (d) Employees who become aware that they are not going to be able to report for work as scheduled, are obligated to provide the Employer with notice at the earliest possible time, or to have someone else notify the Employer on their behalf, to allow the Employer time to cover the absence.
- (e) Employees whose schedules are changed without the advance notice specified, cannot be disciplined if they advise that they cannot comply with the changed starting and finishing times for the first shift of the new schedule.

- (f) In situations where an employee has not been provided with notice of a change in his/her work schedule, and the employee reports as scheduled before the change, the employee shall be provided with work and/or pay as follows:
 - i. two (2) hours pay unless the employee is unfit to perform his/her duties or he/she has failed to comply with the Industrial Health and Safety Regulations of the Workers' Compensation Board or
 - ii. where the employee commences work, four (4) hours work and/or pay unless his/her work is suspended because of inclement weather or other reasons completely beyond the control of the Employer, in which case paragraph (i) above applies.
- (g) Any employee whose schedule has been modified due to illness or injury as defined in Article 19.04 will receive notice required in Article 10.13 (b) and (c).

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.01 SENIORITY ENTITLEMENT DEFINED

- (a) Seniority: For the purpose of this Agreement, "seniority" shall be defined as an employee's total length of continuous service identified in hours worked within the employee's classification within a particular department in the Employer's operation.
- (b) Department: For purposes of this Agreement, the term "department" shall be understood to mean those departments identified within this Agreement.
- (c) Seniority is used to determine the order of layoff and recall within a classification within a particular department.
- (d) Annual vacation entitlement will be determined by the employee's total years of service in the hotel and the employee shall be granted holidays according to that established seniority.
- (e) It is understood that hours which are worked in a classification different from that in which the seniority of the employee is held shall not be accrued toward the seniority of the employee except for purposes of Article 18.08.
- (f) While the Employer has no obligation to offer extra work to any person outside the classification, should it be decided to offer such work to persons inside rather than outside the hotel, the principles of seniority first within the department and then within the hotel will apply, provided such senior person possesses the necessary skill and ability to perform the full measure of the work required.

11.02 ELIGIBILITY FOR SENIORITY ENTITLEMENT

A probationary employee does not have seniority during the probation period, but upon successful completion of the probationary period, the employee is then credited with seniority equal to the total number of hours worked during the probation period.

11.03 SENIORITY LISTS

- (a) The Employer agrees to post departmental seniority lists on or before the 1st day of February and the 1st day of August in each year. The periods for calculating the hours worked shall be January 1st to June 30th for the August list and July 1st to December 31st for the February list. The seniority list shall contain the following information:
 - 1. employee's name
 - 2. date of seniority
 - 3. employee's classification
 - 4. the number of hours of seniority accrued
- (b) The seniority list shall be posted by the Employer for a minimum of thirty (30) days. Any objection to the accuracy of a posted seniority list must be lodged with the Employer during the thirty (30) days in which the list is posted. Thereafter, the posted list will be deemed to be valid and correct for all purposes of this Agreement.
- (c) At the time of posting, a copy of the seniority lists shall be given to the Shop Chairman and one copy to the Union staff representative.
- (d) New employees will be added to the list at the time they attain seniority.
- (e) At the time of posting the seniority list, the Employer will provide the Union with a list of all employees which will include their addresses.

11.04 ACCRUAL OF SENIORITY

Seniority will be accrued based on hours worked which shall include:

- (a) time lost as a result of illness or injury;
- (b) leaves of absence up to a period of three (3) months;
- (c) maternity and parental leave in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.

11.05 SENIORITY RETAINED BUT NOT ACCRUED

Seniority will be retained but not accrued during any period of absence not directly paid for by the Employer except as noted in 11.04 above.

11.06 SENIORITY LOST

Seniority will be lost when an employee:

- i. receives severance pay in accordance with this agreement under Article 18.08;
- ii. voluntarily terminates his/her employment;
- iii. is discharged for just and reasonable cause;
- iv. is on layoff more than nine (9) consecutive months;
- v. he/she does not return to work on the date specified following an approved leave of absence other than medical;
- vi. should there be a layoff of an employee as a result of renovations, the recall period shall be extended to the length of the closure due to renovations.

ARTICLE 12 - PROMOTIONS, TRANSFERS, LAYOFF AND RECALL

12.01 PROMOTION

- (a) The Employer, when considering applicants for promotion or transfer, will apply seniority, provided however that the employee who claims the right to exercise his/her seniority for the purpose of such promotion or transfer possesses the primary qualifications of integrity, attitude, efficiency and ability to satisfactorily perform the full measure of the work required.
- (b) Employees who have indicated in writing their interest in applying for another job shall be given consideration prior to the hiring of a new employee. Applications may be made at any time and will be valid for a period of three (3) months.

12.02 TRANSFERS

- (a) Transfers offered by the Employer from one department and/or classification to another will take place only with the consent of the employee.
- (b) Transfers from one department and/or classification to another cannot take place unless there is a vacancy or a new position has been created, and no employee will be laid off because of such transfer.

