AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO ON THIS 22nd DAY OF JUNE, 2011.

BETWEEN: ATC TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT LTD.

(Hereinafter called the “Company” and sometimes referred to as the “Employer”)

OF THE FIRST PART;

AND: LOCAL UNION 258 OF THE INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, being a trade union within the meaning of the Labour Relations Code (1993) and amendments thereto.

(Hereinafter called the “Union” and sometimes referred to as the “Local Union”)

OF THE SECOND PART;

WHEREAS the Employer and the Local Union wish to create and maintain continuing harmonious labour/management relations, therefore, in pursuance thereof, the Employer and the Union wish to make a common Collective Agreement; and

WHEREAS the Employer and the Union have carried on collective bargaining, and the Employer and the Union are prepared to enter into a common Collective Agreement upon the terms and conditions contained herein; and

WHEREAS it is recognized that the Agreement is a contract between parties of equal status; now

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, subject to applicable legislation, the parties mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

Article 1.01

Commencing on June 20, 2011, this agreement shall be in full force and effect and shall be binding on the parties until the December 31, 2012, and thereafter reopened as provided herein. Either party may at any time within four (4) months immediately preceding the day of expiry of the Agreement by written notice require the other party to the Agreement to commence collective bargaining.

The operation of Section 50(2) of the Labour Relations Code (1993) as amended is hereby excluded pursuant to Section 50(3) of the said Code.

Article 1.02

Should any part hereof or any provision herein contained be rendered or declared invalid by reason of existing or subsequently enacted legislation or by any degree of a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidation or such part or portion of the Agreement shall not invalidate the remaining portions hereof and such remaining portions shall continue in full force and effect. The parties shall thereupon seek to negotiate substitute provisions, which are in conformity with the applicable laws.

Article 1.03

Any amendments or substitution as aforementioned shall be reduced to writing stating the effective date and duration thereof, and be executed by the parties hereto in the same manner as this Agreement.

Article 1.04

Should it become necessary during the life of this Agreement to introduce in any phase of the operation, any new class of work, within the scope of this Agreement, the job classification and its associated rate shall be discussed and agreed upon prior to introduction. Should the parties fail to reach agreement, the matter shall be submitted to Arbitration in accordance with Article 4.02 herein.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION RECOGNITION AND WORK JURISDICTION

Article 2.01

For the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages and other conditions of employment, the Company recognizes the Local Union as the exclusive representative of those employees coming under jurisdiction of the Local Union.

Article 2.02

All employees covered by this Agreement if not already members of the Union shall make immediate application for membership, and sign a Union Dues Deduction Authorization Card that shall be provided by the Employer, on behalf of the Local Union and, if accepted, shall become members and remain in good standing of the Union while employed in any capacity covered by this Agreement.

Article 2.03

Upon hire, employees will be advised that as a condition of employment they are required to execute an assignment of dues to the Local Union. The Employer will honour assignment for union dues and fees and remit the fees and dues to the Financial Secretary of Local Union 258 within fifteen (15) days from the end of the month that the dues are deducted for, providing the employee's name, rate, dues assessment and month deducted.

Article 2.04

It is agreed that no part of this Agreement is to be interpreted as requiring members of the Local Union to work behind a legal picket line where a strike, lockout or other conditions detrimental to the interest of the Local Union prevail.

Article 2.05

The parties agree that there will not be any strike or lockout during the life of this Agreement.

Article 2.06

Representatives of the Local Union may, with permission from the Company, have access to that portion of the Company's operations where Local Union members are employed. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Article 2.07

Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the management, direction, promotion and discipline of the working force is vested exclusively in the Employer. Where discipline is imposed by the Employer, the Local Union will be advised in writing.

Article 2.08

It is understood that all Traffic Control Persons hired by the Employer are hired to an "on-call" position.

ARTICLE 3 - SHOP STEWARDS

Article 3.01

The Union shall appoint a Shop Steward or Stewards at each location considered necessary. In some instances where there is more than one (1) Shop Steward, the Union may appoint a Chief Shop Steward. The Union shall notify the local management of the Employer as to the names of each Steward. The Employer shall likewise notify the Brotherhood as to the names and locations of each supervisor.

