BETWEEN: BARNES WHEATON PACIFIC PONTIAC BUICK GMC LTD.,
1090 Lougheed Highway,

(hereinafter referred to as the "Employer")

PARTY OF THE FIRST PART

AND: TEAMSTER LOCAL UNION No. 213, affiliated with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, of the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia;

(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

PARTY OF THE SECOND PART

1. BARGAINING AGENCY AND DEFINITION

- (a) The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agency of all employees as set out in the Certificate of Bargaining Authority for those operations at 1090 Lougheed Highway, Coquitlam, B.C.
- (b) The term employee as used in this Agreement shall apply to any person employed in any job which is covered by the Certificate and/or this Agreement.
- (c) All work within the bargaining unit shall be performed only by those persons coming within the bargaining unit who are members of the Union as prescribed herein, or who are eligible to become members under Article Three (3) herein except in the case of training. No work shall be transferred, subcontracted or contracted out that has not been transferred, subcontracted out in the past or that would result in the layoff of an employee. This provision does not apply in emergency situations provided no employee is capable of performing the work and the Steward is informed.

It is understood and agreed that Management and Office Personnel may assist in the performance of Bargaining Unit work during peak periods when the volume of work requires. In the event that Bargaining Unit Personnel becomes available while Management and Office Personnel are assisting, such assistance shall cease promptly and the task completed by Bargaining Unit Personnel.

2. DURATION OF AGREEMENT

- (a) This Agreement shall be for the period from and including September 1st, 2007 to and including August 31st, 2010. Either Party to this Agreement may, within four (4) months immediately preceding August 31st, 2007. Either Party to this Agreement may, within four (4) months immediately preceding August 31, 2010, give to the other Party written notice to commence collective bargaining.

The parties agree that, during the term of this Agreement, there shall be no lockout by the Employer and no strike or work stoppage by the employees.

- (b) After expiry of the term of this collective agreement and subject to the limitations necessarily resulting from the exercise of the rights of the parties under Part 5 of the Labour Relations Code, including the right to strike or lockout, the terms and conditions of employment as set out in this Agreement will be observed and not varied except by the Parties mutual consent during the period that the Union remains the bargaining agent for employees identified in this Agreement.
- (c) It is mutually agreed that the operation of sub-section 2 of Section 50 of the Labour Relations Code is specifically excluded from operation in this Agreement.

3. UNION SECURITY AND HIRING

- (a) The Employer shall notify the Union of any job vacancies. The Union may refer members with the necessary qualifications to the Employer for consideration of employment. The qualifications pertaining to the job classification will be solely determined by the Employer. The Employer retains the right to hire new employees through the Union, Canada Manpower, advertisements, employment agencies or elsewhere.
- (b) When qualified Union members are not available, then the Employer may obtain qualified employees elsewhere.

When the Employer hires a qualified employee elsewhere, he shall have said employee fill out the necessary Union membership and Death Benefit cards prior to the employee commencing work. The Employer shall mail the completed cards to the Union forthwith.

- (c) All employees shall be required to be members of the Union as a condition of employment with the Employer. The Employer shall be required, upon written notice from the Union, to discharge an employee who ceases or refuses to become a member in good standing of the Union where the expulsion or denial or withholding of membership was occasioned by failure of the employee to pay periodic dues, assessments and initiation fees normally required to be paid by all members of the Union as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the Union.
- (d) All employees shall have a probationary period of ninety (90) days. Employees may be dismissed for just cause within the probationary period if in the opinion of the Employer they are not suitable for regular employment.
- (e) The Employer may hire students on a temporary basis to perform any job in the bargaining unit as part of their internship, requirements under their academic programs and/or for the sake of gaining practical job experience, provided it does not result in any reduction of work for regular employees or interfere with the normal hiring practices. They will not be part of the bargaining unit or required to become Union members.

- (f) The Company may have part-time employees. The employees may have the opportunity to be on the Company Benefit Plan if they choose to be.

Employees working in the classification will receive the rates for those classifications.

The maximum hours a part-time employee may work in a seven (7) day period is twenty-four (24).

All part-time employees cannot take any full-time positions or vacancies away from the Bargaining Unit members that work full-time.

Part-time employees will be the first to be laid off and will not return until all full-time employees are back from any layoff.