12.03 PROMOTION AND TRANSFER TRIAL PERIOD

- (a) Any employee who is granted a promotion or transfer appointment by the Employer, shall be on a trial period for up to thirty (30) days for promotions and sixty (60) days for transfers. During this trial period, the employee must demonstrate that he/she can satisfy the requirements of the work performance criteria for the job, to the satisfaction of the Employer.

- (b) Should the Employee be unable to satisfy the requirements of the work performance criteria in the trial period, or should he/she decide during the trial period that he/she does not want to continue in the job, then the employee may be returned to his/her former job. In such cases, the Employer shall have the right to require all employees who changed job positions in consequence of the promotion, to move back into their job positions and wage rates, which they occupied prior to the promotion.

12.04 DEMOTIONS AND SENIORITY

When layoffs occur within any department, the last employee hired shall be the first employee to be laid off, based on seniority within the particular classification, it being understood that:

- (a) Employees in a higher classification may be demoted to a lower classification and
- (b) An employee who has been promoted from one classification to another and subsequently demoted to the lower classification shall within that lower classification have seniority according to length of service in the department and shall, if a layoff occurs, be laid off accordingly and shall be recalled in inverse order to that in which he/she was laid off.

12.05 LAYOFF AND RECALL PROCEDURE

- (a) When a layoff occurs within a department, the employee with the least seniority within the particular classification shall be the first laid off.
- (b) Employees who restrict their availability for hours of work or work schedules will not be protected by their seniority for recall.
- (c) In the event of a layoff, the order of layoff within the affected classification and department shall be as follows:
 - Probationary employees, then
 - Temporary employees, then
 - Regular employees.
- (d) An employee who has been laid off and wishes to be recalled must insure that the Employer has a current phone number and address for purposes of recall. Failure on the part of the employee to provide this information may result in the employee forfeiting his/her recall rights.
- (e) The Employer agrees that recall notification will be by direct contact (including personal contact and telephone contact), registered mail or telegraph. Any employee failing to report for duty within sixty (60) hours, excluding Saturday and Sunday from the time of such notification, shall be considered to have resigned without notice.

12.06 CHANGE OF WORKFORCE - GENDER

No employee shall be laid off for the simple reason of changing the workforce from male to female or female to male.

ARTICLE 13 - ADMINISTRATION

13.01 WAGES RATES

The wage rates provided in the attached applicable appendix shall cover the job description and classifications of labour within the jurisdiction of the Union and shall remain in effect throughout the specified or extended term of this Agreement.

13.02 COMBINED CLASSIFICATIONS

Where an employee occupies a position which combines two (2) or more classifications of work (except as otherwise provided) he or she shall be paid at the rate of the highest classification provided he or she works in such higher classification for four (4) or more hours during any particular shift. But the hotel may not, by virtue of this rule, evade the hiring of an employee in a higher classification where such employees in a higher classification would normally be hired according to the usages of the trade. If the employee works at the higher classification for less than four (4) hours he or she shall then be paid the higher rates for the actual amount of time, accordingly.

13.03 NEW CLASSIFICATIONS

It is agreed that job classifications and wage rates not specifically set out in the attached appendix of this Agreement shall be included in the schedule by mutual consent of both parties to this Agreement. If unable to agree, either party may invoke the grievance procedure as defined in this Agreement.

13.04 PAYMENT OF WAGES UPON TERMINATION LAYOFF OR RESIGNATION

- (a) When an employee resigns, the Employer will pay all wages owing to the employee within six (6) calendar days of the date of his/her resignation.
- (b) When an employee is laid off or his/her services are terminated, the Employer shall pay all wages owing to him/her within 48 hours, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays or holidays.
- (c) When an employee is laid off or his/her services are terminated, upon receipt of a written request from the employee, the Employer will provide reasons for the layoff or termination.

13.05 ELECTION DAYS

No wages shall be deducted for time lost on election days. The regular work schedule will prevail for Federal and Provincial elections.

13.06 FIRST MIXEROLOGIST (FIRST BARTENDER)

- (a) The job duties of the first mixerologist include the mixing and serving of beverages and any other duties consistent with bartending. He/she may be required to take stock and direct the working force within the confines of the cocktail area. He /she is responsible for the general cleanliness of the bar and utensils, and general tidiness of all stations while working without a waiter. General cleanliness includes cleaning out the refrigerator, cleaning the bar and bar fixtures, sinks, taps, all working surfaces, bottles and containers.
- (b) In circumstances where the operation of the bar requires only one (1) person, the first mixerologist shall also perform the job duties of the second mixerologist and bar porter. He/she is not obligated to perform any janitorial duties other than the general cleanliness of the bar and utensils and general tidiness of all stations while working without a waiter.
- (c) Zahming and full cleaning of glasswashers that includes breakdown of piping will be undertaken at the request of the Employer and shall be considered as paid time.