Article 3.02

Stewards shall report to their immediate supervisors and request permission to leave the job before leaving work to conduct Union business during working hours.

Article 3.03

The Company shall allow Stewards to conduct said business within their assigned areas of representation, unless such action would seriously interfere with operations. In such instances, the immediate supervisor will make arrangements for the Stewards to leave the job as soon thereafter as operations will permit.

Article 3.04

No Shop Steward, committee member or employee shall be discriminated against or jeopardized in standing or suffer any loss of conditions or employment on account of membership in or for legitimate activities on behalf of the Local Union.

Article 3.05

The Company shall pay employees at prevailing regular rates for Union business conducted during their regular business hours. When the Union requests an employee be off work to conduct Union Business, the Union will pay the employee's regular hourly rate.

Article 3.06 – Bulletin Board

At least one bulletin board shall be maintained at the Employer's office for rules and regulations of the Company and Union notices to the employees represented by the Union.

ARTICLE 4 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

Article 4.01 - Preamble

The following is the procedure that shall be used to adjust and settle all matters of complaints, disputes, grievances and controversies pertaining to the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of this Agreement and any matter, which may arise between the Company and the Union. It is mutually agreed by both Parties that it is the spirit and intent to adjust complaints and grievances as quickly as possible, and it is generally understood that an employee has no grievance until they have first given their foreman or supervisor an opportunity to adjust the complaint. If the complaint is not adjusted to the satisfaction of the employee within a period of ten (10) working days or such longer period as may be mutually agreed upon, it may be processed in accordance with the following grievance steps.

Article 4.02 - Grievance Steps

Step 1

The grievor, with the assistance of their Shop Steward, where applicable, will submit the grievance in writing to the Business Manager of the Union who will take the matter up with the appropriate Company official within ten (10) working days of the Company's reply in Step 1.

Step 2

Failing resolution of the difference or dispute at Step 1, the matter may be referred to a Board of Arbitration constituted under the provisions of the Arbitration Act. Arbitration proceedings must be commenced with sixty (60) calendar days after failure of settlement at Step 1. The said Board shall consist of a single Arbitrator who shall be agreed to by both parties, or failing agreement to be appointed by the Labour Relations Board at the request of the parties to this Agreement. The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding on both parties. Each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the Board of Arbitration. The Board of Arbitration shall complete its sitting and hand down its award within thirty (30) days of its appointment, except that this time may be extended with the mutual consent of the Employer and the Local Union.

The Board of Arbitration shall not have power to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement or to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions thereof, and, in reaching its decision it shall be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 – SENIORITY AND PROBATION

Article 5.01 - Definition of Seniority

Seniority is defined as an employee's accumulated service with the Employer from the initial date of hiring and will be the major consideration in determining the order of dispatch, subject to the ability to perform the required work. .

Where employees have been dispatched to a job site and there is a reduction in the number of employees required, the remaining work will be performed by the most senior qualified employee among those already dispatched to that job. The Union recognizes that in some instances the seniority list could be circumvented by a contractor name requesting a specific person.

The Employer may find it necessary to move an employee to another job, however the employee will be returned to their original position as soon as possible. When a job ceases for more than fourteen (14) days, it will be considered a new job.

Employees absent due to WCB, vacation or personal injury will be returned to the job they left from, if that job still exists. When employees request a removal from a job they will lose their call back.

Any employee who is consistently unavailable or who unreasonably refuses three (3) calls from the Employer in a thirty (30) day period shall be placed at the bottom of the dispatch list for a sixty (60) day period.

Article 5.02 – Emergency/Trouble Call

The first available employee living closest to the trouble area will be called for the job. Emergencies and trouble calls will include: traffic accident; wire down; gas leak; police incident or another circumstance of similar nature to the above mentioned.

Article 5.03 – Weekend Work

Employees wanting to work on the weekend will contact dispatch by 3:00 p.m. Thursday and be placed on the call out list. If a situation arises that the Employer does not have enough employees to fill all the work slots on a weekend they may phone the employees who had not put their name down for call out.

