An employee, or his/her designated union representative, with the written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review a copy of the employee's personnel file, in order to facilitate the investigation of a grievance or an employee may review his/her file for personal reference.

The employee or his/her designated union representative, as the case may be, shall give the Employer three (3) calendar days' (not including designated statutory holidays) notice prior to examining the file.

The personnel file shall not be made public or shown to any other individual without the employee's written consent, except in the proper operation of the Employer's business and/or for the purposes of the proper application of this Agreement.

8.06 Grievance Procedure

8.06.1 Preamble

The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

- (a) differences between the Parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of a provision of this Agreement, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration; or
- (b) the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee bound by this Agreement.

If an employee has a grievance, her/his grievance shall be settled as follows:

Step One (1)

The employee with or without a Shop Steward (at the employee's option), shall first discuss the grievance with the immediate Supervisor or his/her designate within seven (7) calendar days after the date on which he/she became aware or should reasonably have become aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance. In this first step, both parties shall make every effort to settle the dispute. If the grievance is not settled at this step then;

8.06.2 Step Two:

The grievance shall be reduced to writing by:

- (1) recording the grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;

- (2) stating the article or articles of the Agreement infringed upon or alleged to have been violated and the remedy or correction required;
- (3) the grievance shall be signed by the employee and a Shop Steward or Union Committee member;
- (4) the supervisor shall acknowledge receipt of the written grievance by signing and dating the grievance form at the time the grievance is presented; and
- (5) within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the written grievance, the supervisor or the department head shall give her/his written reply. If the grievance is not settled at this step then:

8.06.3 Step Three (3)

If the grievance is not settled at this step, then within twenty-one (21) calendar days of receiving the Step Two response, the Union Committee or its delegate, shall notify the Employer in writing that the grievance will proceed to Step Three. The Employer and Union will meet to discuss the grievance. Each party shall provide to the other a statement of facts and copies of all relevant documents. The findings or decisions of the Employer shall be presented to the Union in writing within seven (7) calendar days of the meeting. If the grievance is not settled at this step, either party may refer the grievance to Troubleshooter under Article 8.9, or arbitration within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the presentation of this decision.

The Employer agrees that their representatives at the Step 3 meeting have the authority to resolve the grievance.

8.07 Policy Grievance

A policy grievance is defined as one which affects the collective interests of the bargaining unit, rather than the interests of a particular grievor. Where either party to this agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an article to this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer within fourteen (14) calendar days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory resolution is reached, either party within a further twenty eight (28) calendar days may submit the dispute to arbitration as set out in Article 10 of this Agreement.

8.08 Dismissal/Suspension for Alleged Cause

Employees dismissed or suspended for alleged cause shall have the right within seven (7) calendar days after the date of dismissal or suspension to initiate a grievance at Step Three of the grievance procedure.

The Employer will send to the Union Office and local union designate a copy of the suspension or termination letter at the time of providing it to the employee.

8.09 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this Agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, the arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute, and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

8.10 Industry Troubleshooter

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, (names to be determined) or a substitute agreed to by the parties, shall be by the mutual agreement of the parties:

- (a) Investigate the difference,
- (b) Define the issue in the difference, and
- (c) Make written recommendations to resolve the difference within five (5) days of the date of receipt of the request, and for those five (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure. The parties shall jointly bear the cost of the Troubleshooter.

8.11 In the event the parties are unable to agree on an Industry troubleshooter within a period of thirty (30) calendar days from the date this Collective Agreement is signed, either party may apply to the Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia to appoint such person.

8.12 Agreed to Statement of Facts

The parties will endeavor to reach an agreed to statement of facts prior to the hearing.

8.13 Reinstatement of Employees

If, prior to the constitution of an Arbitration Board pursuant to Article 10, it is found that an employee was disciplined or dismissed without just cause and reasonable cause, or laid-off contrary to the provisions of the Collective Agreement, that employee shall be reinstated by the Employer without loss of pay with all her/his rights, benefits and privileges which she/he would have enjoyed if the lay-off, discipline or discharge had not taken place, or upon such other basis as the parties may agree.

