An authorized representative of the Union may be present, if required by either party. It is understood the Unit

Manager, or his/her representative may have such counsel or assistance as he/she may desire. The Company's decision will be delivered in writing within seven (7) working days, or a date mutually agreed on between the Company and the Union, from the date of the presentation of the grievance.

The decision of the Arbitrator selected will be final and binding upon the Parties.
- 13.06 The Arbitration proceedings will be expedited by the parties hereto.
- 13.07 No person may be appointed as an Arbitrator who has been involved directly in the controversy under consideration.
- 13.08 The Arbitrator shall not be vested with the power to change, modify or alter any of the terms of this Agreement. All grievances submitted shall present an arbitrable issue under this Agreement, and shall not depend on or involve an issue or contention by either party which is contrary to any provision of this Agreement, or which involves the determination of a subject matter not covered by or arising during the term of this Agreement.
- 13.09 The expenses of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties to the Arbitration.
- 13.10 It is agreed that a grievance arising directly between the Company and the Union may be submitted in writing within five (5) working days, or at a date mutually agreed on between the Company and the Union, after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred, which shall be originated under Step No. 2, and the time limits set out with respect to that Step shall appropriately apply.

A copy of such written reasons will be given to the Shop Steward.

- 13.13 A minor offense entered on an employee's record will not be used as evidence in an arbitration hearing unless it has been committed within fifteen (15) months prior to the disciplinary action giving rise to the grievance, or unless the Company declares that it wants to prove a continuity of similar offenses.

The Company shall forward a copy to the employee and to the Union within seven (7) days of the event giving rise to the statement.

Cost of such test to be borne by the Company. Any employee taking such a test is entitled to know the results of such test.

- 14.02 When the employment of a regular full-time employee is permanently terminated by the company due to a loss of business by the Company, or due to technological changes, such employee, provided he/she has been in the employ of the Company for a minimum of one (1) year, upon request, shall receive one (1) week's pay for each year of service with the Company, commencing with the second (2nd) year of service, subject to the following stipulations: The payment will not affect the employee's right to be recalled as outlined in Article 19; however, an employee who receives such payment and is subsequently recalled to work in line with Article 19, will only accumulate further rights to such payment commencing with the date he/she was recalled.

- 14.03 On the request of either Party, Company representatives and employee representatives shall meet at least once every two (2) months until this Agreement is terminated, for the purpose of discussing issues relating to the workplace that affect the Parties or any employee bound by this Agreement.

- 17.07 Pay for each week of vacation will be computed on the basis of two percent (2%) of the gross wages earned by the employee during the period June 1st to May 31st immediately preceding the year in which the vacation is taken.
- 17.08 On termination of employment, an employee will receive vacation pay, determined as mentioned above, for vacations earned but not taken.
- 17.09 When an employee goes on vacation, he/she will continue to be paid in accordance with the normal payroll schedule at the appropriate rate of vacation pay as established in Article 17.07.

17.10 HPX operators shall arrange for suitable relief to cover operations during holidays or unpaid time away. All time away is to be coordinated with relief operator and dates are to be relayed to the company. Such hours worked will include overtime hours, General Holidays and vacations.

If less than fifteen hundred (1500) hours have been worked, the employee shall be entitled to vacations as above set forth, however, only the applicable pay percentages shall apply to the vacation pay.

18. GENERAL HOLIDAYS

18.01 It is agreed that all employees shall be entitled to the following General Holidays with pay, regardless of the day on which they fall (i.e. an extra day's pay if it falls on a non-working day).

New Year's Day	B.C. Day	Christmas Day
Family Day	Labour Day	Boxing Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day	½ day (4 hours)
Victoria Day	Remembrance Day	Christmas Eve
Canada Day		½ Day (4 hours)
Floating Holiday		New Year's Eve

18.02 All employees with at least one (1) year's continuous service will be entitled to a Floating Holiday with pay, to be observed on a day of the employee's choosing within the calendar year earned, provided:

- (1) Its date is made known to the immediate Supervisor at least two (2) weeks in advance;
- (2) There are no more than three (3) other employees observing the holiday on the same date;

Otherwise, the holiday will be observed at another day of the employee's choosing, filling the above provisions.

18.03 General Holiday pay will be computed on the basis of four (4) hours at the employee's regular hourly rate.

18.04 Employees who are required to work a shift which commences at any time during the General Holiday, or a shift which carries over into a General Holiday for at least two (2) hours, shall in addition to their regular Holiday pay, receive double their hourly rate for all hours worked during that shift (i.e. triple time), but shall not be entitled to this for hours in both shifts which fall during the General Holiday period of twenty-four (24) hours. If shifts are worked in both of these days, then the shift which contains the majority of hours in the General Holiday shall be the shift paid for as the General Holiday.

