Every employee has the right to work in an environment of mutual respect, free from discrimination and harassment. Actions contravening this code of conduct constitute grounds for discipline.

RE: ARTICLE 4.09 (d) OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

An employee's posted shift will not be changed by Management without the employee's agreement unless Management gives the employee at least four (4) hours personal notice. In case of a complete deletion of a shift, Management will first offer the employee an alternative shift equal to or greater than the original shift, on the same day as the completely deleted shift. This provision will not apply when the deletion of the shift is caused by an emergency.

Subject to the operational needs of the business, employees who indicate in advance their availability for unscheduled straight time shifts and/or hours on a call in list posted weekly for that purpose, will be offered the additional hours and/or shifts as they become available, in order of seniority. The call in lists shall be posted not later than 12:01 p.m. on Thursday of each week in the same location as the weekly work schedule.

If an employee has not indicated to the company that he/she wishes his/her name removed from the call in list, and refuses a call in, then his/her name will be placed at the bottom of the call in list on the next date the employee has signed the list.

RE: ARTICLE 9.09 AND 9.10 OF THE AGREEMENT

It is understood that Articles 9.09 and 9.10 shall be interpreted in accordance with the spirit and intent set out below:

The Company and the Union recognize that the restaurant business cycle fluctuates, and consequently that specific scheduling requirements will fluctuate to reflect this reality. The Company agrees that senior employees have an implicit right to obtain more hours through the work week than junior employees; this is a basic tenet of the employer-employee relationship. Therefore to the greatest extent possible, senior employees are entitled to be scheduled to the maximum available straight-time shifts through the work week consistent with the provision of Article 4 - (Days and Hours of Work and Overtime).

Planned reductions in hours and/or shifts will affect the most junior employee in the classification except when a reduction to that employee's shifts or hours would impact on an acceptable level of staffing and except when more senior employees request, in writing, fewer or limited hours and/or shifts during that week.

To ensure that the joint commitment as stated above is put into practice, the Company and the Union agree to meet on a regular basis to develop, monitor and improve the specific scheduling process throughout the entire operation.

When there is a disagreement on a specific scheduling application it shall be grieved at step 2 and failing agreement at that level the matter shall be pursued in accordance with the provisions of Article 12.

RE: SET SHIFTS

The Company and the Union recognize that, over time, employees regularly scheduled (independent of requests) or temporarily assigned shifts come to rely upon that pattern of scheduling.

The parties agree that, while management is entitled to alter lengths of shifts and start and finishing times in accordance with Articles 4.9.09, 9.10 and the Letters of Understanding regarding 9.09 and 9.10 and 4.09(d), an employee's pattern of scheduling, which may include temporary assignments to other classifications, once established for a period of nine (9) months or more, shall not be changed unless:

- i. Such change is necessary to preserve the entitlement to hours of a senior classified employee; or
- ii. In accordance with Articles 8.08(b) and (c) because of the return to work of an employee who regularly worked the shifts prior to a temporary assignment; or
- iii. The failure of the employee to return from an approved leave in accordance with Article 8.08(b) results in a posting to which the employee(s) who worked the temporary assignment is not the successful applicant.

Employees working set shifts or restricted schedules shall remain available to be scheduled for alternate shifts subject to the operating needs of the business unless:

- a. Such employees were hired on a restricted schedule basis; or a request for a restricted schedule has been agreed to in writing by management
- b. In cases (a) above, if there is a bonafide business need to change an employee's pattern of scheduling, the employee will be provided at least four (4) weeks notice of such change.

- c. An employee who restricts his/her availability as outlined in (a) above must wait for shifts to vacate (temporarily or otherwise) prior to increasing his/her hours.
- d. All employees subject to schedule changes shall be notified of the need for the change at least two (2) days in advance of the posting of the work schedule where the change will occur.

RE: OPTION TO WORK A 6TH SHIFT IF AVAILABLE

Notwithstanding the provisions of article 4.01, 4.02, and 4.03, and the letters of understanding regarding 4.09d (call-in list) and 9.09/9.10 (maximization/staffing levels), the parties agree that in an attempt to provide employees the opportunity to maximize their hours, employees may voluntarily opt to be scheduled for, or pick up, a maximum of 6 shifts at straight time, provided they do not exceed 40 hours within one week.

Employees must indicate, in writing prior to the posting of the schedule, their request to be scheduled a 6th shift, if available.

In addition, employees scheduled less than 40 hours in a week may indicate on the call in list posted for this purpose their interest in picking up additional straight time shifts and hours including a 6th shift, provided doing so does not place them in an over 40 hour position.
