- (a) The purpose of this Agreement is to establish and maintain a harmonious relationship between the Employer, its employees and the Union, and to clearly define the hours of work, rates of pay and conditions of employment, and to provide an amicable method of settling grievances which may arise from time to time; and to promote mutual interest of the Employer and its employees.
- (b) The Parties hereto recognize that they are jointly engaged in providing a valuable service to the Credit Union membership, and that there is an obligation on each Party for the continuous and efficient performance of such service, within the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and for its duration.

1.2 Discrimination and Harassment

- (a) Neither the Union nor the Employer in carrying out their obligations under this Agreement shall discriminate on the grounds of race, colour, age, creed, sexual orientation, family status, religion, marital status, or national origin.
- (b) The Parties recognize the benefit to be derived from a work environment where the conduct and/or language of all employees meets the acceptable social standard of the workplace. The Parties agree to maintain such an environment.
- (c) The personal rights of employees shall be respected by both Parties and in recognition thereof the Parties agree that all included and excluded employees have the right to work in an environment free from harassment. Allegations of harassment shall in the first instance be dealt with discreetly and confidentially by the Labour/Management Committee. Should the effort of the Labour/Management Committee fail to provide a resolution, either Party shall then be free to proceed under the appropriate legislation and/or utilize the grievance procedure.

1.3 Future Legislation

In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provision of this Agreement, the Parties hereto shall negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision so rendered null and void or materially altered. Any new provision so negotiated shall not be intended to circumvent the intention of the legislation.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION RECOGNITION AND RIGHTS

2.1 Bargaining Unit Defined

- (a) This Agreement shall apply solely to employees in the bargaining unit at the Dawson Creek Branch for which the Union is certified.
- (b) The Bargaining Unit shall comprise all employees included in the Certification dated July 27, 1993, as defined in the Agreement except those employees in positions mutually agreed to between the Parties as managerial and/or confidential exclusions. The guidelines to be considered in negotiating exclusions shall be:
 - (1) Employed for the primary purpose of exercising management functions.
 - (2) Employed in a confidential capacity in matters relating to labour relations.
- (c) Exclusions in place as of March 12, 2006 will continue. Any further exclusions will only result if the Employer creates positions, the job duties of which are quantitatively different in content and scope from positions in the bargaining unit as of March 12, 2006.

(d) If the Employer implements a new exclusion and the Union objects to that exclusion, the matter will be referred to the Labour Relations Board for determination.

ARTICLE 7 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

7.1 Grievance Procedure

- (a) The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:
 - (1) differences between the Parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation, or any alleged violation of a provision of this Agreement, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration; or
 - (2) the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee bound by this Agreement.
- (b) The procedure for resolving a grievance shall be the grievance procedure in this article.

7.3 Step 2

- (a) If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the matter shall be reduced to writing by the grievor and/or the Union and submitted to the management persons designated by the Employer within twenty (20) working days following the decision rendered at Step 1. The grievor, along with the office steward, shall meet with the designated management persons to attempt to settle the matter.
- (b) When a meeting is held at Step 2, the Union will explain the basis for its grievance. The Employer will then provide a written response to the grievance within ten (10) working days after the Step 2 meeting.

7.4 Step 3

- (a) If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, it shall be referred to the representatives of the Union and senior representatives of the Employer within twenty (20) working days of the decision rendered at Step 2. Failing settlement within twenty (20) working days of receipt of the grievance at this step, either Party may refer the matter to arbitration as provided in Article 8.
- (b) In the event a grievance is initiated by the Employer or the Union, the initiating Party shall notify the other Party, in writing, of the nature of the grievance and such notice shall be given within twenty (20) working days of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance unless the Parties agree to an extension of time. Failing settlement within twenty (20) working days of receipt of notice, either Party may refer the grievance to arbitration as set forth in Article 8.

7.5 Dismissal or Suspension Grievances

In the case of a grievance arising from an employee's dismissal or suspension, the grievance may commence at Step 3 of the grievance procedure within fifteen (15) working days of the date on which the suspension occurred, or within fifteen (15) working days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal or suspension. The Parties agree that all dismissal grievances, that are to proceed to arbitration, will be dealt with expeditiously.

7.6 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been filed in writing at Step 2, the Employer's representatives will not enter into discussion or negotiation with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union. In the event that, after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.

7.7 Abandonment

Except as provided in Section 7.9 following, a grievance not initiated or advanced to the next step in this article or Article 8, within the time limits specified shall be considered abandoned, and all further recourse to the grievance procedure forfeited. Where the Union withdraws from a grievance solely on the basis of time limits, such abandonment shall be without prejudice.

