ARTICLE 2 – UNION SECURITY

2.01

The Employer and the Union agree that there will be no discrimination, intimidation, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced by any of their representatives because of their membership or non-membership in the Union. ARTICLE 7 – JOB POSTINGS

7.01

The Employer recognizes its responsibility to employees who have a long continuous service record. The Employer agrees to give consideration to the length of service of an employee for promotions within the bargaining unit, as herein after provided.

Continuous service, which will only be credited following the satisfactory completion of the probationary period, shall be determined for the purposes of this Agreement from the last date of employment with the Company.

Where the Employer determines to fill a permanent vacant job within a classification in the bargaining unit, the Employer will post notice of the vacancy for a period of three (3) working days to the next closest hour and the successful applicant will receive notice and a new rate of pay within fifteen (15) working days, after commencing work in the new position. (See Letter of Understanding.) The successful candidate's name will be posted for three (3) working days.

7.03

Where the Employer determines to fill a temporary vacancy or new classification the Employer will follow the intent of Article 7.01. A temporary vacancy will be defined as a requirement for not more than sixty (60) days unless mutually agreed upon for special circumstances. Temporary vacancies will not be posted. Upon completion of the time period stated above, if the position is deemed permanent, skill and ability acquired during the temporary position cannot be used to eliminate other applicants.

7.04

Any such employees shall be considered on the basis of their skill, ability, qualifications, performance record, potential and experience. If two (2) or more employees are so qualified, the senior employee shall be awarded the job.

7.05

Any employee awarded a job pursuant to Sections 7.03 and 7.04 will not be eligible for the consideration for any further job postings, for a period of one year.

Any employee who has completed their probationary period may grieve a failure to be promoted in accordance with the provisions of this Section, as appropriate. If the grievance proceeds to Arbitration, the Arbitration Board shall be limited to determination of whether in the administration of this Section, the Company has been arbitrary, discriminatory or capricious. Where the Arbitration Board so finds for the Union, the award may include compensation for the difference between the wages earned and the wages that would have been paid to the grievor who should have been awarded the posting.

7.08 – Training and Education

- a) Where the Employer requires an employee to attend a training course or seminar, the Employer will cover the cost of the program, including pay for the employee at their regular daily rate of pay to a maximum of eight (8) or ten (10) hours per day for all time spent attending the course or program.
- b) Notwithstanding training programs and courses referred to elsewhere in this Agreement, employees may make application to the Employer for financial assistance to attend an educational course. 8.02

Subsequent to Section 8.01, in the event that a reduction in the workforce in a classification is required, the Employer shall reposition employees in the reverse order of their seniority, provided that, in the opinion of the Employer, the skill, ability, experience and qualifications of the employees concerned are equal, subject to a one-week period of familiarization in the new job.

8.03

When recalling employees, whose period of layoff has not exceeded twelve (12) months, all reasonable efforts will be made to recall first those employees last to be laid off, provided that, in the opinion of the Employer, the employee to be recalled has the skill, ability, experience and qualifications to do the work to which they are assigned.

The Employer will not be obligated to apply the provisions of this Article when laying off employees on a temporary basis of up to one (1) week.

The Employer agrees that persons who are not within the description of the bargaining unit will not perform work to the extent that their performance of such work directly results in the immediate subsequent layoff of a bargaining unit employee.

ARTICLE 9 – GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

It is the mutual desire of the parties to this Agreement that a complaint of an employee shall be resolved as promptly as possible. It is understood that there is no grievance until the employee has first discussed the complaint with their immediate supervisor. Failing settlement, any complaint or grievance arising under this Agreement relating to the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the Agreement shall be processed and dealt with in accordance with the terms and provisions set forth in this Article. Unless otherwise mutually agreed to by the parties, time shall be of the essence in the case of all grievances.

STEP 1

The employee and a Shop Steward shall submit a signed written grievance on official Union stationery to the Production Manager or designate within five (5) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance. The remedy sought, and the Sections of the Agreement, which are alleged to have been violated, shall be set out in the grievance letter. Any grievance not submitted within the time limits provided herein shall be deemed to be null and void. The Production Manager or designate shall deliver their decision in writing within five (5) working days following the day on which the grievance was presented to them. Failing settlement, then:

STEP 2

Within five (5) working days following the decision under Step 1, the employee and Shop Steward shall submit the written grievance to the Plant Manager or designate. The Plant Manager or designate will contact the union representative by telephone upon receipt of the Step 2 grievance to arrange a date and time to meet the grievor and the steward to review the grievance. The Union Representative or their designate may be present at this meeting. A decision in writing shall be rendered within ten (10) working days from the date on which the grievance meeting was convened.