By written mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, the probationary period may be extended by one hundred and sixty two (162) hours provided written reasons are given for requesting such extension. An employee who works overtime during the probationary period shall have the hours worked credited to seniority hours notwithstanding clause 12.1.

During the probationary period, an employee may be terminated. If it is shown on behalf of the employee that the termination was not for just and reasonable cause, the employee shall be reinstated.

11.02 Upon completion of the probationary period, the initial date of employment shall be the anniversary date of the employee for the purpose of determining benefits and seniority.

ARTICLE 12 – SENIORITY

12.06 Seniority Dates

The Employer will post a seniority list containing the name and seniority of each employee in chronological order. The seniority list shall be updated and posted not less frequently than on a quarterly basis (January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1). Copies of the seniority list will be provided to the local union designate and HEU staff representative following posting. ARTICLE 13 – PROMOTION, TRANSFER, DEMOTION AND REASSIGNMENT

13.01 Selection Criteria

In the promotion, transfer, demotion or reassignment of employees efficiency, required qualifications (including initiative and work performance), and seniority shall be the determining factors. Each of the three determining factors will be accorded equal weight.

It is the responsibility of the employee to ensure his/her personnel file is current with all certificates/credentials.

13.02 Qualifying Period

If an employee is promoted, demoted, or transferred to a job, then the promoted, demoted, or transferred employee shall be considered a qualifying employee in her/his new job for a period of sixty (60) days.

In no instance during the qualifying period shall such an employee lose seniority or perquisites. However, if an employee has been promoted, demoted, or transferred and during the aforementioned sixty (60) days is found unsatisfactory in the new position, the promoted, demoted or transferred employee shall be returned to her/his former job before the promotion, demotion or transfer took place, without loss of seniority, and any other employee hired, promoted, demoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of jobs, shall be returned to her/his former job and pay rate without loss of seniority or accrued perquisites.

An employee who requests to be relieved of a promotion, voluntary demotion or transfer during the qualifying period in the new job shall return to the employee's former job without loss of seniority or perquisites on the same basis as outlined in paragraph (2) of this Article.

13.03 In cases where an employee is required, during a scheduled shift, to temporarily perform the duties of a lower-paid job, such employee shall incur no reduction in wages.

An employee temporarily reassigned shall return to his/her own position as soon as operationally possible.

13.07 Promotions

A regular employee promoted to a job with a higher wage rate structure shall receive in the new job the increment rate that is immediately higher than her/his wage rate immediately prior to the promotion.

For increment progression, the employee's increment anniversary date shall then become the initial day in the new job. Employee pay rates shall become effective from the first day in the new job and further increment increases shall become effective on the established increment date.

However, should the promotion at any time result in a lesser rate of pay than the employee would have received if the promotion had not occurred, then the employee shall retain the increment anniversary date of her/his prior job.

13.08 Transfers

A regular employee transferred to a job with the same pay rate structure as her/his former job shall remain at the same increment step in the pay rate structure and shall retain her/his former increment anniversary date.

A regular employee transferred upon the employee's request to a job with the same pay rate structures as her/his former job who does not have prior experience or ability to qualify as above, shall remain at the increment step immediately preceding the step indicated by length of overall seniority for a period not to exceed three (3) months. Upon completion of this qualifying period, the employee shall revert to the increment anniversary date of her/his prior job.

13.09 Demotions

An employee requesting a voluntary demotion from a higher to a lower-rated job, and who is subsequently demoted to the lower-rated job, shall go to the increment step of the lower-rated job commensurate with her/his overall seniority, provided she/he has experience in or possesses the ability to perform the duties of the lower-rated job without a training period. For the purpose of this Article and in the event of involuntary demotion, an employee who does not have prior experience or ability to qualify as above, shall remain at the increment step immediately preceding the step indicated by length of overall seniority, for a period not to exceed three (3) months.

13.10 Re-employment After Retirement

Employees who have reached retirement age as prescribed under the Pension (Municipal) Act and continue in the Employer's service, or are re-engaged within three (3) calendar months of retirement, shall continue at their former increment step in the pay rate structure of the classification in which they are employed, and the employee's previous anniversary date shall be maintained. All perquisites (which does not include seniority) earned up to the date of retirement shall be continued or reinstated.

