BETWEEN:

CR-92 HOLDINGS LTD (COAST MOUNTAIN FUELS)

(Hereinafter known as the Company)
OF THE FIRST PART

AND:

UNITED STEELWORKERS CANADA, LOCAL 1-1937

(Hereinafter known as the Union)
OF THE SECOND PART

PREAMBLE:

The purpose of this Agreement is to secure for the Company, the Union and the Employees the full benefits of orderly and legal collective bargaining, and to ensure to the utmost extent possible the safety and physical welfare of the employees, economy of operation, quality and quantity of output, and protection of property. It is recognized by the Agreement to be the duty of the Company and the Union and the employees to cooperate fully, individually and collectively for the advancement of the said conditions.

The Company and the Union agree to abide by the terms set out in this Agreement. The Union further agrees that it will at all times instruct its members to act in accordance with the terms contained in this Agreement. The company agrees, in the exercise of the functions of Management, that the provisions of this Agreement will be carried out.

Wherever a masculine reference is used in the Agreement, it shall be deemed to include the equivalent feminine reference.

ARTICLE I - BARGAINING AGENCY

Section 1: Recognition

- (a) The Company recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agency of the employees of the Company except confidential employees and those employees with the authority to hire or discharge.
- (b) It is agreed that when a dispute arises as to whether or not a person is an employee within the bargaining unit, it shall be subject to grievance procedure. In the event of failure to reach a satisfactory settlement, it shall be dealt with by arbitration.
- (c) The Union agrees to issue a withdrawal card to employees transferred from the bargaining unit to a job outside the bargaining unit providing that no dispute arises within the meaning of Clause (b) herein.

Section 2: Meetings

The Company and the Union will meet at such time and place as may be mutually agreed upon for the purpose of discussing wages and working conditions and adjusting any matters within the confines of this Agreement which come within the scope of collective bargaining between employer and employee.

Section 3: Bargaining Authority

The Party of the First Part agrees that the bargaining authority of the Party of the Second Part shall not be impaired during the term of this Collective Agreement. The Party of the First Part agrees that the only certification that they will recognize during the terms of this Agreement is that the Party of the Second Part, unless ordered by due process of law to recognize some other bargaining authority.

Section 4: Access to Operation

Official Union representatives shall obtain access to the Company's operations for the purpose of the Agreement which will be granted by the Company on request and subject to such reasonable terms and conditions as may be laid down by the Company.

Section 5: Management Rights

Subject to the terms of this Agreement, all matters concerning the operations of the Company's business shall be reserved to management. The Union recognizes that the Company's rights include the right to:

- (a) Manage and operate its business.
- (b) Maintain order, discipline and efficiency.
- (c) Assign work and determine job content and qualifications for an employee to perform work.
- (d) Discharge, classify, reprimand, suspend for proper cause.
- (e) Increase and decrease working force.
- (f) Make or alter from time to time rules and regulations to be complied with by its employees. These rules and regulations shall not conflict with this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE II - UNION SECURITY

Section 1: Co-operation

The Company will co-operate with the Union in obtaining and retaining as members the employees as defined in this Agreement, and to this end will present to new employees and to all supervisors and foremen the policy herein expressed.

Section 2: Union Shop

All new employees shall, within thirty (30) calendar days after the execution of this Agreement, or thirty (30) calendar days after entering employment, whichever date last occurs, become members of the Union and maintain membership therein throughout the term of this Agreement, as a condition of continued employment.

Section 3: Maintenance of Membership

Any employee who is a member in good standing, or is reinstated as a member of the Union shall as a condition of continued employment maintain such membership in good standing throughout the term of the Agreement.

Section 4: Discharge of Non-Members

Any employee who fails to maintain his membership in the Union as prescribed herein by reason of refusal to pay dues and assessments shall be subject to discharge after seven (7) days' written notice to the company of the said employee's refusal to maintain his membership.

Section 5: Union Membership

- (a) No employee shall be subject to any penalties against his application for membership or reinstatement, except as may be provided for in the USW Constitution, and in accordance with the By-Laws of Local 1-1937.
- (b) Any employee who applies to join the Union pursuant to the provision herein and whose application is rejected by the Union shall not be subject to discharge from employment.