13.07 SECOND MIXEROLOGIST (SECOND BARTENDER)

- (a) The job duties of the second mixerologist shall include the mixing and serving of beverages, the preparation of all required fruit and juices. He/she is not obligated to take stock or keep a daily meter reading sheet. He/she is responsible for the general cleanliness of the bar and utensils, and general tidiness of all stations while working without a waiter. General cleanliness includes cleaning out the refrigerator, cleaning the bar and bar fixtures, sinks, taps, all working surfaces, bottles and containers.
- (b) In circumstances where the operation of the bar requires only two (2) people, the second mixerologist shall also perform the job duties of the bar porter. He/she is not obligated to perform any janitorial duties other than the general cleanliness of the bar and utensils and general tidiness of all stations while working without a waiter.
- (c) Zahming and full cleaning of glasswashers that includes breakdown of piping will be undertaken at the request of the Employer and shall be considered as paid time.

13.08 BAR PORTER

- (a) The duties of the bar porter shall include the preparation of all necessary fruit and juices, keeping the fridge stocked and washing glasses. He/she is also responsible for the general cleanliness of the bar and utensils, under the direction of the mixerologists. He/she may not perform duties normally performed by the bartender or a waiter, and his/her duties are confined to licensed areas only.
- (b) The Employer is entitled to choose not to use a bar porter in any particular situation. In the event that the Employer does choose not to use a bar porter, the duties of the bar porter shall be assigned to the mixerologists.

13.09 MIXEROLOGIST WAGE RATES

It is agreed that job classifications and wage rates set out in Clause 13.06 of this Article and the applicable appendices will apply to all Mixerologists (Bartenders) except where two (2) or more Mixerologists are required. Where two (2) or more Mixerologists are required, one (1) shall be designated and paid as First Mixerologist and the balance shall be paid in accordance with Clause 13.07 and the applicable appendix.

13.10 MAID WORK LOAD

Duties of maid work load and content, where a maid presents a grievance to the Union on any matter pertaining to work load or content, the Employer of the individual hotel where the grievance arose will meet with the Union to review and finalize the grievance setting out work load and content for his/her hotel only.

ARTICLE 14 - STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

14.01 STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

The following shall be considered statutory holidays:

New Years Day	Labour Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Victoria Day	Remembrance Day
Canada Day	Christmas Day
B.C. Day	Boxing Day
One Floating Holiday

After one (1) year continuous service the floating holiday will be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the employee and the Employer. Should Heritage Day or any other day be proclaimed as mandatory during the term of the Agreement it shall be substituted for the floating holiday.

14.02 STATUTORY HOLIDAY FALLING ON DAY OFF

In the event that an employee's day off falls on a statutory holiday the employee shall receive his/her normal days wages as calculated in 14.03 (b).

14.03 PAYMENT FOR STATUTORY HOLIDAY

- (a) Employees who are eligible for statutory holiday pay will receive a normal days pay for the statutory holiday, whether or not they are scheduled to work on the statutory holiday.
- (b) For purposes of this article, a normal days pay shall be understood to mean an employee's normal hourly earnings, exclusive of overtime, for the hours he/she has worked in the two (2) week period immediately preceding the week in which the statutory holiday occurs, divided by ten (10) to establish the hours to be paid for the statutory holiday. In the case of the calculation of a normal days pay for New Year's Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day will be counted as time worked, on the basis of the hours that the employee was paid for those days.
- (c) An employee who is scheduled by the Employer to work on a statutory holiday, shall be paid one and one-half (1 1/2) times his/her normal wage rate for any hours so worked, on all statutory holidays in addition to the payment provided for in (a) above.
- (d) An employee who works more than his/her regularly scheduled hours shall be paid double time and one-half (2 1/2) for all such additional hours worked.

14.04 ELIGIBILITY FOR STATUTORY HOLIDAY PAY

- (a) To be eligible to receive pay for a statutory holiday, an employee must work his/her last regularly scheduled shift immediately prior to the holiday and his/her first regularly scheduled shift following the holiday.
- (b) The eligibility requirements in paragraph (a) above will be waived by the Employer when the employee's absence from an eligibility shift has been approved by the Employer, or when the employee fails to satisfy the eligibility requirements only because of a bonafide sickness or accident. The Employer is entitled to require a doctor's certificate as proof of such sickness or accident, and any abuse of this provision by an employee may be cause for discipline.

14.05 LOSS OF STATUTORY HOLIDAY PAY FOR FAILURE TO REPORT

If an employee is scheduled to work on a paid holiday but fails to report for work on the day of the holiday, without reasonable cause, or without leave of the Employer, he/she shall not receive any pay for such holiday.

