BETWEEN:

IMPERIAL PLACE RESIDENCE INC. (Herein after called "the Employer")

AND:

HOSPITAL EMPLOYEES' UNION, representing the employees of the Employer who are affected by this Agreement and for whom it has been certified as the sole bargaining agency.
(Herein after called "the Union".)

ARTICLE 1 - PREAMBLE1.01 Preamble

WHEREAS the right of the residents to uninterrupted, skilful and efficient care cannot be questioned, and it is obligatory upon the Employer and its employees that efficient operation of the Employer's business be maintained, and to effect this, it is important that harmonious relations be continued between the Employer and its employees;

AND WHEREAS the Union is a trade union formed by and including certain employees of the Employer;

AND WHEREAS the parties hereto, with the desire and intention of making their relationship more harmonious and profitable, have concluded to make provision herein for all collective bargaining matters and matters of mutual interest, including wages, hours, working conditions and the adjustment of grievances, with respect to the employees of the Employer for whom the Union has been certified as bargaining agent;

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH that the parties hereto in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter contained, agree each with the other as follows:

1.02 No Discrimination

- a) The Employer and the Union subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.
- b) The Union and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from harassment, including sexual harassment, and the Employer shall take such actions as are necessary with respect to any person employed by the Employer engaging in sexual or other harassment in the workplace.

- i) Sexual harassment is defined as any comment or conduct of a sexual nature that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome and shall include, but is not limited to:

Sexual solicitation or advances; inappropriate touching or sexual comments; or Any threat of reprisal which might reasonably be perceived as placing a condition on employment by a person in authority.

- ii) Other harassment is defined as: verbal threats and/or verbal abuse; derogatory comments that ought reasonably to be known to be offensive, physical threats and/or physical abuse; psychological abuse; intimidation; and gender or ethnic based jokes, insults or taunting

- iii) Nothing in the above definitions or any application thereof is intended to reduce, restrict or fetter the Employer's right and ability to manage and/or discipline its employees.

- c) The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.

1.03 Complaints Investigation

An employee, who complains of harassment under the provisions of this article or the Human Rights Code of British Columbia, may refer the complaint to either one of the following processes:

- a) where the complaint pertains to the conduct of an employee within the HEU bargaining unit it shall be referred to G. Brodsky, H. Jensen, J. Henderson (Complaints Investigator); or
- b) where the complaint pertains to the conduct of a person not in the HEU bargaining unit it shall be referred to S. Moore, P. Janzen (Complaints Investigator).

When a complaint is received under either (a) or (b) above, the appropriate Complaint Investigator shall:

- i) investigate the complaint;

- ii) determine the nature of the complaint; and
 - iii) make written recommendations to resolve the complaint.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION OF THE UNION

2.01 Sole Bargaining Agency

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agency on behalf of the employees for whom the Union has been certified as bargaining agent with respect to wages, hours of work, terms and conditions of employment during the life of this Agreement.

In furtherance of the above, the Employer shall provide, an on-site, accessible, file cabinet with keys for the sole use of the Union.

2.02 Union Shop

All employees who are covered by the Union's Certificate of Bargaining Authority shall maintain membership in the Union as a condition of employment. Employees who are brought within the jurisdiction of the Union's Certificate of Bargaining Authority, including newly hired employees, shall become members of the Union by the first day of the third bi-weekly pay period after their initial date of employment in the bargaining unit. Upon receipt by the Employer of written advice from the Union, employees who fail to maintain membership in the Union or the check-off of Union Dues, or an amount equal to Union Dues, shall be terminated by the Employer from their employment.

Where the Employer has knowledge of an employee failing to maintain Union membership, or the check-off of Union Dues, the Employer shall so advise the Union and, in turn, the Union shall advise the employee in writing. When the Employer is advised by the Union of non-compliance of either of the above, the Employer shall terminate the services of the employee within thirty (30) days of written advice as noted above.

In the event an employee is terminated pursuant to this section, the following contract provisions shall not be applicable to the employee:

Article 7.04 - Grievance Procedure

Article 7.05 - Dismissal/Suspension for Alleged Cause

2.03 Union Check-Off

The Employer agrees to the monthly check-off of all Union Dues, Assessments, Initiation Fees, and written assignments of amounts equal to Union Dues.

The check-off monies deducted in accordance with the above paragraph shall be remitted to the Union by the Employer in a period not to exceed twenty-one (21) days after the date of deduction.

The Employer shall provide the Union's Provincial Office with a list of all employees hired, and all employees who have left the employ of the Employer (who shall be designated as terminated and shall include discharges, resignations, retirements and deaths) in the previous month along with a list of all employees in the bargaining unit and their employee status and the amount of dues or equivalent monies currently being deducted for each employee.

The Employer agrees to sign into the Union all new employees whose jobs are covered by the Certificate of Bargaining Authority in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.02.

The Employer shall supply each employee, without charge, a receipt in a form acceptable to Revenue Canada for income tax purposes which receipt shall record the amount of all deductions paid to the Union by employees during a taxation year. The receipts shall be mailed or delivered to employees prior to March 1st of the year following each taxation year.

Twice every calendar year the Employer shall provide to either the Secretary-Treasurer of the Local or the Secretary-Business Manager of the Union, a list of all employees in the bargaining unit, their job titles, and addresses and their telephone numbers known to the Employer. Implementation shall be six months following the signing of the Collective Agreement.

2.04 Induction

The Employer shall provide a copy of this agreement to newly hired employees within the first thirty (30) days of employment and shall introduce newly hired employees to a Union Shop Steward in the workplace. The Shop Steward will be given an opportunity, not to exceed fifteen (15) minutes, to talk to the new employee. The new employee and the Shop Steward will not have wages or benefits deducted during this time.

2.05 Shop Stewards

The Employer agrees to the operation of a Shop Steward system which shall be governed by the following:

- a) Shop Stewards may be appointed by the Union on the basis of two (2)

Shop Stewards plus alternates.

- b) The Employer is to be kept advised of all Shop Steward appointments.
- c) One (1) Shop Steward, shall be appointed by the Union as Chief Shop Steward who may present or assist in the presentation of any grievance.
- d) Union business may be transacted on the Employer's property and/or during business hours with the prior approval of the Employer. Approval shall not be unreasonably denied. When the absence of a Shop Steward would unduly disrupt the operation of the Employer's business, such Shop Steward may be refused leave of absence to transact Union business, in which case the Employer shall arrange as soon as possible an alternative work time for the Shop Steward to conduct the Union business.

ARTICLE 3 - DEFINITIONS

Common-Law Spouse

Two people of opposite sex who have cohabited as spousal partners for a period of not less than two (2) years.

The Company shall amend the above definition of "common-law spouse" to that which is required by Provincial law, upon proof being provided by the Union.

Gender Neutral and Singular/Plural

This agreement is intended to be gender neutral and is to be interpreted on that basis where the context permits. Whenever the singular or plural is used in this agreement, it shall be construed as meaning the singular or plural where the context permits.

