OF THE FIRST PART

AND: TEAMSTERS LOCAL UNION No. 213,
affiliated with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, of the City of Vancouver,
Province of British Columbia;

(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

OF THE SECOND PART

ARTICLE 1 - RECOGNITION

- 1.01 The Company recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent of all of its employees defined in Section 1.02 for the purpose of conducting collective negotiations regarding rates of pay, hours of work and all other conditions of employment, in conformity with the Labour Code of British Columbia.
- 1.02 The words "employee" or "employees" whenever used in this Agreement shall mean respectively an employee or employees of the Company at its Langley, British Columbia plant, included in the group of employees specified in the decision of the British Columbia Labour Relations Board dated November 22, 1966, whereby the Union was certified to represent all employees of the Company save and except sales and office personnel and those excluded by the Labour Code of British Columbia.
- 1.03 The Company will not direct a supervisor to perform work for the purpose of depriving a bargaining unit employee of his regular work. Notwithstanding the foregoing a supervisor may perform such work of instruction, experimentation and demonstration or where there is an emergency.

ARTICLE 2 - DURATION OF AGREEMENT

- 2.01 This Agreement shall be in full force and effect from and including March 1st 2008, to and including February 28th, 2011, and shall continue in full force and effect from year to year thereafter, subject to the right of either party to this Agreement within four (4) months immediately preceding the expiry date, or immediately preceding the anniversary date in any year thereafter, by written notice to the other party, require the other party to commence collective bargaining with a view to the conclusion of a renewal or revision of the collective agreement, or a new collective agreement.

- 2.02 Should either party give written notice to the other party pursuant hereto, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect until the Union shall give notice of strike and such strike has been implemented, or the Company shall give notice of lockout and such lockout has been implemented or the parties shall conclude a renewal or revision of the Agreement or a new Collective Agreement.
- 2.03 It is mutually agreed that the operation of sub-sections 2 and 3 of Section 50 of the British Columbia Labour Relations Code is specifically excluded from operation in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY

- 3.01 The Company recognizes that present employees belonging to the Union will continue to do so as a condition of employment and all new employees within the Bargaining Unit shall become members of the Union upon commencement of employment.
- 3.02 Each employee shall sign an assignment of wages to the Union, authorizing the Company to deduct from his wages and pay over to the Union's Secretary-Treasurer, by the tenth (10th) day of the month following, his monthly dues, initiation fees and assessments (excluding fines) levied in accordance with the Union's By-Laws. Providing there is financial responsibility by the employee.
- 3.03 The Union shall each month mail to the Company a checkoff form, in duplicate, setting out the name of each employee in the Union and the amounts of dues, etc. they owe. The Company shall delete any names from such lists of employees who have terminated since the previous list and shall also add the names of any new employees.
- 3.04 The Company shall give the Union an opportunity to refer suitable applicants for employment. However, the Union does recognize the Employer's right to hire from wherever he chooses.
- 3.05 Copies of the Agreement shall be provided by the Company and each employee shall be furnished with a copy. The Union shall be furnished sufficient copies to meet its needs.

ARTICLE 4 - MANAGEMENT

- 4.01 The Union agrees that the Company has the right:
- (a) Generally, to manage the enterprise, locate, extend, curtail, or cease operations and to determine the numbers and classifications of employees required for any and all operations, the kinds and locations of machines and the tools to be used and the schedules of production;
 - (b) To make and alter, from time to time, rules and regulations to be observed by the employees on the job and on Company property; to hire, classify, transfer, promote and to discharge, demote, lay-off, suspend or discipline employees for proper cause provided, however, that if any employee believes that he has been discharged, demoted, laid-off, suspended, or disciplined without proper cause or that any other exercise of the foregoing rights in conflict with any provisions of this Agreement, he may have the matter dealt with under the Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION ACTIVITIES OF EMPLOYEES AND LEAVE OF ABSENCE

5.01 The Company may, on written request from the Union, grant a one (1) year's leave-of-absence during his term of office to not more than one (1) employee who is employed as an Officer of the Union. Such leave may be renewed by the Company at the request of the Union.

No employee who acts within the scope of the above paragraph shall lose his job or be discriminated against for so acting.

5.02 The Company may grant leave-of-absence which must be written and signed by an authorized Company official.

5.03 When hereafter an employee is absent on leave-of-absence or otherwise for a period in excess of thirty (30) days, except in case of disabling accident or sickness, such excess period shall not be counted and shall be excluded in computing seniority.