14.06 STATUTORY HOLIDAY DURING EMPLOYEE'S VACATION

- (a) Should any statutory holiday occur during an employee's vacation period, the formula in 14.03 (b) shall be applied to the two (2) week period immediately preceding the week in which the vacation commenced. The employee shall receive this amount in addition to vacation pay. The employee shall in addition receive an extra day off, either the working day preceding or the working day following the vacation period.
- (b) Should a statutory holiday fall during the first week immediately following the end of an employee's vacation the formula in 14.03 (b) will be applied to the two (2) week period immediately preceding the week in which the vacation commenced.
- (c) Should a statutory holiday fall during the second week immediately following the end of an employee's vacation the formula in 14.03 (b) will be applied to the first week immediately preceding the week in which the vacation commenced and the first week immediately following the end of the employee's vacation.

ARTICLE 15 - ANNUAL VACATION

15.01 ANNUAL VACATION PAY: CASUAL EMPLOYEES AND EMPLOYEES WITH LESS THAN ONE YEAR OF SERVICE

- (a) Casual employees and other employees with less than one (1) year of completed service, will receive annual vacation pay in accordance with the provisions of applicable legislation.
- (b) Casual employees will receive any annual vacation pay to which they are entitled with their regular pay cheques for each pay period.

15.02 ANNUAL VACATIONS AND PAY ENTITLEMENTS

- (a) Employees are entitled to annual vacation and annual vacation pay, according to their completed years of consecutive service, calculated from their date of hire, as follows:

Completed Years of Service	Annual Vacation Time	Annual Vacation Pay
1 year but less than 3 years	2 weeks	4%
3 years but less than 7 years	3 weeks	6%
7 years but less than 18 years	4 weeks	8%
18 years or more	5 weeks	10%

- (b) "Consecutive years" as used herein, shall be understood to mean consecutive years of service with the same establishment subject to 11.01 (b) and 15.05 of this Agreement.
- (c) Annual vacation pay shall be calculated using the applicable percentage from (a) above, as a percentage of the employee's gross earnings for the preceding year.
- (d) "Gross earning" as used herein, shall be understood to mean the total earnings realized by an employee from the payment of wage rates for straight time, overtime, vacation pay and statutory holiday pay.

15.03 VACATION SCHEDULING PREFERENCE BY SENIORITY

Employees shall have preference in respect to annual vacations, within their department and classification, according to the seniority list, provided they file applications before February 28th of each year for vacations to be taken during that year.

Where vacation requests are submitted in January or February for time off after February 28th, the Employer shall respond in writing prior to March 15th as to whether or not the requests have been approved.

Where vacation requests are submitted for time off in January and/or February or where they are submitted after February 28th, they will be granted on a first come, first serve basis and the Employer shall respond in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days as to whether or not the request has been approved.

15.04 VACATIONS TO BE TAKEN BY DECEMBER 31ST

- (a) All vacations shall be taken at a time to be mutually agreed upon by the Employer and the employee on or before the thirty-first (31st) day of December in each and every year.
- (b) Employees may request that their vacations be banked to be taken during the following calendar year. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

15.05 CREDITS ON TRANSFER WITH SAME EMPLOYER

Where an Employer owns, operates or has shares in other hotels covered by this Agreement and transfers an employee to such an operation, all vacation and severance benefits will continue.

- (a) It is clearly understood that where an employee requests a transfer, Section 15.04 shall not apply.

ARTICLE 16 - HEALTH AND WELFARE

16.01 CONTRIBUTION

(a) The Employer agrees to sign up new employees on their first day of employment into the Health and Welfare Program and forward same to the Administration of the Plan.

(b) The total cost of Health and Welfare Plan Premiums will be as follows:

Effective September 1, 2007, the total cost of Health and Welfare Premiums will be one dollar and seventy cents ($1.70) for each hour of employment performed by an employee covered by this Agreement, of which one dollar and sixty-seven cents ($1.67) is paid by the Employer and three cents ($.03) is paid by the employee.

Employees who qualify under this clause must be employed and work a minimum of one thousand, eight hundred and twenty (1,820) hours per year to qualify for twelve (12) hours pay.

Employees working less hours will receive pro-rata severance pay for the year based on the actual hours worked as a percentage of one thousand, eight hundred and twenty (1,820) hours, e.g. a person working nine hundred and ten (910) hours will receive six (6) hours pay.

Regular hours not worked as a result of a bona fide sickness or accident will be credited to the hours worked. This clause does not apply to employees terminated for culpable reasons or in cases where an employee resigned without a minimum of one (1) week's written notice. Such notice must be for the time worked and does not include vacation time.

18.09 CASHOUT IN THE EVENT OF SALE OR TRANSFER

In the event majority ownership of a hotel changes through any form of sale, all employees shall be paid severance pay up to the date of such sale by the outgoing owner or lessee. After payment has been made continuous service for the purpose of severance pay commences a new starting date from date of each sale. No duplication or pyramiding of payments is intended.

18.10 LIMITATION ON EMPLOYEE ENTITLEMENTS

Employees who are not actively employed are only entitled to continue to receive such rights, entitlements, benefits, as are specifically given to them by the express terms and conditions of this Agreement, or by applicable legislation.