13.11 Bridging of Service

If a regular employee terminates as a result of a decision to care for a dependent parent, spouse or child, and is re-employed, upon application they shall be credited with the length of service accumulated at time of termination for the purpose of benefits based on service seniority. The following conditions apply:

- (a) The employee must have been a regular employee for at least two years of service seniority at time of termination.
- (b) The resignation must indicate the reason for termination
- (c) The break in service shall be for no longer than two (2) years

- (b) Notwithstanding (a) above, if the vacancy is a temporary one of less than sixty (60) days, the position shall not be posted and instead shall be filled as follows:
 - (i) by part time regular employees registered for work in accordance with this clause.

In the posting of a vacancy or a new job, the hours of work, including stop and start times, days off and work area may be subject to change provided that:

- (i) the change is consistent with operational requirements and the provisions of the Collective Agreement, and is not capricious, arbitrary, discriminatory or in bad faith; and
- (ii) the Employer has inquired into, and given prior due consideration to, the importance placed by the affected employee(s) on the existing hours of work, days off and work area; and the impact the change will have on the personal circumstances of such employee(s).

14.03 Applications from Absent Employees

The Employer shall also consider applications from those employees, with the required seniority, who are absent from their normal places of employment because of sick leave, annual vacation, unpaid leave, union leave, compassionate leave, or education leave, and who have filled in an application form before each absence, stating the jobs they would be interested in applying for should a vacancy or new job occur during their absence.

(a) In the case of a newly created classification, or where an existing classification is changed to the extent that it becomes a new classification, the Employer will draft a new description and meet with the Union to discuss the job description and appropriate remuneration. If an agreement cannot be reached the issue/s may be submitted to expedited arbitration. The arbitrator shall decide on the issues regarding the job description, based on the relationship of the new classification to existing classifications in the bargaining unit.

(b) Change to an Existing Job

If an employee considers there has been a significant change to their classification, the employee, or union shop steward, shall discuss the change with the manager and may initiate a grievance in accordance with Article 8. 20.02 Technological Displacement

The Employer agrees that, whenever possible, an employee shall not lose employment because of changes that fall under Section 54. ARTICLE 21 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

21.01 Discussion with Union

The Parties recognize the value of a discussion, or a meeting prior to laying off Employees in the Bargaining Unit. Where the Employer intends to introduce a measure which may result in a reduction of the workforce, the parties shall meet at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the measure being implemented. The purpose is to discuss the relevant factors related to the layoff and possible alternatives. The Employer will provide a current seniority list to the Union upon a layoff.

Where a notice of displacement or layoff actually results in a layoff, and prior to the layoff becoming effective, a copy of such notice shall be sent to the Local union designate and HEU staff representative.

21.02 In the event of a reduction in the work force, regular employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority, provided that those retained are qualified and have the ability to do the work. A reduction of an employee's full-time equivalent (FTE) shall be considered a layoff.

When, in the opinion of the Employer, it becomes necessary to reduce the workforce the Employer shall consider opportunities to rearrange employee schedules. Employees affected by the new schedule shall choose a new line on the schedule in order of seniority. Any employee who is not returned to the schedule through this process shall be laid off.

21.03 Bumping

In the event of a layoff, a regular employee may choose one of the following options:

- (a) Accept the reduced hours while maintaining recall rights to a position with an equivalent FTE.
- (b) Displace the most junior employee at the worksite with the same FTE in the job classification for which he/she is qualified and has the ability to do the work. If a position is not available with the same FTE, the employee may displace the most junior employee at the worksite with the next highest FTE within the job classification for which he/she is qualified and has the ability to do the work. If a position is not available with the next highest FTE, the employee may displace the most junior employee at the worksite with a greater FTE within the job classification for which he/she is qualified and has the ability to do the work.

The Employer shall supply to the employee and the Union designate a list of all employees that may be bumped by the employee. After receiving the list, bumping rights must be exercised within five (5) days by providing written notice to the Employer. It is agreed that an employee cannot bump into a position which would constitute a promotion.