General Holiday pay will also be paid if failure to return to work is beyond the control of the employee or if the employee is laid off within seven (7) days of the General Holiday.

18.07 In the event that a General Holiday falls within an employee's vacation period, he/she will be granted an extra day's holiday with pay.

19. SENIORITY

19.01 An employee will be considered on probation until after he/she has completed four hundred (400) hours worked including overtime with the Company within a twelve (12) month period. The employee's name will be placed on the seniority list with the seniority dating from the date he/she commenced employment. It is understood that probationary employees may be dismissed by the Company for reasons less serious than might justify the dismissal of an employee who has acquired seniority. However, during such employment, all sections of this Agreement shall apply to them, including the grievance procedure, with the exception that a probationary employee who is laid off will have preference to be rehired during the ninety (90) calendar days immediately following the date of his/her lay off.

19.02 In the event of a work shortage, for the purpose of lay-offs and recalling those to work who have been laid off, Bargaining Unit seniority will apply where any employee can demonstrate the required competencies (knowledge and qualifications) and has the ability and efficiency to perform within a reasonable period of time any job in the premises to which his/her seniority would entitle him/her. During such time training shall be provided if required.

In the event of a job opening arising while a laid-off employee maintains recall rights the Company will inform the employee of the opening by registered mail to the last address recorded with the Company and the employee may then apply for the position. If the employee does not apply for the position as outlined in Clause 15.01 within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt of the notice, the employee will not be eligible for consideration for the position in question.

19.03 When making promotions for job vacancies (excluding promotions to positions outside of the bargaining unit, which shall not be subject to the provisions of this Agreement), Bargaining Unit seniority will apply where any employee can demonstrate the required competencies (knowledge and qualifications) and has the ability and efficiency to perform any job in the premises to which his/her seniority would entitle him/her.

When any employee is promoted to another job as herein set out, he/she shall be given a reasonable period of trial, during which period training shall be provided if required, and if after such period is unable to perform the job properly shall revert back to his/her former job and rate of pay without any loss of seniority.

19.04 When an employee is transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit and within one (1) year of the transfer returns to a position in the bargaining unit, the time worked by such employee outside the unit shall not be counted and accrued for the purposes of determining his/her seniority regarding lay-offs, recalls and promotions. However, his/her previous bargaining unit seniority will apply.

If the employee does not return to the bargaining unit within the twelve (12) month trial period, the employee shall lose all bargaining unit seniority.

19.05 A seniority list will be posted by the Company within one (1) month after the signing of this Agreement. After such posting, the list shall become final as to the employee's name and dates designated on it, except as to any employee who has disputed the accuracy of his/her seniority while the list is posted, as set out in Article 13. The seniority list will be brought up to date every six (6) months and a copy will be given to the Union and a copy posted on the Notice Board.

19.06 A person shall lose all seniority if he/she:

- (a) Voluntarily quits the Company; or
- (b) Is discharged and the discharge is not reversed through the Grievance Procedure; or
- (c) Fails to report for work within five (5) working days, after being notified by the Company by registered mail to the last address recorded with the Company following lay off; or
- (d) Is absent for three (3) consecutive working days without notification to the Company, except where the ability to notify the Company is beyond the control of the employee; or
- (e) Is absent due to lay-off for a period of time exceeding the equivalent of his/her accumulated seniority at the time of lay-off, to a maximum of twenty-four (24) months; or
- (f) Is absent due to lay off for more than twenty-four (24) calendar months for an employee with more than two (2) years seniority at the time of lay off; or
- (g) Fails to return to work upon the termination of an authorized leave of absence or vacations, except where such failure is beyond the control of the employee.

19.07 It shall be the duty of employees to notify the Company promptly of any change of address. If an employee fails to do this, the Company will not be responsible for failure to reach such employee.

19.08 In the event of a lay-off of more than five (5) working days, the Company will give individual or general notice, as the case may require, of not less than two (2) working days, or pay at the regular hourly rate in lieu thereof, in advance of the effective date of such lay-off, to such employee or employees. Provided, however, that no such notice or such pay shall be required in the event of a lay-off arising from circumstances, such as power failure, plant damage due to storm, etc., or any Act of God, beyond the control of the Company.
