GUIDANCE TO MEMBERSHIP RE JURISDICTIONAL DISPUTES

1. It is the duty of each member and in the interest of each member to defend and maintain the Trade Jurisdiction.
2. Shop Stewards shall act in the preliminary stages of a dispute, discussing the matter with the Shop Steward(s) of the contending Trade(s).
3. There shall be no stoppage of work by members of this Local in regard to jurisdictional problems.
4. Remain calm, cool and polite to all fellow unionists and involved contractors, but firm when you are right.
5. Where OTHERS are doing the work and it appears to be OURS – project your claim to the other people and/or Contractors. Inform the Business Representative.
6. Where it is obvious that it is NOT our work – respect the other fellow. He also is a Trade Unionist, or should be!
7. Where we are doing the work and others claim and others claim and where the work is obviously OURS or where it is debatable:
 - (a) Hold and maintain the work;
 - (b) Insist our Contractors do likewise;
 - (c) Do not stop or approve stoppage of work by anyone;
 - (d) Do not yield to improper pressure or threats;
 - (e) Protest any attempted unilateral re-assignment of work;

8. Inform your Business Representative in all cases by letter or phone (phone collect if the need arises).

Make sure he gets all pertinent details – names of Trades, Contractors, Sub-Contractors involved, description of work, content of preliminary discussions and any other pertinent details.

9. Your Representative will discuss the matter with other parties concerned and try to arrange a settlement. This may be based on past practice, trade practice, decisions and agreements of record, and if necessary or expedient on an appeal to what is known as the National Joint Board for the Settlement of Jurisdictional Disputes.
10. Remember, our best argument is the skill, stability and ability of our people.

GUIDANCE TO MEMBERSHIP RE SELECTION AND DUTIES OF SHOP STEWARDS

 - (a) Insist on compliance with the Agreement by both members and employers.
 - (b) Handle grievances involving Agreed Clauses, Social Legislation, etc., in the preliminary stage.