18.11 EMPLOYEE'S ACCESS TO THEIR FILE

The Company agrees that an employee shall have the right to review his/her personnel files. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Employer, an employee must do this during a break or before or after work at a mutually agreed time. Also, an employee shall not be permitted to copy or remove any material from his/her file without permission of the Employer. This access to personal files shall not be unreasonably denied.

ARTICLE 19 – HEALTH AND SAFETY

19.01 HEALTH & SAFETY

- (a) The Employer agrees to institute and maintain all necessary precautions to provide every employee a safe and healthy workplace.
- (b) The Employer shall comply with all applicable provincial and municipal health and safety legislation and regulations. All standards established under the legislation and regulations shall constitute minimum acceptable practice that may be improved upon by agreement of the Health Safety Committee.
- (c) A Health and Safety Committee shall be established which is composed of a minimum of two Union members chosen by the Union. At no time shall the number of Employer members be allowed to outnumber the amount of Union members.
- (d) Two Co-Chairpersons shall be elected (or a chairperson and a secretary) from and by the members of the committee. Where one of the chairpersons is an Employer member, the other shall be a Union member and vice-versa.
- (e) The Committee shall assist in creating a safe place to work, shall recommend actions which will improve the effectiveness of the health and safety program, and shall promote compliance with appropriate government regulations.

- (f) Time spent by members of the Committee in the course of their duties shall be considered as time worked and shall be paid for in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

19.02 FIRST AID ATTENDANT

Employees who take time off at the direction of the Employer to take recognized Industrial First Aid Program shall not suffer a loss of regular pay.

19.03 ILLNESS/INJURY AT WORK

An employee who is injured while at work and is required to leave for treatment or is sent home as a result of such injury shall receive payment for the remainder of his/her work day at his/her regular rate of pay. The Employer shall bear the costs of any necessary transportation.

19.04 EMPLOYEES RETURNING TO WORK AFTER ILLNESS OR INJURY

- (a) In cases where an employee is returning to work following an absence due to illness or injury, including absences covered by the Workers' Compensation benefits, the employee is entitled to reinstatement in his/her former position within twenty-four (24) hours, with all rights and conditions which he/she formerly enjoyed, according to the terms of the Agreement which is in effect at the time of his/her return, subject to the further conditions which follow.
- (b) Prior to reinstating the employee, the Employer is entitled to require documentation from a physician or from the Workers' Compensation Board, certifying that the employee is physically able to resume the performance of the duties if such employee has been absent for a period of two (2) weeks or greater.
- (c) In cases involving prolonged absence where it has been necessary for the Employer to make adjustments in the work schedules of other employees in order to cover the absence, that Employer shall have a maximum of seventy-two (72) hours in which to adjust the work schedule to accommodate the returning employee.

19.05 LIGHT DUTY

The Employer will provide advance notification to the Union of any light duty or modified work arrangements which it intends to discuss with any bargaining unit employee.

ARTICLE 20 - EMPLOYEE CONDUCT AND DRESS

20.01 HOUSE RULES GOVERNING CONDUCT OF EMPLOYEES

- (a) It is mutually agreed that the Employer will post house rules for the conduct of employees and file a copy of those house rules with the Union before enforcing same. Filing with the Union Office is accomplished by delivery of a copy of the house rules through registered mail.

20.02 CONTROL OF ABSENTEEISM

Recognizing that the absenteeism by employees creates staffing and scheduling problems, disruption in the work place to the detriment of other employees and increased cost to the detriment of all parties, the Employer is entitled to use any or all of the following measures in the control of absenteeism.

- i. the Employer may require an employee to provide a medical certificate as evidence of the employees' illness or injury as a cause for the employee's absence from work.
- ii. every employee who is unable to report for work due to illness or injury shall make every reasonable effort to notify the Employer, or to have someone else notify the Employer on his/her behalf, prior to the employee's normal reporting time, or as soon after that time as is possible in the circumstances, and in the event that the Employer is not satisfied by objective evidence that there is proper justification or reason for an employee's absence, such an absence will be just and reasonable cause for discipline.
- iii. where the Employer is satisfied by the objective evidence that an employee is unable or unwilling to maintain a satisfactory attendance record in fulfilment of the employment relationship with the Employer, the Employer may terminate the services of the employees.
- iv. in relation to any provision in this collective agreement where an Employer is entitled to require medical evidence of an employee's ability to return to work or to continue to work, the Employer may require that the employee be examined by and present a medical certificate from a physician selected by the Trustees of the Health and Welfare Plan. In the event that an Employer requires an employee to submit to such an examination, any resulting charge by the doctor which is not paid by the employee's medical insurance plan, will be paid by the Employer.