ARTICLE 4 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 4.01 The management of the Employer's business, and the direction of the working forces including, but not limited to, the hiring, firing, promotion and demotion of employees, is vested exclusively in the Employer, except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Union agrees that all employees shall be governed by all rules of general application as adopted by the Employer and published to employees on bulletin or notice boards, or by general distribution, provided such rules are not in conflict with this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - STRIKES, LOCKOUTS , LEGAL PICKET LINES

5.01 No Strikes or Lockouts

During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no strike action by any bargaining unit employee, the Union or any person acting on behalf of the Union, whether or not such strike action has been authorized by the Union; nor shall the Employer lock-out bargaining unit employees.

5.02 Legal Picket Line

Refusal to cross or to work behind a picket line that is legally established pursuant to the Labour Relations Code of B.C. shall not constitute cause for discipline or dismissal. An employee who refuses to cross or work behind a picket line pursuant to this article shall be considered to be absent without pay.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

6.01 Union/Management Meetings

The parties, shall, as occasion warrants, meet for the purpose of discussing and attempting to resolve any grievance or dispute arising between them. Each side may have up to three (3) representatives at meetings under this article. For the Union, this shall be two (2) persons who are employees of the Employer, and the Secretary-Business Manager, or his/her representative.

The party requesting Union/Management meeting shall inform the other party of the matters it wishes to discuss, at the time of making such request. The parties shall develop an agenda prior to the meeting.

6.02 Attendance at Committee meetings held during an employee's scheduled working hours shall be considered as time worked and shall be paid at straight-time rates. Time spent by employees attending Committee meetings during other times shall not be considered as time worked.

ARTICLE 7 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

7.01 Union Representation

Shop Stewards shall be permitted to represent an employee's interests, without loss of pay, when such meetings are scheduled during the Shop Steward's hours of work, subject to article 2.05.

7.02 Grievance Investigations

Where an employee has asked or is obliged to be represented by the Union in relation to the presentation of a grievance and a Shop Steward wishes to discuss the grievance with that employee, the employee and the Shop Steward shall be given reasonable time off without loss of pay for this purpose when the discussion takes place during their hours of work, subject to article 2.05.

No meeting shall take place between the Employer and an employee, where disciplinary action is to be taken or where the Employer is investigating whether disciplinary action should be taken, without the Employer specifically advising the employee that he/she has the right to representation by a Shop Steward. Where the Employer fails to so advise the employee, any disciplinary action taken with respect to such meeting shall be rendered null and void.

No meeting shall take place under this article without reasonable advance notice being given to the member.

7.03 Right to Grieve Disciplinary Action

- a) Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand, and adverse reports or performance evaluation. An employee shall be given a copy of any such document placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in his/her file, he/she shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of his/her personnel record. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing or within a reasonable period thereafter.
- b) Employees may request the removal of any disciplinary document, other than official evaluation reports, from their personnel files, after eighteen (18) months have expired from the date such document was placed therein. The Employer shall not unreasonably deny requests under this section, provided there have been no other disciplinary documents of a similar nature placed in the employee's file during such period.

7.04 Grievance Procedure

Grievances

A grievance is defined as any difference between the parties arising out of the interpretation and/or the application of this agreement, including but not limited to; any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or; any difference concerning the dismissal, discipline, suspension, or adverse performance appraisal or report. A general grievance is defined as one which affects the collective interests of the bargaining unit, rather than the interests of a particular grievor.

Grievances of a general nature may be initiated in step two of this grievance procedure.

Either party to this agreement may lodge a grievance with the other party.

STEP ONE:

The employee, with or without a Shop Steward or Union Committee member (at the employee's option), shall first discuss the grievance with the facility manager designated by the Employer for that purpose within seven (7) calendar days of the occurrence of the grievance. If the grievance is not settled at this step, then:

STEP TWO:

The grievance shall be reduced to writing, signed by the employee (grievor) and a Shop Steward and shall be presented to the designated facility manager by a Shop Steward, who shall discuss the grievance. The Regional Manager, or designate and the grievor may be present during this discussion.

Within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the written grievance, at this step, the Employer shall give his/her written reply. If the grievance is not settled at this step, then:

STEP THREE:

The Union/Management Committee shall meet within twenty-one (21) calendar days or other mutually agreed to time to discuss the grievance. At this step of the grievance procedure, each party shall provide to the other a statement of facts and copies of all relevant documents. The findings or decisions of the Employer shall be presented to the Union in writing within seven (7) calendar days of the meeting. If the grievance is not settled at this step, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration under Article 8 within thirty (30) calendar days.

The Employer agrees that their representatives at the Step 3 meeting have the authority to resolve the grievance.

When the Employer has a grievance, it shall forward it to the Union, in writing, within seven (7) calendar days of the occurrence of the grievance. The Union shall make itself available to meet with the Employer to discuss the grievance within twenty-one (21) calendar days, following its receipt of same, if the grievance is not settled within seven (7) calendar days following this discussion, either party may submit the matter to arbitration for final resolution under Article 8.01(a).

7.05 Dismissal/Suspension for Alleged Cause

Employees dismissed or suspended for alleged cause shall have the right within seven (7) calendar days after the date of dismissal or suspension to initiate a grievance at Step Three of the grievance procedure.

Employees shall not be dismissed or suspended except for just and reasonable cause.

7.06 Reinstatement of Employees

If, prior to the constitution of an Arbitration Board pursuant to Article 8, it is found that an employee was laid off in violation of this Agreement, or disciplined, or dismissed without just and reasonable cause, that employee shall be reinstated by the Employer without loss of pay with all of his/her rights, benefits and privileges which he/she would have enjoyed if the lay-off, discipline or discharge had not taken place.

7.07 Time Limits

The time limits prescribed in the grievance and arbitration procedures may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Requests for time limit extensions shall not be unreasonably denied by either party.

7.08 Grievance Troubleshooter

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of the Collective Agreement, H.A. Hope, Q.C.; Chris Sullivan, H. Laing; V.L. Ready; R. Germaine C. Bruce, S. Moore; Bob Blasina, or a substitute agreed to by the parties shall at the request of either party:

- (a) investigate the difference
- (b) define the issue in the difference, and
- (c) make written recommendations to resolve the difference

within five (5) days of the date of receipt of the request, and for those five (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.

In the event the parties are unable to agree on an Industry Troubleshooter within a period of thirty (30) days from the date this Collective Agreement is awarded, either party may apply to the Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia to appoint such person.

This article is intended to be non-prejudicial and the parties agree not to rely upon any matter arising out of an application of this article in other interpretations of the agreement or at any subsequent hearing or proceeding under the agreement or under the Labour Relations Code of B.C., without the mutual consent of both parties.

Each party shall pay its own expenses and costs and one-half (1/2) of the compensation and expenses of the Troubleshooter.

ARTICLE 8 - ARBITRATION

8.01 (a) Composition of Board

Should the parties fail to settle any difference, grievance, or dispute whatsoever, arising between the Employer and the Union, or the employees concerned, such difference, grievance or dispute, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, but excluding renegotiation of the Agreement shall, at the instance of either party, be referred to the arbitration, determination and award of an Arbitration Board of one (1) member. Such Board shall be deemed to be a Board of Arbitration within the meaning of the Labour Code of British Columbia.