In the event the decision of the Plant Manager is not satisfactory to the grievor, the Union may refer the matter to Arbitration. In the alternative, the matter may be referred to an agreed upon “Trouble-Shooter” (see Letter of Understanding) by mutual agreement for mediation or final binding resolution. If no written request for Arbitration is received within fifteen (15) working days from the date of the decision under this Step and during that time no agreement is reached with respect to the use of a “Trouble-Shooter”, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned.

It is agreed that a grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union shall be originated by either party under Step 2 above within three (3) working days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred or originated and the time limits set out with respect to that step shall appropriately apply. However, it is understood that the provisions of this Section may not be used with respect to a complaint or grievance directly affecting an employee or employees and that the regular grievance procedure shall not be bypassed.

All agreements reached under the grievance procedure between the representatives of the Employer and the representatives of the Union shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employees.

For the purposes of the Article the words “working days” shall not include Saturdays, Sundays and paid holidays.

STEP 3

Failing resolution of the difference of dispute at Step 2, the matter may be referred to a Board of Arbitration constituted under the provisions of the Labour Relations Code. Arbitration proceedings must be commenced within sixty (60) calendar days after the failure of settlement at Step 2. The said Board shall consist of a single Arbitrator who shall be agreed to by both parties or, failing agreement, to be appointed by the Labour Relations Board at the request of the parties to this Agreement. The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding on both parties.

Each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the Board of Arbitration or Trouble-Shooter if appointed. The Board of Arbitration or Trouble-Shooter shall complete its sitting and hand down its award within thirty (30) days of its appointment, except that this time may be extended with the mutual consent of the Employer and the Local Union.

The Board of Arbitration shall not have any power to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement or to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions thereof and, in reaching its decision; it shall be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Discharge/Suspension/Grievance

If an employee believes they have been unjustly suspended without pay, or discharged, the matter shall be taken up with the Plant Manager or designate as a special grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, within three (3) working days of the suspension or discharge. The Shop Steward, and in the absence of a Shop Steward, another member of the bargaining unit shall be present when a member of the bargaining unit is suspended or discharged. Either party may refer a grievance to a settlement officer as per Section 87 or Section 104 of the Labour Relations Code.

ARTICLE 10 – LEAVE OF ABSENCE

10.01

The Employer, in its sole discretion, may grant a leave of absence without pay for legitimate personal reasons provided at least a one (1) month advance written request is made to the Employer clearly stating the reasons(s) for the request and the proposed duration. Such advance written request may be waived in the case of emergencies.

10.02

The Company, upon receiving four (4) weeks' notice in writing from the Business Manager or designate of the Local Union, agrees to grant leave of absence without pay for a pre-specified period of time of not more than one (1) employee for full-time service with the Local Union.

Pay will be at the employee's straight-time rate of pay, exclusive of premiums and payment will only be made in respect of absence from work on the employee's regular work days.

In lieu of the foregoing, if an employee is absent from work on a regular workday and loses pay to attend a memorial service for any of the employee's immediate family, they shall be reimbursed at their straight-time rate of pay, exclusive of premiums, for regular hours lost to a maximum of eight (8) or ten (10) hours.

10.07

Upon return from leave of absence, the employee will be returned to the job held prior to the leave of absence or a similar job, if the prior job held by the employee no longer exists, unless the employee would have been removed from that job for just cause.

10.08 -Leave for Jury Duty - Witness Duty

Note: Witness: Means a person called by subpoena as a witness to testify under oath or affirmation before one of the above mentioned courts. However, this term shall not include a person directly or indirectly involved as a party to a proceeding.
- c) On receipt of payment from the court for such duties, the employee must provide the Company with a statement from the court, indicating payment received for each day or part day served (excluding monies allowed by the Court specifically for meals, travel and other such expenses) to a maximum of five (5) working days.
- d) The employees pay will be reduced by an amount equal to that received from the Court (excluding monies allowed by the Court specifically for meals, travel and other such expenses).
- e) Time off to attend these proceedings shall be without loss of seniority.

ARTICLE 11 – BENEFIT PLANS

11.01

The Employer agrees to continue the benefit plan as stated in Appendix B. If the Employer changes to a different carrier, the Employer agrees to continue the same level of benefits in force at the time of signing this Agreement.

11.02

It is agreed that the application of the benefit plans relating to the life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance, dependent life insurance, and long-term disability insurance, shall continue in respect to the employees in conformity with past practice.

11.03

Any dispute over payment of benefits under such benefit plans shall be adjusted between the employee and the insurer concerned. The Employer will use its best efforts to adjust and settle any such dispute. The administration of such benefit plans are not part of the Collective Agreement and are not themselves subject to the grievance procedure or arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 12 – HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Employer and the Union recognize their mutual interest in health and safety and agree to comply with the Workers' Compensation Act and Regulations for the province of British Columbia.