20.03 AUTHORITY RE CHEQUES, CREDIT CARDS AND CREDIT ACCOUNTS

When an employee is authorized to cash cheques, honour credit cards or credit accounts, he or she will not be held responsible for any losses provided he or she has followed management's instructions, but where an employee assumes responsibility of cashing cheques, honouring credit cards or credit accounts without such authorization from management he or she will be held responsible.

20.04 PROPER DRESS

In consideration of the endeavour to improve the standards of the beverage dispensers industry, it is agreed that a proper uniform mode of dress shall be adopted, i.e. dark trousers or skirts, white shirts or blouses, and uniform tie. This dress and the cleaning thereof will be the responsibility of the employee and shall be effective upon signing of this contract.

20.05 UNCONVENTIONAL MODE OF DRESS

Where an unconventional mode of dress or uniform is required by management, it is agreed the dress or uniform shall not be such as to cause discomfort, ridicule or embarrassment to the employee.

20.06 SPECIAL UNIFORMS

If any special uniform shall be required, such as tuxedo, white jackets etc., it is agreed that the Employer shall supply same and be responsible for the cleaning thereof. All uniforms or special articles of wearing apparel worn by the employee while on duty shall be supplied and laundered by the Employer free of cost to the employee.

ARTICLE 21 - LIQUOR CONTROL AND REGULATION

21.01 NEW EMPLOYEES: INSTRUCTION RE LIQUOR CONTROL LEGISLATION AND REGULATIONS

All newly hired employees who will be involved in the sale or handling of liquor, will be provided with instruction to acquaint them with the relevant provisions of the Liquor Control Legislation and Regulations and the importance of complying with those regulations.

21.02 EMPLOYEE SERVING LIQUOR

- (a) No employee who is involved in the serving of liquor shall knowingly sell or serve liquor in the Employer's premises to any person who is under the legal age. Where, after asking the person to produce suitable identification and proof of age, such an employee is in doubt as to the person's age, he/she may refuse service.
- (b) If the employee is directed by a person designated by the Employer to serve a person whose age is in doubt, the Employer shall accept and bear the full responsibility and shall pay any fines or penalties incurred by the employee as a consequence of such service.

21.03 HOURS OF SERVICE

No employee shall give service after the specified hours set by the Liquor Control and License Branch Regulations.

21.04 IMPLEMENTATION OF CHANGES IN REGULATIONS

It is mutually agreed that upon the implementation of any changes in the Liquor Control Board Regulations governing licensed premises, the Union and Management will negotiate an Agreement on the problem that could arise therefrom.

ARTICLE 22 - DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE OF EMPLOYEES

22.01 REASONABLE CAUSE FOR DISCHARGE

- (a) Employees who have successfully completed their probation period can only be disciplined or discharged for just and reasonable cause.
- (b) During the probation period specified in this Agreement, an employee may be discharged if he/she is unsuitable for status as a regular employee.

22.02 SUSPENSION AND DISCHARGE

The Employer shall set out its written reasons for any discipline, including the suspension or discharge of an employee, and provide a copy to the shop steward.

22.03 SHOP STEWARD PRESENT

The Employer agrees that if it chooses to implement suspension or discharge on an employee, a Shop Steward shall be present if one is on shift at the time the discipline is meted out.

22.04 CANCELLATION OF RECORDED COMPLAINT

Effective the date of ratification of this Agreement, any verbal or written warning covering any matter other than sexual or personal harassment, theft, or acts of violence, that has been placed on the file of the employee, will subsequently be removed from his or her file as soon as the employee has been employed for a further continuous period of eighteen (18) months without incurring an additional disciplinary penalty of any kind.

22.05 EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGING DISCIPLINE

Whenever an employee chooses to sign a document pertaining to discipline, he/she does so only to acknowledge that he/she has been notified accordingly.

22.06 BREACH OF ARTICLE NOT TO VOID DISCIPLINE

A breach of this Article will not void any discipline issues.

ARTICLE 23 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

23.01 DEFINITION AND RECOGNITION OF A GRIEVANCE

- (a) Any complaint, disagreement or differences of opinion between the parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this collective agreement, including any dispute with regard to discipline or discharge, shall be considered to be a grievance.

23.02 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- (a) Informal Step:

As an informal step, the employee is encouraged to make an earnest effort to resolve the grievance directly with the management person to whom he/she reports. At his/her option, the employee may be accompanied by the shop steward for the department in which the employee works.

- (b) Step One:

At this step, notice in writing of the grievance must be filed with a person designated by the Employer, within ten (10) working days after the occurrence of the alleged grievance or of the date on which the employee first has knowledge of it.

The notice in writing shall briefly but clearly describe the nature of the incident or occurrence which gave rise to the grievance, and it shall clearly state the provision of the agreement which has been violated.

Any meeting between the parties at this step must involve the employee, his/her shop steward and a person from management other than the employee's immediate supervisor.

The Employer's representative must answer the grievance in writing within ten (10) days.