Section 6: Check-off

The Company shall require all new employees at the time of hiring to execute an assignment of wages in duplicate, the forms to be supplied by the Union. Said forms shall be effective upon hiring and be forwarded to the Union not later than fifteen (15) calendar days following the date of hire.

In the event an employee is in arrears of Union dues the Local Union shall notify the Company and the employee by letter, of the amount of back dues owed.

The Company shall remit the dues deducted pursuant to such assignment to the Local Union named therein not less often than once each month, with a written statement of names of the employees for whom the deductions were made and the amount of each deduction. Such deduction shall appear on each employee's annual Statement of Remuneration (T4).

Section 7: Social Insurance Number

The Company shall furnish the Union with the Social Insurance Number of each employee on its payroll on the first occasion when dues are forwarded to the Union after the execution of this Agreement or after the employee enters the employment of the Company, whichever date last occurs.

ARTICLE III - UNION COMMITTEE

Section 1: Definition

For the purpose of this Agreement, when the term "Union Committee" is used, it shall mean the Union committee, members of which are appointed by the Union.

Section 2: Composition

The Union Committee shall consist of not less than two (2) employees who have completed probationary period of employment with the Company who are members of the Union and, wherever possible, they shall be selected on a departmental basis.

Section 3: Notification

The Union will, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Agreement, notify the company in writing of the members of the Shop Committee. The Union or Shop Committee will inform the Company in writing when any member change takes place on the said Committee. No member of the Union Committee will be recognized by the Company unless the above procedure is carried out.

Section 4: Exceptions

The provisions of the Union Committee will not apply in reference to the Accident Prevention Committee, where the members are designated according to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act; however, upon mutual agreement between the Union and Company, the Union Committee may also act as Accident Prevention Committee Members.

ARTICLE IV - HOURS OF WORK

Section 1: Hours and Overtime

- (a) The regular hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per day and forty (40) hours per week with rate and one-half pay for any hours worked over eight (8) hours per day and forty (40) hours per week.
- (b) Any hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours and up to eleven (11) hours in any one day shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half. Any hours worked in excess of eleven (11) hours in any one day shall be paid at the rate of double time.
- (c) For the purpose of computing overtime and days worked, a statutory holiday shall be considered a shift worked.

The Company may, on seventy-two (72) hours' notice change the work week to a Tuesday to Saturday. While on this weekly shift, Saturday will be worked at straight time. Overtime rates of pay will apply for work performed on Sunday or Monday while on this shift.

(e) Banking Overtime

An employee whose employment is terminated shall receive vacation pay at the appropriate percentage of the wages or salary earned during the period of entitlement in accordance with the employee's years of service.

Section 3: Vacation Time

- (a) All vacations shall be pre-scheduled by April 15 in each year of the Contract and any vacations scheduled after shall be on a first come first served basis.
- (b) Vacations for employees shall be taken at such time as mutually agreed upon, when quantity and regularity of production shall not be impaired.
- (c) All earned vacations must be taken.

Section 4: Payment of Vacation Pay

- (a) Payment for vacation shall be paid when the employee takes vacation.
- (b) The calculation and comparison of the vacation pay amounts developed by the percentage of gross wages method will be completed and the greater amount paid to the employee within fourteen (14) days of the common vacation pay cut-off or anniversary date. The Company's present cut-off or anniversary date method shall be continued unless a change is agreed upon between the Company and the Local Union.
- (c) The rate of the employee's regular job will be the rate of the employee's regular job at the date of the common vacation cut-off date or the employee's anniversary date, as the case may be.

(d) On the date when an employee completes one (1), two (2), ten (10), or eighteen (18) years' service and where there is a common cut-off date for all employees in the operation, the employee will receive:

- (i) In the case of one (1) year, one (1%) percent of his gross earnings between the date of employment and the date of the last common cut-off date.
- (ii) In the case of two (2), ten (10), or eighteen (18) years, two (2%) percent of his gross earnings between the date of his last anniversary date and the date of the last common cut-off date.

Section 5: Casual and Part-time Employees

Casual employees who are called in to work on an intermittent basis will receive four (4%) percent of their total wages as vacation pay. Regular part-time employees will have their vacation time and pay based upon their seniority date.