5.04 An employee on a leave-of-absence which extends beyond thirty (30) days will be required to pay the full cost, employee and Company shares, of the benefits outlined in Article 24 - Health and Welfare, subsections (a), (c) and (d).

5.05 An employee on leave-of-absence which extends beyond thirty (30) days will not be covered by Non-occupational sickness and Accident Weekly Indemnity Insurance as outlined in Article 24 - Health and Welfare, subsection (b).

5.06 In the event of the death of a spouse, mother, father, children, sister, brother, mother and father-in-law, sisters and brothers-in-law, grandparents, and step-parents, the employee shall be allowed time off work with pay for the purpose of arranging for or attending the funeral, as follows. The time to be paid for will be a maximum of three (3) consecutive working days from the day of death through the day after the funeral, inclusive.

For the purpose of this Agreement the definition of spouse will include a man or woman not married to each other who lived together as husband and wife for a period of not less than two (2) years.

Payment will be made on the basis of the employee's hourly wage rate for the employee's regularly scheduled shift of 8 hours per day, exclusive of overtime and other forms of premium pay, for up to three days absence. Payment will only apply to a day on which the employee would otherwise have worked a regular shift. No extra pay allowance will be granted for multiple or simultaneous deaths occurring within any three day period.

5.07 If, because of the distance involved, the employee does not attend the funeral of a member of his immediate family, as defined in 5.06 above, then one day's paid absence from work will be granted on the day of the funeral.

- 5.08 The Company will pay an employee who serves as a juror, or is subpoenaed as a witness by the Crown, the difference between eight (8) hours times such employee's basic hourly rate of pay and the amount of jury or witness pay received for each day he served as a juror or witness and that he would otherwise have normally worked.

ARTICLE 6 - SHOP STEWARD

- 6.01 The Union shall from time to time notify the Company in writing of the names of employees who are serving as Stewards and they shall be recognized as such by the Company only on receipt of such notice. There shall not be more than three (3) Stewards and an employee, to be a Steward, must have completed a minimum of six (6) months service with the Company.
- 6.02 The Union acknowledges that Stewards, like other employees, have regular duties to perform on behalf of the Company, and any of these shall report to his foreman and request permission to leave his working place to investigate or attempt to settle a grievance or to attend a meeting with representatives of the Company, as provided in the Agreement during working hours. Such permission will not be unduly denied.
- 6.03 The Company will advise the Union within twenty-four (24) hours of the lay-off or discharge of a Steward.

ARTICLE 7 - WORK CLOTHES

- 7.01 Work gloves, coveralls and aprons will be provided where needed and other necessary protective devices, except safety shoes, will be provided by the Company at no cost to the employees. Upon completion of thirty (30) days service with the Company, an allowance of up to one hundred and thirty-five dollars ($135.00) per year towards the cost of CSA approved safety shoes will be paid.
- 7.02 The Company agrees to provide one (1) jacket type smock per week per man in the Warehouse and Quality Control Departments. Hopper Attendants to be supplied with three (3) pair of coveralls per week per man.

ARTICLE 8 - UNION NOTICES

- 8.01 The Company shall provide one (1) bulletin board for Union notices in the lunch room.
- The following items will be posted on the notice board:
1. A copy of this Agreement.
 2. A valid seniority list to be revised every six (6) months and a copy of this seniority list to be forwarded to the Union with employees' basic wage rate included on list.
 3. Copies of the Employer's welfare plan with details as to when employees are eligible.
- 8.02 Notices which the Union wishes to have posted on the bulletin board shall be submitted to the Company for posting.

ARTICLE 9 - CONFLICTING AGREEMENT

- 9.01 The Company agrees not to enter into any agreement or a contract with employees covered by this Agreement, individually or collectively, which in any way conflicts with the terms and provisions of this Agreement or any Statute of the Province of British Columbia or Canada. Any such agreement will be null and void.
- 9.02 Management agrees that before effecting any wage rate, other than those set out in this Agreement, it shall first discuss same with the Union Agent.

ARTICLE 10 - NO CESSATION OF WORK

- 10.01 The Company shall not cause or direct any lockout of employees during the life of this Agreement, and neither the Union nor any representative of the Union, nor any employee shall in any way authorize, encourage or participate in any strike, walk-out, suspension, or slow-down of work.