- (c) Be placed on the casual list. And maintain recall rights
- (d) Accept Layoff notice and be placed on the recall list.
- (e) An employee who fails to exercise his/her right to bump another employee under this article may be laid off any time after five (5) days from the date on which the employee received the seniority list referred to in 21.3 (b) or at the expiry of the employee's notice period, whichever is later.

- (b) In the event the employee accepts recall to a position with less hours of work than enjoyed prior to the layoff, the employee shall continue to have full recall rights to the pre-layoff Full-Time Equivalency (FTE) to a maximum of twelve (12) months from the date of the original layoff.
- (c) No employee shall be recalled to a position with a greater FTE than held prior to the layoff. In the event a vacancy exists to which a full or partial recall is not possible, the Employer shall post the vacancy pursuant to Article 14 and shall recall to the resultant vacancy that is possible in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

21.11 Recalls

Recalls shall be carried out in order of seniority by classification within the bargaining unit provided the employee has the ability to perform the assigned work satisfactorily after an appropriate orientation or familiarization period. Such recall shall apply only to work periods of fourteen (14) calendar days duration or longer.

21.12 Termination of Recall Rights

The employment of an employee shall be considered terminated when the employee does not accept recall to a position at the worksite with the same FTE enjoyed prior to layoff, or has not changed her status to casual prior to the layoff end date, or has been on layoff and not on reduced hours for twelve (12) months without being recalled to a regular position.

(b) Unanticipated Overtime

Where overtime is unanticipated (less than 24 hours in advance), overtime shall be offered by seniority to qualified employees who are at work. If no qualified employee accepts the overtime offered, the employer may offer the overtime by seniority to any available and qualified employee.

- (c) The Employer may cancel the overtime, without any penalty, where it is able to schedule the work at straight-time rates or no longer requires the work to be done.

- (d) Full time employees requested to work in excess of their normal full-time hours on a standard day, as outlined in Article 16.2, shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half of their basic hourly rate of pay for the first three (3) hours of overtime and double time thereafter.

23.04 Overtime shall be compensated either in pay or time off as mutually agreed between the Employer and the employee. This must be specified in writing between the Employer and the employee by the end of the current pay period, and if not done so, will be compensated by being paid out. Time off shall be scheduled at a mutually agreeable time. Overtime shall be paid by the end of the next pay period.

24.02 If an employee is called back to work and does not receive a total of eight (8) consecutive hours off duty in the twenty-four (24) hour period beginning from the commencement of the employee's shift, then the employee will not be required to report for duty for her/his next shift until she/he has received a total of eight (8) consecutive hours off duty. In such circumstances, no deduction will be made in the employee's daily pay and the employee's normal shift hours will not be extended to have the employee work a full shift.

The employee in the above situation will advise her/his supervisor in advance of the fact that she/he will not be reporting for duty at her/his scheduled time.

This provision is waived if the employee is granted a request for a particular shift arrangement that does not give the employee eight (8) consecutive hours in total off duty in the aforementioned twenty-four (24) hour period.

24.03 Telephone Consultation

When an employee has been assigned to handle job-related matters without returning to the work place and is consulted by telephone by someone authorized to do so, the employee shall be compensated in fifteen (15) minute minimum increments for time spent on the telephone consultation with an equivalent amount of lieu time off to be scheduled by mutual agreement.

24.04 On Call

Employees required to be on-call shall be paid an on-call differential of two dollars ($2.00) per hour, or portion thereof. The minimum on-call requirement shall be four (4) consecutive hours.

ARTICLE 27 - SCHEDULING PROVISIONS

- (a) The Employer shall arrange the times of all on-duty and off-duty shifts, including statutory holidays, and post these at least fourteen (14) calendar days in advance of their effective date.
- (b) The Employer may alter the scheduled work days and/or start and stop times of an employee without giving at least fourteen (14) calendar days advance notice, in an emergency or circumstances beyond the Employer's control. In such cases, the shift(s) of the most junior qualified employee(s) will be amended without overtime owing, except in circumstances of less than ten (10) hours between shifts.
- (c) If the Employer intends to implement a revised work schedule, the Employer will post the proposed rotation no less than seven (7) calendar days so that impacted regular employees in the unit/department have an opportunity to review it. Within a further seven (7) calendar days, the impacted regular employees will select their line on the new rotation in order of seniority. Any regular employee without a line in the new work schedule will be issued a displacement notice in accordance with article 21.
- (d) There shall be a minimum of ten (10) consecutive hours off-duty between the completion of one work shift and the commencement of the next.