4. DEDUCTIONS OF DUES, ETC.

- (a) The Union shall each month mail to the Employer a checkoff form, in duplicate, setting out the name of each employee in the Union and the amounts of dues, etc. they owe. The Employer shall delete any names from such list of employees who have terminated since the previous list and shall also add the names of any new employees.
- (b) All employees shall be required to sign authorization for checkoff of Union dues, fees and assessments which may be levied by the Union in accordance with the Constitution and/or By-Laws. Such checkoff shall be irrevocable.
- (c) The Employer shall deduct and pay over to the Secretary of the Union any monthly dues, fees, and assessments levied in accordance with the Union's By-Laws, owing by said employees hereunder to the said Union. Monies deducted during any month shall be forwarded by the Employer to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union not later than the tenth (10th) day of each following month, and one (1) copy of the checkoff list above mentioned.

To enable the Union to properly police this provision, a Business Representative of the Union shall have access to the Company payroll records as they relate to the employees within the Bargaining Unit during normal business hours in the presence of a chosen representative of the Employer.

If the Employer fails to adhere to these provisions then the Employer shall be liable to the Union for the dues not deducted and remitted.

5. UNION ACTIVITIES OF EMPLOYEES AND LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- (d) If an employee desires a leave of absence for reasons other than those referred to above, he must obtain permission, in writing, for the same from the Employer and the Employer will send a copy of any leave of absence of one (1) week's duration or longer to the Union, prior to such leave commencing. However, no legitimate and reasonable request for a leave will be denied provided proper notice is given. Leaves of absence must be used for which they are requested.
- (e) When an employee suffers an injury or illness which requires his absence, he shall report the fact to the Employer. It is intended that this report be made prior to the employee's starting time if possible. If there is no notification, absence may be considered absence without approval.
- (f) In case of death in the immediate family, the employee affected shall be granted compassionate leave of absence with pay for three (3) days. Immediate family means: spouse, parent, children, brothers, sisters, grandparent, mother-in-law and father-in-law. Once an employee is released from Jury Duty or witness duty, all employees are expected to report to work if a reasonable amount of time remains available upon completion of Jury or witness duty on any particular day.

All Jury Duty pay or witness payments received by the employee from the Courts or otherwise shall be reimbursed to the Employer by endorsement of Jury Duty cheque and/or witness fees to the Employer.

- (b) The Shop Steward shall have no authority to alter, amend, violate, or otherwise change any part of this Agreement and he cannot interfere with the management and operation of the Company unless otherwise stipulated in this Agreement.
- (c) The Employer will recognize the Shop Stewards selected in accordance with the Union rules and regulations as the representatives of the employees in the respective groups or departments for which they are chosen, and hereby recognizes that the power to appoint and remove thereof is solely vested with the Union. The number of Shop Stewards will be consistent with the need and shall not exceed a maximum of four (4) Stewards, one in the Parts Department, one in the Body Shop and two in the Service Department. If employees wish to post notices not related to Union business, prior approval must be obtained from the Employer. The Employer shall be responsible for posting an up-to-date seniority list.

9. CONFLICTING AGREEMENT

The Employer agrees not to enter into any agreement or a contract with employees covered by this Agreement, individually or collectively, which in any way conflicts with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, or any Statute of the Province of British Columbia or Canada.

The Employer agrees that before effecting any wage rate other than those set out in this Agreement, it shall first negotiate same with the Union Agent in accordance with the applicable Section of this Agreement.

This clause does not preclude the Employer from introducing incentive or bonus programs from time to time provided the Union is informed. Notice given to the Stewards regarding any bonus will be regarded as notice to the Union.

10. PROTECTION OF RIGHTS

- (a) The Employer shall not require any Union member to cross a legal picket line or to accept any products, goods or services from any person or employees of any person with whom a union has a legal picket or placard line around or against, to pick up or deliver any products or goods to any persons or employees of any person with whom a union has a legal picket or placard line around or against. If the products or goods are in the possession of the Employer, the employees will not refuse to handle or service such products or goods provided that there is no legal picket line around it.
- (b) All Union dues and Health and Welfare contributions are to be paid to the party entitled thereto not later than fifteen (15) days after such deductions are made.

