Seniority shall be used in determining preference or priority for promotion, transfer, demotion, layoff, permanent reduction of the workforce, and recall, as set out in other provisions of this Agreement. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining-unit-wide basis.

16.02 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the current classification and the date upon which each employee's service commenced. Where two (2) or more employees commence work on the same day, preference shall be in accordance with the date of application. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union and posted on all bulletin boards in January of each year. In the event of a layoff, the seniority list will be updated and posted prior to the layoff.

16.03 Probation for Newly Hired Employees

A newly hired full-time or part-time employee shall be on probation only for the first sixty (60) calendar days. Casual employees shall be on probation for sixty (60) working days or one (1) year, whichever comes first. The employee shall have the obligation to ensure that the Employer has notice of change of address of the employee.

Refusal to accept recall to casual employment will not result in loss of seniority and will not prejudice the employee's right to recall in the future. Laid off employees engaged in alternate employment and who are recalled shall be permitted to give their current employer reasonable notice of termination to accept the recall.

- (d) After eighteen (18) continuous months on layoff.
- (e) A casual employee who has notified the Employer they are available for work who refuses or is unavailable for a short notice (twenty-four [24] hours) call to work on four (4) occasions within a six (6) month period shall be removed from the on call list.

- (c) If at any time after the six (6) calendar month trial period the employee desires to return to the bargaining unit, such return will not result in the layoff of any bargaining unit member, but shall be done through the posting procedure, commensurate with the employee's bargaining unit seniority and qualifications.

However, vacancies arising from normal retirement shall be posted sixty (60) days prior to the employee's normal retirement date, with notification to the Union.

It is understood and agreed that the Employer retains the usual rights to determine if and when a position will be filled.

Such notice shall contain the following information:

Nature of position, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, shift, hours of work, wage or salary rate or range. Such qualifications and requirements shall be those necessary to perform the job function and may not be established in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.

17.03 Role of Seniority in Promotions, Transfers and Staff Changes

The Employer shall not curtail the trial period without just cause, before it has run its full course. Conditional on satisfactory service, the employee shall be declared permanent after the period of sixty (60) calendar days. In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the trial period, or if the employee is unable or unwilling to continue to perform the duties of the new job classification, they shall be returned to their former position, wage or salary rate, without loss of seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the re-arrangement of positions shall also be returned to their former position, wage or salary rate, without loss of seniority.

17.06 Promotions Requiring Higher Qualifications

If no employee is appointed to a vacancy in accordance with Clause 17.04, then serious consideration for promotion will be given to the applicant with the greatest seniority who does not possess the required qualifications, but is preparing for qualification prior to filling the vacancy. If granted the job, the employee will be given an opportunity to qualify within a reasonable trial period. If the qualifications are not met within this time, the employee shall revert to their former position.

The Employer shall also consider employees who are not qualified but who, through on the job training, could reasonably be expected to satisfactorily perform the job within a six (6) month period.

The rate of pay for employees awarded a position under this provision, would be ninety percent (90%) of the classified rate for the first three (3) months and ninety-five percent (95%) for the last three (3) months of the six (6) months referred to herein, or their current rate whichever is greater.