- (f) If a written request for a change in starting time is made by an employee which would not allow eight (8) consecutive hours off-duty between the completion of one work shift and the commencement of another, and such request is granted, then the application of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section shall be waived for all employees affected by the granting of such a request provided they are in agreement.

- (g) Employees may exchange shifts with the prior written approval of the Employer provided that there is no increased cost to the employer.
- (h) Regular full-time employees shall not be required to work three (3) different shifts in any six (6) consecutive day period posted in their work schedules.
- (i) Where operational requirements necessitate a temporary change in start or stop time by up to a maximum of two (2) hours with no change in shift duration overtime rates pursuant to article 23 will not be applicable.

If child care, transit difficulties or other serious personal circumstances do not permit such a change, employees may decline the change without repercussion by the Employer.

27.02 Unusual Job Requirements of Short Duration

The nature of health care is such that at times it is necessary for an employee to perform work not normally required in her/his job and, therefore, the requirements of the moment shall determine the type of work to be performed. It is understood that an employee shall not be expected to perform a task for which she/he is not adequately trained.

ARTICLE 28 – STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

28.01 Statutory Holidays

All full time regular employees shall be entitled to twelve (12) statutory holidays and such other holidays as may be in future proclaimed or declared by either the Provincial or Federal Governments:

New Year's Day	Thanksgiving Day	B.C. Day	Easter Monday
Labour Day	Family Day	Christmas Day	Boxing Day
Good Friday	Remembrance Day	Canada Day	Victoria Day

Employees shall be scheduled off from work, exclusive of annual vacations, a minimum of one hundred sixteen (116) days per year (that is, an average of two (2) days per week plus a minimum of twelve (12) statutory holidays). If at the end of fifty-two weeks dating from an employee's first scheduled shift in January, an employee has not had a minimum of one hundred sixteen (116) days off, she/he shall be paid extra at the applicable overtime rate for each day by which her/his total number of days off falls short of one hundred sixteen (116) days, except that she/he shall not again be paid for any day for which she/he was paid overtime in accordance with article 23.

28.02 Employees who are required to work on a statutory holiday shall be paid at the rate of time and one half (1-1/2) for all hours worked.

28.03 Every effort shall be made to schedule such public holidays or their equivalent days, as addition to the employee's two (2) regularly scheduled days off per week so that employees will receive as many three-day breaks during each year as possible.

28.04 The Employer shall make every effort to schedule either Christmas Day or New Year's Day off for employees so requesting.

28.05 If a statutory holiday occurs within an employee's vacation period, an extra day's vacation will be allowed for each statutory holiday so occurring.

28.06 All employees scheduled to work on any of the statutory holidays as listed in Article 28.1 shall not have their normal hours of work reduced.

28.07 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, employees on leave of absence, excluding vacation, will not be eligible for statutory holidays.

28.08 Part-time Employees

On each pay cheque, part-time employees shall be paid in addition to their earnings, four point eight percent (4.8%) of their earnings in lieu of statutory holidays.

A part time employee required to work on a statutory holiday shall be paid at one and one-half (1-1/2) times for all hours worked on the statutory holiday.

ARTICLE 29 – COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

29.01 Compassionate leave of absence of three (3) days with pay shall be granted to a regular employee at the time of notification of death upon application to the Employer in the event of a death of a member of the employee's immediate family. This shall include parent (or alternatively step-parent or foster parent), spouse, child, step-child, grandchild, legal guardian, ward and relative permanently residing in the employee's household or with whom the employee permanently resides.

Such compassionate leave shall be granted to employees who are on other paid leaves of absence including sick leave and annual vacations. When compassionate leave of absence with pay is granted, any concurrent paid leave credits shall be restored.

Compassionate leave of absence with pay shall not apply when an employee is on an unpaid leave of absence.