Emily Burke
Karen Nordinger
Joan Gordon
Chris Sullivan

Wayne Moore
Rod Germaine
Ron Keras

The parties, by mutual agreement, may amend the list of arbitrators at any time.

It is understood that the arbitrator shall be appointed on a rotating basis commencing with the first arbitrator named above.

The decision of the said arbitrator made in writing in regard to any differences, shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and the employees concerned.

8.01 (b) Dismissal/Suspension

If the dismissal or suspension of an employee for alleged cause is not settled at Step Three of the grievance procedure, such grievance shall be referred to the arbitration, determination and award of an Arbitration Board of one (1) member. The list of arbitrators and selection process shall be as set out in Article 8.01(a).

Should the parties fail to agree on an arbitrator within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date the matter was first referred to arbitration, either party may request the Minister of Labour of the Province of B.C. to make such appointment.

The parties agree to make every effort to have the matter heard by an arbitrator within two (2) months of the referral to arbitration

The arbitrator shall schedule a hearing within seven (7) calendar days of his/her appointment.

The arbitrator shall hear and determine the dispute and issue a verbal or a written decision within seven (7) calendar days of the conclusion of the hearing.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties. Upon receipt of the decision, either party may request written reasons for the decision.

The parties agree that the time limits for appeal under the Labour

Code of B.C. shall commence with the issuance of written reasons for the decision.

The arbitrator shall have the same powers and authority as an Arbitration Board established under the provisions of Article 8 excepting Article 8.03

8.02 Employee Called as a Witness

The Employer shall grant leave without loss of pay to employees required to give evidence at an arbitration under this article, provided the employee involved is normally scheduled to work during the period in question. Where possible he/she will be required to complete the balance of his/her regular shift on that day provided the Employer so requires and doing so does not exceed eight (8) hours.

8.03 Arbitration Board Hearings

The Employer shall grant unpaid leave to a reasonable number of employees representing the Union before an Arbitration Board. When the absence of any employee under this section would disrupt the operation of the Employer's business, such leave of absence may be refused.

8.04 Expenses of Arbitration Board

Each party shall bear the expenses of the arbitrator appointed by such party, and shall pay half of the expenses of the Chairperson and of the stenographic and other expenses of the Board, unless paid by the Labour Relations Board of the Province of British Columbia.

8.05 Reinstatement of Employees

If the Arbitration Board finds that an employee has been laid off in violation of this agreement or unjustly suspended or discharged, that employee shall be reinstated by the Employer and the Board may order that his/her reinstatement be without loss of pay, and with all his/her rights, benefits and privileges which he/she would have enjoyed if the lay-off, suspension or discharge had not taken place.

Provided, however, if it is shown to the Board that the employee has been in receipt of wages during the period between lay-off, suspension or discharge and reinstatement, the amount so received shall be deducted from wages which may be payable by the Employer pursuant to this clause, less any expenses which the employee has incurred in order to earn the wages so deducted.

ARTICLE 9 - DEFINITION OF EMPLOYEE STATUS

9.01 Regular Full-Time Employee

A regular full-time employee is one who works full-time on a regularly scheduled basis. Regular full-time employees accumulate seniority on an hourly basis as defined in Article 18.02 and are entitled to all benefits of this Agreement.

9.02 Regular Part-Time Employee

A regular part-time employee is one who works less than full-time on a regularly scheduled basis. Regular part-time employees accumulate seniority on an hourly basis and are entitled to the benefits of this Agreement where the context reasonably permits, such benefits to be pro-rated on the basis of the percentage of full-time hours each such employee actually works, where applicable.

9.03 Student Employee

A student employee is one who is hired on a limited basis to serve evening meals Monday through Friday, to clear tables after such meals, to reset tables, and to clean up the dining room after such meals. During their summer vacation, student employees may be assigned additional sundry duties to ensure that they are productively employed during their guaranteed work period. In order to be employed, student employees must either be attending secondary school or equivalent, or be on summer vacation and returning to secondary school at the start of the next school year. Student employees shall normally work a maximum of twenty (20) hours per week on a regular or irregular basis.

Student employees do not earn nor exercise seniority, except in accordance with Article 12.05. They shall be eligible for only those benefits of this Agreement where such eligibility is explicitly stated or the context reasonably permits.

9.04 Temporary Employee

A temporary employee is one who is hired for a specific project or undertaking, who works up to full-time hours on a regular or irregular basis. The duration of any temporary assignment shall not exceed six (6) calendar months without the Union's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably denied.

Temporary employees do not earn nor exercise seniority, except in accordance with Article 12.05. They shall be eligible for only those benefits of this Agreement where such eligibility is explicitly stated or the context reasonably permits.

9.05 Regular Work force

The terms regular work force and regular employees as used in this Agreement refer to the complement of regular full-time and regular part-time employees who may be employed at any point in time.

9.06 Restriction of Employee Status

The status of all employees covered by this Agreement shall be defined under one of the preceding three definitions. If a dispute arises over the proper allocation of employee status, such dispute shall be resolved through the Grievance Procedure (Article 7).

ARTICLE 10 - PROBATIONARY PERIOD

10.01 For the first three (3) calendar months of continuous service with the Employer, any employee (except student employees) shall be a probationary employee. Student employees shall serve a probationary period consisting of one hundred and sixty (160) hours actually worked or the first three (3) continuous calendar months, whichever occurs latest. By written mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, the probationary period may be extended by one (1) calendar month provided written reasons are given for requesting such extension. During the probationary period, an employee may be terminated if he/she is found to be unsuitable for continued employment on the basis of bona fide work related reasons.

10.02 Upon completion of the probationary period, the initial date of employment shall be the anniversary date of the employee for the purpose of determining perquisites and seniority.

ARTICLE 11 - EVALUATION REPORTS, PERSONNEL FILES

11.01 Evaluation Reports

Where a formal evaluation of an employee's performance is carried out, the employee shall be provided with a copy to read and review. Provision shall be made on the evaluation form for an employee to sign it. The form shall provide for the employee's signature in two (2) places, one indicating that the employee has read and accepts the evaluation, and the other indicating that the employee disagrees with the evaluation. The employee shall sign in one of the places provided within seven (7) calendar days of being presented with the evaluation. No employee may initiate a grievance regarding the contents of an evaluation report unless the signature indicates disagreement with the evaluation. The employee shall receive a copy of the evaluation report at the time of signing. An evaluation report shall not be changed after an employee has signed it, without the knowledge of the employee, and any such changes shall be subject to the grievance procedure.

11.02 Personnel File

An employee, or the Secretary-Business Manager of the Union, (or his/her designated representative), with the written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review the employee's personnel file, in the office in which the file is normally kept, in order to facilitate the investigation of a grievance or an employee may review his/her file for personal reference.

The employee or the Secretary-Business Manager of the Union, as the case may be, shall give the Employer seven (7) days' notice prior to examining the file.

The personnel file shall not be made public or shown to any other individual without the employee's written consent, except in the proper operation of the Employer's business and/or for the purposes of the proper application of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 12 - SENIORITY

12.01 Definition

For purposes of this Agreement, seniority is defined as the length of a regular employee's continuous service in the bargaining unit since the date of last hire, following successful completion of the probation period and including continuous service in such capacity prior to the Union's certification.