- (c) Step Two:

In the event that a resolution of the grievance, satisfactory to the Union and the Employer, does not result at Step One, an attempt to resolve the grievance shall be made between the employee, the shop chairman and/or a Union representative and a person or persons designated by the Employer.

This step must be taken by notice in writing within five (5) days of the date on which the written answer was delivered in Step One.

- (d) In the event that a resolution of the grievance, satisfactory to the Union and Employer, does not result at Step Two, either the Union or the Employer may advance the grievance to the next step. The next step involves a selection from the following alternatives:
- 1) The optional grievance procedure provided for in 22.07.
 - 2) Go to a Single Arbitrator as outlined below.

This step must be taken by notice in writing within five (5) days of the date of completion of Step Two.

- (e) Prior to proceeding as outlined in (d) above, either party may choose to utilize Section 87 of the Labour Relations Code of B.C. If such a choice is made, (d) (1) shall not be available to the parties. Notifications of the use of Section 87 must be received within the time limits set out in (d).

23.03 SINGLE ARBITRATOR

The parties shall have five (5) working days to agree on a single arbitrator. Failing such agreement, either party may request the Minister of Labour to appoint such Arbitrator.

23.04 GRIEVANCES FILED AT STEP 2

A policy, group, suspension or discharge grievances shall be filed as Step Two of the grievance procedure.

23.05 ARBITRATION HEARING

- (a) As soon as an Arbitrator has been appointed, the arbitrator will be encouraged to commence the hearing within five (5) days and further encouraged to render a decision within fourteen (14) days.
- (b) In order to expedite the arbitration process, the parties agree that they will meet to discuss their understanding of the issue or issues to be placed before the Arbitrator, and to prepare a statement of all facts which are not in dispute. The identification of the issue or issues and the statement of agreed facts will be prepared in written form and placed before the Arbitrator by agreement of the parties.
- (c) Each party to the arbitration will bear one-half the expense associated with the appointment of the Arbitrator.
- (d) The parties recognize that they are bound by a decision of the Arbitrator.

23.06 AUTHORITY OF THE ARBITRATOR

The parties to the arbitration recognize that the authority of the Arbitrator is set out in Section 89 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

23.07 OPTIONAL GRIEVANCE INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE

(a) Purpose and Scope

Recognizing that there are times and circumstances in which it may be necessary to seek third party assistance in the resolution of grievances, and in an attempt to find a way in which to bring about such resolutions without incurring the costs and delays associated with formal arbitration proceedings, the parties have agreed to provide for an optional grievance investigation procedure.

The process is intended to complement the grievance and arbitration procedures otherwise provided for in this agreement. It is not intended to replace those other procedures.

(b) Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure

As provided for in Section 103 of the Labour Relations Code of B.C., where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee during the term of the collective agreement, the parties will appoint one of the persons named herein as "Investigators", or a substitute agreed to by the parties, to

- 1) investigate the difference;
- 2) define the issue in the difference; and
- 3) make written recommendations to resolve the difference.

23.08 TIME LIMITS

A grievance or dispute shall commence and proceed through the steps of the grievance procedure within the time limits provided, otherwise it shall be deemed to be abandoned. The time limits may be extended by mutual consent of the parties.

23.09 PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO DEAL WITH GRIEVANCES

- (a) The Union agrees to provide the Employer with a written list of the names of any persons other than Shop Stewards, who are authorized to deal with the adjustment or resolutions of grievances on behalf of the Union, and to provide further written advice of changes made in the list from time to time.
- (b) The Employer agrees to provide the Union with a written list of the names of any persons who are authorized to deal with the adjustment or resolution of grievances on behalf of the Employer, and to provide further written advice of changes made in the list from time to time.

23.10 INVESTIGATORS - ARBITRATORS

- (a) The parties have agreed that for the term of this Agreement the persons named below will be recognized as their "Investigators or Arbitrators" subject to receiving their respective consents to their appointment.
- (b) The selection of a particular named individual shall be done on a rotation basis starting with the first name on the list.
- (c) The named Investigators - Arbitrators shall be:

James Dorsey
Joan McEwen
Judy Korbin

ARTICLE 24 - DEFINITIONS

24.01 OBJECTIVE INTERPRETATION

Where a specific definition of a word, expression, term or a phrase, is not expressly provided in this agreement, such word, expression, term or phrase shall be interpreted objectively, not subjectively; and according to common and normal grammatical usage.

24.02 TIME SPAN REFERENCES

References to days, weeks, months or years shall be understood to mean calendar days, weeks, months or years, unless otherwise expressly provided in this agreement.

24.03 SPECIFIC DEFINITIONS

The following definitions of words, expressions, terms or phrases have been agreed to by the parties, and shall be used to establish the intent and meaning of the language of this agreement, unless a different definition is provided within the context of a particular article:

Department defined as:

- Kitchen
- Front Desk
- Coffee Shop
- Dining Room
- Cocktail Lounge (includes Off Track Betting)
- Banquets
- Housekeeping
- Maintenance

24.04 TYPES OF EMPLOYEES

Probationary Employee:

An employee who was hired into probationary status and who has not successfully completed the probationary period.

