Deductible

The deductible is twenty-five dollars ($25) each benefit year for each person up to a maximum of twenty-five dollars ($25) per family.

Prescription Drugs

All regular employees shall receive a Pay Direct drug card.

The plan will cover the cost of drugs and contraceptives which by law are only available with a prescription as long as they are prescribed by a doctor or dentist and are obtained from a pharmacist. Intrauterine devices (IUDs), diabetic and colostomy supplies are also covered.

For the above items, the plan will only pay for quantities that can reasonably be used in a three (3) month period.

The plan will cover eighty percent (80%) for the first five hundred dollars ($500) and one hundred percent (100%) for anything over five hundred dollars ($500).

Expenses incurred for emergency services outside Canada are subject to a lifetime maximum of $1,000,000 per person or, if lower, any other applicable lifetime maximum.

Medical Services And Equipment

The plan will cover eighty percent (80%) of the costs after you pay the deductible for the medical services when ordered by a doctor (the services of a licensed optometrist, ophthalmologist or dentist do not require a doctor's order).

Paramedical Services

The plan will cover one hundred percent (100%) of the costs to a maximum of forty-five dollars ($45) per visit per person after you pay the deductible and up to a maximum of six hundred dollars ($600) per person in a benefit year for each paramedical specialist, no combined annual maximum.

Contact Lenses, Eyeglasses Or Laser Eye Correction Surgery

Emergency Travel Assistance

This benefit, called Medi-Passport, supplements the emergency portion of your Extended Health Care coverage. It only covers services that you obtain within sixty (60) days of leaving the province where you live. If hospitalization occurs within this time period, in-patient services are covered until you are discharged.

DENTAL COVERAGE

General Description of the Coverage

Dental Care coverage pays for eligible expenses that you incur for dental procedures provided by a licensed dentist, denturist, dental hygienist and anaesthetist while you are covered by this group plan.

Deductible

There is no deductible for this coverage.

Benefit Year Maximum

Dental coverage shall be one hundred percent (100%) for the basic plan and sixty percent (60%) for the major plan. The plan will not pay more than a combined maximum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) per person for each benefit year for all services.

Predetermination

You should send SunLife an estimate, before the work is done, for any major treatment or any procedure that will cost more than five hundred dollars ($500). You should send a completed dental claim form that shows the treatment that the dentist is planning and the cost. Both you and the dentist will have to complete parts of the claim form. You will be told how much of the planned treatment is covered.

Preventive Dental Procedures

Your dental benefits include procedures used to help prevent dental problems. They are procedures that a dentist performs regularly to help maintain good dental health. The plan will pay one hundred percent (100%) of the eligible expenses for these procedures.

Oral Examinations

Your dental benefits include one complete examination every twenty-four (24) months and one recall examination every nine (9) months, up to a maximum of two (2) examinations per benefit year.

Basic Dental Procedures

Your dental benefits include procedures used to treat basic dental problems. Some examples are filling cavities and extracting teeth. The plan will pay one hundred (100%) of the eligible expenses for these procedures.

Major Dental Procedures

Your dental benefits include procedures used to treat major dental problems. Some examples are crowns, dentures or bridges. The plan will pay fifty percent (50%) of the eligible expenses for these procedures.

LIFE COVERAGE

Your Life coverage provides a benefit for your beneficiary if you die while covered. Your Life benefit is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

ACCIDENTAL DEATH AND DISMEMBERMENT

Accidental Death and Dismemberment coverage provides benefits if, due to an accident occurring while covered, you die or suffer any of the losses listed in the SunLife booklet under What we will pay. Any death benefit paid under this coverage is in addition to the Life coverage. Your Accidental Death and Dismemberment coverage is equal to the amount of Life coverage.

APPENDIX B

LONG-TERM DISABILITY

This Appendix is a summary of SunLife benefits. If there are any differences between this summary and the SunLife Policy, the Policy will be deemed correct.

Eligibility

This benefit is effective April 1, 2003 and you must be a post-probationary regular full-time or regular part-time employee with one year of service to be eligible.

General Description Of The Coverage

Long-Term Disability coverage provides a benefit to you if you are totally disabled. You qualify for this benefit if you provide proof of claim acceptable to SunLife that:

- * you became totally disabled while covered, and
- * you have been following appropriate treatment for the disability since its onset.

For Your Long-Term Disability Coverage

- during the elimination period and the following twenty-four (24) months (this period is known as the own occupation period), you will be considered totally disabled while you are continuously unable due to an illness to do the essential duties of your own occupation, and
- afterwards, you will be considered totally disabled if you are continuously unable due to an illness to do any occupation for which you are or may become reasonably qualified by education, training or experience.

If you must hold a government permit or licence to perform your own occupation and your permit or licence is withdrawn or not renewed solely for medical reasons, you will be considered totally disabled for up to twelve (12) months after the end of the elimination period. You cannot be working other than in a SunLife approved partial disability or rehabilitation program.