12.02 Promotion, Transfer, Demotion, Layoff

In the promotion, transfer, non disciplinary demotion or layoff of regular employees, the most senior applicant shall be awarded the position, provided he/she possesses the required qualifications, experience, skill, ability and efficiency.

12.03 Trial Period

If a regular employee is promoted, voluntarily demoted, or transferred to a different job within the bargaining unit then such employee shall be considered on trial in his/her new job for a period of three (3) months.

In no instance during the trial period shall such an employee lose seniority or perquisites. However, if a regular employee has been promoted, voluntarily demoted or transferred and during the aforementioned three (3) month period is found unsatisfactory in the new position, then the promoted, voluntarily demoted or transferred employee shall be returned to his/her former job and rate of pay before the promotion, voluntary demotion or transfer took place, without loss of seniority, and any other employee hired, promoted, voluntarily demoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of jobs, shall be returned to his/her former job and pay rate without loss of seniority and accrued perquisites as applicable.

An employee who requests to be relieved of a promotion, voluntary demotion, or transferred during the trial period in the new job shall return to the employee's former job without loss of seniority or perquisites on the same basis as outlined in paragraph (2) of this Section.

12.04 Scheduling of Regular Part-time Employees

Regular part-time employees shall be scheduled for available work in order of their seniority and availability, provided there shall be no change to the work schedules after they have been posted under article 17.

12.05 Student and temporary Employees

- a) Student employees and temporary employees shall not earn nor exercise seniority under this Agreement. However, student employees and temporary employees shall receive preference over outside applicants when they apply for vacancies posted and filled under article 14, provided they have the required qualifications, experience, skill, ability and efficiency. When a student or temporary employee is awarded a regular position under article 14, his/her seniority shall include the time actually worked as a student or temporary employee.
- b) Students shall be scheduled for available work in order of their accumulated service and availability, provided there shall be no change to the work schedules after they have been posted under article 17.

12.06 Temporary Promotion or Transfer

An employee granted a temporary promotion, transfer or demotion shall return to his/her former job and pay rate without loss of seniority and accrued perquisites when the temporary promotion, transfer or demotion terminates.

12.07 Re-employment after Voluntary Termination or Dismissal for Cause

Where an employee voluntarily leaves the Employer's service, or is dismissed for cause and is later re-engaged, seniority and all perquisites shall date only from the time of re-employment, according to regulations applying to new employees.

Upon request, the Employer agrees to make available to the Union the seniority dates of any employees covered by this Agreement. Such seniority dates shall be subject to correction for error on proper representation by the Union.

ARTICLE 13 - JOB DESCRIPTIONS

13.01 The Employer shall maintain up to date job descriptions for all classifications listed in Schedule "A".

13.02 When a new bargaining unit classification is established by the Employer, or a substantial permanent change is made to an established classification after March 23, 2001, the new/changed job descriptions shall be presented in writing to the Secretary-Business Manager, or his/her designate, and the Local Chairperson, and shall become the recognized job descriptions unless written notice of objection thereto is given by the Union within thirty (30) calendar days.

13.03 Where the Union objects, it shall provide specific details of its objections which shall be limited to whether: (a) the procedure whereby the job shall have been established has been followed; (b) the job description accurately describes the type of duties, level of responsibilities and required qualifications of the job; (c) the job is properly remunerated in relation to the existing wage schedule on the basis of internal relativity and (d) any qualifications established for the job are relevant and reasonable.

13.04 The parties shall meet to discuss the Union's objections. If the parties fail to resolve the Union's objections within fourteen (14) calendar days after such discussions were initiated, either party may refer the matter to arbitration for resolution under Article 8.

ARTICLE 14 - JOB POSTINGS AND APPLICATIONS

14.01 Job Postings and Applications

- a) When the Employer intends to permanently fill a new regular job or a regular vacancy in the bargaining unit, it shall post a notice at the facility for a minimum of seven (7) calendar days, before being filled. Information in the posting shall include the salary, a summary of the duties involved, the required qualifications, experience, skill, ability and efficiency, as applicable, and the commencement date.
- b) Temporary vacancies of sixty (60) days or longer duration shall be posted and filled under this article. Regular employees seeking to fill temporary vacancies of less than sixty (60) days duration shall make this desire known, in writing, to the Facility Managers. Temporary vacancies of less than sixty (60) days duration shall first be filled by regular employees who have previously indicated their desire to fill such vacancies, as above, provided they have the required qualifications, experience, skill, ability and efficiency and provided further that the Employer's operational requirements permit such temporary appointment to be made. If application of this section requires the payment of overtime, the temporary appointment shall not be made. At the conclusion of a temporary appointment, the regular employee shall be returned to his/her previous position.
- c) The Employer shall also consider applications from those employees, with the required seniority, qualifications, experience, skill, ability and efficiency, who are absent from their normal places of employment because of sick leave, annual vacation, Union leave, compassionate leave, or other leave, and who have filled in an application form stating the jobs they would be interested in applying for should a vacancy or new job occur during their absence.
- d) Where operational requirements make it necessary, the Employer may make temporary appointments pending the posting and consideration of Union personnel pursuant to this article.
- e) Two (2) copies of all postings shall be sent to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Local within the aforementioned seven (7) calendar days.
- f) The Employer shall, within three (3) calendar days, inform all applicants of the name of the successful applicant either in writing to each applicant or posting the name of the successful applicant in the same manner in which the vacancy or new job was posted.

- g) The Employer agrees to supply to the Union the names of all applicants for a vacancy or new position in the course of a grievance investigation.

ARTICLE 15 - TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

15.01 Definition

Technological change is defined as a change in equipment or a change in method of operation which results in the permanent displacement of one (1) or more members of the bargaining unit.

15.02 Notice

The Employer will give the union and affected employees as much advance notice of technological change as is operationally possible. The Employer agrees to meet with the Union, as expeditiously as possible following its receipt of such notice, to discuss the change.

15.03 Technological Displacement

Normal turnover of staff shall be utilized to absorb employees displaced by technological change, provided operational requirements permit. If displaced employees cannot be absorbed by normal turnover and layoffs become necessary, article 16 shall apply.

ARTICLE 16 - REDUCTION IN WORK FORCE

16.01 Layoff Defined

A layoff is deemed to have occurred when a regular position is eliminated with the result that a regular employee is declared redundant, or the normal hours worked by a regular employee are permanently reduced.

16.02 Layoff Order

Regular employees shall be laid off within each classification, in reverse order of their seniority.

16.03 Layoff/Displacement Notice

- a) The Employer shall notify regular employees, who are to be permanently laid off or permanently displaced under article 15, the following notice:

- i) Less than five (5) years continuous service: one (1) month.
 - ii) More than five (5) years continuous service: one(1) month, plus one (1) additional week for each year of continuous employment in excess of five (5) years, to a maximum total notice of eight (8) weeks.
- b) When a regular employee is not given opportunity to work during such notice period, he/she shall be paid for those days upon which work was not made available.
 - c) Notice of lay-off shall not apply where the Employer can establish that the lay-off results from an act of God, fire or flood, or other cause reasonably beyond its control.