7.8 Technical Objections to Grievances

Except as provided in Article 7.7, it is the intent that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an Arbitrator shall have the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to the equitable principles and the justice of the case.

7.9 Extension of Time Limits

The time limits set forth in this article or Article 8 may be extended by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

ARTICLE 8 - ARBITRATION

8.1 Notification to Arbitrate

- (a) When any difference arises between the Parties as to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable or not, the matter may be referred by either Party to arbitration within a period of twenty (20) working days of the decision being rendered under Article 7.4.
- (b) The Parties to this Agreement hereby agree to use the services of a single arbitrator as a means of settling grievances and disputes.

8.2 Arbitration Procedure

The Party desiring arbitration under this article will notify the other Party, in writing, in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.4 of Article 7. The notice shall set out the questions in the opinion of the Party seeking arbitration, to be arbitrated.

8.3 Appointment of an Arbitrator

The arbitrators agreed to in Appendix "B" shall serve on a rotating basis. If the arbitrator selected based on the rotation is not available to act within a sixty (60) day period, the Parties shall select another arbitrator from the list to hear the grievance. If none of the arbitrators from the list are available to act within the sixty (60) days, the Parties shall select another arbitrator to hear the grievance, and failing agreement between the Parties, either Party may request that the Minister of Labour appoint an arbitrator to hear the grievance.

8.4 Arbitration Hearings

Upon agreed appointment of an Arbitrator, the Arbitrator shall hear the Parties, settle the terms of question to be arbitrated if necessary, and make his award, in writing, to each of the Parties and the award shall be final and binding on the Parties. The Arbitrator shall not be vested with the power to change, modify or alter any of the terms of this Agreement.

8.5 Arbitration Costs

Each Party shall pay their own costs and expenses of the arbitration and one-half (1/2) the remuneration and expenses of the Arbitrator.

8.6 Alternate Procedures

If a difference arises between the Parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of the Collective Agreement, Brian Foley or a substitute agreed to by the Parties, shall at the request of either Party:

- (a) investigate the difference; and
- (b) define the issue in the difference; and
- (c) make written recommendations to resolve the difference,

within thirty (30) days of the date of receipt of the request and, for those thirty (30) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the Grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 9 - DISCIPLINE, DISCHARGE AND SUSPENSION

9.1 Notice

- (a) It is hereby agreed that the Employer has the right to discharge or suspend an employee for just and reasonable cause. Notice of suspension and/or dismissal shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for the suspension or dismissal. A copy of the written notice of dismissal or suspension shall be forwarded to the local Union office within five (5) calendar days of the action being taken.
- (b) The discharge of a probationary employee shall be based on suitability of employment with the Employer.

9.2 Right to Grieve Other Disciplinary Action

- (a) Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures and letters of reprimand. An employee shall be given a copy of any such document placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in his/her file, he/she shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of his/her personnel record. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware. Upon the employee's request written censures and letters of reprimand shall be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date it was issued, provided there has not been a further infraction of a similar type.
- (b) Disciplinary action which arose as a result of a matter which is in violation of the Financial Institutions Act and/or the Regulations thereto, including any policies established by the Board of Directors of the Credit Union, as required under the stated legislation, shall be removed after the expiration of twenty-four (24) months or earlier if the Credit Union has been examined by examiners from the Financial Institutions Commission.

9.3 Right to Have a Steward Present

- (a) An employee shall have the right to have his/her steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which shall be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact his/her steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. The notification and the interview shall take place within a private area. This clause shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve disciplinary action.

(b) A steward shall have the right to consult with a Staff Representative of the Union and to have a Local Union Representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which shall be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

9.4 Personnel File

An employee, or the President of the Union or his/her designate with the written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review the employee's personnel file in the presence of a supervisor.

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 18.2, an employee must make reasonable efforts to schedule dental and medical appointments outside of working hours and, if that is not possible, then to schedule those appointments at the least disruptive times (e.g. early in the morning, late in the afternoon).

Unless a dental appointment deals with an urgent matter that requires immediate attention or involves a dental specialist, it is expected that dental appointments will be made outside of working hours.

With respect to medical appointments, it is recognized that it will be difficult for employees to schedule such appointments during non-working hours where specialists are involved, where the employees is being treated with a serious chronic condition, or where there is the need for the employee to see a medical practitioner on an urgent basis. It is also recognized that the hours of operation of the particular medical office might make it difficult for employees to schedule appointments during their non-working hours.