ARTICLE 11 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 11.01 It is agreed that an employee, assisted by a Steward if he so desires, will endeavour to settle any complaint or dispute with his Supervisor before proceeding with the Grievance Procedure.
- 11.02 It is agreed that the settlement of any grievance shall not conflict with the provisions of this Agreement. Such settlement shall be binding on the Company, the Union and the employee(s) concerned, but it shall not be construed as a precedent in respect to any other grievance.
- 11.03 Should any difference as to the meaning or alleged violation of the provision of this Agreement arise between the Company and any employee, then the Grievance Procedure as set forth in this Agreement is to be followed.
- 11.04 When two (2) or more employees have a similar grievance respecting the meaning or alleged violation of this Agreement this shall be a group grievance and shall be presented to the Supervisor or Supervisors concerned by not more than two (2) of the group.

STAGE ONE

- 11.05 The employee, assisted if he so desires by a Steward, states his grievance in writing to his Supervisor within seven (7) days of the time said grievance originated. If within forty-eight (48) hours from the time when such representations were made to the Supervisor, a decision satisfactory to the employee is not given, then the matter shall be put in writing on a Grievance Form and submitted at Stage Two.

STAGE TWO

- 11.06 A Steward may, by notice in writing, to be given within five (5) days after the decision was given or should have been given in Stage One, request a meeting to discuss such grievance. The Management Representative shall notify the Steward of the time and place at which such meeting will take place. Such meeting shall be held not later than seven (7) days after such request has been received by the Management Representative. The Management Representative will give a decision in writing within seven (7) days after the meeting has been held. The Management Representative will not be called upon to meet more than two (2) Stewards at any one time. If the Company or the Union so requests employee(s) involved shall be present.
- 11.07 Other officials or representatives of the Company may be present when the grievance is being dealt with at any Stage if the Company so desires. A representative of the Teamsters' Union Local 213 may be present at any stage. If the grievance is not satisfactorily disposed of the matter may then be referred to arbitration as hereinafter provided.
- 11.08 In the event that the designated member of Management is not available for any reason to deal with a grievance, it shall be dealt with by another official of the Company who shall be designated and vested with equal authority by the Company for this purpose.
- 11.09 Saturdays, Sundays and paid General Holidays shall not be counted in determining the time within which any action is to be taken in each of the two stages of the Grievance Procedure or under the Articles dealing with Arbitration and Discharge Cases.
- 11.10 Any and all time limits fixed by this Article and the Articles dealing with Arbitration and Discharge Cases for the taking of action by either party or by an employee may at any time be extended by mutual agreement between the Company and the Union.
- 11.11 The time limits fixed in this Article and the Articles dealing with Arbitration and Discharge Cases shall be observed or the matter shall be deemed to have been settled or abandoned, except as set out in section 11.10 above.
- 11.12 If there is any grievance directly between the Union and the Company respecting the interpretation or alleged violation of this Agreement, one party may, instead of following the Grievance Procedure set forth in the Agreement, submit such grievance in writing to the other party. Within seven (7) days, there shall be an opportunity of verbal discussion between the Union's Grievance Committee and representatives selected by the Company for that purpose. Failing settlement of said grievance, the written answer of the party who received said grievance must be given within seven (7) days of the said meeting.

ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- 11.13 Should there be any grievance concerning the meaning or alleged violation of this Agreement which has not been satisfactorily settled under the foregoing Grievance Procedure the matter may then be referred to arbitration as hereinafter provided. Notice of reference to arbitration shall be given in writing by one party to the other within fourteen (14) days after the decision of the Management Representative at Stage Two (Article 11.06) has been or should have been given or the decision provided for in Article 11.12 has been or should have been given.

- 11.14 In any case in which a Board of Arbitration shall be required under this Agreement, the Union and the Company shall each appoint one arbitrator and the two arbitrators so appointed shall appoint a third who shall act as Chairman. Each party shall notify the other in writing of the name of its arbitrator within five (5) days from the date of receipt of notice of arbitration. Should the parties mutually agree, a single arbitrator may be used in place of the panel of three.
- 11.15 In the event of the failure of the two arbitrators to agree upon a Chairman, he shall be appointed by the Minister of Labour of the Province of British Columbia. The said Arbitration Board shall forthwith sit, hear witnesses and arguments of the parties and make its award, if possible, within fifteen (15) days from the day the Chairman is named, or within such longer period as the parties may agree to. The decision of the majority of the Board shall be final and binding on all parties.
- 11.16 Arbitrations shall be heard at such place as the parties shall mutually agree upon in writing.
- 11.17 In any arbitration, the written submissions of the Union made at Stage One (Article 11.05) or Stage Two (Article 11.06) and the decision of the Company at Stage Two (Article 11.06) or under Article 11.12 shall be presented to the arbitrators and the award of the arbitrators shall be confined to determining the issues therein set out.
- 11.18 Each party shall pay the expenses of its arbitrator and the costs of preparation. The expenses of the third arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Union and the Company.
- 11.19 The Arbitration Board shall not have any power nor is it authorized to alter, modify, add to, or amend any part of this Collective Agreement.
- 11.20 The provisions of Section 96 of the Industrial Relations Act of British Columbia is hereby excluded, except by mutual consent of the parties.