Article 5.04 - Probationary Period

Employees will be required to complete an initial probationary period of not more than an accumulation of seven-hundred and fifty (750) hours to determine their suitability for continuing employment. During this period they may be discharged for reasons of proven unsuitable conduct, insufficient experience or incompetence. The aforementioned shall not be applicable to former employees of the Employer who have completed a probationary period. The Employer may request the Union to agree to an extension of the probationary period.

All new lane closure technicians shall have a probationary period of 400 working hours. This probationary period can run simultaneous with the regular probationary period.

Article 5.05 - Loss of Seniority

An employee will lose his/her seniority and will be deemed to be terminated under the following circumstances:

- (a) terminated for just cause.
- (b) voluntarily terminates employment.
- (c) fails to return from Leave of Absence without notifying and/or getting an extension from the Employer.
- (d) performs no work in a twelve (12) month period.
- (e) Fails to qualify during the probationary period.
- (f) Accepting other employment during leave of absence.

Article 5.06 - Seniority List

The Employer will provide a current seniority list to the Union Hall upon request.

Article 5.07 - Credited Seniority

- (a) Absence due to annual vacation, Workers' Compensation, Local Union business, sickness and accident will in no way reduce an employee's accumulated seniority. Should a reduction in staff occur during any of the aforementioned periods, such reductions shall be in accordance with Article 5.01.
- (b) It shall be the duty of each employee to notify the Company of the reason for absence and upon request shall furnish evidence to support the absence (excluding annual vacation, Local Union business and Workers' Compensation) and keep the Company informed of the anticipated date of return to duty.

Article 5.08 – Work Opportunities

When a vacancy in a position other than Traffic Control Person occurs, the Employer shall notify all employees who have completed their probationary period of the vacancy. The most senior qualified person will be offered the position.

ARTICLE 6 – LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Article 6.01 - Union

- (a) The Company, upon receiving four (4) weeks' notice in writing from the Business Manager or designate of the Local Union, agrees to grant Leave of Absence without pay to not more than one (1) employee for full-time service with the Local Union.
- (b) The Company, upon receiving two (2) weeks' notice in writing from the Business Manager or designate of the Local Union, agrees to grant Leave of Absence without pay to Local Union members for the purposes of attending to Local Union business. Such Leaves of Absence shall not exceed one (1) in number of any one time.

Article 6.02 – Personal Leave

Employees requesting a Leave of Absence must do so in writing; likewise the Employer's response will be in writing. The Employer reserves the right to refuse leave when staffing requirements deem it not possible. Any employee found accepting other employment during a personal leave of absence will be terminated. Employees agree to sign a letter with the Employer agreeing not to work for any competitor of the Employer.

Article 6.03 – Bereavement Leave

Bereavement Leave of two (2) days paid at the employee's regular rate of pay will be granted where death has taken place in the immediate family. Immediate family shall be defined as: spouse, child, and parents of employee. Leave of one (1) day paid at the employee's regular rate of pay will be granted where death has taken place of in-laws, brother, sister and grandparents of the employee.

To qualify for bereavement leave an employee's seniority would have to be such as they would have worked this day.

Article 6.04 – Maternity Leave

An employee will be entitled to fifty-two (52) weeks of unpaid maternity leave. Maternity leave will commence eleven (11) weeks prior to the expected delivery date or later with the written consent of an employee's physician. An employee may request as additional leave if the baby has a physical, psychological or emotional condition requiring an additional period of parental care.

Article 6.05 – Adoption Leave

An employee will be entitled to an adoption leave of up to fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks of unpaid leave upon adoption of a child. The Employer may request proof of adoption prior to the leave being granted.

Article 6.06 – Parental Leave

An employee will be entitled to Parental Leave as follows:

- (a) Birth mother – if Leave in Article 6.04 has been taken, Mother is entitled to an additional 35 weeks of unpaid leave, beginning immediately after the Article 6.04 Leave.
- (b) A Birth Mother who does not take Leave in Article 6.04 is entitled to 37 weeks of unpaid leave, beginning after the child's birth and within 52 weeks after that event.
- (c) For a Birth Father – up to 37 consecutive weeks of unpaid leave, beginning after the child's birth and within 52 weeks after that event.
- (d) For Adoptive Parents – up to 37 consecutive weeks, beginning within 52 weeks after the child is placed with the parent.