ARTICLE 30 – LEAVE – UNPAID

30.01 Unpaid Leave

Requests by employees for unpaid leave of absence shall be made in writing to the Department Manager or his/her Designate and may be granted at the Employer's discretion. The employee shall make every reasonable effort to give at least fourteen (14) days' notice to minimize disruption of staff. The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to comply with such requests unless it would unduly interrupt the Employer's operations and the Employer will provide written notice of their decision no less than five (5) days prior to the date the leave is to commence.

30.02 Unpaid Leave - After Three Years

For every three (3) years' continuous service, an employee may request, in writing, an extended unpaid leave of absence, giving the longest possible advance notice. Every reasonable effort shall be made to comply with such requests providing that replacements to ensure proper operation of the Employer's business can be found. Notice of the Employer's decision shall be in writing.

30.03 Seniority and Benefit Entitlements During Unpaid Leave

Any employee granted unpaid leave of absence totaling up to twenty (20) working days in any year shall continue to accumulate seniority and all benefits and shall return to her/his former job and increment step.

If an unpaid leave of absence or an accumulation of unpaid leaves of absence exceeds twenty (20) working days in any year, the employee shall not accumulate benefits from the twenty-first (21st) day of the unpaid leave to the last day of the unpaid leave but shall accumulate benefits and receive credit for previously earned benefits upon expiration of the unpaid leave.

30.04 Unpaid Leave Union Business

- (a) Leave of absence without pay shall be granted upon request for the reasons set out below unless it would unduly interrupt the Employer's operations or result in additional wage costs:
- 1) to an elected or appointed representative of the Union to attend conventions of the Union and bodies to which the Union is affiliated, to a maximum of fourteen (14) days per occurrence;
 - 2) for elected or appointed representatives of the Union to attend to Union business which requires them to leave their general work area;

- 3) members of the Provincial Executive of the Union shall be granted leave of absence to attend the regular meetings of such Executive;
 - 4) for employees who are representatives of the Union on a Bargaining Committee.
- (b) Long term leave of absence without pay shall be granted to employees designated by the Union to transact Union business for periods of not less than fourteen (14) days unless this would unduly interrupt the operation of the department. Such requests shall be made in writing sufficiently in advance to minimize disruption of the department. Employees granted such leave of absence shall retain all rights and privileges accumulated prior to obtaining such leave. Seniority shall continue to accumulate during such leave and shall apply to such provisions as increments and promotions.
- (c) When leave of absence without pay is granted pursuant to part (a) or (b), the leave shall be given with pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for salary and benefit costs, including travel time incurred, within sixty (60) days of receipt of the invoice. It is understood that employees granted leave of absence pursuant to this Clause shall receive their current rate of pay while on leave of absence. Leave of absence granted under this Clause shall include sufficient travel time. The pay and benefits received by the employee and reimbursed by the Union under this Article shall be based on the number of hours to which the Union indicates, in writing, the employee is entitled.
- This provision does not apply to employees on extended leaves of absence who are employed by the Union on a permanent full-time basis.
- (d) The Union shall provide the Employer with reasonable notice to minimize disruption of the operation and shall make every reasonable effort to give a minimum of fourteen (14) days' notice prior to the commencement of leave under (a) or (b) above. The Employer agrees that any of the above leaves of absence shall not be unreasonably withheld.

30.05 Unpaid Leave – Public Office

Employees shall be granted unpaid leave of absence to enable them to run for elected public office and if elected, to serve their term(s) of office subject to the following provisions:

- (a) Employees seeking election in a Municipal, Provincial or Federal election shall be granted unpaid leave of absence for a period up to ninety (90) calendar days.
- (b) Employees elected to public office shall be granted unpaid leave of absence for a period up to five (5) years.

ARTICLE 31 – SICK LEAVE, WCB, INJURY-ON-DUTY

31.01 Sick leave credits with pay shall be granted on the basis of one-half (1/2) work day per month, cumulative to a maximum of three hundred (300) hours. Upon completion of the probationary period, employees shall have sick leave benefits paid retroactive to their starting date to the extent of the accumulated sick leave credits earned up to the date of return from illness.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, employees with accumulated sick leave credits in excess of three hundred (300) hours shall retain a maximum of five hundred (500) hours effective date of ratification. Where the accumulated credit exceeds three hundred (300) hours, no further credits shall be earned until the accumulated balance is reduced below three hundred (300) hours, at which time the accumulation of sick leave credits will recommence.