16.04 Bumping Rights

- a) Regular employees, who are subject to layoff/displacement, may exercise their seniority by bumping a less senior employee, provided the employee seeking to bump has the required qualifications, skill and ability.
- b) Laid-off/displaced employees must notify the Employer that they intend to bump within five (5) working days. Failure to do so shall result in the loss of the laid-off employee's bumping rights.

16.05 Recall Period

- a) Regular employees who are laid off/displaced and who do not bump, shall be placed on the recall list, in seniority order for twelve (12) consecutive calendar months from the date of their layoff.
- b) Laid-off/displaced employees who are recalled within their twelve (12) month recall period, shall be credited with their previous seniority and service for purposes of vacations and other benefits based upon length of service.

16.06 Recall Period and Procedure

- a) The Employer shall specify the time the recalled employee is to report for work.
- b) Employees who fail to report within seven (7) days after being contacted by the Employer, or who fail to report for work at the time specified by the Employer, shall have their names removed from the recall list.

- c) Employees, who are required to give up to two (2) weeks notice to another employer, shall be deemed to be in compliance with this seven (7) days requirement, and they shall report for work immediately following completion of the minimum notice period required by such other employer, up to a maximum of two (2) weeks.
- d) Laid off/displaced employees are required to keep the facility manager(s) informed of their current address and phone number. The Employer shall be deemed to have met its recall obligations under this agreement by attempting to contact employees it is seeking to recall by registered mail at their last known address.

16.07 Where a notice of displacement or layoff actually results in a layoff, and prior to the layoff becoming effective, two (2) copies of such notice shall be sent to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Local.

ARTICLE 17 - SCHEDULING PROVISIONS

- 17.01
- a) The Employer shall arrange the times of all on-duty and off-duty shifts, including statutory holidays, and post these at least fourteen (14) calendar days in advance of their effective date.
 - b) If the Employer temporarily alters the scheduled work days and/or start and stop times of a regular employee without giving at least fourteen (14) calendar days advanced notice, such employee shall be paid overtime rates for the first shift worked on the altered shift in accordance with Article 19. Affected employees shall be notified of the change before it is made.
 - c) The above notwithstanding, in the case of operational requirements reasonably beyond the Employer's control, such as the failure of an employee to report for a scheduled shift or other circumstances where no other employee is readily available to perform required work, the Employer may temporarily alter the scheduled work days and/or start and stop times of an employee without giving at least fourteen (14) calendar day notice. In such cases the Employer is not required to pay overtime rates to the employee. In no circumstances will the Employer reduce the number of hours of the employee's regularly scheduled work shift that is being temporarily altered.
- 17.02
- a) There shall be a minimum of ten (10) consecutive hours off-duty for regular employees between the completion of one work shift and the commencement of the next.

- b) When it is not possible to schedule ten (10) consecutive hours off-duty between work shifts, all hours by which such changeover falls short of ten (10) consecutive hours shall be paid at overtime rates in accordance with Article 19.
- c) If a written request for a change in starting time is made by an employee which would not allow ten (10) consecutive hours off-duty between the completion of one work shift and the commencement of another, and such request is granted, then the application of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall be waived for all employees affected by the granting of such a request provided they are in agreement.

17.03 Operational requirement permitting, employees may exchange shifts with the approval of the Employer, provided that, sufficient advance notice in writing is given and provided that there is no increase in cost to the Employer.

17.04 Except as provided for in section 17.01(c), if the Employer changes a shift schedule without giving a minimum of seven (7) calendar days' advance notice and such change requires a regular employee to work on a scheduled day off, then such hours worked shall be paid at overtime rates in accordance with Article 19. Notice of the change shall be confirmed in writing as soon as possible.

ARTICLE 18 - HOURS OF WORK

18.01 Continuous Operation

The work week shall provide for continuous operation Sunday through Saturday.

18.02 Hours of Work

- a) The hours of work for each regular full-time employee covered by this Agreement, exclusive of meal times, shall be forty (40) hours per week, eight (8) hours per day.
- b) Employees who are required to be on-call during a meal period shall have their meal period included within their scheduled shift.
- c) Regular employees shall receive two (2) consecutive rest days off each week excluding statutory holidays, otherwise the overtime rates shall be paid in accordance with Article 19.

18.03 Rest and Meal Periodsa) Rest Periods

Employees working a full shift shall receive two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest periods, one in each half of the shift. Employees working less than a full shift shall receive one (1) rest period.

b) Meal Periods

All employees covered by this Collective Agreement working more than five (5) hour shift shall receive a one-half (1/2) hour meal period, no more, no less. The Employer shall attempt to schedule the meal period as close as possible to the middle of the shift.

ARTICLE 19 - OVERTIME

19.01 Employees who work more than eight (8) hours in any day or more than forty (40) hours in any week shall be paid overtime on the following basis:

a) Daily Overtime

- i) For the first three (3) hours of overtime worked in any day, time and one half (1.5 x) the applicable basic rate, and
- ii) During the balance of the overtime worked on that day, double time (2 x) the applicable basic rate.

b) Weekly Overtime

- i) During the first eight (8) hours of overtime worked in any week, time and one half (1.5 x) the applicable basic rate, and
- ii) During the balance of the overtime worked that week, double time (2 x) the applicable basic rate.

19.02 Overtime pay shall be paid to the employee, if possible, within eight (8) days after the expiration of the pay period in which the overtime was earned.

19.03 An employee who works three (3) hours of overtime immediately before or following his/her scheduled hours of work shall be provided with a meal by the Employer. A one-half (1/2) hour unpaid meal break shall be allowed the employee.

- a) This clause shall not apply to part-time employees until the requirements of Article 19.01 have been met.
 - b) In the case of an employee called out on overtime to work on a rest day this clause will apply only to hours worked outside his/her regular shift times for a normal work day.

19.04 A regular part-time employee working less than the normal hours per day of a full-time employee, and who is requested to work longer than his/her regular work day, shall be paid at the rate of straight time for the hours so worked, up to and including the normal hours in the work day of a full-time employee. Overtime rates shall apply to hours worked in excess of the normal hours in the work day of a full-time employee.

19.05 A regular part-time employee working less than the normal days per week of a full-time employee and who is requested to work other than his/her regularly scheduled work days, shall be paid at the rate of straight time for the days so worked, up to and including the normal work days in the work week of a full-time employee. Overtime rates shall apply to hours worked in excess of the normal work days in the work week of a full-time employee.

19.06 An employee required to work overtime shall be entitled to eight (8) clear hours between the end of the overtime work and the start of his/her next regular shift. If eight (8) clear hours of time off are not provided, overtime rates shall apply to all hours worked on the next regular shift.

19.07 When overtime is required by the Employer, it shall be first offered, in order of seniority, to regular employees within the applicable classification. When no regular employee from within that classification accepts to work the overtime, it shall then be assigned by the Employer to a regular employee from within that classification, in reverse order of seniority.

