ARTICLE 1 - PREAMBLE

1.1 Purpose of Agreement

The purpose of this Agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment affecting employees covered by the Agreement.

The agreement establishes processes to assist the Parties in maintaining a co-operative and respectful working relationship and to resolve disagreements in an orderly fashion.

The terms and conditions also reflect the Parties understanding that the worksite provides a therapeutic environment for the clients and that meeting their physical, emotional, social, mental and spiritual needs through the provision of uninterrupted, skilful and efficient service is the primary purpose of the Employer and its employees.

1.2 Future Legislation

In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement, and the Parties hereto shall negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision so rendered null and void or materially altered.

1.3 Conflict With Operating Policies and Regulations

In the event that there is a conflict between the contents of this Agreement and any operating policy or regulation made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, this Agreement shall take precedence over the said operating policy or regulation.

1.4 Human Rights Act

The Parties subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.

1.5 Harassment

(a) The Employer and the Union recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from harassment. The Parties agree to foster and promote such an environment.

(b) An employee (complainant) who wishes to pursue a concern arising from an alleged harassment may submit a complaint in writing within six (6) months of the latest alleged occurrence directly to the Employer's designate. Upon receipt of the written complaint, the Employer shall notify in writing the Union Staff Representative. Complaints of this nature shall be treated in strict confidence by both the Union and the Employer.

An alleged harasser (respondent) shall be given notice of the substance of such a complaint under this clause and shall be entitled to attend, participate in, and be represented at any hearing pursuant to (i) below.

(c) The Parties agree that substantiated cases of harassment may be cause for discipline, up to and including dismissal.

(d) Harassment is defined as deliberate actions, that ought reasonably to be known as unwelcome by the recipient and which serve no legitimate work related purpose, toward an individual or individuals by the employees or the Employer, on any of the prohibited grounds of discrimination under the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.

(e) This definition of harassment is not meant to inhibit workplace interactions or relationships.

(f) Protection against harassment extends to incidents occurring at or away from the workplace, during or outside working hours, and includes incidents related to client or resident contact, provided the acts are committed within the course of the employment relationship.

(g) The Employer agrees to maintain Personnel Policy on Employment-related Harassment, including the requirement for employees to participate in mandatory harassment training. If there are any changes or amendments to the national harassment policy, the Employer shall consult with the Union. The Parties must mutually agree prior to any changes being implemented at Harbour Light ARC.

(h) Where the proposed resolution or outcome of an investigation of a harassment complaint is not satisfactory to the complainant(s), the complainant(s) may exercise their rights commencing at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

(i) The complainant shall always retain his or her right to file a complaint directly with the Human Rights Tribunal of British Columbia.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION RECOGNITION AND RIGHTS

2.1 Bargaining Unit Defined

- (a) The bargaining unit shall include all employees as defined by the certification except persons in positions deemed excluded:
- (1) by mutual agreement between the Parties; or
 - (2) by virtue of a decision by the Labour Relations Board of British Columbia.
- (b) If no agreement is reached within thirty (30) days of the notification either Party may refer the matter to the Labour Relations Board for a final and binding determination.

2.2 Bargaining Agent Recognition

The Employer recognizes the B.C. Government and Service Employees' Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for all employees to whom the certification issued by the Labour Relations Board on February 18, 1997, applies. (Pending future Labour Board decision.)

- (b) any correspondence to any employee pertaining to the interpretation or application of the agreement as it applies to that employee.

2.4 No Other Agreement

No employee covered by this Agreement shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer or its representatives which may conflict with the terms of this Agreement.

2.5 No Discrimination for Union Activity

The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.

2.6 Recognition and Rights of Stewards

- (a) The Employer recognizes the Union's right to select two (2) stewards and one (1) alternate to represent employees.
- (b) The Union agrees to provide the Employer with a list of the employees designated as stewards and/or alternates.
- (c) A steward will make every effort to perform steward duties outside of his/her normal working hours. If performing his/her duties during scheduled hours, a steward, or the alternate, shall obtain the permission of the immediate supervisor before leaving work to perform duties as a steward. Leave for this purpose shall be with pay. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. On resuming normal duties, the steward shall notify the supervisor. The steward shall make every effort to complete duties in as short a time as possible, and shall not interrupt the normal operations of the workplace or disrupt employees from their responsibilities without permission from the Employer (or designate).

- (d) The duties of the stewards shall include:
- (1) investigation of complaints of an emergent nature;
 - (2) investigation of grievances and assisting any employee whom the steward represents in presenting a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure;
 - (3) supervision of ballot boxes and related functions during ratification votes provided this does not result in costs greater than that normally incurred by the Employer;
 - (4) attending meetings at the request of the Employer;
 - (5) accompanying an employee whom the Steward represents, when requested by the employee, to a meeting called by the Employer, where disciplinary action is anticipated.

2.7 Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide bulletin board facilities for the exclusive use of the Union, the sites to be determined by mutual agreement. The use of such bulletin board facilities shall be restricted to the business affairs of the Union. The Parties may, at the local level, mutually agree upon another method of notifying employees of Union business.

2.8 Union Insignia

A Union member shall have the right to wear or display the recognized insignia of the Union. The Union will furnish Union Shop Cards to the Employer to be displayed on the Employer's premises. Such card will remain the property of the Union and shall be surrendered upon demand.