Section 6: Employment Standards Act

Part 4 - Annual Vacation of the Employment Standards Act, S.B.C., 1980, c.10, and amendments hereto, except where varied or modified by the provisions herein, shall become a part of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI - CALL TIME

Section 1: Where No Work

Any employee who is called for work and on reporting finds no work available due to reasons beyond his control, shall be entitled to two (2) hours' at the usual rate. This shall not apply if the Company gives sufficient notice cancelling said call.

Section 2: Where Work Commences

Where an employee is called to work, he shall be paid not less than four (4) hours pay.

ARTICLE XII - HEALTH & WELFARE

The Company agrees to register their employees and fully participate in the USW Health & Welfare Plan #2 and/or have coverage equal to the Plan.

It is also agreed that any improvements that occur in the Health & Welfare Plan #2 will be automatically included in this Memorandum of Agreement.

The employer shall be enrolled in the Employees Family Assistance Program with coverage for all employees. 100% of the cost shall be paid by the employer.

Section 1: Sick Days

All full time employees will receive up to five (5) sick days per year to be used to offset the waiting period when an employee commences the Weekly Indemnity Program.

Section 2: Eye Examinations

Employer will pay up to $100.00 of the cost of the eye examination once in every two years.

ARTICLE XIII - SENIORITY

Section 1: Principle

- (a) The Company recognizes the principle of seniority, competency considered.
- (b) The selection and promotion of supervisory officials shall be entirely a matter for the Company's decision, but in making such election or promotion, length of continuous service shall be given due consideration.

Section 2: Reduction and Recall of Forces

- (a)
 - (i) In the event of a reduction of the forces, the last person hired shall be the first released subject to the competency of the person involved and the provisions of the above section. Where a reduction of forces is caused by emergency conditions, the application of plant seniority may be postponed for such period as may be necessary but not exceeding five (5) working days. If the Company decides to exercise its right under this provision, it shall notify the Union Committee as soon as possible.
 - (ii) When recalling forces after a period of layoff following a reduction of forces, an employee shall be recalled in order of his plant seniority subject to the competency of the person involved and the provisions outlined above.
- (b) During a reduction of forces, where an employee's seniority is such that he will not be able to keep his regular job, he may elect whether or not to apply his seniority to obtain a lower paid job or a job paying the same rate of pay or accept a lay-off until his regular job becomes available, provided however:
 - (i) If during the lay-off period, the employee wishes to return to work and so notifies the Company, he shall be called back to work as soon as his seniority entitles him to a job.
 - (ii) The application of this provision shall not result in an employee, in the exercise of his rights, bumping an employee with less seniority.
- (c) Details of the application of this Section shall be worked out by the Local Union and the Company

Section 3: Retention During Lay-off

It is agreed between the Parties that seniority during lay-offs shall be retained on the following basis.

- (a) Employees with less than one (1) years' service shall retain their seniority for a period of six (6) months.

- (b) Employees with one (1) or more years' service shall retain their seniority for one (1) year, plus one (1) additional month for each year's service up to an additional six (6) months.
 - (i) A laid-off employee's seniority retention under (a) and (b) above is reinstated on the completion of one (1) day's work.
 - (ii) It shall be the employer's responsibility to maintain an address file of his employees and it shall be the employee's responsibility to notify his employer in writing of any change of address.

Section 4: Job Posting

- (a) Vacancies shall be posted in advance for a period of not less than two (2) working days except when otherwise agreed.
- (b) This Section shall not apply to temporary replacements of two (2) weeks or less necessitated by illness, injury, or other leave of absence, or to temporary replacements of longer duration for employees on vacation, but in filling these vacancies senior employees will be given preference in accordance with the contract.

Section 5: Probationary Period

- (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement save and except the provisions of Clause (b) of this Section, it shall be mutually agreed that all employees are hired on probation, the probationary period to continue for forty five (45) working days, during which time they are to be considered temporary workers only, and during this same period no seniority rights shall be recognized. Upon completion of forty five (45) working days, they shall be regarded as regular employees and shall then be entitled to seniority dating from the day on which they entered the Company's employ, provided however, that the probationary period of forty five (45) working days shall only be cumulative within the one hundred and twenty days (120) following the date of entering employment.
- (b) Clause (a) of this Section does not apply to employees who move from one operation of a Company to another operation of the same Company within thirty (30) days for those laid off, and within ninety (90) days for those terminated as a result of a permanent closure.