ARTICLE 20 - CALL BACK

20.01 Regular employees called back to work while off-duty shall be guaranteed pay equivalent to a four (4) hours at their straight-time rate, irrespective of whether or not overtime rates apply.

ARTICLE 21 - REPORTING PAY

21.01 Employees, except student employees, who report for work on a regularly scheduled shift, shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours' pay at the applicable straight-time rate, if they do not commence work, and a minimum of four (4) hours' pay at the applicable straight-time rate, if they commence work.

- 21.02 Student employees, who report for work on a school day, shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours' pay at the applicable straight-time rate, if they commence work. Student employees who report for work on a non-school day shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours' pay at the applicable straight-time rate, if they do not commence work, and a minimum of four (4) hours' pay at the applicable straight-time rate, if they commence work.

ARTICLE 22 - RELIEVING IN HIGHER AND LOWER-RATED POSITIONS

- 22.01 In the event of an employee relieving in a higher-rated job, the employee shall receive the hourly rate of the position they are relieving for any and all hours relieving.
- 22.02 In cases where an employee is required to transfer temporarily to a lower-rated job, such employee shall incur no reduction in wages because of such transfer.
- 22.03 Employees temporarily assigned to the duties of supervisory personnel outside of the bargaining unit shall receive ten percent (10%) more than their normal rate of pay for any and all hours so assigned.

ARTICLE 23 - TRANSPORTATION

- 23.01 If an employee is requested to use his or her vehicle for company business they shall be reimbursed at the current mileage rates set by the company.

No employee will be required to use his/her own motor vehicle to conduct business on behalf of and/or at the request of the Employer

ARTICLE 24 - STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

24.01 Entitlement

- a) Regular employees, who have completed thirty (30) calendar days service, will be entitled to ten (10) statutory holidays, and such other holidays as may be in future proclaimed or declared by either the Provincial or Federal Governments:

New Year's Day
Good Friday
Victoria Day
Canada Day
B.C. Day

Labour Day
Thanksgiving Day
Remembrance Day
Christmas Day
Boxing Day

- b) Statutory holiday pay shall be based upon the average percentage of available full-time hours each such employee was paid in the thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding the holiday.
 - c) Student employees, temporary employees, and regular employees who have not completed thirty (30) calendar days service, shall be eligible for statutory holidays in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.

24.02 When a regular employee has been on sick leave that is inclusive of one or more working days immediately prior to a statutory holiday and one or more working days immediately following such statutory holiday, then the statutory holiday shall become a day to which accrued sick leave credits shall be applied and it shall be re-scheduled for that employee at a mutually agreeable time. The employee shall be required in all such cases to provide a certificate proving illness from a medical practitioner. Such rescheduled statutory holidays shall be taken not later than January 31st. of the year following the year in which they originally occur.

24.03 When a statutory holiday falls on a day when a regular employee is on his/her normal days-off, the statutory holiday shall be re-scheduled for that employee at a mutually agreeable time. Such rescheduled statutory holidays shall be taken not later than January 31st. of the year following the year in which they originally occur.

24.04 If a statutory holiday occurs within a regular employee's vacation period, an extra day's vacation will be allowed for each statutory holiday so occurring.

24.05 Regular employees who are required to work on a statutory holiday shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1.5X), the applicable basic rate for each hour so worked, plus (+) the employee shall receive equivalent time off and pay in lieu of the holiday, to be taken at a mutually agreeable time

24.06 The Employer shall endeavour to schedule days-off that have been earned in lieu of statutory holidays under sections 24.03 and 24.05 in combination with the employee's regularly scheduled days off or, on particular religious/cultural holidays as requested by the employee, provided that its operational requirements permit the employee to be off on the day(s) in question.

24.07 The Employer shall make every effort to schedule either Christmas Day or New Year's Day off for regular employees so requesting.

24.08 Employees shall not be eligible for statutory holidays occurring during periods of unpaid leave, when they are laid off and on the recall list, and/or when they are in receipt of WCB payments for the day(s) in question.

24.09 Regular employees, who are laid off after completing thirty (30) calendar days service and who are recalled to employment during their recall period, shall be eligible for statutory holidays occurring immediately after the date of such re-employment. The rate of holiday pay to apply in such cases under section 15.01(b) shall be based upon the hours actually worked by the employee in the thirty (30) calendar day period immediately preceding the layoff.

24.10 Regular employees, who are laid off after completing thirty (30) calendar days continuous service and who are not recalled to employment during their recall period, must complete thirty (30) calendar days service in order to be re-eligible for statutory holidays.

ARTICLE 25 - VACATIONS

25.01 Vacation Entitlement

- a) Regular employees shall be entitled to annual vacations on the following basis:
- i) During their first (1st.) year of employment: four percent (4%) of total wages earned,
 - ii) During their second (2nd.) year of continuous employment, up to and including the fourth (4th.) year of continuous employment: two (2) weeks,
 - iii) During their fifth (5th) year of continuous employment, up to and including the ninth (9th.) year of continuous employment: three (3) weeks,

Effective January 2, 2009

During the eight (8th) year of continuous service and in each year of continuous employment thereafter – four (4) weeks.
 - iv) During their ninth (9th) year of continuous service and in each year of continuous employment thereafter: four (4) weeks.
- b) For each week of vacation regular employees are entitled to under subsections (ii) through (iv) above, they shall be paid two percent (2%) of the total wages earned by actually working in their previous year of employment.

- c) Vacation pay shall accrue for student employees and temporary employees at the rate of four percent (4%) of their total earnings in each pay period. Student employees and temporary employees shall receive a pay-out of their vacation accrual once per year, on the next pay cheque following receipt of a written request for such payout by the employee to the Facility Manager
- d) For the purposes of determining future vacation entitlement, unpaid leaves of absence of longer than thirty (30) calendar days, WCB leave longer than twelve (12) months and periods when an employee is laid-off on the recall list, shall not be counted as service. Employees returning to work from an such unpaid leave or WCB leave, or who are recalled to employment during their recall period, shall have their previous service reinstated for purposes of determining future vacation entitlement.

25.02 Splitting of Vacation Periods

Annual vacations for regular employees with ten (10) work days' vacation or more shall be granted in one (1) continuous period, unless the employee requests to split his/her vacation into more than one period, which request shall not be unreasonably denied.

Regular employees wishing to split their vacations shall exercise seniority rights in the choice of the first vacation period. Seniority shall prevail in the choice of the second vacation period, but only after all other "first" vacation periods have been posted. Seniority shall also prevail in the choice of the third vacation period, but only after all other "first" and "second" vacation periods have been posted. Seniority shall also prevail in the choice of the fourth vacation period, but only after all other "first," "second" and "third" vacation periods have been posted.

Annual vacations for regular employees with less than ten (10) work days' vacation shall be granted in one (1) continuous period.

25.03 Vacation Pay

Regular employees shall be entitled to receive vacation pay equivalent to the amount of approved vacation to be taken at least one (1) day prior to the commencement of such vacation period, provided the employee gives reasonable advance notice that s/he wishes such payment. In no event shall an employee be permitted to take more vacation (time off and pay) than s/he has accrued to his/her credit at that time.