2.9 Right to Refuse to Cross Legal Picket Lines

All employees covered by this Agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a legal picket line arising out of a dispute as defined in the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia. Any employee failing to report for duty shall be considered to be absent without pay. Failure to cross a legal picket line encountered in carrying out the Employer's business shall not be considered a violation of this Agreement nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action.

2.10 Time Off for Union Business

- (a) Subject to operational requirements and with reasonable advance notice, leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority will be granted:
- (1) to an elected or appointed representative of the Union to attend conventions of the Union and bodies to which the Union is affiliated;

 - (2) to employees appointed by the Union as Union representatives to attend Joint Labour/Management Committee meetings during their working hours.
- (c) Long-term leave of absence without pay shall be granted to employees designated by the Union to transact Union business for specific periods unless this would unduly interrupt the operation of the department. Such requests shall be made in writing sufficiently in advance to minimize disruption of the department. Employees granted such leave of absence shall retain all rights and privileges accumulated prior to obtaining such leave. Seniority shall continue to accumulate during such leave and shall apply to such provisions as annual vacations, increments and promotions.
- (1) For employees selected for a full-time position with the Union or any body to which the Union is affiliated for a period of one (1) year;
 - (2) For an employee elected to the position of President or Secretary-Treasurer of the B.C. Government and Service Employees' Union, the leave shall be for a period of three (3) years and shall be renewed upon request of the Union.
- (d) The Union and the employee will make every effort to provide a minimum of fourteen (14) working days' notice for leave requirements to facilitate scheduling of both clients and employees. To facilitate the administration of (a) above, when leave without pay is granted, the leave shall be given without loss of pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the invoice for the appropriate salary and benefit costs, including travel time incurred.

ARTICLE 4 - CHECK OFF AND UNION DUES

(f) The above information may be supplied on a computer disk or tape provided that the Union's computer system is compatible with the Employer's and the Employer has the capability. Where the information is not provided on a disk or tape, it will be provided on hard copy.

(g) Before the Employer is obliged to deduct any amount under (a) and (b) above, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of the deductions. The amount so advised shall continue to be the amount to be deducted until changed by further written notice to the Employer from the Union. In all cases, the Union shall provide the Employer with a reasonable notice period to implement any change.

(h) At the same time the Income Tax (T-4) slips are made available, the Employer, without charge, shall indicate on the T-4 slip the total amount of the Union dues paid by the employee for the previous year (the year for which the T-4 slip was provided).

(i) As a condition of continued employment, an employee shall complete an authorization form supplied by the Union providing for the deduction from an employee's wages or salary the amount of the regular dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union.

(j) Any change to the amount deducted, including assessments, shall coincide with the beginning of the Employer's payroll period.

(k) Where the dues authorization form consists of multiple copies, the Employer will provide the Union with the required copies of the completed and signed authorization form for dues check-off for all new employees.

(l) The Union agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Employer as a result of any actions by an employee relating to the deduction of Union dues or other monies as described in Clauses (a) and (b) above.

ARTICLE 5 - EMPLOYER AND UNION TO ACQUAINT NEW EMPLOYEES

(d) The Steward will be given an opportunity to meet with each new employee within the new employee's regular working hours, without loss of pay, for fifteen (15) minutes sometime during the first thirty (30) days of employment. The time away to be approved by the Steward's and new Employee's Supervisor(s).

(e) The Union will provide the Employer with an up-to-date list of Stewards' names, work locations and work telephone numbers (if applicable) in order that the Employer may meet its obligation in (b)(1) above.

ARTICLE 6 - EMPLOYER'S RIGHTS

(a) The management of the Employer's business, and the direction of the work force, including the hiring, firing, promotion and demotion of employees, is vested exclusively in the Employer except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement.

(b) The Union agrees that all employees shall be governed by all rules as adopted by the Employer and published to employees on bulletin or notice boards, or by general distribution, provided such rules are not in conflict with this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - EMPLOYER/UNION RELATIONS

The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have a Steward present at such a discussion. If the grievance is not settled at this step, it may be presented in writing at Step 2.

8.3 Time Limits to Present Initial Grievance

An employee may initiate the written grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, in the manner prescribed in Article 8.4, not later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after the date:

In the posting of a vacancy or a new job, the hours of work, including stop and start times, days off and department may be subject to change provided that:

The Employer shall also consider applications from those employees, with the required seniority, who are absent from their normal places of employment because of sick leave, annual vacation, unpaid leave, Union leave, compassionate leave, education leave, or special leave, and who have filled in an application form before each absence, stating the jobs they would be interested in applying for should a vacancy or new job occur during their absence, without causing undue delay to the hiring process.

12.4 Temporary Appointments

Where operational requirements make it necessary, the Employer may make temporary appointments pending the posting and consideration of Union personnel pursuant to 12.1 above. Temporary appointments shall be limited to two (2) months' duration. An appointment may be extended by mutual agreement between the Parties.

12.8 Selection Criteria

In the filling of bargaining positions, when performance in current and previous positions, knowledge, qualifications, proven ability to make independent decisions and take appropriate action, skill, availability and ability are assessed as comparable, seniority will be the deciding factor.

The test for just cause for rejection during probation shall include a test of suitability (which includes, but is not limited to, proven ability to handle the duties and responsibilities of the position, as well as consistent availability for the shifts outlined in the job description). If it is shown on behalf of the employee that the termination was not for just cause, the employee shall be reinstated.

Should the former position not exist, the employee will be placed in an equivalent vacant position and will have the ability to exercise their rights under Article 13 (Layoff) should there be no vacancy.