Section 6: Seniority List

- (a) It is agreed that a seniority list will be supplied to the Union by the Company twice during each calendar year, setting out the name and starting date with the Company and the starting date for department seniority of each regular employee. The Company will advise the Union once each month of changes to the said list.
- (b) All present employees of the Company shall have seniority rights from the date they commenced employment with local Gulf/Petrocan agencies and maintain their seniority through transfers of agencies or ownership of the Company.

Section 7: Reinstatement

- (a) In any case where an employee has been transferred by the Company to a supervisory position and at a later date ceases to be a supervisory worker, and the Company desires to retain his services, it is agreed that reinstatement can be made within the bargaining unit in line with his bargaining unit seniority. The following options shall prevail:
- (i) If the Supervisor has the bargaining unit seniority, he shall revert back to his previously held job, or
 - (ii) If the Supervisor does not have the bargaining unit seniority as outlined in (i) above, he may apply his seniority to a job commensurate with his bargaining unit seniority, competency considered, or,
 - (iii) If the Supervisor does not have the bargaining unit seniority to obtain a job, he shall be laid off and subject to all the provisions of this Agreement.
- (b) Employees who are required for temporary supervisory duty for a period of not more than sixty (60) working days in each calendar year shall continue to accumulate their seniority. These employees will return to the job they held prior to the temporary supervisory assignment.
- (c) Should any special circumstances arise which will require an extension of this provision, the same shall be discussed between the Local Union and Management, and if agreement is reached, the period may be extended.

Section 8: Hiring Preference

- (a) It is agreed between USW-Canada, Local 1-1937 and CR-92 Holdings that preferential hiring will be given to USW members who are laid-off from other companies that are certified to the USW that are doing the same type of work as CR-92 Holdings.
- (b) That former USW members who have lost their seniority retention from an employer who is certified to the USW and does the same type of work as CR-92 Holdings, will be given preferential hiring after number #1 above.

Section 9: Contracting and Sub-contracting

The Company agrees not to use contractors or sub-contractors to displace regular or laid-off employees.

ARTICLE XIV - LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Section 1: Injury or Illness

The Company will grant Leave of Absence to employees suffering injury or illness for the term of the Agreement, subject to a medical certificate if requested by the employer. The employee shall have a reasonable period of time to present such medical certificate. The employee shall report or cause to have reported the injury or illness which requires his absence to the Company as soon as may be reasonably possible. Any cost incurred for a request by the employer for a medical certificate shall be paid 100% by the employer.

Section 2: Maternity Leave

The Company will grant a reasonable period of extended maternity leave without pay to female employees where there is a valid reason.

Section 3: Written Permission

Any employee desiring Leave of Absence must obtain permission in writing from the Company for such leave, except in cases of illness or injury covered previously in this Agreement.

Section 4: Extended Leave

The Company will grant Leave of Absence up to a maximum of six (6) months without pay to employees for compassionate reasons or for educational or training or extended vacation purposes, conditional on the following terms:

- (a) That the employee applies at least one (1) month in advance unless the grounds for such application could not reasonably be foreseen.
- (b) That the employee shall disclose the grounds for application.
- (c) That the Company shall grant such leave where a bona fide reason is advanced by the applicant, or may postpone leave for educational or training purposes where a suitable replacement is not available.
- (d) That the Company shall be required to consult with the Union Committee in respect of any application for leave under this Section.

Section 5: Bereavement Leave

- (a) When death occurs to a member of a regular full-time employee's immediate family, the employee will be granted an appropriate leave of absence for which he shall be compensated at his regular straight-time hourly rate of pay for his regular work schedule for a maximum of three (3) days.
- (b) Members of the employee's immediate family are defined as the employee's spouse, mother, father, brothers, sisters, sons, daughters, mother-in-law, father-in-law, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, step-children, step-parents, grandparents, grandparents-in-law and grandchildren.
- (c) Compensable hours under the terms of this section will be counted as hours worked for the purpose of qualifying for vacations and for recognized paid holidays, but will not be counted as hours worked for the purpose of computing overtime.