Article 6.07 – Family Responsibility Leave

An employee is entitled to up to 5 days of unpaid leave during each employment year to meet responsibilities related to:

- (a) the care, health or education of a child in the employee's care; or
- (b) the care or health of any other member of the employee's immediate family.

Article 6.08 – Return from Leave of Absence

Upon return from Leave of Absence, the employee will be returned to the job held prior to the Leave of Absence or a similar job, if the prior job held by the employee no longer exists. Except in cases where the employee would have been removed from that job for just cause.

ARTICLE 7 - SAFETY PRACTICES

Article 7.01 – Workers' Compensation Regulations

Both the Employer and the Union hereby declare their intent to conduct a safe operation. Working practices shall be governed by the regulations of the province of British Columbia. All vehicles provided by the Employer shall be maintained in a manner, which makes them safe and reliable for all employees required to operate them.

Article 7.02 - Safety Committee

The Employer shall adhere to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Board's Industrial Health and Safety Regulations and hold regular monthly meetings as outlined in the W.C.B. Regulations.

A copy of the minutes of the Safety Committee will be posted on the Union Bulletin Board and a copy will be forwarded to the Union Hall.

Article 7.03 - Safety Practices

- (a)
 - i Employees requiring glasses must wear glasses, preferably with safety lenses instead of contact lenses while on the job site.
 - ii W.C.B. approved safety footwear must be worn at all times while on the job site.
 - iii Employee attire will be in conformance with W.C.B. Regulation and the Employer's policy.

- (b) Qualifications
 - i Each employee must hold a valid Traffic Control Certificate.
 - ii Employees required to operate pilot vehicles shall be properly licensed, with the Employer paying the cost difference between the license required for piloting and a regular license.

Article 7.04 – Safety Equipment

The Employer will provide equipment to its employees as required by the W.C.B. This equipment will include but not be limited to:

Staff	Hard hats (when required)	Reflective vests
Wristbands	Paddle	Two-way radio with back-up battery
Ankle Bands
Restrictive hearing device (when required)	Flash light and batteries	Safety goggles (when required)

Employees requiring replacement equipment must return used or faulty equipment to the Employer at the time the replacement equipment is picked up. Equipment that is the property of the Employer will not be used by the employee for any purpose other than working for the Employer.

Upon the completion of their probationary period with the Employer each employee will be entitled to a maximum of seventy-five ($75.00) towards the purchase of WCB approved safety foot wear during each twelve (12) month period. The employee will be required to provide proof of purchase by way of a valid retail receipt.

Article 7.05 – Inclement Weather

The safety and well-being of the employees shall be considered by the Employer at all times in deciding what work is to be performed during the inclement weather such as rain, snow, icing, severe cold or electrical storms. Employees who have reported to the job site reserve the right to refuse employment during inclement weather.

No employee will be allowed to work more than sixteen (16) hours in any twenty-four (24) hour period without the consent of the Union’s Business Manager or designate. These sixteen (16) hours to include travel time.

Article 7.06 – Harassment-Free Work Place

It is the intent of the parties to provide a work environment, which is free of discrimination, harassment and intimidation. No employee will be subjected to any form of a poisoned atmosphere by representatives of the Employer, other employees, or clients of the Employer. Any acts contrary to the above will not be tolerated in the work place and may result in a requirement for education and/or discipline.

Article 7.07 - On-the-Job Injury

- (a) If an employee is injured to such an extent that they are obliged to cease work, their wages will continue for the balance of the day on which the injury occurred.

- (b) The Company shall furnish adequate emergency transportation to and from the nearest suitable doctor or hospital for any employee injured or who has become seriously ill while in the Company's employ.

Article 7.08 - Accident Investigation

All accidents resulting in a fatality or injury requiring medical treatment will be investigated by one representative of the IBEW and one representative of the Employer.

The accident investigation report will be submitted to:

- (a) W.C.B.;
- (b) Employer; and
- (c) IBEW.

Article 7.09 – First Aid Premium