SUSPENSION AND DISCHARGE CASES

- 11.21 If an employee is suspended or discharged from his employment after the date hereof and believes that his suspension or discharge is without just and sufficient cause, he may have the matter dealt with under the Grievance Procedure. Any such matter may be presented at Stage Two of the Grievance Procedure and within five (5) days after written notice of such suspension or discharge has been given.
- 11.22 If it should be finally decided that the suspension or discharge was without just and sufficient cause following the provisions of this Agreement such employee shall be reinstated and shall receive full compensation for time lost after such suspension or discharge, calculated at his basic hourly rate of pay and on the basis of his regular work week and work days, less the amount the employee has earned in outside employment since his suspension or discharge.

- 11.23 Upon such reinstatement, there shall be deemed to have been no break in the employee's continuous service by reason of such discharge.
- 11.24 An employee will be given a copy of any warning notice or memorandum pertaining to corrective or disciplinary measures which is placed in his file. A warning notice or memorandum as above which has been in an employee's personal file for fifteen (15) months will not be used against him in the administration of discipline, provided he has had a discipline-free record within that fifteen (15) month period. All files will be cleared of any memorandum prior to November 30, 1979, subject to each employee having a fifteen (15) month free period.

ARTICLE 12 - JOB POSTING AND PROMOTION

- 12.01 In the event of a job vacancy, or a new job is created, the Company shall post a notice on the bulletin board indicating same within seventy-two (72) hours of occurrence and giving details of the job, rate of pay, etc. Employees desiring job shall then apply in writing within forty-eight (48) hours of such posting, excluding weekends, except that employees on vacation or on leave of absence due to sickness, accident or other reason at such time shall have the privilege of applying within forty-eight (48) hours of return or thirty (30) days of such posting, whichever expires first.
- 12.02 In making a promotion (except to a position the occupant of which is not classified as an employee) the Company shall consider the following two (2) factors in determining which employee shall be promoted:
- (a) the seniority of each employee concerned, and
 - (b) the requirements and the efficiency of operations and the ability, knowledge, training, skill and physical condition to do the work of each employee concerned.
- 12.03 When factor (b) above is to all intents and purposes equal as between two (2) or more employees, then, except as hereinafter provided, the employee having the greater or greatest seniority will receive the promotion.
- 12.04 The Company will post the names of the successful candidate(s) within ten (10) working days of the posting.
- 12.05 Any employee who is promoted shall be allowed a reasonable period of trial of up to ninety (90) days. The length of this period to be determined by the Company. If found unsatisfactory shall be given the opportunity of going back to his former position without loss of seniority.

ARTICLE 13 - TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

- 13.01 If the Company proposes the introduction of equipment in its operations requiring specialized training, the Company agrees to give first opportunity to employees then on the payroll through the Job Posting procedures of this Agreement to operate this equipment and/or train to operate the equipment, provided the applicant qualifies according to Article 12, Subsection .02.

- 13.02 The Company agrees where possible to notify the Union no less than three (3) months in advance of the introduction of any new equipment.
- 13.03 The Company agrees to assist the Union and Canada Manpower in order to arrange for training of employees whose jobs no longer exist as a result of automation, but whose seniority entitles them to continued employment. Such employees shall have the choice of taking the training provided or of accepting a layoff.
- 13.04 If, as a result of a technological change, an employee with five (5) or more years of service loses his employment with the Company and provided he is eligible for benefits under this program, he will be entitled, at the time of termination, to severance pay. The amount of this pay will be five dollars ($5.00) for each complete month of service with the Company since the date of his last hiring.

ARTICLE 14 - ANNUAL VACATIONS

15.04 Subject to the qualification provisions of .03, a part time employee who is not required to work on a general holiday shall be paid the amount of his average daily earnings for the preceding week worked.