31.02 Sick leave with pay is only payable because of sickness and employees who are absent from duty because of sickness may be required to prove sickness. Failure to meet this requirement can be cause for disciplinary action. Repeated failure to meet this requirement can lead to dismissal. Employees must notify the Employer as promptly as possible of any absence from duty because of sickness and employees must notify the employer prior to their return.

Leave – Workers' Compensation

(a) Entitlement to Leave

An employee shall be granted Workers' Compensation leave with net pay in the event that the Workers' Compensation Board/WorkSafe determines that the employee has established a claim (time-loss benefit) and they are unable to perform their duties by reason of the compensable injury which occurred while employed by the Employer. For the purposes of this clause, "net pay" is defined as the employee's regular net take-home wages to ensure that the non-taxable status of Workers' Compensation benefits does not provide an opportunity for an injured worker to earn more while on claim than if they were working. The term claim will not be operative while an employee is receiving such a different form of payment from WCB arising from this claim.

Additional shifts worked by part-time employees, shift and weekend premiums, and statutory holiday premiums (in accordance with the three (3) arbitration awards listed below) shall be taken into account when calculating "regular net take-home wages":

- Surrey Memorial Hospital and BCNU; Donald Munroe; April 1, 1996.
- Peace Arch Hospital and BCNU; Mervin Chertkow; December 2, 1997.
- Vancouver Hospital and Health Sciences Centre and BCNU; Donald Munroe; January 28, 1998.

(b) Reimbursement to Employer

The employee shall pay to the Employer any amount received for loss of wages in settlement of any claims.

(c) Benefit Entitlement

When an employee is on a WCB claim all benefits of the Agreement will continue to accrue. However an employee off work on WCB claim shall receive net wages as defined by (a) above, and benefits equalling but not to exceed their normal entitlement had they not suffered a compensable injury. For the first twenty (20) work days on claim, an employee will accrue statutory holidays and vacation credits. Once the claim exceeds twenty (20) work days, statutory holidays will not accrue.

(d) Approval of Claim

When an employee is granted sick leave with pay and Workers' Compensation leave is subsequently approved for the same period, it shall be considered for the purpose of the record of sick leave credits that the employee was not granted sick leave with pay.

(e) Continuation of Employment

Employees who qualify for Workers' Compensation coverage shall be continued on the payroll and shall not have their employment terminated during the compensable period, except for just cause. Upon return to work following recovery, an employee who was on claim for less than twenty-nine (29) months shall continue in her former job; an employee who was on claim for more than twenty-nine (29) months shall return to an equivalent position, exercising her seniority rights if necessary, pursuant to Article 17.06.

(f) Sick leave shall be paid for one (1) day or less not covered by the Workers' Compensation Act.

31.04 Sick leave pay shall be computed on the basis of scheduled work days and all claims shall be paid on this basis.

31.05 An employee must apply for sick leave pay to cover periods of actual time lost from work owing to sickness or accident.

Where medical and/or dental appointments cannot be scheduled outside the employee's working hours, sick leave with pay shall be granted.

31.06 Employees with more than one (1) year's service who are off because of sickness or accident shall at the expiration of paid sick leave benefits, be continued on the payroll under the heading of leave of absence without pay for a period of not less than one (1) month plus an additional one (1) month for each additional three (3) years of service, or proportion thereof, beyond the first year of service.

Further leave of absence without pay shall be granted upon written request provided that the request is reasonable. The Employer may require the employee to prove sickness or incapacity and provide a medical opinion as to the expected date of return to work. The Employer's decision for further leave of absence without pay shall be in writing.

If no written report is received by the Employer by the end of the leave of absence without pay explaining the employee's condition, the employee's services shall be terminated.

31.07 Employees with less than one (1) year's service who are off because of sickness or accident shall be continued on the payroll under the heading of leave of absence without pay for a period of seven (7) work days.