Section 6: Jury Duty

Any regular full time employee who is required to perform jury duty, including Coroner's jury duty, or who is required to appear as a Crown witness or Coroner's witness on a day on which he would normally have worked, will be reimbursed by the Company for the difference between the pay received for the said jury or witness duty and his regular straight time hourly rate of pay for his regularly scheduled hours of work. It is understood that such reimbursement shall not be for hours in excess of eight (8) per day or forty (40) per week, less pay received for the said jury or witness duty. The employee will be required to furnish proof of jury or witness duty pay received.

Section 7: Union Business

- (a) The Company will grant Leave of Absence to employees who are appointed or elected to Union office for a period up to and including one (1) year. Further Leave of Absence may be granted by mutual consent. The employee who obtains this Leave of Absence shall return to this Company within thirty (30) calendar days after completion of his term of employment with the Union.
- (b) The Company will grant Leave of Absence to employees who are elected as representatives to attend Union meetings and Union conventions or as members of any Negotiating Committee of USW- in order that they may carry out their duties on behalf of the Union. The Union agrees to give the Company five (5) days' notice before granting Leave of Absence.

Section 8: Public Office

- (a) The Company will grant Leave of Absence for campaign purposes to candidates for Federal, Provincial or Municipal elective public office for periods up to and including eight (8) weeks, provided the Company is given due notice in writing of twenty (20) calendar days, unless the need for such application could not reasonably be foreseen.
- (b) Employees elected or appointed to Federal, Provincial or Municipal office shall be granted as much leave as is necessary during the term of such office. Municipal office holders, where the term of public office is served intermittently, shall give the Company reasonable notice for absences from work for conducting Municipal business.
- (c) The employee who obtains this Leave of Absence shall return to his Company within thirty (30) calendar days after completion of public office.

Section 9: Driver's License and Revocation of License

ARTICLE XIX - ADJUSTMENT OF GRIEVANCES

Section 1: Procedure

The Company and the Union mutually agree that when a grievance arises in the plant coming under the terms of the Agreement, it shall be taken up in the manner set out below:

Step One

The individual employee involved shall first take up the matter with the foreman directly in charge of the work within fourteen (14) days of the date of the said grievance.

Step Two

If the question is not satisfactorily settled in this way, the same individual, with the Union Committee, shall take up the problem with either the Manager or Foreman, or both, as designated by the Company.

Step Three

If a satisfactory settlement is not then reached, the Union Committee shall take up the problem with either the Manager, Owner, or both, as designated by the Company. A statement in writing of the alleged grievance, together with a statement in writing by the foreman, shall be exchanged by the Parties concerned.

Step Four

If the problem is not then satisfactorily solved, it shall be referred to the Union and the Management.

Step Five

If a satisfactory settlement is not then reached, it shall be dealt with by arbitration.

Section 2: Time Limit

If a grievance has not advanced to the next stage under step two, three, four or five within fourteen (14) days after completion of the preceding stage, then the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned and all rights of recourse to the grievance procedure shall be at an end. Where the union is not able to observe this time limit by reason of the absence of the aggrieved employee or the union committee from the plant, the said time limit shall not apply. The union shall be bound to proceed in such a case as quickly as may be reasonably possible.

ARTICLE XX - ARBITRATION

Section 1: Interpretation

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising under this Agreement, which the Parties are unable to settle between themselves as set out in Adjustment of Grievances, the matter shall be determined by arbitration in the following manner:
- (i) Either Party may notify the other Party and the Arbitrator in writing, by registered mail, of the question or questions to be arbitrated.
 - (ii) After receiving such notice and statement, the Arbitrator and the other Party shall, within three (3) days, acknowledge receipt of the question or questions to be arbitrated. The Arbitrator shall be appointed by agreement between the two parties or by the Minister of Labour.
- (b) The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Parties of the First and Second Parts.
- (c) If the Arbitrator finds that an employee has been unjustly suspended or discharged, that employee shall be reinstated by the Company without loss of pay and with all his rights and privileges preserved under the terms of this Agreement, provided always that if it is shown to the Arbitrator that the employee has been in receipt of wages during the period between discharge (or suspension) and reinstatement, or date of failure to re-hire and re-hiring, the amount so received shall be deducted from wages payable by the Company pursuant to this section.
- (d) The Arbitrator shall be required to hand down his decision within fourteen (14) days following completion of the hearing.