25.04 Vacations Non-Accumulative

Vacation time shall not be cumulative from vacation year to vacation year. The Facility Manager and the applicable employee shall mutually schedule each year so that all vacations are taken as time off by the employee's vacation year-end. In order to ensure this outcome, the Employer reserves the right to schedule vacation during the last three (3) months of an employee's vacation year, if the employee has not mutually arranged his/her vacation prior to that time.

25.05 Vacation Entitlement Upon Termination

Employees dismissed for cause, or who voluntarily terminate their employment, shall be paid their unused earned vacation entitlement pursuant to this article.

25.06 Reinstatement of Vacation Days - Sick Leave

In the event a regular employee is sick or injured prior to the commencement of his/her vacation, or becomes sick or is injured while on vacation, such employee shall be granted sick leave and the vacation period so displaced shall be added to the vacation period if requested by the employee and by mutual agreement, or shall be reinstated for use at a later date. The employee shall be required, in all such cases, to provide a certificate proving illness from a medical practitioner.

25.07 Regular employees who have commenced their annual vacation shall not be called back to work, except in cases of extreme emergency. If such occurs, an employee shall have vacation period so displaced rescheduled at a mutually agreeable time. All reasonable travel expenses incurred in returning to work shall be reimbursed to the employee.

25.08 The Employer will make every reasonable effort to grant vacations to regular employees during the period from June 1st to September 30th, if vacations are requested during this period.

ARTICLE 26 - COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

26.01 Compassionate leave of absence, with pay, for up to three (3) regularly scheduled working days, shall be granted to regular employees, who have completed probation, at the time of notification of a death in their immediate families. Requests for compassionate leave shall be made in writing to the Facility Manager. Immediate family includes the employee's parent s (including step-parent, foster parent or legal guardian), spouse (including common-law spouse), child, step-child, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandparent and grandchild.

- 26.02 Regular part-time employees shall be eligible only for those hours that they were previously scheduled to work on the days in question.
- 26.03 Compassionate leave shall be granted to regular employees who are on annual vacations. An extra day's vacation shall be allowed for each day of compassionate leave so granted.

ARTICLE 27 - SICK LEAVE, INJURY-ON-DUTY

- 27.01 Sick leave credits with pay shall be granted to regular employees, who have completed probation, on the basis of one (1) day for each month or portion of a month greater than one-half (1/2) actually worked in the year, to a maximum of twelve (12) days in any calendar year. Upon completing probation, employees shall be granted sick leave credits retroactive to their initial start date

Regular part-time employees shall earn their sick leave credit in hours at the end of each month, prorated on the basis of the percentage (%) of regular full-time hours.

- 27.02 Unused sick leave in any year shall accrue to the employee's credit, for use during future periods of sickness or injury. The maximum sick leave accrual that any regular employee may accrue in their sick leave bank is eighteen (18) days, or equivalent number of pro-rated hours in the case of regular part-time employees.

- 27.03 Sick leave is only payable in cases of bona fide sickness or non-occupational injury. Employees shall be paid on the first (1st) day of sick leave on the first three (3) separate occasions they are granted sick leave in each calendar year, and the (2nd.) day of sick leave on each subsequent occasion they are granted sick leave in that year. Employees absent from duty on sick leave may be required to prove sickness or injury. Failure to meet this requirement can be cause for disciplinary action. Repeated failure to meet this requirement can lead to dismissal. Employees must notify the Employer as promptly as possible of any absence from duty because of sickness or non-occupational injury and employees must notify the Employer prior to their return.

- 27.04 Employees injured on the job, which injury makes it impossible for them to complete their regular shift on the day of the injury, shall continued to be paid for their normal hours on that day.

Employees injured on the job shall apply for Workers' Compensation coverage and shall be bound by the WCB's requirements regarding such applications.

If an employee is granted sick leave with pay and a WCB claim is subsequently approved by the WCB for the same period, it shall be considered, for the purpose of the record of sick leave credits, that the employee was not granted sick leave with pay, and all sick leave credits shall be restored to the employee, provided the employee pays to the Employer any amounts received by him/her for loss of wages in settlement of any claim he/she may have in respect of such compensable injury or accident for the days in question.

27.05 Employees qualifying for Workers' Compensation coverage shall not have their employment terminated during the compensable period.

27.06 An employee must apply for sick leave pay to cover periods of actual time lost from work owing to sickness or injury. Where medical and/or dental appointments cannot be scheduled outside the employee's working hours, sick leave with pay shall be granted to cover such absences, in minimum blocks of one-hour, provided sufficient advance notice is given to the Facility Manager so that a replacement may be arranged.

27.07 Employees with more than one (1) year's service, who are off because of sickness or non-occupational injury, shall, at the expiration of paid sick leave benefits (including their sick leave accrual), be continued on the payroll under the heading of leave of absence without pay for up to one (1) month. A further leave of absence up to two (2) months without pay may be granted upon written request, provided such request is reasonable. The Employer may require the employee to prove sickness or incapacity and provide a medical opinion as to the expected date of return. The Employer's decision for further leave without shall be in writing.

If the employee does not return to active duty at the end of the leave of absence, his/her employment shall be terminated.

27.08 Employees with less than one (1) year's service, who are off because of sickness or non-occupational injury, shall be continued on the payroll under the heading of leave of absence without pay for up to seven (7) work days. A further leave of absence of up to seven (7) work days without pay may be granted upon written request, provided that the request is reasonable. The Employer may require the employee to prove sickness or incapacity and provide a medical opinion as to the expected date of return. The Employer's decision for further leave without shall be in writing.

If the employee does not return to active duty at the end of the leave of absence, his/her employment shall be terminated.

27.09 The Employer shall inform all employees at least once each year of the number of sick days accumulated and shall make the information available to an employee on request.

27.10 All sick leave credits shall be cancelled on the termination of employment, including retirement.

ARTICLE 28 - SPECIAL LEAVE

28.01 In the case of illness or hospitalization of a dependant child of a regular employee, when no one else at the employee's home other than the employee can care for the child, the employee shall be entitled to utilize sick leave for this purpose, to a maximum of two (2) days in any one year, provided the employee has made every effort to provide alternative care. Effective January 1, 2005, this entitlement shall be increased to three (3) days in any one year. Sick leave days utilized under this article shall not count against the employee for purposes of receiving future sick leave payments on the first day under article 17.03.

ARTICLE 29 - EDUCATION LEAVE

29.01 Employees required by the Employer to attend in-service seminars shall be granted leave without loss of pay or straight-time wages, provided that hours paid in accordance with this article shall not invoke any overtime.

29.02 After three (3) years' continuous service, an employee may request an unpaid leave of absence to take educational courses directly relating to the operation of the Employer's business, subject to the following provisions:

- a) The employee shall give the longest possible advance notice in writing, but in no event less than fourteen (14) calendar days. Where an employee requests an unpaid leave of absence in excess of four (4) calendar months, such employee shall make every effort to give six (6) calendar months' advance notice in writing of such request.
- b) The Employer shall not unreasonably deny such requests, providing that replacements to ensure proper operations can be found.
- c) Notices granting such requests shall be given by the Employer in writing.