ARTICLE 16 - SENIORITY

- 16.01 The "seniority" of an individual employed by the Company means the length of his continuous service at the Company's Langley Plant since the date of his last hiring by the Company, except as expressly provided for herein.
- 16.02 Seniority of an employee shall be completely lost if he:
- (a) quits, or
 - (b) is discharged for proper cause, or
 - (c) is absent from work for more than five (5) consecutive working days without furnishing an explanation satisfactory to the Company for such absence, or
 - (d) after a lay-off, fails to report for work for five (5) working days after being recalled by telephone and/or registered letter, or
 - (e) is laid off by the Company for a period of more than:
 - (i) four (4) months where the employee has less than one (1) year seniority,
 - (ii) one (1) year where the employee has one (1) or more years of seniority,
 - (iii) two (2) years where the employee has two (2) or more years of seniority.
- 16.03 If an employee loses his seniority under (c) or (d) above, but is nevertheless permitted to resume work at the Company's Langley Plant, he shall be considered last hired on the date he so resumes work.
- 16.04 The Company shall prepare and post semi-annually on the bulletin board a list showing the date of last entry into the Company's service for each employee at the Company's Langley Plant showing any periods of time to be deducted because of unauthorized absence. An employee may make a complaint as to the correctness of the list as it concerns him during a period of two (2) weeks following the posting of such list on which his name first appears. The Company will send to the Union every six (6) months a copy of the above mentioned list.

ARTICLE 17 - LAY OFF AND RE-HIRE

- 17.01 In any case of reduction in force, the Company shall consider the following two (2) factors in determining which employee or employees shall be laid off:
- (a) the seniority of each employee concerned, and
 - (b) the requirements and the efficiency of operations and the ability, knowledge, training, skill, and physical condition to do the work of each employee concerned.
- 17.02 When factor (b) is to all intents and purposes equal as between two (2) or more employees, then the employee having the lesser or least seniority will be the first laid off.
- 17.03 An individual on lay-off shall be required to inform the Company every sixty (60) days following such lay-off of his availability for work and keep the Company informed of any change of address that may occur during such lay-off.

Overtime rates shall not apply to this work week differential premium.
- 19.04 Eight (8) hours work at his proper working place will constitute a work day for each employee. Each employee not working on continuous operations will be allowed one-half (½) hour for lunch, on his own time, to commence no earlier than three and one-half (3½) hours after shift start up and end no later than three (3) hours before shift ends. An employee working on continuous operations will be allowed one-half (½) hour for lunch on Company time. The Company may, however, assign such an employee to whatever work is available during these four (4) hours. - 19.12 Overtime will not be paid more than once for the same hours worked.

- 19.13 An employee required to work more than two (2) hours overtime shall, at his own request, be given one-half (½) hour time off without pay to eat his meal. LETTER OF INTENT

BETWEEN: CANPLAS INDUSTRIES LTD.

AND: TEAMSTERS LOCAL UNION No. 213

1. Heritage Day

Should at any time during the period of this contract either the Government of Canada or B.C. declare Heritage Day as an official holiday, it is the intent of the Company to recognize this as an additional holiday on the said date referred to by the government.

2. Shop Steward Training

One Shop Steward shall be allowed time off work, with pay, for one (1) day in each calendar year for the purpose of attending a labour relations seminar conducted by the Union or approved by the Union, subject to the following conditions:

- a) that the Union give at least one month's written notice to the Company designating the Shop Steward who will attend such labour relations seminar;
- b) a day with pay above to be interpreted as: eight (8) hours at the employee's basic rate of pay for his classification.

3. Weekly Indemnity Insurance

It is understood and agreed that the weekly indemnity benefit level of 66 2/3% means 66 2/3% the amount arrived at by multiplying an employee's basic hourly rate by 40 hours to a maximum benefit equal to the weekly claim allowed under E.I. The amount of weekly indemnity established will therefore vary upwards or downwards as the employee's basic hourly rate changes.

In no case, however, will the level of weekly indemnity benefit for the balance of 1981 be less than what is payable under the Unemployment Insurance Commission and premium deductions will be at least those required to provide this level of benefit. Further, effective January 1, 1997, 1998 and 1999, the maximum level of benefit will be adjusted in relation to the increased level of benefit payable under the Employment Insurance System and premium deductions will be set accordingly.

A disabled employee receiving weekly indemnity benefits on January 1, 1997, 1998 and 1999, will not be eligible for increased benefits due to adjustments in the E.I. benefit level of payment, until that period of disability has terminated.

In order to offset the cost of implementing and improving benefits the Union and the Company agree that the full amount of any rebate to the Company from Employment Insurance under 64 (4) of the Unemployment Commission Act of 1971 will become the Company's to use for those purposes.

4. Voluntary Night Shift

The present structure of the night shift (11:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m.) being a voluntary shift will remain as such for as long as the Company can acquire volunteers. It is agreed that the present manpower on this shift would have to give four weeks notice of their intent to transfer or move to another shift subject to a vacancy. If at any time the Company can not staff the night shift with volunteers, all the shifts will revert to the three shift system, as noted in the Union contract.