Benefits are paid at the end of each month and are based on your coverage on the date you became totally disabled.

If you are totally disabled for part of any month, the plan will pay 1/30 of the monthly benefit for each day you are totally disabled.

When Disability Payments Begin

Your Long-Term Disability payments begin after you have been totally disabled for an uninterrupted period of one hundred and nineteen (119) days or after the last day benefits are payable under any short-term disability, loss of income or other salary continuation plan, whichever is later.

This period, which must be completed before disability benefits become payable, is the elimination period.

If you become totally disabled during a lay-off or approved leave and your coverage continues during this time, you will be eligible for benefit payments following your recall or scheduled return to full-time work with your employer. You must have been totally disabled for an uninterrupted period of one hundred and nineteen (119) days and still be totally disabled on the date you are recalled or scheduled to return to full-time work with your employer.

What the Plan Pays

Here is how your Long-Term Disability payments are calculated:

Step 1: 60% of your monthly basic earnings up to a maximum of $3500 per month

Step 2: Subtract any income provided to you under another plan (except from a private insurance plan) for the same or a subsequent disability.

Partial Disability Program

You may be required to participate in a partial disability program approved by SunLife in writing.

After you are eligible for Long-Term Disability payments, you may be considered for a partial disability program in which you return to your own occupation for a reduced number of hours per week.

During your partial disability program, you can receive a salary from your employer for the hours worked. However, your Long-Term Disability payments will be reduced by the percentage of your normal work week that you are now working for your employer.

During your partial disability program your total income from all sources cannot exceed 100% of your pre-disability basic earnings, indexed for inflation (less provincial and federal income taxes if your benefit is non-taxable). If this is the case, your Long-Term Disability payments will be further reduced by the excess.

Your participation in a partial disability program will be limited to the own occupation period.

Rehabilitation Program

You may be required to participate in a rehabilitation program approved by SunLife in writing.

It may include the involvement of our rehabilitation specialist, part-time work, working in another occupation or vocational training to help you become capable of full-time employment.

SunLife is under no obligation to approve or continue a rehabilitation program for an employee. Such factors as financial considerations and SunLife's opinion on the merits of rehabilitation will be considered.

During your rehabilitation program, you may receive your Long-Term Disability payments plus income from other sources. However, if during any month your total income is more than 100% of your pre-disability basic earnings, indexed for inflation (less provincial and federal income taxes if your benefit is non-taxable), your Long-Term Disability payments will be reduced by the excess.

You should consider participating in a rehabilitation program as soon as possible after becoming totally disabled. If you enter a rehabilitation program during the elimination period, it will not be considered an interruption of the elimination period.

When Payments End

Your Long-Term Disability payments end on the earlier of the following dates:

- the date you are no longer totally disabled.
- the last day of the month in which you reach age 65.
- the last day of the month in which you retire with a pension or are eligible to retire with a full pension or a full pension equivalent.
- the last day of the month in which you die.

When Coverage Ends

Long-Term Disability coverage will end on the day you reach age 65 less the elimination period of one hundred and nineteen (119) days or the day you retire, whichever is earlier.

APPENDIX C

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

EARLY SAFE RETURN TO WORK

The Union and the Employer agree that ill or injured employees may benefit from involvement in Early Safe Return to Work Programs which may involve a number of initiatives such as a gradual increase in hours of work up to full shift hours, modified work, work place modification, a work hardening program, or, if necessary a change in work assignment.

Participation in such a program shall be voluntary for both the employee and the Employer and contingent upon the written consent of the employee's physician. The program shall be considered as part of the treatment/rehabilitation process. All employees engaged in a rehabilitation/treatment process shall be supernumerary. The Employer shall provide to the employee an outline of the conditions of the Return to Work Policy prior to the employee agreeing to participate.

The employee, an Employer designate, and the Union steward will meet to agree on a suitable program.

A written program for the employee will include:

- (1) An overview of the employee's program plan, including its expected outcome and end date. (Programs shall not exceed six months).
- (2) The number of phases in the program, their duration and the number of hours to be worked per shift in each phase.
- (3) A detailed outline of Employer and employee responsibilities under the program.
- (4) A schedule of evaluations to determine progress toward the program outcome. As a result of an evaluation, a program may be modified or discontinued by mutual consent of the parties.

Employees engaged in an Early Safe Return to Work Program shall be provided with a copy of the written program.

The Employer designate shall be responsible for making all necessary arrangements for the employee's return to the work place. The Union steward shall be allowed time away from her usual assigned duties to meet with Union members at the work site to familiarize them with the terms and conditions of their co-worker's return to work and to ensure co-worker support and encouragement.

The Union and the Employer agree that employees participating in an Early Safe Return to Work Program for the minimum hours per week which defines part-time status under Article 11, are entitled to all the benefits of the agreement, on a proportionate basis, except medical, extended health, dental plan coverage, and group life which shall be paid in accordance with Article 43.

APPENDIX D