ARTICLE 30 - JURY DUTY

30.01 An employee who is subpoenaed by the Crown for jury duty, or as a witness for the Crown (not being himself/herself a party to the proceeding) shall continue to receive his/her regular pay and benefits to maximum of twenty (20) working days, provided that the employee in question would normally have worked on the day(s) in question. Where possible, employees covered by this article shall be required to complete the balance of their regular shift on any day when they are not required in court, provided the Employer so requires and doing so does not exceed eight (8) hours.

The employee shall turn over to the Employer any monies he/she receives from the court on the days he/she is normally scheduled to work, providing this does not exceed his/her regular pay rate. The employee shall not be required to turn over allowances received for travelling and meals.

ARTICLE 31 - LEAVE - UNPAID

31.01 Requests by employees for unpaid leave of absence shall be made in writing to the Facility Manager and may be granted at the Employer's discretion. The employee shall give at least seven (7) calendar days' notice to minimize disruption of staff. The Employer shall not unreasonably deny such requests. Notice of the Employer's decision shall be given in writing as soon as possible.

31.02 Unpaid Leave - Affecting Seniority and Benefits

Any regular employee granted unpaid leave of absence totalling up to twenty (20) working days in any year shall continue to accumulate seniority and all benefits and shall return to his/her former job and rate of pay.

If an unpaid leave of absence or an accumulation of unpaid leaves of absence exceeds twenty (20) working days in any year, the employee shall not accumulate benefits from the twenty-first (21st) day of the unpaid leave to the last day of the unpaid leave but shall accumulate and seniority and receive credit for previously earned benefits upon expiration of the unpaid leave.

31.03 Unpaid Leave - Union Business

a) Short-term leave of absence without pay to a maximum of fourteen (14) days at one time shall be granted to employees designated by the Union to transact Union business including conventions and conferences unless granting such leave to any employee would unduly disrupt the operation of the Employer's business. The Union shall give at least seven (7) days notice to minimize disruption to the Employer.

- b) Long-term leave of absence without pay shall be granted to employees designated by the Union to transact Union business for specific periods of not less than fourteen (14) days unless granting such leave would unduly disrupt the operation of the Employer's Business. Such requests shall be made in writing at least fourteen (14) days in advance to minimize disruption to the Employer's business. Employees granted such leave of absence shall retain all rights and privileges accumulated prior to obtaining such leave. Seniority shall continue to accumulate during such leave and shall apply to such provisions as annual vacations and promotions.
- c) Leave of absence without pay shall be granted to employees designated by the Union for the purpose of collective bargaining. Seniority and all benefits shall accumulate during such leave unless granting such leave to any employee would unduly disrupt operation of the Employer's business.
- d) The Employer shall continue to pay normal wages, and maintain the health benefits coverage, where applicable, of employees who are on unpaid leave under sub-section (a),(b) & (c) above, provided the Union reimburses the Employer for the wages and benefits involved within sixty (60) calendar days of being invoiced for such amounts by the Employer. This provision does not apply to employees on extended leaves of absence who are employed by the Union on a regular full-time basis.
- e)
 - i) Provided not less than seven (7) days' notice has been given, members of the Provincial Executive of the Union shall be granted leave of absence to attend the regular meetings of such Executive.
 - ii) Where less than seven (7) days' notice is given, leave pursuant to this paragraph shall be subject to reasonable operational requirements.

31.04 Unpaid Leave - Public Office

Employees shall be granted unpaid leave of absence to enable them to run for elected public office and if elected, to serve their term(s) of office subject to the following provisions:

- a) Employees seeking election in a Municipal, Provincial or Federal election shall be granted unpaid leave of absence for a period up to ninety (90) calendar days.

- b) Employees elected to public office shall be granted unpaid leave of absence for a period up to five (5) years.

ARTICLE 32 - MATERNITY LEAVE AND/OR PARENTAL LEAVE

32.01 Maternity Leave

Pregnancy shall not constitute cause for dismissal.

- a) A pregnant employee who requests maternity leave shall be entitled to:
 - i) seventeen (17) consecutive weeks of unpaid leave, unless the employee requests a shorter period, plus
 - ii) up to an additional six (6) additional consecutive weeks of unpaid leave, if for reasons related to the birth or termination of the pregnancy, the employee is unable to return to work at the end of her maternity leave, plus
 - iii) parental leave pursuant to Article 32.02 (a) and (b), beginning immediately after the end of the maternity leave period(s), or at some other time mutually agreed between the Facility manager and the employee. The Facility Manager shall not unreasonably deny such request.
- b) If an employee is unable or incapable of performing her duties prior to the commencement of maternity leave of absence without pay, the employee may be required to take unpaid leave of absence.
- c) Medical complications of pregnancy, including complications during an unpaid leave of absence for maternity reasons preceding the period stated by the Unemployment Insurance Act, shall be covered by sick leave credits pursuant to Article 27, providing the employee is not in receipt of maternity benefits under the Unemployment Insurance Act or any wage loss replacement plan.

32.02 Parental leave

- a) An employee requesting parental leave under this section shall be entitled to up to thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks unpaid leave beginning:

- i) in the case of a birth mother, as set-out in article 32.01(a)(iii) up to thirty-five (35) consecutive weeks unpaid leave, or
 - ii) in the case of a birth father, up to thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks unpaid leave within the fifty-two (52) week period immediately following the birth, or
 - iii) in the case of an adopting parent, up to thirty-seven (37) consecutive weeks unpaid leave within the fifty-two (52) week period immediately following the date the child is placed with the parent.
- b) If the child has a medical condition requiring an additional period of parental leave, the employee is entitled to an additional five consecutive (5) weeks unpaid leave, beginning immediately after the leave taken under subsection (a).

32.03 The combined maternity leave and parental leave entitlement that any employee may be entitled to under the above sections shall be fifty-two (52) weeks, plus any additional leave granted under sections 32.01(a)(ii) and 32.02(b).

32.04 Employees make every effort to give fourteen (14) days written notice to the Facility Manager prior to the commencement of maternity leave and/or parental leave of absence without pay under sections 32.01(a) and 32.02(a), respectively. Employees shall make every effort to give at least seven (7) days written notice to the Facility Manager prior to commencement of maternity leave and/or parental leave under section 32.01(b) and/or 32.02(b), respectively. Employees shall give at least seven (7) days' notice of their intention to return to work prior to the termination of any maternity leave and/or parental leave of absence.

The Employer may require the employee to provide a doctor's certificate indicating the employee's general condition during pregnancy and the actual date of birth or the actual date of termination of a pregnancy; or in the case of parental leave a doctor's certificate or other evidence proving the employee's entitlement to the leave.

- a) Upon returning to work from maternity leave and/or parental leave under this article, the employee shall continue in his/her former position, without loss of perquisites, provided such position still exists; or if such position no longer exists, in a comparable position.
- b) Seniority and continuous service will continue to accumulate during the full period of maternity leave and/or parental leave under this article. The Employer shall maintain its normal share of the premium costs for the employee's Health Care Plans for the full period of the maternity leave and/or parental leave under this section, provided the employee pays his/her share, if any.

ARTICLE 33 - HEALTH CARE PLANS