11. TRANSFER OF TITLE OR INTEREST

- (a) This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto, their successors, administrators, executors, and assigns. In the event the entire operation or any part thereof is sold, leased, transferred, or taken over by sale, transfer, lease assignment, receivership, or bankruptcy proceeding, or another company, limited or otherwise, is set up to perform any of the functions previously performed by the Employer covered herein, such operation shall continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement for the life thereof.
- (b) The Employer shall give notice of the existence of this Agreement to any purchaser, transferee, lessee, or assignee of the operation covered by this Agreement or any part thereof. Such notice shall be in writing and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the Union immediately the Employer executes the final contract of sale, lease or transfer. The Union shall also be informed of the nature of the transaction, not including financial details.

12. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- (a) Any complaint, disagreement or difference of opinion between the Employer, the Union or the employees covered by this Agreement which concerns the interpretation or application of the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be considered a grievance.

Any employee, the Union or the Employer may present a grievance. Any grievance which is not presented within fourteen (14) days following the event giving rise to such grievance shall be forfeited and waived. This provision shall not be used to deny any employee his or her rights under the Provincial Labour Statutes.

- (b) The steps of Grievance Procedure shall be as follows:

STEP I The employee, with or without the Shop Steward, shall take his grievance up with the Foreman or Supervisor. The Employer shall take up the Employer's grievance with the employee concerned who shall have the right to have the Shop Steward present.

STEP II Should a solution not to be reached by Step I, then a Representative of the Union, accompanied by the employee and the Shop Steward, if the Union wishes, shall discuss the matter with Management.

If no solution is reached, then the grieving Party shall submit in writing its contention on the dispute. The other party shall reply in writing within seven (7) days. Failure to respond or failing settlement of the dispute at this stage shall cause the matter to be submitted to Arbitration as set out herein.

Notwithstanding the above, if an authorized Agent of the Union claims a violation of this Agreement, he may invoke the Grievance Procedure at Step II as the grieving party on behalf of the Union or on behalf of any employee or employees concerned.

STEP III The Party desiring Arbitration shall appoint a member for the Board and shall notify the other Party in writing of its appointment.

The party receiving the notice shall within seven (7) days thereafter appoint a member for the Board and notify the other Party of its appointment.

Failure to appoint their nominee, by either Party, the other Party who has appointed its nominee shall apply to the Minister of Labour to appoint a nominee on behalf of such party.

STEP IV The Arbitrators so appointed shall confer to select a third person to be Chairman and failing for five (5) days from the appointment of the second of them to agree to a person willing to act, either of them may apply to the Minister of Labour.

- (c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions respecting the establishment and jurisdiction of an Arbitration Board, if the parties agree, a Sole Arbitrator shall be chosen to act in the same capacity and having the same powers as a Board of Arbitration.
- (d) If the Arbitration Board finds that an employee has been suspended or discharged without proper cause or improperly laid off, that employee shall be reinstated by the Employer without loss of pay and with all his rights, benefits and privileges which he would have enjoyed if the discharge, suspension or improper layoff had not taken place. If an Arbitration Board finds circumstances which in the opinion of the Arbitration Board makes it just and equitable to do so, it may order the Employer to pay less than the full amount of wages and benefits lost.

The Board of Arbitration shall not have any jurisdiction or authority to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement, or to give any decision inconsistent with the terms of the Agreement, except where there is a dispute between the parties regarding the rate of pay for a newly established or altered classification not provided herein. The Board of Arbitration or Sole Arbitrator shall have the power to deal with such matters and bring down a final binding award.

The Board of Arbitration or Sole Arbitrator shall have the jurisdiction to deal with matters arising from disputes under the Welfare Plan or Article 24(b) herein.

Each of the Parties hereto will bear the expenses of their nominees and the Parties will equally bear the expenses of the Chairman.

- (e) Any discharged or suspended employee, within seventy-two (72) hours of his discharge or suspension, shall be given by the Employer, in writing, the reasons for his discharge or suspension, with a copy to be sent to the Union. In the event of any dispute or difference as to whether or not there was proper cause for the discharge or suspension of an employee, only the reasons so set forth in writing shall constitute cause to be argued before an Arbitration Board, unless such additional reasons set forth in writing are valid and the Employer can provide bona fide explanations as to why such reasons were not included.