Regular Employee:

An employee who works regularly scheduled shifts as assigned by the Employer on a continuing basis.

Casual Employee:

An employee who works from time to time on an on-call basis, but does not work on regular scheduled shifts.

The following Articles shall not apply to casual employees: 11.01(a), 12.05, 15 [except 15.01(a)], 16, 17 [except 17.03 and 17.06], 18.04 and 19.01(f).

24.05 BANK ROLLING

Is defined as accumulating penalty time beyond the pay period immediately following the period in which the violation occurred.

ARTICLE 25 – MEETING ROOMS

25.01 The Employer agrees to provide on a space available basis, twice per calendar year, a meeting room free of charge to the Union for the purpose of meeting with bargaining unit members.

ARTICLE 26 – PAYROLL AND TIME ENTRY ERRORS

26.01 In the event that the Employer makes a payroll error which results in a shortage in the employee's pay cheque, the Employer will issue a separate cheque to correct the error within twenty-four (24) hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory Holidays).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have hereunder caused their seals to be affixed under the hands of the proper officers.

RE: Economic Viability

Should it be determined that a department of the Hotel is not economically viable and must be closed, the following procedure shall be used to attempt to avoid closure.

- a) Notice of the problem will be submitted to the Union no later than 45 days prior to the contemplated closure.
- b) Within 10 days of receipt of the notice, the Union and the Employer will meet to discuss alternate solutions to closure.
- c) Should agreement on an alternate solution not be reached, the Union may employ a Chartered Accountant to substantiate that the department is not an economically viable operation. The accountant will also make a recommendation on a temporary alternate wage rate.
- d) The acceptance of the recommendation may be the subject of negotiation between the parties. It is understood that the recommendation or result of the negotiation is subject only to the approval of the membership of the Union.
- e) Should the Union membership reject the proposal, the Hotel may proceed with the closure.
- f) Should the department remain closed for a period of 4 1/2 months or greater, such department may be reopened under the following conditions:
 - i. Employees laid off shall be given the opportunity for recall.
 - ii. The terms and conditions of the Collective Agreement currently in force will apply to all employees in the department except as outlined below.
 - iii. The temporary wage rates for the department will be those recommended by the accountant, or those if established by negotiation.

Re: Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure in Article 22.07

With regard to the Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure in Article 22.07 the following shall apply.

Each of the parties shall be separately responsible for all other costs incurred by each of them in relation to the preparation and presentation of their respective cases and submissions to the Investigator and shall share equally in the cost of the Investigator.

While the grievance investigation process is intended to yield only non-binding recommendations, the parties may agree that the recommendations will represent a binding award, in the manner of an arbitration award. Such agreement must be made in advance of the appointment of the Investigator.

Re: Optional Hours of Work On Sixth Day

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 10.01 and 10.07, the parties have agreed that in an attempt to provide additional hours of work to employees working less than forty (40) hours per week, the following arrangement will be in force for the duration of the Collective Agreement. Employees who would otherwise work less than forty (40) hours in a five (5) day work week can be offered additional straight time hours of work on the sixth (6th) consecutive day, provided that the additional hours do not result in the employee working more than forty (40) hours in the six (6) days at straight time. Such an employee may decline the additional hours without affecting his or her rights under this agreement. All sixth (6th) shifts must be offered in order of seniority.

Re: Bargaining Unit Work

It was agreed that the positions listed below are excluded from the bargaining unit although they may perform such bargaining unit work as is identified.

- (1) Dining Room Manager - Up to 25 hours per week as a Host/Hostess. May work from 25 to 40 hours provided such additional work will not result in a reduction of hours for bargaining unit employees.
- (2) Lounge Manager - up to 40 hours per week as a Server.
- (3) Kitchen Manager (Chef).
- (4) Front Desk Supervisor - Sunday day shift as well as providing vacation relief, relief for breaks as well as to assist the Front Desk Clerk - overload situations.
- (5) Banquet Manager - Any work during his/her shift which would not constitute a minimum 4 hour shift for a bargaining unit employee.
- (6) Housekeeping Manager.
- (7) Coffee Shop Manager - up to 40 hours per week as a Host/Hostess.
- (8) Maintenance Manager - up to 40 hours per week in Maintenance Department.

None of the above is intended to be used to reduce hours of work for bargaining unit employees.

Re Gratuities

Gratuities directly received by bargaining unit members will be the sole property of the employee who receives the gratuity or tip. Further the Employer agrees that every effort will be made to ensure that all gratuity due-backs (credit card, etc.) will be paid out within forty-eight (48) hours of being earned.

The Employer agrees not to change the current formula for Banquet Gratuities for the life of the Collective Agreement.

The Employer agrees not to change the current practice regarding housekeeping gratuities.

All portage fees received by the Employer will be distributed to the employees who handle the baggage.