- (f) The Employer agrees that if any grievance proceeds to Arbitration and the Arbitration Board finds in favour of the Union or any employee, the Employer shall pay for all time lost by any employee as a result of such employee being called on to appear as a witness.
- (g) If any adverse statements which constitute discipline are to be put into any employee's personnel file, a copy of same will be given to the employee with a copy sent to the Union so the matter can be grieved if necessary. Such adverse statements will not be used as evidence in the event of an Arbitration hearing involving the discipline or discharge of an employee after twelve (12) months of the date of occurrence.
- (h) Employees are required once a year to do a self performance evaluation with the Company. This will not be used for any discipline for any purpose.

13. JOB POSTING, ETC.

- (a) In the event that a classified job becomes vacant or a job classification is created, the Employer shall post a notice on the Bulletin Board notifying that a vacancy or a new job classification exists, giving details of the job, rate of pay, etc. Employees desiring such job shall then apply, in writing, within three (3) working days of such posting, excluding weekends. When an employee is on any vacation or leave of absence, the Company with a Steward present will make contact with that employee to advise him of the posting. The employee from the day of contact will have three (3) days to respond. The senior employee applying who has the ability and qualifications to do the job shall receive such job.

It is understood that employees may apply for lower paid jobs as well as higher paid jobs.

Any employee posting into a different classification within the unit shall be allowed a reasonable period of trial, up to thirty (30) calendar days, and if found unsatisfactory shall be returned to his former position without loss of seniority.

- (b) If the Employer wishes to institute a new job or classification for which there is no wage rate contained in this Agreement, the Parties shall negotiate wage rates, conditions, etc. for such job or classification. Failure of the Parties to agree shall cause the matter to be submitted to Arbitration.
- (c) Wherever there is a significant change in job content or working conditions, the Parties shall discuss the appropriateness of a rate revision. If agreement cannot be reached, the matter may be processed through the Grievance Procedure to a final conclusion.

14. TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE AND RETRAINING

- (a) The Employer shall give at least forty-five (45) days' notice to the Union in writing of its intention to effect technological change that is likely to affect the terms and conditions of employment of the employees in the bargaining unit.

- (b) In the event the Employer introduces a technological change which requires retraining, the Employer agrees to give the first opportunity to employees then on the Payroll through the Job Posting procedure of this Agreement for retraining provided the applicant qualifies with the requirements for such training.
- (c) Should such a technological change necessitate a significant change in job content or qualification or a change in job classification, the Parties will agree to an appropriate rate of pay for the job affected. If the Parties do not agree, the matter shall be settled by Arbitration.

15. SEVERANCE PAY

- (a) Employees with one (1) year or more of service, whose employment is terminated as a result of technological change, or the closure of the whole or any part of the operation or loss of business, shall receive termination pay of one (1) week's pay for each year of service with the Employer to a maximum of twelve (12) weeks, at his normal weekly wages or the average weekly wages within the last eight (8) weeks in which he earns wages, whichever is the greater. For the purpose of computing termination pay, overtime wages shall not be included or taken into account for the purpose of determining normal weekly or average weekly wages.
- (b) The above provisions under this Article shall not apply when an employee resigns, retires or is discharged for just cause.
- (c) Severance pay will not be applicable in the event of layoff of an employee unless the layoff without recall exceeds a period of six (6) months.

16. PAY DAY AND PAY STATEMENTS, ETC.

- (b) The Employer shall provide every employee covered by this Agreement on each pay day with an itemized statement in respect of all wage payments. Such Statement shall set forth the total hours worked including overtime, the rate of wages applicable and all deductions made from the gross amount of wages. Accrued vacation pay information will be provided every other month to those employees requesting same.
- (c) Where there is an error on a pay cheque, this shall be corrected and any monies owing be paid out not later than two (2) working days from the date the Employer's payroll official is notified of the error.
- (d) Whenever the Canada Savings Bonds are issued for sale, the Employer shall make same available to its employees who desire same and make such deductions as are necessary.
- (e) The Employer shall record on each employee's T-4 slip the total Union dues deducted and submitted on behalf of that employee.

17. ANNUAL VACATION
